BUSINESS MODEL

Harbour Centre Development Limited is a listed subsidiary of Wharf Real Estate Investment Company Limited, with property and hotel development and investment as its core business.

Flagship assets comprise Marco Polo Hongkong Hotel (“MP Hong Kong”) and The Murray, Hong Kong (“The Murray”). Strategically located in Harbour City in Tsimshatsui, MP Hong Kong has long been a core operating asset for over 50 years. The Murray, a luxury hotel at a prominent location in Central and part of the “Conserving Central” Initiative, opened in 2018.

The orderly exit from Development Properties (“DP”) in mainland China continues. With only one 27%-owned project (Shanghai South Station) left in the land bank after the Suzhou International Finance Square (“SZIFS”) project is completed in 2021, revenue and profit will continue to be volatile and diminish in the coming years.

Other mainland China assets comprise two hotels, Marco Polo Changzhou (“MP Changzhou”) and Niccolo Suzhou.

BUSINESS STRATEGY

The Group endeavours to generate return to shareholders through:

- (a) Owning and operating prime hotels and investment properties in prime locations through continuous product and service enhancement to maximise income and value; and
- (b) Exercising prudent and disciplined financial management at all times.

CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

THE YEAR IN REVIEW

2020 will go down in history as a catastrophe for travel and hospitality industries under the immense weight of the biggest pandemic in a century. Visitor arrivals decreased by 94%. Retail sales decreased by 24%. The entire economy took a knock-on beating. Many businesses downsized and slashed take-home pay to survive. Some did not survive.

Relief measures introduced by government helped lessen the pain but that was only short term. Unless and until cross-border travels and consumption resume to more normal levels, the outlook cannot be optimistic, particularly for these industries. Vaccination will bring hope if that can help put the COVID-19 pandemic under control.

For 2020, this severe pandemic took a heavy toll on the Group's core Hotels and Investment Properties ("IP"). Fortunately, contribution from the diminishing Development Properties ("DP") business was reported with timely completion of the first phase of SZIFS. An unexpected one-off write-back of land appreciation tax for DP saved the Group from the brink of underlying net loss.

To cope with the virtual absence of cross-border demand, the Group's hotels focused on prudent capital discipline and captured market share within the domestic market. Staycation and dining packages with signature experiences were launched at MP Hong Kong and The Murray, resulting in sequentially quarter-on-quarter improvement in occupancy and revenue.

In particular, The Murray achieved good occupancy and revenue per available room ("RevPAR") among its competitive set. However, given the extreme operating environment and plunging room rates across the industry, even highly stringent cost-saving measures could not help attain operating breakeven level.

In mainland China, the Group will focus on selling the remaining DP units at the 80%-owned SZIFS and 27%-owned Shanghai South Station project.

BUSINESS PERFORMANCE

The COVID-19 pandemic seriously impacted the Group's operating performance in Hong Kong despite the partial relief from government. Total revenue from Hong Kong declined by 44% to HK$676 million (2019: HK$1,207 million) and operating profit by 94% to HK$21 million (2019: HK$338 million).

DP sales in mainland China resumed after a temporary halt in construction and sales in the first half caused by COVID-19. Total revenue from mainland China increased to HK$2,587 million (2019: HK$125 million) and operating profit to HK$439 million (2019: HK$130 million) due to recognition of the first phase of SZIFS.

Overall, the Group's consolidated revenue increased by 137% to HK$3,313 million (2019: HK$1,395 million) but operating profit declined by 4% to HK$510 million (2019: HK$531 million). Underlying net profit declined by 5% to HK$413 million (2019: HK$435 million), inclusive of HK$361 million one-off net tax write-back, and lowest since 2011.

Unrealised IP revaluation deficits and impairment provision for hotels were reported. Group loss attributable to equity shareholders amounted to HK$1,119 million (2019: profit of HK$117 million).

In mainland China, the handover of SZIFS to buyers started in June 2020 with full completion expected in 2021. The sale of SZIFS represented the main contributor to the Group's net cash inflow, which amounted to HK$1,053 million. Net debt of HK$1,516 million was reported as at the end of the year (31 December 2019: HK$1,725 million).

As at the end of the year, the Group's total assets aggregated to HK$24.0 billion and net asset value per share was HK$21.84. In view of the poor operating results, the Board of Directors (the "Board") cancelled all regular dividends for 2020 and instead declared special dividends out of a non-operating tax write-back. A second special interim dividend of 7 HK cents per share will increase full year dividend to 14 HK cents (2019: 22 HK cents) per share.

OUTLOOK

While the vaccine brings hope amid the pandemic, resumption of cross-border travel may still take an extended period. Gradual and orderly relaxation of quarantine measures with mainland China and other key markets is top priority to help save the beleaguered sector.

As a significant increase in cross-border demand is unlikely in the near term, 2021 will be no less challenging than 2020, particularly with government relief substantially scaled back. The Group keeps navigating the storm with innovative promotion and marketing efforts to capture local spending. Meanwhile, the Group continues to exercise strict cost control and defer all non-essential capital expenditures to conserve cash.

In mainland China, the Group's 233-room luxury hotel Niccolo Suzhou is counting down to soft opening on 1 April 2021.

Looking into 2021 and beyond, the road to recovery will be challenging, while the development of pandemic continues to lead the way to paradigm shifts in different business aspects. The Group is proactively refining its business strategies to embrace the fundamental shifts and structural change, which is the key to excel in the era of new normal.

APPRECIATION

On behalf of all Shareholders and my fellow Directors, I wish to extend my heartfelt gratitude to all customers and business partners for their continued trust and support, and all staff for their tremendous contributions and commitment in the most difficult year ever.

BUSINESS AND FINANCIAL REVIEW

BUSINESS REVIEW

Hong Kong

Investment Properties

Extreme market conditions brought about by the pandemic imposed intense pressure on the retail market.

Various rounds of social distancing measures throughout the year, including bursts of closure affecting dine-ins and cinemas, have taken a heavy toll on the Group and tenants. Rental concession and significant investment to promote sales were made. Hence, IP revenue and operating profit decreased by 36% and 39% respectively.

The portfolio was revalued down by 7% by the independent property valuer.

Hotel

Without inbound tourists, Hotel sector was one of the worst hit. Local “staycation” business became the only meaningful source of income. As a result, hotel revenue plummeted by 54% and a material operating loss was reported.

As consolation in the midst of this industry gloom, the signature experiences of The Murray enabled it to achieve enviable occupancy and the highest RevPAR among its direct competitors. The Murray is also proud to become the only Hong Kong hotel in The Leading Hotels of the World exclusive loyalty programme to reach a wider range of guests seeking exceptional travel experiences, and will be ready, when inbound travel revives, to be ahead of the curve.

During the year, MP Hong Kong was also selected among the Top 10 ‘Best Hotels & Resorts in Hong Kong’ in the 2020 DestinAsian Readers’ Choice Awards for the third consecutive year. Cucina was among a handful restaurants in Hong Kong to have achieved the much-coveted global Forbes four-star rating.

Mainland China

Properties

Exit from the DP segment is well underway to sell the remaining units at the 80%-owned SZIFS and 27%-owned Shanghai South Station project. Due to phased completion of SZIFS, revenue increased to HK$2,534 million and operating profit to HK$448 million.

As at the end of 2020, the Group’s attributable land bank (net of recognised sales) was approximately 0.4 million square metres. Net order book amounted to RMB2.0 billion for 67,000 square metres. Other phases in SZIFS are expected to be completed in 2021.

Hotel

Amidst the poor market conditions, COVID-19 restrictions and increased competition, MP Changzhou continued to suffer from an operating loss.

The new luxury hotel at the top of SZIFS is counting down to soft opening on 1 April 2021 as Niccolo Suzhou, operated by Wharf Hotels Management Limited. It will comprise 233 spacious, contemporary chic guest rooms and will command a stunning view of Jinji Lake.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

(I) Review of 2020 Final Results

Amidst the protracted disruptions caused by COVID-19, Hotel segment incurred unprecedented losses while IP segment recorded a significant decline. Timely recognition of DP sales helped to avert an underlying net loss, while a one-off net tax write-back of HK$361 million (inclusive of land appreciation tax write-back of HK$504 million and corresponding charge for income tax) enabled the Group to report an underlying net profit of HK$413 million (2019: HK$435 million), still its lowest since 2011. However, after revaluation deficits for IP and hotels, the Group recorded a net loss of HK$1,119 million (2019: profit of HK$117 million) attributable to shareholders.

Revenue and Operating Profit

Group revenue increased by 137% to HK$3,313 million (2019: HK$1,395 million) principally due to recognition of DP sales of SZIFS units. Notwithstanding increase in revenue, operating profit decreased by 4% to HK$510 million (2019: HK$531 million) with losses incurred by Hotel and lower contribution from IP.

Hotel segment was the hardest hit, with revenue nosediving to HK$381 million (2019: HK$835 million), resulting in an operating loss of HK$295 million (2019: loss of HK$76 million). The losses have been mitigated by proactive cost controls and Government subsidies of HK$53 million.

IP segment revenue decreased by 36% to HK$238 million (2019: HK$373 million) and operating profit by 39% to HK$207 million (2019: HK$341 million) due to decimation of turnover rent and base rent concessions offered to retail tenants.

DP revenue increased to HK$2,534 million (2019: HK$38 million) on completion of the first phase of SZIFS, contributing operating profit of HK$448 million (2019: HK$131 million). Including HK$361 million of one-off net tax write-back and one-off fair value write-down for Shanghai South Station project, DP recorded an underlying net profit of HK$421 million (2019: HK$166 million).

Investment operating profit, primarily from dividend income, increased by 22% to HK$143 million (2019: HK$117 million).

IP Revaluation Change

IP were stated at fair value, principally based on an independent valuation as at 31 December 2020, giving rise to a revaluation deficit of HK$598 million (2019: HK$161 million). An attributable net revaluation deficit of HK$555 million (2019: HK$161 million) was debited to the consolidated income statement.

Hotel Impairment

Impairment provision for hotels of HK$1,051 million (2019: HK$157 million) was made mainly for The Murray in Hong Kong and Niccolo Suzhou based on independent valuations, reflecting the weak market conditions. An attributable net impairment provision of HK$977 million (2019: HK$157 million) was debited to the consolidated income statement.

BUSINESS AND FINANCIAL REVIEW

Finance Costs

Net finance costs amounted to HK$51 million (2019: HK$53 million) after interest capitalisation of HK$16 million (2019: HK$41 million) for the DP projects.

Share of Results (after Tax) of Associates

Attributable loss from associate amounted to HK$75 million (2019: profit of HK$76 million).

Income Tax

Taxation credit for the year amounted to HK$175 million (2019: expense of HK$89 million) mainly due to a one-off land appreciation tax write-back of HK$504 million, partly reduced by the corresponding charge on income tax, for DP upon clearance with relevant tax authorities.

Profit/Loss Attributable to Equity Shareholders

Group loss attributable to equity shareholders for the year was HK$1,119 million (2019: profit of HK$117 million). Loss per share was HK$1.58 (2019: earnings per share (“EPS”) HK$0.17) based on 708.8 million issued shares.

Excluding the net IP revaluation deficits of HK$555 million (2019: HK$161 million) and net impairment provision for hotel properties of HK$977 million (2019: HK$157 million), underlying net profit (a performance indicator of the Group’s major business segments and arrived at after excluding the attributable net IP revaluation loss and hotel impairment) attributable to equity shareholders for the year was HK$413 million (2019: HK$435 million), representing a decrease of 5%. EPS before hotel property provision and IP revaluation deficits were HK$0.58 (2019: HK$0.61) based on 708.8 million issued shares.

(II) Review of Financial Position, Liquidity, Resources and Commitments

Shareholders’ and Total Equity

As at 31 December 2020, shareholders’ equity decreased to HK$15,482 million (2019: HK$17,084 million), equivalent to HK$21.84 per share (2019: HK$24.10 per share). The decrease was mainly due to the reported attributable loss of HK$1,119 million and investment revaluation deficit of HK$540 million directly dealt with in reserves. Including non-controlling interests, the Group’s total equity amounted to HK$15,929 million (2019: HK$17,467 million).

Hotel properties are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment provision in accordance with prevailing Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards (“HKFRSs”). Restating hotel properties based on independent valuation as at 31 December 2020 would give rise to a revaluation surplus of HK$3,831 million and increase the Group’s shareholders’ equity as at 31 December 2020 to HK$19,313 million, equivalent to HK$27.25 per share.

Assets and Liabilities

Total assets were reported at HK$23,967 million (2019: HK$28,385 million). Total business assets, excluding bank deposits and cash and deferred tax assets, amounted to HK$22,370 million (2019: HK$26,101 million).

Geographically, the Group’s business assets in Hong Kong decreased to HK$14,194 million (2019: HK$15,616 million), representing 63% (2019: 60%) of the Group’s total business assets. Mainland business assets decreased to HK$7,242 million (2019: HK$9,212 million), representing 32% (2019: 35%) of the Group’s total business assets.

BUSINESS AND FINANCIAL REVIEW

Hotels

Hotel properties comprised of The Murray (HK$6,145 million), MP Hong Kong (HK$22 million), MP Changzhou (HK$417 million) and Niccolo Suzhou (HK$560 million in its current state under development) together with total net book value at HK$7,144 million (2019: HK$7,408 million).

Investment Properties

IP amounted to HK$5,148 million (2019: HK$6,480 million), all of which in Hong Kong (2019: HK$5,532 million) after reclassification of the IP portion of SZIFS to hotel on completion by end of June 2020.

Properties for Sale/Interests in Associates and Joint Ventures

DP amounted to HK$4,947 million (2019: HK$4,777 million), mainly representing the DP portion of SZIFS with its remaining outstanding construction cost accrued upon completion by end of the year. DP undertaken through associates and joint ventures amounted to HK$1,082 million (2019: HK$2,853 million).

Equity Investments

Equity investments amounted to HK$3,546 million (2019: HK$4,065 million), including mainly blue-chip equity investment held for long term growth and reliable dividend return. The value of the whole portfolio represents 15% (2019: 14%) of the Group's total assets and each investment within which is individually not material and less than 5% of the Group's total assets for risk diversification. The portfolio recorded revaluation deficit of HK$540 million (2019: surplus of HK$10 million) as other comprehensive income with accumulated revaluation deficit of HK$80 million (2019: surplus of HK$460 million).

Pre-sale Deposits and Proceeds

Pre-sale deposits and proceeds decreased by HK$1,128 million to HK$2,044 million (2019: HK$3,172 million) upon recognition of revenue exceeding further contracted sales.

Net Debt and Gearing

At 31 December 2020, the Group had net debt of HK$1,516 million (2019: HK$1,725 million), consisting of HK$1,294 million in cash (mainly held in mainland China) and HK$2,810 million in bank borrowings (mainly drawn in Hong Kong). Notwithstanding the reported losses, mainly resulting from Hotel's performance and revaluation of assets amid COVID-19 pandemic, liquidity position of the Group remains healthy with ample financial resources for foreseeable commitments and working capital requirements. Gearing also remains low and was at 10% on total equity as at 31 December 2020 (2019: 10%).

BUSINESS AND FINANCIAL REVIEW

Finance and Availability of Facilities and Funds

As at 31 December 2020, the Group's available loan facilities amounted to HK$4,991 million, of which HK$2,810 million were utilised. Certain banking facilities were secured by bank deposits of HK$356 million (equivalent of RMB300 million) (31 December 2019: mortgage over the Group's properties held for sales with total carrying value of HK$5,701 million).

The Group's debts were principally denominated in Hong Kong dollars ("HKD") and Renminbi ("RMB") at floating rates.

The use of derivative financial instruments is strictly controlled. Instruments entered into by the Group are mainly used for managing and hedging interest rate and currency exposures.

The Group continued to maintain a reasonable level of surplus cash denominated principally in HKD and RMB to facilitate business and investment activities. As at 31 December 2020, the Group had also accumulated a portfolio of liquid listed equity investments with an aggregate market value of HK$3,546 million (2019: HK$4,065 million), which is available for use if necessary.

Net Cash Flows for Operating and Investing Activities

For the year under review, the Group recorded a net cash inflow in operating activities of HK$170 million (2019: HK$1,007 million) primarily attributable to sales proceeds from SZIFS project exceeding construction cost and tax payments of Mainland projects. For investing activities, the Group generated a net cash inflow of HK$152 million (2019: outflow HK$1,858 million) mainly from Shanghai South Station project.

Commitments to Capital and Development Expenditure

As at 31 December 2020, major capital and development expenditure planned for the forthcoming years totalled HK$1.4 billion, of which HK$0.4 billion was committed for Mainland DP and hotel.

The above expenditures will be funded by internal financial resources, including cash currently on hand, as well as bank loans. Other available resources include equity investments that can be liquidated when in need.

(III) Dividend Policy

Apart from compliance with the applicable legal requirements, the Company adopts a policy which targets to provide shareholders with reasonably stable and consistent dividends. Dividend payout from year to year will be subject to upward or downward adjustments as decided by the Board of Directors (the "Board") after taking into account of the Group's immediate as well as expected prevailing financial performance, cash flow, financial position, capital commitments and future requirements as well as the general business and economic environments.

The Board will review this policy from time to time with reference to its future prospect, capital requirements and other changing circumstances both internally and externally.

(IV) Human Resources

The Group had approximately 1,200 employees as at 31 December 2020. Employees are remunerated according to their job responsibilities and the market pay trend with a discretionary annual performance bonus as variable pay for rewarding individual performance and contributions to the Group's achievement and results.

(II) Appointment and Election of Directors

In accordance with the Articles of Association of the Company, all Directors are subject to retirement by rotation at an annual general meeting (“AGM”) at least once every three years. Any new Directors appointed by the Board either to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the Board are subject to re-election by shareholders of the Company (the “Shareholder(s)”) at the next general meeting of the Company. At each AGM, at least one-third of the Directors for the time being shall retire from office and the retiring Directors shall be eligible for re-election.

The Board, with support of the Nomination Committee, is responsible for developing and formulating the relevant procedures for nomination and appointment of Directors, monitoring the appointment of Directors and assessing the independence of INEDs. Mr Roger K H Luk, Mr Peter Z K Pao, and Hon Frankie C M Yick will retire at the AGM to be held on 4 May 2021. The retiring Directors, being eligible, offer themselves for re-election. (VI) Operation of the Board

The Company is headed by an effective Board which makes decisions objectively in the interests of the Company. The Company's management has closely monitored changes to regulations that affect its corporate affairs and businesses, and changes to accounting standards, and adopted appropriate reporting format in its interim report, annual report and other related documents to present a balanced, clear and comprehensible assessment of the Group's performance, position and prospects. (G) RISK MANAGEMENT AND INTERNAL CONTROL SYSTEMS

(I) Risk Governance Structure

The Board has overall responsibilities for the Group’s risk management and internal control systems to safeguard the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole. To this end, the Board oversees and approves the Group’s risk management and internal control strategies and policies, which are aimed at evaluating and determining the nature and extent of the risks that are compatible with the Group’s strategic objectives and risk appetite, with main purpose for provision of reasonable assurance against material misstatement or loss rather than absolute elimination of the risk of failure to achieve business objectives.

Reporting to the Board, the Audit Committee is delegated with the authority and responsibility for ongoing monitoring and evaluation of the effectiveness of the relevant systems, with assistance of the Risk Management and Internal Control Committee.

In adherence to its long standing principle for prudent management, the Group has put in place a robust and inclusive framework, on leverage of the resources of the Wharf REIC Group in internal audit and other corporate control functions, to manage risks at different business operations in diversified segments within the organisation, diagrammatically illustrated as below:

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

RMICC plays a central role in the ongoing management of risk management and internal control system of the Group with the objective of assisting the Audit Committee in discharging of its oversight responsibility over risk management and internal control system of the Group. One of its major functions is to assist the Audit Committee to conduct periodical reviews of the effectiveness of the risk management and internal control systems of the Group based on the procedure as further explained below.

DRMICCs are set up at the level of business units with composition of the respective key management staff together with those charged with the internal control functions. Acting as divisional advisory bodies, DRMICCs are entrusted with implementation of the Group's control policies and on-going assessment of control activities in the relevant business units.

(II) Practices and Processes

With diversified range of business activities, the Group is operating in dynamic environments with varying risk exposures according to different business segments. Risk management and internal controls within the Group are not just serial process but dynamic and integrated operations embedded in the day-to-day routines with the primary ownership vested on the respective business units under stewardship residing with the Board.

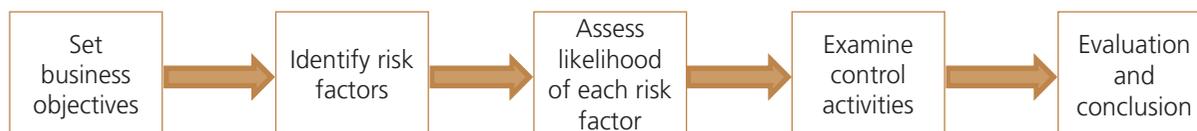

Areas of responsibility of each operational unit are clearly defined with specific limits of authority in place to ensure effective checks and balances. Procedures have been designed for safeguarding assets against unauthorised use or disposition, maintenance of proper accounting records, assurance of the reliability of financial information for internal use or publication and compliance with relevant legislation and regulations. Risk management system, internal control measures and procedures are continuously under review and being improved where necessary in response to changes in business, operating and regulatory environments.

Furthermore, Whistleblowing Policy & Procedures has been adopted by the Group, with the authority and responsibility being delegated to the Audit Committee. Such Whistleblowing Policy is for employees and those who deal with the Group (e.g. customers and suppliers) to raise concerns, in confidence, with the Company Secretary, and any and all relevant complaints received may then be referred to the Audit Committee and/or Chairman of the Company about possible improprieties in any matter related to the Group.

The internal audit function monitors compliance with policies and standards and the effectiveness of internal control structures across the whole Group. Findings regarding internal control matters are reported to the Audit Committee. The external auditors have access to a full set of internal audit reports.

(III) Periodical Reviews

Under the leadership of RMICC, system reviews in a comprehensive approach on basis of COSO (Committee of Sponsoring Organisations of the Treadway Commission) framework are conducted throughout the Group at least annually. Each business unit, through the co-ordination of DRMICCs, makes a self-assessment by a process as illustrated in the following flow diagram.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

DRMICCs report on their reviews and findings, with the conclusions as to the effectiveness of the risk management and control activities of each individual business unit while RMICC will draw an overall review and conclusion for reporting to the Audit Committee and the Board. Such reviewing exercise is carried out on regular basis and affords good opportunities for the Group to identify and prioritise risks, and to develop and manage appropriate measures to control risks within acceptable levels and with a greater focus on anti-fraud measures.

(IV) Annual Confirmation

During the financial year ended 31 December 2020, the Audit Committee, with the assistance of RMICC and DRMICCs, has conducted a review of the effectiveness of the Group's internal control system and procedures covering all controls, including financial, operational and compliance and risk management, and the adequacy of, inter alia, resources, qualifications, experience and training of staff of the Company's accounting and financial reporting function. Confirmations from management in the form of certification that risk management and internal control procedures are functioning effectively to meet the respective financial reporting, operational and compliance needs, are submitted by business and corporate unit heads to RMICC for consolidation and reporting to the Audit Committee.

Based on the result of the review as reported by the Audit Committee, in respect of the financial year ended 31 December 2020, the Directors considered that the risk management and internal control systems and procedures of the Group were effective and adequate, and the Group has duly complied with the requirements under the CG Code relating to the risk management and internal control.

DIRECTORS' REPORT

(J) PRINCIPAL RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

The global and local economies are always facing a barrage of challenges. Slower and less balanced growth is observed, with moderation experienced in advanced economies. The local political tensions, ongoing Sino-US conflicts, post-Brexit impacts and heightened financial volatility continued to cause uncertainties. Furthermore, COVID-19 outbreak since early 2020 has sharply put every economic sector at stake.

The following is a description of how our business segments interacting with the principal risks and uncertainties that are considered to be significant as it currently stands and with potential affecting the Group's businesses results of operations and financial conditions. However, this is non-exhaustive as there may be other risks and uncertainties arise resulting from changes in economic and other conditions over time. The Group employs a risk management and internal control framework to identify current and foreseeable risks at different levels of the organisation so as to take preventive actions to avoid or mitigate their adverse impact.

Risks pertaining to Hotel

The Group owns 4 hotels in Hong Kong and mainland China. Hotel performance is usually subject to a high degree of fluctuations caused by both predictable and unpredictable factors including seasonality, social stability, epidemic diseases and changes in economic conditions. Each factor has varied the development pattern of the tourism and hospitality industry with heavy reliance on the growth of visitor arrivals from mainland China.

The spread of COVID-19, in particular, posted the risk to a new height to the Hotel segment. The spread is rapid making the global economic outlook uncertain. The risks of adverse health and safety, operational and financial impacts arising from the pandemic and the associated governmental responses are significant. The counter measures like restriction on cross border travels and social distancing adopted by governments around the world to mitigate the impact of the pandemic unavoidably cause disruptions and economic effects and impact our operations and financial results leading to decreases in revenue, increases in costs and adverse effects on profits and cash flows.

In this respect, Hotel segment closely assesses the impact of COVID-19 particularly on revenue and cash flow as well as cost control and operational efficiency to mitigate the adverse financial impacts. Furthermore, it will also continue to assess the geopolitical outlook and economic development of different countries for building its portfolios and exposures to match with the Group's risk appetite. It also takes continual reviews of competition, legal and political changes as well as market trends for setting its business strategies including marketing and pricing to protect and drive profitability.

Risks pertaining to IP

IP segment is the Group's core business with IP asset accounted for 23% of the Group's total business assets. With the majority of the properties locating in Hong Kong and mainland China, the general economic climate, regulatory changes, government policies and the political conditions in both Hong Kong and mainland China may have a significant impact on the Group's overall financial results and positions. The Group's rental income may experience more frequent adjustments resulting from competition arising from oversupply in retail and office areas. Furthermore, rental levels may also be impacted by external economic and market conditions including but not limited to the fluctuations in general supply and demand, performance in stock markets and financial volatility, which may indirectly affect the Group's IP performance.

DIRECTORS' REPORT

The spread of COVID-19 and the resultant governmental measures put economic pressure on the tenants of the Group. The weakening of retail markets affects the Group's financial results leading to decreases in revenue and adverse effects on profits and cash flows.

IPs are stated at fair values in accordance with the Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards in the consolidated statement of financial position at each reporting period. The fair values are provided by independent professional surveyors, using the income capitalisation approach which capitalised the net income of properties and takes into account the significant adjustments on term yield to account for the risk upon reversion and changes in fair value are recognised to the consolidated income statement. Given the size of the Group's IP portfolio, any significant change in the IP values may overwhelmingly affect the Group's results that may not be able to reflect the Group's operating and cash flow performance.

In this respect, the Group regularly assesses changes in economic environment and keeps alert to market needs and competitors' offensives in order to maintain competitiveness. Continuously maintaining the quality of the assets and building up a diversified and high-quality tenant-mix also help the Group to grow revenue and to resist in a sluggish economy. In addition, long-range planned and tactical promotions are seamlessly executed for maintaining the IPs' leading brands and value.

Risks pertaining to DP

DP segment in the mainland China dominated the Group's financial performance between 2012 and 2017. Exit from this segment continues and the Group DP land bank has not been replenished, revenue and profit from the depleted land bank and future contribution from China DP will become volatile in next few years. The segment will also continue to be subject to economic, political and legal developments in mainland China as well as in the economies in the surrounding region.

Risks pertaining to investment

The Group holds a portfolio of long-term investments, which accounted for about 16% of the Group's total assets (excluding cash). The portfolio is held for long term growth potential with reasonable return, consisting of mainly blue chips listed investments with each investment individually immaterial to the Group's total asset. Given that the volatility of the stock market, the portfolio is subject to market fluctuation and may affect the net asset value of the Group. The composition and performance of the portfolio is constantly assessed and monitored by top management.

Legal and Regulatory Compliance risk

Whilst the Group has a diversified portfolio of business operations across Hong Kong and various mainland cities, any failure to anticipate the trend of regulatory changes or cope with relevant requirements may result in non-compliance of a local laws or regulation, leading to not only financial loss but also reputational damage to the Group. In mitigation of relevant risks, the Group actively assesses the effect of relevant developments and engages closely with regulatory authorities and external advisors on new laws and regulations and also trending legislations to ensure relevant requirements are properly complied with in an effective manner.

DIRECTORS' REPORT

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the members of Harbour Centre Development Limited

(incorporated in Hong Kong with limited liability)

OPINION

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Harbour Centre Development Limited and its subsidiaries ("the Group") set out on pages 58 to 125, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 December 2020, the consolidated income statement, the consolidated statement of comprehensive income, the consolidated statement of changes in equity and the consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 31 December 2020 and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards ("HKFRSs") issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("HKICPA") and have been properly prepared in compliance with the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing ("HKSAs") issued by the HKICPA. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the HKICPA's Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants ("the Code") and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Valuation of completed investment properties ("IP")

Refer to accounting policy D(i) and note 8 to the consolidated financial statements

The key audit matter

How the matter was addressed in our audit

The Group holds a portfolio of completed IP (primarily retail properties) located in Hong Kong which accounted for 21% of the Group's total assets as at 31 December 2020.

The fair values of the completed IP as at 31 December 2020 were assessed by the Group based on independent valuations prepared by a qualified external property valuer which took into account the net income of each property, allowing for reversionary potential and redevelopment potential, where appropriate.

The changes in fair value of completed IP recorded in the consolidated income statement amounting to HK$598 million for the year ended 31 December 2020.

We identified valuation of completed IP as a key audit matter because these properties are significant to the Group's total assets and a small adjustment to or variances in the assumptions and data used to compute the valuation of individual properties, when aggregated, could have a significant impact on the Group's profit and because the valuation of completed IP is inherently subjective and requires significant judgement and estimation, particularly in determining market rents and capitalisation rates, which increases the risk of error or potential management bias.

Our audit procedures to assess the valuation of completed IP included the following:

- obtaining and inspecting the valuation reports prepared by the external property valuer engaged by the Group;
- meeting the external property valuer, to discuss and challenge the key estimates and assumptions adopted in the valuations, including the prevailing market rents and capitalisation rates, and to assess the independence, objectivity, qualifications and expertise of the external property valuer in the properties being valued;
- with the assistance of our internal property valuation specialists, assessing the valuation methodology adopted by the external property valuer and comparing the key estimates and assumptions adopted in the valuation of each completed IP, including market rents and capitalisation rates, with available market data and government statistics; and
- conducting site visits to the completed IP and comparing tenancy information, including market rents and occupancy rates adopted by the external property valuer with underlying contracts and related documentation, on a sample basis.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Assessing potential impairment of hotel properties

Refer to accounting policies D(ii), G(ii) and note 9 to the consolidated financial statements

The key audit matter

How the matter was addressed in our audit

As at 31 December 2020, the Group held a number of hotel properties located in Hong Kong and Mainland China which were stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses at a total amount of HK$7,144 million.

At the financial reporting date, the Group reviewed the hotel properties to determine whether there were any indicators of impairment. When indicators of impairment are identified management assesses the recoverable amount of the hotel property. An impairment loss is recognised as an expense in the consolidated income statement if the carrying amount of the hotel property exceeds its recoverable amount.

The calculation of the recoverable amount of a hotel property is performed by the Group's external property valuer. The recoverable amount is determined based on the value in use of the hotel property by discounting the projected cash flows associated with the hotel property using a risk-adjusted discount rate. The preparation of discounted cash flow forecasts can be highly subjective and requires the exercise of significant management judgement and estimation, in particular in determining forecast occupancy rates, forecast revenue per available room, the growth rates and the discount rates applied.

As at 31 December 2020, the carrying amount of the Group's hotels in Hong Kong and Mainland China exceeded their recoverable amounts and impairment loss of HK$1,051 million was recognised during the year accordingly.

We identified assessing the potential impairment of hotel properties as a key audit matter because of the significant management judgement and estimation required in making assumptions and estimations which are inherently uncertain and could be subject to management bias.

Our audit procedures to assess the potential impairment of hotel properties included the following:

- discussing with management whether there were any indicators of impairment of individual hotel properties as at 31 December 2020;
- where there were indicators of impairment, assessing whether the impairment assessment models were prepared in accordance with the requirements of the prevailing accounting standards;
- obtaining and inspecting the recoverable amount calculations prepared by the external property valuer engaged by the Group;
- assessing the qualifications, experience and expertise of the external property valuer in the properties being valued;
- with the assistance of our internal property valuation specialists, assessing the valuation methodology adopted by the property valuers and comparing the key estimates and assumptions adopted in the impairment assessment models for hotel properties, including forecast hotel room rates, forecast occupancy rates, growth rates and the discount rates, with available market data and government statistics;
- evaluating the historical accuracy of management's calculations of the recoverable amounts of hotel properties by comparing the forecasts at the end of the previous financial year for occupancy rates, revenue per available room and growth rates with the actual outcomes in the current year; and
- performing sensitivity analyses to determine the extent of change in those estimates that, either individually or collectively, would be required for the hotel properties to be materially misstated and considering the likelihood of such a movement in those key estimates arising and whether there was any evidence of management bias.

INFORMATION OTHER THAN THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND AUDITOR'S REPORT THEREON

The directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises all the information included in the annual report, other than the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE DIRECTORS FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The directors are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with HKFRSs issued by the HKICPA and the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The directors are assisted by the Audit Committee in discharging their responsibilities for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. This report is made solely to you, as a body, in accordance with section 405 of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSA's will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSA's, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Audit Committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

We also provide the Audit Committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence and communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence and, where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with the Audit Committee, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Chan Tsz Kei.

The Group manages its diversified businesses according to the nature of services and products provided. Management has determined four reportable operating segments for measuring performance and allocating resources. The segments are hotel, investment property, development property and investment. No operating segment has been aggregated to form reportable segments.

Hotel segment represents the operations of The Murray, Hong Kong (“The Murray”), Marco Polo Hongkong Hotel (“MP Hong Kong”), Marco Polo Changzhou (“MP Changzhou”) and Niccolo Suzhou.

Investment property segment primarily represents the property leasing of the Group’s investment properties in Hong Kong.

Development property segment encompasses activities relating to the acquisition, development and sales of trading properties primarily in Mainland China.

Investment segment represents equity investment in global capital markets.

Segment business assets principally comprise all tangible assets, intangible assets and current assets directly attributable to each segment with the exception of bank deposits and cash and deferred tax assets.

Revenue and expenses are allocated with reference to income generated by those segments and expenses incurred by those segments or which arise from the depreciation of assets attributable to those segments.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

3. IMPAIRMENT LOSS ON HOTEL PROPERTIES

The Group's hotel properties are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses. The carrying amounts of hotel properties are reviewed at the end of each reporting period to determine whether there is any indication of impairment. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount is estimated.

The recoverable amount of hotel properties is the greater of its fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to hotel properties.

In assessing the impairments, the Group engaged Knight Frank Petty Limited ("Knight Frank"), an independent firm of professional surveyors with extensive experience in valuing properties in Hong Kong and Mainland China. Knight Frank has valued the Group's hotel properties on a market value basis and has taken into account the net income of the respective properties, allowing for reversionary potential where appropriate.

Based on the Group's assessment with reference to Knight Frank's independent valuation, an impairment of HK$676 million (2019: HK$Nil) for The Murray in Hong Kong, HK$369 million (2019: HK$Nil) for Niccolo Suzhou and HK$6 million (2019: HK$157 million) for MP Changzhou in Mainland China was recognised during the year, the carrying value after an impairment amounted to HK$6,145 million (2019: HK$6,973 million) for The Murray, HK$560 million (2019: HK$736 million which was classified as investment properties under development) for Niccolo Suzhou and HK$417 million (2019: HK$413 million) for MP Changzhou.

For the independent valuation, key assumptions used in the discounted cash flows included long-term growth rate of room rate ranging from 3% to 4%, long-term occupancy rate ranging from 71% to 75%, discount rates ranging from 5.5% to 6.5% and the projected net cash flows for the remaining lease term.

The above methodology and key assumptions adopted for determining the impairment for hotel properties for the year ended 31 December 2020 were not significantly changed from the methodology and key assumptions adopted by the Group for the year ended 31 December 2019.

There are no ongoing payments to be made under the terms of the land lease, other than payments based on rateable values set by the relevant government authorities. These payments vary from time to time and are payable to the relevant government authorities.

(d) Investment properties revaluation

The Group's investment properties under development are stated at fair value at the earlier of when the fair value first becomes reliably measurable and the date of completion of the property.

The investment properties stated at fair value as at 31 December 2020 were revalued by Knight Frank, an independent firm of professional surveyors who have among their staff Fellows of the Hong Kong Institute of Surveyors with extensive experience in valuing properties in Hong Kong and Mainland China. Knight Frank has valued the investment properties on a market value basis and has taken into account the net income of the respective properties, allowing for reversionary potential and the redevelopment potential of the properties where appropriate.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The revaluation differences arising on revaluation on investment properties is recognised in the line item “Changes in fair value of investment properties” on the face of the consolidated income statement.

Investment properties are measured at fair value at the end of the reporting period across the three levels of the inputs to the revaluation methodologies in accordance with HKFRS 13, Fair value measurement (“HKFRS 13”). The levels are defined as follows:

Level 1 valuations: Fair value measured using only Level 1 inputs i.e. unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities at the measurement date.

Level 2 valuations: Fair value measured using Level 2 inputs i.e. observable inputs which fail to meet Level 1, and not using significant unobservable inputs. Unobservable inputs are inputs for which market data are not available.

Level 3 valuations: Fair value measured using significant unobservable inputs.

The Group’s completed investment properties measured at HK$5,148 million (2019: HK$5,532 million) represent the retail properties located in Hong Kong, were classified as Level 3 under the fair value hierarchy in accordance with HKFRS 13.

None of the Group’s investment properties measured at fair value are categorised as Level 1 and Level 2 input.

During the years ended 31 December 2020 and 2019, there were no transfers among Level 1, Level 2, or transfers into or out of Level 3.

The Group’s policy is to recognise transfers between levels of fair value hierarchy as at the end of the reporting period in which they occur.

Valuation processes

The Group reviews the valuations performed by the independent valuers for financial reporting purposes by verifying all major inputs and assessing the reasonableness of property valuations. A valuation report with an analysis of changes in fair value measurement is prepared at each interim and annual reporting date, and is reviewed and approved by the senior management.

Valuation methodologies

The valuation of completed retail properties in Hong Kong were based on income capitalisation approach which capitalised the net income of the properties and taking into account the significant adjustment on term yield to account for the risk upon reversion and the estimation in vacancy rate after expiry of current lease.

Level 3 valuation methodologies

The significant unobservable inputs was capitalisation rate at 5.0% (2019: 5.0%). The fair value measurement of investment properties is negatively correlated to the capitalisation rate.

- (e) The Group leases out its investment properties under operating leases, which generally run for an initial period of two to ten years. Lease payments may be varied periodically to reflect market rentals and may contain variable lease payment which is based on various percentages of tenants’ sales receipts.

The tax losses arising from Hong Kong operations do not expire under current tax legislation. The tax losses arising from Mainland China operations can be carried forward to offset against taxable profits of subsequent years for up to five years from the year in which they arose.

20. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT AND FAIR VALUES

The Group is exposed to financial risks related to interest rate, foreign currency, equity price, liquidity and credit in the normal course of business. To manage some of these risks, the Group Finance Committee develops, maintains and monitors the Group's financial policies designed to facilitate cost efficient funding to the Group and to mitigate the impact of fluctuations in interest rates and exchange rates. The financial management policies are implemented by the Group's Treasury department, which operates as a centralised service unit in close co-operation with the Group's operating units for managing the day-to-day treasury functions and financial risks and for providing cost efficient funding to the Group.

The Group uses derivatives, principally forward foreign exchange contracts, as deemed appropriate, for financing and hedging transactions and for managing risks associated with the Group's assets and liabilities. It is the Group's policy not to enter into derivative transactions and invest in financial products with significant underlying leverage which are commercially speculative.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(a) Interest rate risk

The Group's main exposure to interest rate risk relates principally to the Group's borrowings. Borrowings at variable rates expose the Group to cash flow interest rate risk. The Group manages its interest rate risk exposures in accordance with defined policies and reviews this exposure with a focus on reducing the Group's overall cost of funding as well as maintaining the floating/fixed rate mix appropriate to its current business portfolio.

As at 31 December 2020, all the Group's borrowings were at floating rate and the interest rate was approximately 2.2% (2019: 3.3%) per annum.

Based on a sensitivity analysis performed on 31 December 2020, it was estimated that a general increase/decrease of 1% (2019: 1%) in interest rates, with all other variables held constant, would have increased/decreased the Group's post-tax loss and decreased/increased total equity by approximately HK$11 million (2019: the Group's post-tax profit and total equity decreased/increased by HK$20 million). This takes into account the effect of interest bearing bank deposits.

The sensitivity analysis above indicates the instantaneous change in the Group's post-tax (loss)/profit and total equity that would arise assuming that the change in interest rates had occurred at the end of the reporting period and is estimated as an annualised impact on interest expense or income of such a change in interest rates. The analysis is performed on the same basis for 2019.

(b) Foreign currency risk

The Group owns assets and conducts its businesses both in Hong Kong and Mainland China, with its cash flows denominated substantially in HKD and RMB which exposes the Group to foreign currency risk with respect to RMB related to its property development in Mainland China. Anticipated foreign exchange payments relate primarily to RMB capital expenditure.

Where appropriate or available in a cost-efficient manner, the Group may enter into forward foreign exchange contracts to manage its foreign currency risk arising from the anticipated transactions denominated in currencies other than its entities' functional currencies.

The Group's borrowings are predominantly denominated in the functional currency of the entity taking out the borrowings. In the case of group companies whose functional currencies are in HKD, their borrowings will be either in HKD or USD. For managing the overall financing costs of existing and future capital requirements for the projects in Mainland China and Hong Kong, the Group has adopted a diversified funding approach and has entered into certain forward foreign exchange contracts. Based on prevailing accounting standards, the forward foreign exchange contracts are marked to market with the valuation movement recognised in the consolidated income statement.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The following table details the Group's exposure at the end of the reporting period to currency risk arising from recognised assets/(liabilities) denominated in a currency other than the functional currency of the Group's entities to which they relate. Differences resulting from the translation of the financial statements of foreign operations into the Group's presentation currency and exposure arising from inter-company balances which are considered to be in the nature of investment in a subsidiary are excluded.

	USD Million	RMB Million
At 31 December 2020
Equity investments	120	–
Inter-company balances	–	66
Gross exposure arising from recognised assets and liabilities/ Overall net exposure	120	66
At 31 December 2019
Equity investments	163	–
Bank deposits and cash	11	–
Inter-company balances	–	66
Gross exposure arising from recognised assets and liabilities/ Overall net exposure	174	66

In addition, at 31 December 2020, the PRC subsidiaries of the Group with RMB as their functional currency are exposed to foreign currency risk with respect to HKD/USD by holding HKD/USD denominated bank deposits and cash in the amount of HK$4 million (2019: HK$4 million).

Based on the sensitivity analysis performed on 31 December 2020, it was estimated that the impact on the Group's post-tax (loss)/profit and total equity would not be material in response to possible changes in the foreign exchange rates of foreign currencies to which the Group is exposed.

It is further analysed that the sensitivity on the translation of the Mainland operations from 1% increase/decrease of exchange rate of RMB against HKD, the Group's total equity would have increased/decreased by HK$32 million (2019: HK$29 million).

(c) Equity price risk

The Group is exposed to equity price changes arising from equity investments.

Listed investments have been chosen for their long term growth potential and returns and are monitored regularly for performance. Given that the volatility of the stock markets may not have a direct correlation with the Group's investment portfolio, it is impractical to determine the impact that the changes in stock market indices would have on the Group's portfolio of equity investments.

Based on the sensitivity analysis performed on 31 December 2020, it is estimated that a 5% (2019: 5%) increase/decrease in the market value of the Group's equity investments, with all other variables held constant, would not have affected the Group's post-tax (loss)/profit but would have increased/decreased the Group's total equity by HK$177 million (2019: HK$203 million). The analysis is performed on the same basis as for 2019.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(d) Liquidity risk

The Group adopts a prudent liquidity risk management policy, maintaining sufficient reserves of cash and readily realisable marketable securities and adequate committed lines of funding with staggered maturities to reduce refinancing risk in any year from major financial institutions and to maintain flexibility for meeting its liquidity requirements in the short and longer term. The Group's cash management is substantially centralised within the Group Treasury department, which regularly monitors the current and expected liquidity requirements and its compliance with lending covenants.

The following tables detail the remaining contractual maturities at the end of the reporting period of the Group's derivative and non-derivative financial liabilities, which are based on contractual undiscounted cash flows (including interest payments computed using contractual rates or, if floating, based on rates at the end of the reporting period and carried at exchange rate prevailing at the end of the reporting period) and the earliest date the Group can be required to pay:

	Carrying amount HK$ Million	Total HK$ Million	Contractual undiscounted cash flow

	(6,357)	(6,606)	(4,560)	(621)	(1,417)	(8)

The Company is exposed to liquidity risk that arises from financial guarantees given by the Company on behalf of subsidiaries. The guarantees are callable if the respective subsidiary is unable to meet its obligation and the maximum amount callable as at 31 December 2020 was HK$3,400 million (2019: HK$3,450 million).

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(e) Credit risk

Credit risk refers to the risk that a counterparty will default on its contractual obligations resulting in a financial loss to the Group. The Group's credit risk is primarily attributable to rental, trade and other receivables, cash and cash equivalents and over-the-counter derivative financial instruments. The exposures to these credit risks are closely monitored on an ongoing basis by established credit policies and procedures in each of the Group's core businesses. In respect of rental receivables, sufficient rental deposits from tenants are held to cover potential exposure to credit risk. Further, evaluations are made for the customers with reference to their repayment history and financial strength, as well as the economic environment in which the customer operates.

The Group measures loss allowance for trade receivables from customers in accordance with accounting policy (G)(i). The allowance for expected credit losses is insignificant.

Cash at bank, deposits placed with financial institutions, and investments and transactions involving derivative financial instruments are with counter parties with sound credit ratings to minimise credit risk exposure.

The Group has no significant concentrations of credit risk. The maximum exposure to credit risk is represented by the carrying amount of each financial asset in the consolidated statement of financial position. Except for the financial guarantees given by the Company as set out in Note 24, the Group does not provide any other guarantee which would expose the Group or the Company to material credit risk.

(f) Fair values of assets and liabilities

(i) Assets and liabilities carried at fair value

The following table presents the fair value of the Group's financial instruments measured at the end of the reporting period on a recurring basis, categorised into the three-level fair value hierarchy as defined in HKFRS 13. The level into which a fair value measurement is classified is determined with reference to the observability and significance of the inputs used in the valuation technique as defined in Note 8(d).

Financial instruments carried at fair value

The fair value measurement information for financial instruments in accordance with HKFRS 13 is given below:

	Level 1 Total HK$ Million
At 31 December 2020
Assets
Equity investments:
– Listed investments	3,546
At 31 December 2019
Assets
Equity investments:
– Listed investments	4,065

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

During the years ended 31 December 2020 and 2019, there were no transfers of instruments between Level 1 and Level 2, or transfer into or out of Level 3.

The Group's policy is to recognise transfers into and out of fair value hierarchy levels as at the end of reporting period in which they occur.

Equity investments in Level 1 are stated at quoted market prices.

The fair value of bank loans and other borrowings is estimated as the present value of future cash flows, discounted at current market interest rates for similar financial instruments.

(ii) Assets and liabilities carried at other than fair value

The fair values of receivables, bank balances and other current assets, payables and accruals, current borrowings, and provisions are assumed to approximate their carrying amounts due to the short-term maturities of these assets and liabilities.

All financial instruments carried at cost or amortised cost is carried at amounts not materially different from their fair values as at 31 December 2020 and 2019. Amounts due from/(to) fellow subsidiaries and related parties are unsecured, interest free and have no fixed repayment terms. Given these terms it is not meaningful to disclose fair values.

(g) Capital management

The Group's primary objective when managing capital is to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, to meet its financial obligations and continue to provide returns for shareholders and benefits for other stakeholders, by pricing products and services commensurately with the level of risk and by securing access to finance at a reasonable cost.

The Group actively and regularly reviews and manages its capital structure to maintain a balance between the higher shareholders' returns that might be possible with higher levels of borrowings and the advantages and security afforded by a sound capital position, and makes adjustments to the capital structure in light of changes in the Group's business portfolio and economic conditions.

The Group monitors its capital structure by reviewing its net debt-to-equity ratio and cash flow requirements, taking into account its future financial obligations and commitments. For this purpose, the Group defines net debt as total loans less bank deposits and cash. Shareholders' equity comprises issued share capital and reserves attributable to equity shareholders of the Company. Total equity comprises shareholders' equity and non-controlling interests.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The net debt-to-equity ratio as at 31 December 2020 and 2019 were as follows:

	2020 HK$ Million	2019 HK$ Million

31. APPROVAL OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(A) STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with all applicable HKFRSs, which collective term includes all applicable individual HKFRSs, Hong Kong Accounting Standards (“HKASs”) and Interpretations issued by the HKICPA, accounting principles generally accepted in Hong Kong and the requirements of the Companies Ordinance. These financial statements also comply with the applicable disclosure provisions of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited. Significant accounting policies adopted by the Group are set out below.

The HKICPA has issued certain amendments to HKFRSs that are first effective or available for early adoption for the current accounting period of the Group and the Company. Note 26 to the financial statements provides information on any changes in accounting policies resulting from initial application of these developments to the extent that they are relevant to the Group for the current and prior accounting periods reflected in these financial statements.

(B) BASIS OF PREPARATION OF THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2020 comprise the Company and its subsidiaries (together referred to as the “Group”) and the Group’s interest in associates and joint ventures.

The measurement basis used in the preparation of the financial statements is the historical cost basis except where stated otherwise in the accounting policies set out below.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with HKFRSs requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of policies and reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis of making the judgements about carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

Judgements made by management in the application of HKFRSs that have significant effect on the financial statements and major sources of estimation uncertainty are discussed in Note (U).

PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(C) BASIS OF CONSOLIDATION

(i) Subsidiaries and non-controlling interests

Subsidiaries are entities controlled by the Group. The Group controls an entity when it is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity. When assessing whether the Group has power, only substantive rights (held by the Group and other parties) are considered.

An investment in a subsidiary is consolidated into the consolidated financial statements from the date that control commences until the date that control ceases. Intra-group balances, transactions and cash flows, and any unrealised profits arising from intra-group transactions, are eliminated in full in preparing the consolidated financial statements. Unrealised losses resulting from intra-group transactions are eliminated in the same way as unrealised gains, but only to the extent that there is no evidence of impairment.

Non-controlling interests represent the equity in a subsidiary not attributable directly or indirectly to the Company, and in respect of which the Group has not agreed any additional terms with the holders of those interests which would result in the Group as a whole having a contractual obligation in respect of those interests that meets the definition of a financial liability. For each business combination, the Group can elect to measure any non-controlling interests either at fair value or at the non-controlling interest's proportionate share of the subsidiary's net identifiable assets.

Non-controlling interests are presented in the consolidated statement of financial position within equity, separately from equity attributable to the equity shareholders of the Company. Non-controlling interests in the results of the Group are presented on the face of the consolidated income statement and the consolidated statement of comprehensive income as an allocation of the total profit or loss and total comprehensive income for the year between non-controlling interests and the equity shareholders of the Company. Loans from holders of non-controlling interests and other contractual obligations towards these holders are presented as financial liabilities in the consolidated statement of financial position in accordance with Note (F) depending on the nature of the liability.

Changes in the Group's interests in a subsidiary that do not result in a loss of control are accounted for as equity transactions, whereby adjustments are made to the amounts of controlling and non-controlling interests within consolidated equity to reflect the change in relative interests, but no adjustments are made to goodwill and no gain or loss is recognised.

When the Group loses control of a subsidiary, it is accounted for as a disposal of the entire interest in that subsidiary, with a resulting gain or loss being recognised in profit or loss. Any interest retained in that former subsidiary at the date when control is lost is recognised at fair value and this amount is regarded as the fair value on initial recognition of a financial asset (see Note (F)) or, when appropriate, the cost on initial recognition of an investment in an associate or a joint venture (see Note (C)(ii)).

In the Company's statement of financial position, an investment in a subsidiary is stated at cost less impairment losses (see Note (G)(ii)).

PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(ii) Associates and joint ventures

An associate is an entity in which the Group or Company has significant influence, but not control or joint control, over its management, including participation in the financial and operating policy decisions.

A joint venture is an arrangement whereby the Group or Company and other parties contractually agree to share control of the arrangement and have rights to the net assets of the arrangement.

An investment in an associate or a joint venture is accounted for in the consolidated financial statements under the equity method, unless it is classified as held for sale (or included in a disposal group that is classified as held for sale). Under the equity method, the investment is initially recorded at cost, adjusted for any excess of the Group's share of the acquisition-date fair values of the investee's identifiable net assets over the cost of the investment (if any). Thereafter, the investment is adjusted for the post acquisition change in the Group's share of the investee's net assets and any impairment loss relating to the investment (see Notes (C)(iii) and (G)(ii)). At each reporting date, the group assesses whether there is any objective evidence that the investment is impaired. Any acquisition-date excess over cost, the Group's share of the post-acquisition, post-tax results of the investees and any impairment losses for the year are recognised in the consolidated income statement, whereas the Group's share of the post-acquisition post-tax items of the investee's other comprehensive income is recognised in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income. Adjustments are made on consolidation to the financial information of associates and joint ventures where necessary to ensure consistency with the accounting policies adopted by the Group.

When the Group's share of losses exceeds its interest in the associates or joint ventures, the Group's interest is reduced to nil and recognition of further losses is discontinued except to the extent that the Group has incurred legal or constructive obligations or made payments on behalf of the investee. For this purpose, the Group's interest in the associates or joint ventures is the carrying amount of the investment under the equity method together with the Group's long-term interests that, in substance, form part of the Group's net investment in the associates or joint ventures (after applying the ECL model to such other long-term interests where applicable (see Note (G)(i))).

Unrealised profits and losses resulting from transactions between the Group and its associates and joint ventures are eliminated to the extent of the Group's interest in the investee, except where unrealised losses provide evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred, in which case they are recognised immediately in the consolidated income statement.

If an investment in an associate becomes an investment in a joint venture or vice versa, the retained interest is not remeasured. Instead, the investment continues to be accounted for under the equity method.

In all other cases, when the Group ceases to have significant influence over an associate or joint control over a joint venture, it is accounted for as a disposal of the entire interest in that investee, with a resulting gain or loss being recognised in profit or loss. Any interest retained in that former investee at the date when significant influence or joint control is lost is recognised at fair value and this amount is regarded as the fair value on initial recognition of a financial asset (see Note (F)).

In the Company's statement of financial position, investments in associates and joint ventures are stated at cost less impairment losses (see Note (G)(ii)).

PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(iii) Goodwill

Goodwill represents the excess of:

- (a) the aggregate of the fair value of the consideration transferred, the amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquiree and the fair value of the Group's previously held equity interest in the acquiree; over
- (b) the net fair value of the acquiree's identifiable assets and liabilities measured as at the acquisition date.

When (b) is greater than (a), then this excess is recognised immediately in profit or loss as a gain on a bargain purchase.

Goodwill is stated at cost less accumulated impairment losses. Goodwill arising on a business combination is allocated to each cash-generating unit, or groups of cash generating units, that is expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination and is tested annually for impairment (see Note (G)(ii)).

On disposal of a cash generating unit during the year, any attributable amount of purchased goodwill is included in the calculation of the profit or loss on disposal.

(D) INVESTMENT PROPERTIES AND HOTEL PROPERTIES, PLANT AND EQUIPMENT

(i) Investment properties

Investment properties are land and/or buildings which are owned or held under a leasehold interest (see Note (H)) to earn rental income and/or for capital appreciation. These include land held for a currently undetermined future use and properties that are being constructed or developed for future use as investment properties.

Investment properties are stated in the statement of financial position at fair value, unless they are still in the course of construction or development at the end of the reporting period and their fair value cannot be reliably measured at that time. Investment properties under development are stated at cost less impairment (see Note (G)(ii)) if the fair value cannot be measured reliably. Any gain or loss arising from a change in fair value or from the retirement or disposal of an investment property is recognised in the consolidated income statement. Rental income from investment properties is accounted for as described in Note (N)(ii).

(ii) Hotel properties

Hotel properties are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses (see Note (G)(ii)). Hotel properties under development is stated at cost less impairment losses (see Note (G)(ii)).

PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(iii) Other property, plant and equipment held for own use

Other property, plant and equipment held for own use is stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses (see Note (G)(ii)).

- (iv) Gains or losses arising from the retirement or disposal of an item of property, plant and equipment are determined as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and are recognised in the consolidated income statement on the date of retirement or disposal.

(E) DEPRECIATION OF HOTEL PROPERTIES, PLANT AND EQUIPMENT

Depreciation is calculated to write-off the cost of items of hotel properties, plant and equipment, less their estimated residual value, if any, using a straight line method over their estimated useful lives as follows:

(i) Investment properties

No depreciation is provided on investment properties.

(ii) Hotel properties

Depreciation is provided on the cost of the leasehold land of hotel properties over the unexpired period of the lease. Costs of buildings thereon are depreciated on a straight line basis over their estimated useful lives of not more than 50 years.

Depreciation on hotel properties under development commences when they are available for use.

(iii) Other property, plant and equipment held for own use

Depreciation is provided on a straight line basis over their estimated useful lives of these assets which vary from 5 to 10 years.

Where parts of an item of property, plant and equipment have different useful lives, the cost or valuation of the item is allocated on a reasonable basis between the parts and each part is depreciated separately. Both the useful life of an asset and its residual value, if any, are reviewed annually.

PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(F) FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Trade receivables and debt securities issued are initially recognised when they are originated. All other financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised in the consolidated statement of financial position when a Group entity becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument.

A financial asset (unless it is a trade receivable without a significant financing component) or financial liability is initially measured at fair value plus, for an item not at fair value through profit or loss (“FVTPL”), transaction costs that are directly attributable to its acquisition or issue. A trade receivable without a significant financing component is initially measured at the transaction price.

(i) Classification and measurement of financial assets

On initial recognition, a financial asset is classified as measured at: amortised cost; fair value through other comprehensive income (FVTOCI) — debt investment; FVTOCI — equity investment; or fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL).

Financial assets are not reclassified subsequent to their initial recognition, except if and in the period the Group changes its business model for managing financial assets, in which case all affected financial assets are reclassified on the first day of the first reporting period following the change in the business model.

- (a) A financial asset is measured at amortised cost if it meets both of the following conditions and is not designated as at FVTPL:
 - the asset is held within a business model whose objective is to hold assets to collect contractual cash flows; and
 - the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.
- (b) On initial recognition of an equity investment that is not held for trading, the Group may irrevocably elect to present subsequent changes in the investment’s fair value in other comprehensive income (“OCI”). This election is made on an investment-by-investment basis.
- (c) All financial assets not classified as measured at amortised cost or FVTOCI as described above are measured at FVTPL. On initial recognition, the Group may irrevocably designate a financial asset that otherwise meets the requirements to be measured at amortised cost or at FVTOCI as at FVTPL if doing so eliminates or significantly reduces an accounting mismatch that would otherwise arise.

PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Investment in equity securities (other than investments in subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures)

The 'equity investments' caption in the consolidated statement of financial position includes:

- Equity investment securities mandatorily measured at FVTPL or designated as at FVTPL; these are at fair value with changes recognised immediately in the consolidated income statement; and
- Equity investment securities designated as at FVTOCI.

Investments in equity securities are initially stated at fair value, which is their transaction price unless it is determined that the fair value at initial recognition differs from the transaction price and that fair value is evidenced by a quoted price in an active market for an identical asset or liability or based on a valuation technique that uses only data from observable markets.

The Group has designated all investments in equity instruments (listed or unlisted) that are not held for trading as at FVTOCI since the application of HKFRS 9.

Financial assets: Business model assessment

The Group makes an assessment of the objective of the business model in which a financial asset is held at a portfolio level because this best reflects the way the business is managed and information is provided to management. The information considered includes:

- the stated policies and objectives for the portfolio and the operation of those policies in practice. These include whether management's strategy focuses on earning contractual interest income, maintaining a particular interest rate profile, matching the duration of the financial assets to the duration of any related liabilities or expected cash outflows or realising cash flows through the sale of the assets;
- how the performance of the portfolio is evaluated and reported to the Group's management;
- the risks that affect the performance of the business model (and the financial assets held within that business model) and how those risks are managed;
- how managers of the business are compensated — e.g. whether compensation is based on the fair value of the assets managed or the contractual cash flows collected; and
- the frequency, volume and timing of sales of financial assets in prior periods, the reasons for such sales and expectations about future sales activity.

Transfers of financial assets to third parties in transactions that do not qualify for derecognition are not considered sales for this purpose, consistent with the Group's continuing recognition of the assets.

Financial assets that are held for trading or are managed and whose performance is evaluated on a fair value basis are measured at FVTPL.

PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Financial assets: Assessment whether contractual cash flows are solely payments of principal and interest

For the purposes of this assessment, 'principal' is defined as the fair value of the financial asset on initial recognition. 'Interest' is defined as consideration for the time value of money and for the credit risk associated with the principal amount outstanding during a particular period of time and for other basic lending risks and costs (e.g. liquidity risk and administrative costs), as well as a profit margin.

In assessing whether the contractual cash flows are solely payments of principal and interest, the Group considers the contractual terms of the instrument. This includes assessing whether the financial asset contains a contractual term that could change the timing or amount of contractual cash flows such that it would not meet this condition. In making this assessment, the Group considers:

- contingent events that would change the amount or timing of cash flows;
- terms that may adjust the contractual coupon rate, including variable rate features;
- prepayment and extension features; and
- terms that limit the Group's claim to cash flows from specified assets (e.g. non-recourse features).

A prepayment feature is consistent with the solely payments of principal and interest criterion if the prepayment amount substantially represents unpaid amounts of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding, which may include reasonable additional compensation for early termination of the contract. Additionally, for a financial asset acquired at a discount or premium to its contractual par amount, a feature that permits or requires prepayment at an amount that substantially represents the contractual par amount plus accrued (but unpaid) contractual interest (which may also include reasonable additional compensation for early termination) is treated as consistent with this criterion if the fair value of the prepayment feature is insignificant at initial recognition.

PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Financial assets: Subsequent measurement and gains and losses

Financial assets at FVTPL	These assets are subsequently measured at fair value. Net gains and losses, including any interest or dividend income, are recognised in the consolidated income statement.
Financial assets at amortised cost	These assets are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method. The amortised cost is reduced by impairment losses. Interest income, foreign exchange gains and losses and impairment are recognised in the consolidated income statement. Any gain or loss on derecognition is recognised in the consolidated income statement.
Equity investments at FVTOCI	These assets are subsequently measured at fair value. Dividends are recognised as income in the consolidated income statement unless the dividend clearly represents a recovery of part of the cost of the investment. Other net gains and losses and impairment are recognised in OCI and are never reclassified to the consolidated income statement.

(ii) Derecognition of financial assets

The Group derecognises a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial asset expire, or it transfers the rights to receive the contractual cash flows in a transaction in which substantially all of the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset are transferred or in which the Group neither transfers nor retains substantially all of the risks and rewards of ownership and it does not retain control of the financial asset.

The Group enters into transactions whereby it transfers assets recognised on its consolidated statement of financial position, but retains either all or substantially all of the risks and rewards of the transferred assets. In such cases, the transferred assets are not derecognised.

In the case of equity investments, cumulative gains and losses recognised in OCI are never reclassified to the consolidated income statement but transferred to retained earnings on disposal of an investment.

PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(iii) Classification and measurement of financial liabilities

Financial liabilities are classified as measured at amortised cost or FVTPL. A financial liability is classified as at FVTPL if it is classified as held-for-trading, it is a derivative or it is designated as such on initial recognition. Financial liabilities at FVTPL are measured at fair value and net gains and losses, including any interest expense, are recognised in the consolidated income statement. Other financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method. Interest expense and foreign exchange gains and losses are recognised in the consolidated income statement. Any gain or loss on derecognition is also recognised in the consolidated income statement.

(iv) Derecognition of financial liabilities

The Group derecognises a financial liability when its contractual obligations are discharged or cancelled, or expire.

The Group also derecognises a financial liability when its terms are modified and the cash flows of the modified liability are substantially different. In this case, a new financial liability based on the modified terms is recognised at fair value. The difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability extinguished and the consideration paid (including any non-cash assets transferred or liabilities assumed) with modified terms is recognised in the consolidated income statement.

(v) Offsetting

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount presented in the consolidated statement of financial position when, and only when, the Group currently has a legally enforceable right to set off the amounts and it intends either to settle them on a net basis or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Income and expenses are presented on a net basis only when permitted under HKFRS, or for gains and losses arising from a group of similar transactions such as in the Group's trading activity.

(G) IMPAIRMENT OF ASSETS

(i) Impairment of financial assets

The Group recognises loss allowances for expected credit loss ("ECL") on financial assets measured at amortised cost.

The Group measures loss allowances at an amount equal to lifetime ECL. For trade receivables, the Group applies the simplified approach to providing for expected credit losses prescribed by HKFRS 9, which requires the use of the lifetime expected loss provision for all trade receivables.

When determining whether the credit risk of a financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition and when estimating ECL, the Group considers reasonable and supportable information that is relevant and available without undue cost or effort. This includes both quantitative and qualitative information and analysis, based on the Group's historical experience and informed credit assessment and including forward-looking information.

PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Lifetime ECLs are the ECLs that result from all possible default events over the expected life of a financial instrument.

12-month ECLs are the portion of ECL that results from default events on a financial instrument that are possible within the 12 months after the reporting date (or a shorter period if the expected life of the instrument is less than 12 months).

In all cases, the maximum period considered when estimating ECLs is the maximum contractual period over which the Group is exposed to credit risk.

Measurement of ECLs

ECLs are a probability-weighted estimate of credit losses. Credit losses are measured as the present value of all cash shortfalls (i.e. the difference between the cash flows due to the entity in accordance with the contract and the cash flows that the Group expects to receive).

Credit-impaired financial assets

At each reporting date, the Group assesses on a forward looking basis whether financial assets carried at amortised cost are credit-impaired. A financial asset is 'credit-impaired' when one or more events that have a detrimental impact on the estimated future cash flows of the financial asset have occurred.

Evidence that a financial asset is credit-impaired includes the following observable data:

- significant financial difficulty of the borrower or issuer;
- a breach of contract such as a default or past due event;
- the restructuring of a loan or advance by the Group on terms that the Group would not consider otherwise;
- it is becoming probable that the borrower will enter bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation; or the disappearance of an active market for a security because of financial difficulties.

Presentation of allowance for ECL in the consolidated statement of financial position

Loss allowances for financial assets measured at amortised cost are deducted from the gross carrying amount of the assets.

Write-off

The gross carrying amount of a financial asset is written off (either partially or in full) to the extent that there is no realistic prospect of recovery. This is generally the case when the Group determines that the debtor does not have assets or sources of income that could generate sufficient cash flows to repay the amounts subject to the write-off. However, financial assets that are written off could still be subject to enforcement activities in order to comply with the Group's procedures for recovery of amounts due.

PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(ii) Impairment of non-financial assets (including right-of-use assets)

The carrying amounts of non-financial assets other than properties carried at revalued amounts (including investments in subsidiaries in the Company's statement of financial position, investments in associates and joint ventures accounted for under the equity method (see Note (C)(ii))) and deferred tax assets, are reviewed at the end of each reporting period to determine whether there is any indication of impairment. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount is estimated.

– Calculation of recoverable amount

The recoverable amount of an asset is the greater of its fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. Where an asset does not generate cash inflows largely independent of those from other assets, the recoverable amount is determined for the smallest group of assets that generates cash inflows independently (i.e. a cash-generating unit).

– Recognition of impairment losses

An impairment loss is recognised as an expense in the consolidated income statement if the carrying amount of an asset, or the cash-generating unit to which it belongs, exceeds the recoverable amount. Impairment losses recognised in respect of cash-generating units are allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill allocated to the cash-generating unit (or group of units) and then, to reduce the carrying amount of the other assets in the unit (or group of units) on a pro rata basis, except that the carrying value of an asset will not be reduced below its individual fair value less costs of disposal (if measurable), or value in use, if determinable.

– Reversal of impairment losses

In respect of assets other than goodwill, an impairment loss is reversed if there has been a favourable change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount. An impairment loss in respect of goodwill is not reversed (including those provided during the interim financial reporting).

A reversal of impairment losses is limited to the asset's carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognised in prior years. Reversals of impairment losses are credited to the consolidated income statement in the year in which the reversals are recognised.

– Interim financial reporting and impairment

Under the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited, the Group is required to prepare an interim financial report in compliance with HKAS 34, Interim financial reporting, in respect of the first six months of the financial year. At the end of the interim period, the Group applies the same impairment testing, recognition, and reversal criteria as it would at the end of the financial year (see Notes (G)(i) and (ii)).

Impairment losses recognised in an interim period in respect of goodwill are not reversed in a subsequent period. This is the case even if no loss, or a smaller loss, would have been recognised had the impairment been assessed only at the end of the financial year to which the interim period relates.

PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(H) LEASED ASSETS

At inception of a contract, the Group assesses whether the contract is, or contains, a lease. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. Control is conveyed where the customer has both the right to direct the use of the identified asset and to obtain substantially all of the economic benefits from that use.

(i) As a lessee

Where the contract contains lease component(s) and non-lease component(s), the Group has elected not to separate non-lease components and accounts for each lease component and any associated non-lease components as a single lease component for all leases.

At the lease commencement date, the Group recognises a right-of-use asset and a lease liability, except for short-term leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less and leases of low-value assets. When the Group enters into a lease in respect of a low-value asset, the Group decides whether to capitalise the lease on a lease-by-lease basis. The lease payments associated with those leases which are not capitalised are recognised as an expense on a systematic basis over the lease term.

Where the lease is capitalised, the lease liability is initially recognised at the present value of the lease payments payable over the lease term, discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease or, if that rate cannot be readily determined, using a relevant incremental borrowing rate. After initial recognition, the lease liability is measured at amortised cost and interest expense is calculated using the effective interest method. Variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or rate are not included in the measurement of the lease liability and hence are charged to profit or loss in the accounting period in which they are incurred.

The right-of-use asset recognised when a lease is capitalised is initially measured at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability plus any lease payments made at or before the commencement date, and any initial direct costs incurred. Where applicable, the cost of the right-of-use assets also includes an estimate of costs to dismantle and remove the underlying asset or to restore the underlying asset or the site on which it is located, discounted to their present value, less any lease incentives received. The right-of-use asset is subsequently stated at cost less accumulated depreciation (see Note (E) for each type of underlying asset) and impairment losses (see Note (G)(ii)), except for the following types of right-of-use asset:

- right-of-use assets that meet the definition of investment property are carried at fair value in accordance with Note (D)(i); and
- right-of-use assets related to interests in leasehold land where the interest in the land is held as inventory are carried at the lower of cost and net realisable value in accordance with Note (I).

PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The lease liability is remeasured when there is a change in future lease payments arising from a change in an index or rate, or there is a change in the Group's estimate of the amount expected to be payable under a residual value guarantee, or there is a change arising from the reassessment of whether the Group will be reasonably certain to exercise a purchase, extension or termination option. When the lease liability is remeasured in this way, a corresponding adjustment is made to the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset, or is recorded in profit or loss if the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset has been reduced to zero.

The lease liability is also remeasured when there is a change in the scope of a lease or the consideration for a lease that is not originally provided for in the lease contract ("lease modification") that is not accounted for as a separate lease. In this case the lease liability is remeasured based on the revised lease payments and lease term using a revised discount rate at the effective date of the modification. The only exceptions are any rent concessions which arose as a direct consequence of the COVID-19 pandemic and which satisfied the conditions set out in paragraph 46B of HKFRS 16 Leases. In such cases, the group took advantage of the practical expedient set out in paragraph 46A of HKFRS 16 and recognised the change in consideration as if it were not a lease modification.

The Group includes right-of-use assets that do not meet the definition of investment property and properties for sale in "Hotel properties, plant and equipment" in the consolidated statement of financial position.

(ii) As a lessor

When the Group acts as a lessor, it determines at lease inception whether each lease is a finance lease or an operating lease. A lease is classified as a finance lease if it transfers substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to the ownership of an underlying assets to the lessee. If this is not the case, the lease is classified as an operating lease.

When a contract contains lease and non-lease components, the Group allocates the consideration in the contract to each component on a relative stand-alone selling price basis. The rental income from operating leases is recognised in accordance with Note (N)(ii).

When the Group is an intermediate lessor, the sub-leases are classified as a finance lease or as an operating lease with reference to the right-of-use asset arising from the head lease. If the head lease is a short-term lease to which the Group applies the exemption for short-term leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less and leases of low-value assets, then the Group classifies the sub-lease as an operating lease.

PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(I) INVENTORIES

(i) Completed properties for sale

Completed properties for sale are stated at lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost is determined by apportionment of the total development costs, including borrowing costs capitalised (see Note (O)), attributable to unsold units. Net realisable value is estimated by the management, based on prevailing market conditions which represents the estimated selling price less costs to be incurred in selling the property. Cost of completed properties held for sale comprise all costs of purchase, costs of conversion and costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition.

The amount of any write down of or provision for properties held for sale is recognised as an expense in the period the write down or loss occurs. The amount of any reversal of any write down or provision arising from an increase in net realisable value is recognised in the consolidated income statement in the period in which the reversal occurs.

(ii) Properties under development for sale

Properties under development for sale are classified as current assets and stated at lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost includes identified costs including the acquisition cost of interests in freehold and leasehold land, aggregate cost of development, borrowing costs capitalised (see Note (O)), materials and supplies, wages, other direct expenses and an appropriate proportion of overheads. Net realisable value is estimated by the management, taking into account the expected price that can ultimately be achieved, based on prevailing market conditions and the anticipated costs to completion and costs to be incurred in selling the property.

The amount of any write down of or provision for properties under development for sale is recognised as an expense in the period the write down or loss occurs. The amount of any reversal of any write down or provision arising from an increase in net realisable value is recognised in the consolidated income statement in the period in which the reversal occurs.

(iii) Hotel consumables

Inventories comprise hotel consumables and are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value.

Cost is calculated using the weighted average cost formula and comprises all costs of purchase, costs of conversion and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition. Net realisable value represents the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less direct selling costs.

When inventories are sold, the carrying amount of those inventories is recognised as an expense in the period in which the related revenue is recognised. The amount of any write-down of inventories to net realisable value and all losses of inventories are recognised as an expense in the period the write-down or loss occurs. The amount of any reversal of any write-down of inventories is recognised as a reduction in the amount of inventories recognised as an expense in the period in which the reversal occurs.

PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(J) DERIVATIVE FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Derivative financial instruments are recognised initially at fair value. At the end of each reporting period, the fair value is remeasured. The gain or loss on remeasurement to fair value is recognised immediately in the consolidated income statement, except where the derivatives qualify for cash flow hedge accounting or hedge the net investment in a foreign operation, in which case recognition of any resultant gain or loss depends on the nature of the item being hedged.

(K) CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash at bank and on hand, demand deposits with banks and other financial institutions, and short-term, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value, having been within three months of maturity at acquisition. Bank overdrafts that are repayable on demand and form an integral part of the Group's cash management are also included as a component of cash and cash equivalents for the purpose of the consolidated statement of cash flows.

(L) CONTRACT ASSETS AND CONTRACT LIABILITIES

A contract asset is recognised when the Group recognises revenue (see Note (N)) before being unconditionally entitled to the consideration under the payment terms set out in the contract. Contract assets are assessed for ECL in accordance with the policy set out in Note (G) and are reclassified to receivables when the right to the consideration has become unconditional.

A contract liability is recognised when the customer pays consideration before the Group recognises the related revenue (see Note (N)). A contract liability would also be recognised if the Group has an unconditional right to receive consideration before the Group recognises the related revenue. In such cases, a corresponding receivable would also be recognised.

For a single contract with the customer, either a net contract asset or a net contract liability is presented. For multiple contracts, contract assets and contract liabilities of unrelated contracts are not presented on a net basis.

When the contract includes a significant financing component, the contract balance includes interest accrued under the effective interest method (see Note (N)).

PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(M) FOREIGN CURRENCIES

Foreign currency transactions during the year are translated into Hong Kong dollars at the exchange rates ruling at the transaction dates. Monetary foreign currency balances and the statements of financial position of foreign operations are translated into Hong Kong dollars at the exchange rates ruling at the end of the reporting period. Non-monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies that are stated at fair value are translated using the foreign exchange rates ruling at the dates the fair value was measured. The transaction date is the date on which the Group initially recognises such non-monetary assets or liabilities.

The results of foreign operations are translated into Hong Kong dollars at the monthly weighted average exchange rates for the year. Statement of financial position items, including goodwill arising on consolidation of foreign operations acquired on or after 1 January 2005, are translated into Hong Kong dollars at the closing foreign exchange rates at the end of the reporting period. Differences arising from the translation of the financial statements of foreign operations are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated separately in equity in the exchange reserve and those arising from the financing of properties under development by foreign currency borrowings are capitalised as part of the development costs. All other exchange differences are dealt with in the consolidated income statement.

On disposal of a foreign operation, the cumulative amount of the exchange differences which relate to that foreign operation is reclassified from equity to the consolidated income statement and is included in the calculation of the profit or loss on disposal.

(N) RECOGNITION OF REVENUE

Income is classified by the Group as revenue when it arises from the sale of goods, the provision of services or the use by others of the Group's assets under leases in the ordinary course of the Group's business.

Revenue is recognised when control over a product or service is transferred to the customer, or the lessee has the right to use the asset, at the amount of promised consideration to which the Group is expected to be entitled, excluding those amounts collected on behalf of third parties. Revenue excludes value added tax or other sales taxes and is after deduction of any trade discounts.

Where the contract contains a financing component which provides a significant financing benefit to the customer for more than 12 months, revenue is measured at the present value of the amount receivable, discounted using the discount rate that would be reflected in a separate financing transaction with the customer, and interest income is accrued separately under the effective interest method. Where the contract contains a financing component which provides a significant financing benefit to the Group, revenue recognised under that contract includes the interest expense accreted on the contract liability under the effective interest method. The Group takes advantage of the practical expedient in paragraph 63 of HKFRS 15 and does not adjust the consideration for any effects of a significant financing component if the period of financing is 12 months or less.

PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

- (i) Income from hotel operations is recognised at the time when the services are rendered.
- (ii) Rental income under operating leases is recognised in equal instalments over the accounting periods covered by the lease term, except where an alternative basis is more representative of the pattern of benefits to be derived from the use of the leased assets. Lease incentives granted are recognised as an integral part of the aggregate net lease payments receivable. Variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or a rate are recognised as income in the accounting period in which they are earned.
- (iii) Revenue arising from the sale of properties developed for sale in the ordinary course of business is recognised when legal assignment is completed or the property is accepted by the customer, which is the point in time when the customer has the ability to direct the use of the property and obtain substantially all of the remaining benefits of the property. Deposits and instalments received on properties sold prior to the date of revenue recognition are included in the statement of financial position under contract liabilities as “Pre-sale Deposits and Proceeds”.

When residential properties are marketed by the Group while the property is still under construction, the Group may offer a discount compared to the listed sales price, provided the customer agrees to pay the balance of the consideration early. In such cases, if the advance payments are regarded as providing a significant financing benefit to the group, interest expense arising from the adjustment of time value of money will be accrued by the Group during the period between the payment date and the completion date of legal assignment or the date when the property is accepted by the customer. This accrual increases the balance of “Pre-sale Deposits and Proceeds” during the period of construction, and therefore increases the amount of revenue recognised when control of the completed property is transferred to the customer. The interest is expensed as accrued unless it is eligible to be capitalised under HKAS 23, Borrowing costs (see Note (O)).

- (iv) Interest income is recognised as it accrues using the effective interest method.
- (v) Dividend income from unlisted investments is recognised when the shareholder’s right to receive payment is established.

Dividend income from listed investments is recognised when the share price of the investment goes ex-dividend.

- (vi) Government grants are recognised in the statement of financial position initially when there is reasonable assurance that they will be received and that the group will comply with the conditions attaching to them. Grants that compensate the group for expenses incurred are recognised as income in profit or loss on a systematic basis in the same periods in which the expenses are incurred. Grants that compensate the group for the cost of an asset are deducted from the carrying amount of the asset and consequently are effectively recognised in profit or loss over the useful life of the asset by way of reduced depreciation expense.

PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(O) BORROWING COSTS

Borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of an asset which necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use or sale are capitalised as part of the cost of that asset. Other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they are incurred.

The capitalisation of borrowing costs as part of the cost of a qualifying asset commences when expenditure for the asset is being incurred, borrowing costs are being incurred and activities that are necessary to prepare the asset for its intended use or sale are in progress. Capitalisation of borrowing costs is suspended or ceases when substantially all the activities necessary to prepare the qualifying asset for its intended use or sale are interrupted or complete.

(P) INCOME TAX

- (i) Income tax for the year comprises current tax and movements in deferred tax assets and liabilities. Current tax and movements in deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognised in the consolidated income statement except to the extent that they relate to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case the relevant amounts of tax are recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.
- (ii) Current tax is the expected tax payable on the taxable income for the year, using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period, and any adjustment to tax payable in respect of previous years.
- (iii) Deferred tax assets and liabilities arise from deductible and taxable temporary differences respectively, being the difference between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and their tax bases. Deferred tax assets also arise from unused tax losses and unused tax credits.

Apart from certain limited exceptions, all deferred tax liabilities and all deferred tax assets, to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which the asset can be utilised, are recognised. Future taxable profits that may be capable to support the recognition of deferred tax assets arising from deductible temporary differences include those that will arise from the reversal of existing taxable temporary differences.

The limited exceptions to recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities are those temporary differences arising from goodwill not deductible for tax purposes and the initial recognition of assets or liabilities that affect neither accounting nor taxable profit (provided that they are not part of a business combination).

Where investment properties are carried at their fair value in accordance with the accounting policy set out in Note (D)(i), the amount of deferred tax recognised is measured using the tax rates that would apply on sale of those assets at their carrying value at the end of the reporting period unless the property is depreciable and is held within a business model whose objective is to consume substantially all of the economic benefits embodied in the property over time, rather than through sale. In all other cases, the amount of deferred tax recognised is measured based on the expected manner of realisation or settlement of the carrying amount of the assets and liabilities, using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are not discounted.

PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The carrying amount of a deferred tax asset is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and is reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow the related tax benefit to be utilised. Any such reduction is reversed to the extent that it becomes probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available.

Additional income taxes that arise from the distribution of dividends are recognised when related dividends are likely to be payable in the foreseeable future.

(iv) Current tax balances and deferred tax balances, and movements therein, are presented separately from each other and are not offset. Current tax assets are offset against current tax liabilities, and deferred tax assets against deferred tax liabilities, if, and only if, the Group has the legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and the following additional conditions are met:

- in the case of current tax assets and liabilities, the Company or the Group intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously; or
- in the case of deferred tax assets and liabilities, if they relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority on either:
 - the same taxable entity; or
 - different taxable entities, which, in each future period in which significant amounts of deferred tax liabilities or assets are expected to be settled or recovered, intend to realise the current tax assets and settle the current tax liabilities on a net basis or realise and settle simultaneously.

(Q) EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

Short term employee benefits and contributions to defined contribution retirement plans

Salaries, annual bonuses, paid annual leave, leave passage, contributions to defined contribution retirement plans and the cost of non-monetary benefits are accrued in the year in which the associated services are rendered by employees of the Group. Where payment or settlement is deferred and the effect would be material, these amounts are stated at their present values.

(R) SEGMENT REPORTING

Operating segments, and the amounts of each segment item reported in the financial statements, are identified from the financial information provided regularly to the Group's top management for the purposes of allocating resources to, and assessing the performance of, the Group's various lines of business and geographical locations.

Individually material operating segments are not aggregated for financial reporting purposes unless the segments have similar economic characteristics and are similar in respect of the nature of products and services, the nature of production processes, the type or class of customers, the methods used to distribute the products or provide the services, and the nature of the regulatory environment. Operating segments which are not individually material may be aggregated if they share a majority of these criteria.

PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(S) FINANCIAL GUARANTEES ISSUED, PROVISIONS AND CONTINGENT LIABILITIES

(i) Financial guarantees issued

Financial guarantees are contracts that require the issuer (i.e. the guarantor) to make specified payments to reimburse the beneficiary of the guarantee (the “holder”) for a loss the holder incurs because a specified debtor fails to make payment when due in accordance with the terms of a debt instrument.

Where the Group issues a financial guarantee, the fair value of the guarantee is initially recognised as deferred income within trade and other payables. The fair value of financial guarantees issued at the time of issuance is determined by reference to fees charged in an arm’s length transaction for similar services, when such information is obtainable, or is otherwise estimated by reference to interest rate differentials, by comparing the actual rates charged by lenders when the guarantee is made available with the estimated rates that lenders would have charged, had the guarantees not been available, where reliable estimates of such information can be made. Where consideration is received or receivable for the issuance of the guarantee, the consideration is recognised in accordance with the Group’s policies applicable to that category of asset. Where no such consideration is received or receivable, an immediate expense is recognised in the consolidated income statement on initial recognition of any deferred income.

The amount of the guarantee initially recognised as deferred income is amortised in the consolidated income statement over the term of the guarantee as income from financial guarantees issued. In addition, provisions are recognised in accordance with Note (S)(ii) if and when (i) it becomes probable that the holder of the guarantee will call upon the Group under the guarantee, and (ii) the amount of that claim on the Group is expected to exceed the amount currently carried in trade and other payables in respect of that guarantee, i.e. the amount initially recognised, less accumulated amortisation.

(ii) Other provisions and contingent liabilities

Provisions are recognised for other liabilities of uncertain timing or amount when the Group or the Company has a legal or constructive obligation arising as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made. Where the time value of money is material, provisions are stated at the present value of the expenditure expected to settle the obligation.

Where it is not probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required, or the amount cannot be estimated reliably, the obligation is disclosed as a contingent liability, unless the probability of outflow of economic benefits is remote. Possible obligations, whose existence will only be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more future events are also disclosed as contingent liabilities unless the probability of outflow of economic benefits is remote.

PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(U) SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES AND JUDGEMENTS

Key sources of estimation uncertainty

Note 20 contain information about the assumptions and their risk relating to financial instruments. Other key sources of estimation uncertainty are as follows:

- Assessment of provision for properties held under development and for sale

Management determines the net realisable value of properties held for sale by using (1) prevailing market data such as most recent sale transactions and market survey reports available from independent property valuers; and (2) internal estimates of costs based on quotes by suppliers.

Management's assessment of the net realisable value of properties under development for sale requires the application of a risk-adjusted discount rate to estimate future discounted cash flows to be derived from the properties under development and for sale. These estimates require judgement as to the anticipated sale prices by reference to recent sale transactions in nearby locations, rates of new property sales, marketing costs (including price discounts required to stimulate sales) and the expected costs to completion of properties, the legal and regulatory framework and general market conditions. The Group's estimates may be inaccurate and estimates may need to be adjusted in later periods.

- Valuation of investment properties

Investment properties are included in the consolidated statement of financial position at their market value unless they are still in the course of construction or development at the end of the reporting period and their fair value cannot be reliably determined at that time. The market value of investment properties is assessed annually by independent qualified valuers, after taking into consideration the net income allowing for reversionary potential of the properties.

The assumptions adopted in the property valuations are based on the market conditions existing at the end of the reporting period, with reference to current market selling prices and the appropriate capitalisation rate.

- Assessment of impairment of non-current assets

Management assesses the recoverable amount of each asset based on its value in use (using relevant rates) or on its fair value less cost disposal (by reference to market prices), depending upon the anticipated future plans for the asset. Estimating the value in use of an asset involves estimating the future cash inflows and outflows to be derived from continuing use of the asset and from its ultimate disposal and applying the appropriate discount rate to these future cash flows. Cash flow projections for the remaining useful life of the asset and the most recent financial budgets/forecasts are approved by management.
