1. The estimated results for the period

- (1) The period of estimated results

From 1 January 2021 to 31 December 2021

- (2) The estimated results

According to the preliminary calculation by the finance department, under the PRC Accounting Standards for Business Enterprises, the net profit attributable to equity shareholders of China Petroleum & Chemical Corporation (“Sinopec Corp.” or the “Company”) for 2021 is estimated to increase by an amount between RMB34 billion and RMB40 billion, representing an increase between approximately 103% and 122%, as compared with the corresponding period of the previous year. The net profit attributable to equity shareholders of the Company excluding extraordinary gains and losses for 2021 is estimated to increase by an amount between RMB66 billion and RMB75 billion, as compared with the corresponding period of the previous year.

As certain transactions conducted by the Company were classified as business combination under common control, retrospective adjustments were made to relevant financial data. After such adjustments, under the PRC Accounting Standards for Business Enterprises, the net profit attributable to equity shareholders of the Company for 2021 is estimated to increase by an amount between RMB33.5 billion and RMB39.5 billion, representing an increase between approximately 101% and 119%, as compared with the corresponding period of the previous year. The net profit attributable to equity shareholders of the Company excluding extraordinary gains and losses for 2021 is estimated to increase by an amount between RMB66 billion and RMB75 billion, as compared with the corresponding period of the previous year.

(3) The above estimated results are not audited by the auditors.

2. Results disclosed for the corresponding periods of the previous year

(1) The net profit attributable to equity shareholders of the Company: RMB32.924 billion.

The net profit attributable to equity shareholders of the Company excluding extraordinary gains and losses: RMB-1.565 billion.

(2) Basic earnings per share: RMB0.272.

3. Major reasons for the estimated increase in profit for the period

In 2021, international crude oil prices rose substantially year over year, the domestic economy recovered steadily, and the demand for petroleum and petrochemical products recovered. The Company seized the favorable market opportunities, continued to conduct in-depth optimization of the whole value chain with a market-oriented approach, vigorously pursued market development and sales expansion, strengthened the cost control, and significantly improved the gross profit of principal businesses. As a result, the Company achieved the highest net profit attributable to the equity shareholders in the past ten years.

4. Risk alert

There are no major uncertainties which will affect the accuracy of this estimated result of the Company.

5. Other information

The above estimated data are only based on preliminary calculation. Final financial information in the audited annual report of 2021 to be formally published by the Company shall prevail. Investors of the Company are advised to exercise caution when dealing in securities of the Company.
