The Group realised a gross profit of approximately RMB144.4 million for the Year, which represented an increase of approximately 18.8% as compared with the one for the Last Year. Profit for the Year attributable to the owners of the Company was approximately RMB44.0 million, which represented an increase of approximately 36.2% as compared with the one for the Last Year.

The increase in revenue was mainly attributable to the increase in sale of communication copper cables by approximately 31.3% to approximately RMB353.1 million for the Year (the Last Year: approximately RMB268.9 million). The sale of structured cabling system products increased by approximately 2.4% to approximately RMB154.2 million (the Last Year: approximately RMB150.6 million). The sale of optical fiber cables slightly decreased by approximately 5.9% to approximately RMB117.2 million for the Year (the Last Year: approximately RMB124.6 million).

Year 2021 signified the start of the 14th Five-Year Plan for China’s national development. Under the background of frequent recurrence of COVID-19, China’s “digital economy” has turned to a new stage characterized by deepened application, standardized development and inclusive sharing. A series of policies for “new communication infrastructure” have been introduced one after another, and macro guidance has been fully implemented. This Year, Putian Cable Group Co., Ltd* (普天纜纜集團有限公司) (“Putian Cable”, a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company) completed the upgrade of the optical communication sector and realized the upstream expansion of the core industrial chain of optical fiber and cable. The first phase of the optical fiber drawing project has been officially completed and put into production in December 2021. The first phase contains three optical fiber drawing towers and six optical fiber production lines, which has a maximum capacity of optical fiber production of around five million core kilometer. Adopting the most advanced PCVD process in the world, our optical fiber production is in the leading position in the world, with competitiveness in optical fiber and cable market comprehensively enhanced in terms of effective production capacity and core technology.

Benefiting from the rapid development of digital construction in China, Putian Cable made remarkable progress in market expansion this Year, with its development of rail transit projects accelerated. It has successively won bids for a number of rail transit construction projects in Beijing, Shenzhen, Guangzhou, Changsha and other places from state-owned construction groups such as China Railway Group, Power China, and China Railway Construction, etc. At the same time, with the comprehensive acceleration of 5G construction, China's digital transformation has also been fully rolled out. On the basis of maintaining the stable cooperation with the original three major communication operators in China, the Group expanded the business cooperation with China Broadcasting Network, and strengthened its market position and service capabilities in respect of communication network construction through product and technology integration and innovation. In addition, the Group launched business cooperation with China National Nuclear Corporation and Sinopec Group. On the basis of improving the business in the power network field, the Group expanded into the energy interconnection industry, and strengthened the Group's diversified development in the field of communication products, with a view of further enhancing the Company's comprehensive competitiveness in the market. Based on its strategy of expanding to domestic use this Year, Putian Cable's competitive advantages in the communication copper cable business were prominent, especially the market application of its digital communication cables and intelligent security cable products has been significantly improved. It is believed that the strengthened cooperation with customers in the domestic use sector will further drive the growth of structured cabling system segment. The comprehensive roll out of national strategic projects such as "New Infrastructure" and "East Digital West Computing" is bound to bring a strong development impetus to the booming optical communication market, and the optical fiber and cable business in the coming year will also benefit from it.

OUTLOOK

Accelerating the construction of new infrastructure is a major decision and deployment made by the Party Central Committee and the State Council, and it is also an important task specified in the Outline of the 14th Five-Year Plan. With the accelerated construction of digital communication projects such as fifth-generation mobile communication technology, "East Digital West Computing", Industrial Internet+, Smart City, and National Big Data, digital transmission and basic network layout have become the key to the intelligent transformation of traditional infrastructure, and formed the structural foundation for the deep integration of communication networks, digital technology and the real economy, and the foundation for the development of China's digital economy model.

The "14th Five-Year Plan for National Economic and Social Development of the People's Republic of China and the Outline of the Vision for 2035" mentioned that it is necessary to deploy the construction of information infrastructure, accelerate the large-scale deployment of 5G networks, increase the user penetration rate to 56%, and promote and upgrade gigabit optical fiber network. It also clearly put forward two special projects for information network construction: "optimization and upgrading project of information network infrastructure" and "new smart city and digital village construction project". On 12 December 2021, the State Council issued the "Notice on the 14th Five-Year Plan for the Development of the Digital Economy", clearly proposing guidelines for accelerating the construction of information network infrastructure and optimizing and upgrading digital infrastructure. It further promoted the implementation of "Digital China" and "New Infrastructure" data communication construction projects. "High-speed data transmission", as the basic network construction requirement of "New Infrastructure", has become the application standard of digital communication network and optical communication network construction nowadays. The "Notice on Organizing and Implementing New Infrastructure Construction Projects (Broadband Network and 5G Field) in 2020" issued by the Development and Reform Commission of the State Council and the "Double Gigabit" Coordinated Development Action Plan (2021-2023) issued by the Ministry of Industry and Information Technology, clarified from the perspective of policy guidance that data cables and optical cables at Super-Category 6e and above and their connecting products will become the backbone of 5G network cabling. On 12 January 2022, the State Council issued the Notice on Printing and Distributing the "14th Five-Year" Digital Economy Development Plan, which further pointed out that the construction of information network infrastructure should be accelerated, the expansion of the backbone network should be promoted in an orderly manner, and the gigabit fiber network and 5G network should be jointly promoted, to improve the coverage level of Internet of Things in industrial manufacturing and other fields.

CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

After the Ministry of Industry and Information Technology issued the “Three-Year Action Plan for the Development of New Data Centers (2021-2023)”, the National Development and Reform Commission, the Cyberspace Administration Office, the Ministry of Industry and Information Technology, and the National Energy Administration jointly issued a notice on 17 February 2022, agreeing to start the construction of national computing power hub nodes in 8 places including Beijing-Tianjin-Hebei, Yangtze River Delta, Guangdong-Hong Kong-Macao Greater Bay Area, Chengdu-Chongqing, Inner Mongolia, Guizhou, Gansu, and Ningxia, and plan 10 national data center clusters. So far, the overall layout design of the national integrated big data center system has been completed, and the “East Digital West Computing” project has been officially launched. It is a long-term project that stretches for decades, and a project with heavy asset investment and a long investment chain. The investment volume may be in hundreds of billions. It marks the all-round start of the cluster construction of data centers. As an important part of “New Infrastructure”, this will inevitably lead to the rapid development of China’s data center-related industrial chain, and inject surging power into the “link” construction of digital communication networks and optical communication networks. As a leading supplier of intelligent link products in China, Putian Cable has a complete range of products and solutions in the industry. The “East Digital West Computing” project contains the construction requirements on a large number of data centers, data transmission products, optical transmission products, etc. Putian Cable has a wide range of market applications and technical accumulation in these product fields, and has the ability to play a huge role in the “East Digital West Computing” project. It brings greater market application space for the expansion of the Group’s structured cabling business. At the same time, according to the public tender information published by Chinese communication operators recently, the tender prices of communication cable products are all on the rise, indicating that the communication product industry is expected to recover in an all-round way, and the prospects are optimistic.

The Group will create value for customers by optimizing the structure of the industrial chain and building a business development system of the whole value chain. The Group will continuously optimize and integrate the upstream and downstream resources of the industry, further strengthen its presence and competitiveness in the industry through the research and development and upgrading of optical fiber technology, accelerated development and market promotion of communication optical cables, and active participation in the “new communication infrastructure” construction projects. It is committed to becoming a leading manufacturer and technical service provider of diversified products such as fiber optic cables, digital communication cables, automatic control cables of intelligent equipment, structured cabling, data center products and solutions in China’s communication industry.

In December 2021, the first phase of the Group’s “new non-dispersive single-mode optical fiber and optical cable production line” construction project was officially completed and put into production, laying a solid foundation for the diversified development of the optical fiber industry, while completing the layout of the optical fiber sector and optimizing the cost structure of optical cables. The Group will seize the opportunities presented by the development of the optical fiber and cable market, release product and technical reserves with focus on the needs of new infrastructure and 5G network constructions, and actively expand the cooperation channels for optical communication construction projects with the state-owned construction groups while maintaining cooperation with communication operators. Relying on the competitive advantage of independent production of optical fibers, the Group will act on its own optical cable products, or meet the demand of optical cable raw materials of other manufacturers in the industry, with a view of further establishing the influence and market competitiveness of the Group in the industry.

In addition, the Group will unswervingly follow the “innovation-driven” path for high-quality development, continue to increase investment in research and development, and cultivate and improve the capabilities of system solution integration. It has drafted or participated in the compilation of a number of “National and Industry Standards”, and with the implementation of the “White Paper of Industrial Ethernet Cabling Application Technology”, the “White Paper of Data Center 400G Network Technology” and other standards in the coming year, Putian Cable will expand its bidding and cooperation advantages of construction projects in the domestic use sector through the industrial technology conversion of communication copper cables and structured cabling products. In addition, in tandem with the integrated industrial chain, product differentiation and diversified market development, the Group will leverage on the advantages of its marketing network, and quickly grasp the new market opportunities of 5G, industrial Internet, Internet of Things and other information interconnection, energy interconnection, and interconnection of everything, to realize the high degree of synergy between the Group's production capacity layout and the market demand, enhance the business competitiveness of communication network projects, and achieve the transformation from “product supplier” to “system integration service provider”.

Looking forward to the future, the digital wave is rolling in, the digital transformation is surging, and the intelligent society is about to start. The Group will actively grasp the new trends of the new era, and maximize the value of digital connections, to promote the digital transformation of the society, so that the digital economy can better benefit the mankind and the society.

Total debt to total asset ratio

As at 31 December 2021, the total debt to total asset ratio of the Group, calculated by having the total liabilities divided by the total asset, was approximately 0.46 (2020: approximately 0.41).

Interest rate risk

The Group is exposed to cash flow interest rate risk due to the fluctuation of the prevailing market interest rate on bank and other borrowings. The Group does not have an interest rate hedging policy. However, the Directors will monitor interest rate exposure from time to time and will consider hedging significant interest rate exposure should the need arise.

The Group's cash flow interest rate risk is mainly concentrated on the fluctuation of the interest rates quoted by the People's Bank of China arising from the Group's bank and other borrowings.

The Group's interest rate risk mainly arises from bank and other borrowings. Bank and other borrowings arranged at variable expose the Group to cash flow interest rate risk and fair value interest rate risk. Certain of the bank and other borrowings of the Group as at 31 December 2021 and 2020 bore interest at floating rates. The interest rate and repayment terms of bank and other borrowings at the end of each reporting period are disclosed in note 23 to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

The Group's exposures to interest rate risk are detailed in note 35(a) to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Credit risk

At the end of the reporting period, the Group's maximum exposure to credit risk which will cause a financial loss to the Group was due to failure to discharge an obligation by the counterparties arising from the carrying amount of the respective recognised financial assets as stated in the consolidated statement of financial position.

In order to minimise the credit risk, the Directors have delegated a team responsible for determination of credit limits, credit approvals and other monitoring procedures to ensure that follow-up action are taken to recover overdue debts. In addition, the Directors review the recoverable amount of each individual receivable at the end of the reporting period to ensure that adequate impairment losses are made for irrecoverable amounts. In this regard, the Directors consider that the credit risk of the Group is significantly reduced.

The Directors consider that the credit risk on liquid funds is low as counterparties are banks with good reputation.

The credit risk of the Group is concentrated on trade and bills receivables from the Group's two largest customers at 31 December 2021 and 2020 amounted to RMB112,712,000 and RMB130,424,000 respectively, and accounted for 40.1% and 50.5% of the Group's gross trade and bills receivables. In order to minimise the credit risk, the Directors continuously monitor the level of exposure by frequent review of the financial condition and credit quality of its customers to ensure that prompt actions will be taken to lower exposure.

The Group considers the probability of default upon initial recognition of asset and whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk on an ongoing basis throughout each reporting period. To assess whether there is a significant increase in credit risk, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the asset as at the reporting date with the risk of default as at the date of initial recognition. It considers available reasonable and supportive forwarding-looking information. Especially the following indicators are incorporated:

- Internal credit rating
- External credit rating
- Actual or expected significant adverse changes in business, financial or economic conditions that are expected to cause a significant change to the borrower's ability to meet its obligations
- Actual or expected significant changes in the operating results of the borrower
- Significant increases in credit risk on the other financial instruments of the same borrower
- Significant changes in the expected performance and behaviour of the borrower, including changes in the payment status of borrowers in the Group and changes in the operating results of the borrower

The Group applies the simplified and general approach to provide for expected credit losses prescribed by HKFRS 9, which permits the use of the lifetime expected loss provision for trade and bills receivables and 12-month expected credit losses for other receivables, unless there is significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition.

In measuring the expected credit losses, the trade and bills receivables have been assessed on a collective basis as they possess shared credit risk characteristics. They have been grouped based on the days past due.

The Group considers a financial asset in default when contractual payments are 90 days past due. However, in certain cases, the Group may also consider a financial asset to be in default when internal or external information indicates that the Group is unlikely to receive the outstanding contractual amounts in full before taking into account any credit enhancements held by the Group. A financial asset is written off when there is no reasonable expectation of recovering the contractual cash flows.

The Group's exposures to credit risk are detailed in note 35(b) to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

Liquidity risk

Ultimate responsibility for liquidity risk management rests with the Directors, which have built an appropriate liquidity risk management framework for the management of the Group's short, medium and long-term funding and liquidity management requirements. The Group manages liquidity risk by maintaining adequate reserves and banking facilities.

The Group's remaining contractual maturity for its non-derivative financial liabilities was detailed in note 35(c) to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Currency risk

The Group is only exposed to currency risk through cash and cash equivalent balances that are denominated in HKD and USD, the currencies other than the functional currency of the entity to which they relate. The Group minimised its financial assets or liabilities denominated in currencies other than its functional currency to mitigate its exposure to currency risk. The Group has not adopted any foreign currency hedging policy. However, the Directors monitor the Group's foreign exchange exposure closely and may, depending on the circumstances and trend of foreign currency, consider to adopt appropriate foreign currency hedging policy in the future and will make disclosures as and when necessary.

The Group's exposures to currency risk are detailed in note 35(d) to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

The Board is pleased to present the corporate governance report of the Company for the Year.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PRACTICES

The Company is committed to maintaining a high standard of corporate governance and believes that a good corporate governance can (i) enhance management effectiveness and efficiency; (ii) increase the transparency of the Company; (iii) enhance risk management and internal control of the Company; and (iv) safeguard the interests of the shareholders of the Company and the Company as a whole.

The Company has adopted the Corporate Governance Code (the “CG Code”) as set out in Appendix 14 to the Listing Rules as its own code of corporate governance practices. Save for the deviation as disclosed herein below, the Company has complied with the applicable code provisions as set out in the CG Code during the Year. The key corporate governance principles and practices of the Company are outlined in this report.

Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer

Provision C.2.1 of the CG Code provides that the roles of chairman and chief executive should be separate and should not be performed by the same individual. The division of responsibilities between the chairman and the chief executive should be clearly established and set out in writing.

Ms. Wang is the chairlady of the Board and the chief executive officer of the Company. This deviates from the practice under provision C.2.1 of the CG Code, where it provides that the two positions should be held by two different individuals. However, as Ms. Wang has considerable and extensive knowledge and experience in the industry and in enterprise operation and management in general, the Board believes that it is in the best interest of the Company and its shareholders as a whole to continue to have Ms. Wang as the chairlady of the Board so that the Board can benefit from her knowledge of the business and her capability in leading the Board in the long term development of the Group. From a corporate governance point of view, the decisions of the Board are made collectively by way of voting and therefore the chairman should not be able to monopolise the voting of the Board. The Board considers that the balance of power between the Board and the senior management of the Company can still be maintained under the current structure. The Board shall review the structure from time to time to ensure appropriate action is taken should the need arise.

THE BOARD

ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION

As a communication cable manufacturer and a structured cabling system product provider, the Group protects the environment at the area where it operates while striving to develop business. The Group strictly abides by relevant laws and regulations concerning wastes, exhaust gases and wastewater, such as the Environmental Protection Law of the PRC, Energy Conservation Law of the PRC and the National Environmental Emergency Response Plan. The effort of Putian Cable in emission control can be reflected by its GB/T24001-2016/ISO14001:2015 Environmental Management System Certification Certificate obtained.

Putian Cable has implemented a comprehensive system of an emergency response plan and regularly conducted drills, in a bid to secure the well-being of the surrounding environment, as well as arousing the awareness of employees from each department in handling emergency issues. In case of an environmental pollution incident, Putian Cable will act and response in a timely manner by taking measures to minimise hazards and prevent deterioration of the incident. Looking forward, we will deliberate on the prevention of hazards and environmental pollution, and energy and resources conservation at the research and development stage, as well as consider environmentally friendly development and advocate the use of harmless and safe technology during product design, on the premise that the product quality is assured.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Emissions Treatment

In respect of exhaust gas, no industrial exhaust gas is emitted from Putian Cable production process, while other exhaust gases arise from vehicles and oil fume from canteen. The oil fume from canteen will be emitted at high altitude after being treated by oil fume purifier. To reduce exhaust gas emissions and maintain the efficiencies of vehicles and oil fume purifiers, the Group conducts maintenance and examination on its vehicles regularly, and keeps the oil fume purifiers clean in the canteen. As to reducing emissions from vehicles, Putian Cable has set a target to reduce the use of private car for running business errands as far as possible. During the Year, the Group has boosted the use of bike-share and public transport for business trips. Putian Cable encouraged its employees to commute with economical and eco-friendly transportations, including public buses. The exhaust gases emitted by Putian Cable plants during the Year are as follows:

Exhaust Gases (Note 1)	2021	2020
Nitrogen oxides (kg)	9.6	9.1
Sulphur oxides (kg)	0.2	0.2
Particulate matter (kg)	0.7	0.7

Note:

- The calculation was based on the “Appendix 2: Reporting Guidance on Environmental KPIs” issued by the Stock Exchange and “Guidelines for Accounting and Reporting Greenhouse Gas Emissions for China Electronic Equipment Manufacturing Enterprises (Trial)” issued by the National Development and Reform Commission of the PRC.

The greenhouse gas emissions of Putian Cable plants are composed of direct emissions from stationary combustion, use of vehicles and refrigerant, energy indirect emissions from purchased electricity, and other indirect emissions from electricity used for fresh water and sewage processing by local government and overseas business travel. As to the target of greenhouse gas emissions, we aim to reduce the overall emissions on a short-term basis through vehicle emissions, energy consumption and water consumption which account for the majority of total emissions. The objectives for the specific aspects are discussed in the relevant sections. The greenhouse gas emissions of Putian Cable plants are as follows:

Greenhouse Gases	2021	2020
Total greenhouse gas emissions (tonnes CO ₂ e)	2,048	2,494
Greenhouse gas emissions per square metre (tonnes CO ₂ e/m ²)	0.05	0.06
Greenhouse gas emissions per revenue (tonnes CO ₂ e/RMB'000)	0.003	0.005
Scope 1 – Direct emissions (Note 1) (tonnes CO ₂ e)	49	42
Scope 2 – Energy indirect emissions (Note 2) (tonnes CO ₂ e)	1,985	2,443
Scope 3 – Other indirect emissions (Note 3) (tonnes CO ₂ e)	15	9

Notes:

- Based on the “Land Transport Enterprises - Guidelines for Accounting and Reporting of Greenhouse Gas Emissions (Trial)” and “Guidelines for Accounting and Reporting Greenhouse Gas Emissions for China Electronic Equipment Manufacturing Enterprises (Trial)” issued by the National Development and Reform Commission of the PRC.
- Based on the emission factors from the “Average Carbon Dioxide Emission Factors of China Regional Power Grid 2011 and 2012” issued by the National Development and Reform Commission of the PRC.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Waste scrap and incoming packaging materials from the production process are the major non-hazardous wastes of Putian Cable and are recycled as far as possible. Another type of non-hazardous wastes is domestic garbage, which is collected and processed collectively by the local environmental hygiene department. When there is hazardous waste produced, Putian Cable will engage qualified companies for further handling. By means of enhancing production process, Putian Cable utilises the raw materials to the greatest extent to reduce waste scrap produced. During the Year, the Group has set a target for controlling the amounts of paper waste. In order to achieve the target, the Group has spearheaded the initiatives of reusing paper and urged employees to reduce paper consumption in the workplace. The Group also encouraged its employees to reduce the usage of disposable and non-recyclable products in respect of waste reduction.

During the Year, there was no hazardous waste produced by Putian Cable plants (2020: 0 tonne). The data of non-hazardous waste generated from Putian Cable plants is as follows:

Wastes	2021	2020
Total non-hazardous waste generated (Note 1) (tonnes)	217	205
Non-hazardous waste generated per square metre (tonnes/m ²)	0.005	0.005
Non-hazardous waste generated per reveune (kg/RMB'000)	0.35	0.38

Note:

1. The non-hazardous waste generated by the Putian Cable includes waste scrap and domestic waste only. The amount of waste scrap generated was based on the actual record of Putian Cable. The amount of domestic waste was based on the daily estimated volume of domestic waste in office, with reference to the "Research on Solutions to Domestic Solid Waste in Cities of China" issued by Beijing Environmental Sanitation Administration.

Putian Cable does not produce or discharge any industrial wastewater in the production process, while domestic sewage generated will be pretreated in the septic tank before discharging into the municipal sewage pipe network.

Resources Conservation

The Group endeavours to promote the concepts of low carbon lifestyle and green office by adopting numerous measures on reducing resources consumption, as well as encouraging employees to take part in environmental protection. We acknowledges the opportunities of reducing energy and water consumption through daily operation. Therefore, we have set directional targets for both energy and water reduction through raising the environmental awareness of employees. Training is an advantageous tool to introduce employees the meaning of resources conservation and measures that they can practice to protect the environment. During the Year, the Group has organised additional environmental training to further promote energy and water conservation as well as low-carbon lifestyle for employees. The Group has achieved the related targets within the Year and fostered green office.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Putian Cable endeavours to improve energy management by reducing electricity consumption and using energy efficiently from different aspects. For electricity, employees are encouraged to switch off idle lighting system and other electronics, such as printers and computers, and take full advantage of sunlight whenever possible. We also recommend our employees to adjust the brightness of computers to protect not only the environment but also their eyesight. Energy-efficient lighting and air conditioners are adopted, and lighting appliances and filters for air conditioners are cleansed regularly to improve energy efficiency. We also advocate to turn off air-conditioning system one hour earlier each day and set the minimum temperature to around 26 degrees Celsius. We discourage employees to turn an air conditioner on and off repeatedly which could cause a waste of energy. By means of regular checking and maintenance, the possibility of leakage of refrigerant has been reduced. The energy consumption of Putian Cable plants is as follows:

Energy Consumption	2021	2020
Total energy consumption (MWh)	3,936	4,778
Energy consumption per square metre (MWh/m ²)	0.09	0.11
Energy consumption per revenue (MWh/RMB'000)	0.006	0.009
Purchased electricity (Note 1) (MWh)	3,775	4,647
Gasoline (Note 2) (MWh)	153	123
Liquefied petroleum gas (Note 3) (MWh)	8	8

Notes:

1. Based on the actual energy consumption record of Putian Cable.
2. The consumption of gasoline from the use of vehicles was calculated with reference to the "Appendix 2: Reporting Guidance on Environmental KPIs" issued by the Stock Exchange.
3. The consumption of liquefied petroleum gas from the use of stationary combustion sources was calculated based on the "Guidelines for Accounting and Reporting Greenhouse Gas Emissions for China Electronic Equipment Manufacturing Enterprises (Trial)" issued by the National Development and Reform Commission of the PRC.

To raise the water saving awareness of employees, the Group has posted water saving notices in every lavatory and employees are reminded to turn off the faucet tight after use. The Group also conducts tests to put a stop to hidden leaking pipes and monitors water meters regularly to prevent leaking and wasting water. Meanwhile, water are reused as far as possible. For instance, employees are encouraged to reuse the water for watering plants after scrubbing fruits and vegetables. In addition, we generally do not provide bottled water for meetings and employees are not allowed to wash containers with mineral drinking water. During the Year, the Group did not face any issue in sourcing water. The water consumption of Putian Cable plants is as follows:

Water Consumption	2021	2020
Total water consumption (Note 1) (m ³)	10,038	8,990

Green Operation

As a responsible corporate citizen, the Group attaches great importance to sustainability development and strives to promote green operation among its employees, in a bid to reduce greenhouse gas emissions from its business operation. For instance, in a bid to fortify the management of the use of office expenses and stationary, we purchase low-carbon and energy-efficient equipment. By posting reminders to advocate saving paper in office, the Group encourages employees to recycle and reuse paper, for example, using paper on both sides and using used paper to make records, as well as to utilise digital means for internal and external communication to replace paper circulation. The amount of paper used is also counted on a regular basis to monitor the usage. In addition, employees are encouraged to use refillable pens instead of disposable markers and ball pens. Conducting video conferences is suggested to substitute for non-essential overseas business trips, while direct flights are recommended for inevitable overseas business trips to reduce greenhouse gas emissions.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Climate Change

Climate change is rapidly emerging as one of the most significant issues across countries and is closely related to all businesses regardless of their nature. Being aware of the consequences brought by the changing climate, the Group has taken various measures to identify and mitigate climate-related risks. The Group regularly reviews global and local government policies and regulations regarding climate change to identify potential climate-related risks and opportunities that may have financial impacts on the Group's business.

During the Year, the Group has recognised physical risk brought by the increased severity of extreme weather events. It may lead to transportation difficulties and supply chain interruptions, thus decreasing production capacity. Extreme weather also has negative effects on the physical structure of the Group's facilities, thereby increasing maintenance cost, and employees' health and safety may be threatened. The Group may also face transition risks such as policy risks due to increasingly stringent policies and enhanced emissions-reporting obligations. Reputation risk may also occur with growing concerns of stakeholders such as the Group's responses to climate change, whether the goods and services provided are environmentally-friendly, etc.

To mitigate climate-related risks, the Group has put effort into different aspects. Putian Cable has formulated emergency plan for extreme weather conditions and natural disasters to ensure the safety of our employees and properties. Regular inspection of the factory structure and electric appliances will be carry out to eliminate any hidden dangers. Employees will receive training on the response and action when facing extreme weathers such as floods, typhoons and heavy rainstorms. Putian Cable will also issue early warnings based on information from local government and make sure employees are staying in a safe indoor environment. On top of the above, in order to better address stakeholders' concerns, the Group would communicate with and update our stakeholders regarding climate-related impacts and our climate change strategies in a timely manner.

We have no tolerance for any forms of discrimination, threat and humiliation. We shall investigate any misbehaviour cases reported and discipline the related parties. Upon receipt of resignation from an employee, we will conduct an exit interview to understand his/her reason for resignation.

To prevent misemploying child labour, job applicant's identification documents are also required for age verification. Once such labour practices are discovered, the Group would investigate the cases thoroughly and dismiss related employees immediately. With a view to safeguarding employees' rights and interests, we enter into employment contracts with employees before they report duties, which clearly define the job duties and working location to avoid forced labour.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

TO THE MEMBERS OF PUTIAN COMMUNICATION GROUP LIMITED

(Incorporated in Cayman Islands with limited liability)

OPINION

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Putian Communication Group Limited (the “Company”) and its subsidiaries (together the “Group”) set out on pages 60 to 110, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 December 2021 and the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, the consolidated statement of changes in equity and the consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 31 December 2021, and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards (“HKFRSs”) issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (“HKICPA”) and have been properly prepared in compliance with the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing (“HKSAs”) issued by HKICPA. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the “Auditor’s Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements” section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the HKICPA’s “Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants” (“the Code”), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

REVENUE RECOGNITION

Refer to summary of significant accounting policies in note 4 and disclosure of revenue in note 7 to the consolidated financial statements.

The Group is principally engaged in the communication copper cables, optical fiber cables and structured cabling system products business.

Revenue represents income from production and sales of communication copper cables, optical fiber cables and structured cabling system products sourced from Mainland China.

The Group enters into sale and purchase agreements with the telecommunications network operators and non-operators and in accordance with the terms of the agreements, revenue is recognised at the amount that reflects the consideration to which the Group expects to be entitled in exchange for transferring goods to the telecommunications network operators and non-operators.

We identified revenue recognition as a key audit matter because revenue is one of the key performance indicators of the Group and therefore there is an inherent risk of manipulation of the recognition of revenue by management to meet specific targets or expectations.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

OUR RESPONSE

Our procedures in relation to assess the recognition of revenue included the following:

- Obtaining an understanding of and assessing the design, implementation and operating effectiveness of key internal controls which govern revenue recognition;
- Inspecting sale and purchase agreements, on a sample basis, to understand the terms of delivery and assess whether management recognised the related revenue in accordance with the Group's accounting policies, with reference to the requirements of the prevailing accounting standards;
- Comparing sales records for a sample of sales transactions recorded during the year with relevant underlying documentation, which included sales invoices and good delivery notes with evidence of the customers' receipt of the goods and the date of receipt of the goods by the customers;
- Obtaining confirmations, on a sample basis, from major customers of the Group of sales transactions during the year end, for unreturned confirmations, performing alternative procedures by comparing details of the transactions with relevant underlying documentation;
- Comparing, on a sample basis, specific revenue transactions recorded before and after the financial year end date with the underlying sale and purchase agreements and good delivery notes to determine whether the related revenue had been recognized in the appropriate financial period;
- Scrutinising all journals affecting revenue raised during the reporting period and comparing details of a sample of these journal, which met certain risk-based criteria, with relevant underlying documentation.

IMPAIRMENT ASSESSMENT OF TRADE AND BILLS RECEIVABLES

Refer to summary of significant accounting policies in note 4, critical accounting estimates and judgements in note 5(ii) and disclosure of trade and bills receivables in note 18 to the consolidated financial statements.

As at 31 December 2021, the Group had net trade and bills receivables amounting to approximately RMB274,392,000, after making loss allowance of approximately RMB6,812,000. It represented approximately 27.2% of the total assets of the Group and is considered quantitatively significant to the Group.

The Group's loss allowance is measured at an amount equal to lifetime expected credit loss ("ECL") based on management's estimated loss rates for each category of trade and bills receivables. The estimated loss rates take into account the aging of the trade and bills receivables, overdue balances, information regarding the ability and intent of the debtor to pay as well as historical data on default rates.

We have identified impairment assessment of trade and bills receivables as a key audit matter due to considerable amount of judgement and estimates being required in conducting impairment assessment as mentioned in the forgoing paragraph.

OUR RESPONSE

Our procedures in relation to management's impairment assessment on trade and bills receivables included the following:

- Obtaining an understanding of and assessing the design, implementation and operating effectiveness of key internal controls relating to credit control, debt collection and the calculation of the ECL;
- assessing the trade and bills receivables ageing report by group based on shared credit risk characteristics and the days past due by comparing the details of individual items with underlying invoices on a sample basis;
- comparing cash receipts from debtors subsequent to the financial year end relating to trade and bills receivable balances as at 31 December 2021 with relevant underlying documentation on a sample basis; and
- obtaining an understanding of the basis of management's approach to measuring ECLs of trade and bills receivable balances and assessing the reasonableness of management's loss allowance estimates by examining the information used by management to form such judgements, including testing the accuracy of the historical default data, evaluating whether the historical loss rate are appropriately adjusted based on current economic conditions and forward-looking information.

OTHER INFORMATION IN THE ANNUAL REPORT

The directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Company's annual report, other than the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The directors are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with HKFRSs issued by the HKICPA and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The directors are also responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process. The Audit Committee assists the directors in discharging their responsibility in this regard.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. This report is made solely to you, as a body, in accordance with the terms of our engagement, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSA's will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSA's, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.
- conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Audit Committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the Audit Committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with the directors, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

3. BASIS OF PREPARATION

3.1 Statement of compliance

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with all applicable HKFRSs, HKASs and Interpretations (hereinafter collectively referred to as the “HKFRS”) and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance. In addition, the financial statements include applicable disclosures required by the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited.

3.2 Basis of measurement

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost basis.

3.3 Functional and presentation currency

Items included in the financial statements of each of the Group’s entities are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates (the “functional currency”). The functional currency of the Company and certain of its subsidiaries is Hong Kong dollars (“HKD”). As the major operations of the Group are within the PRC, the Group presents its consolidated financial statements in Renminbi (“RMB”), unless otherwise stated.

4. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

4.1 Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements comprise the financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries (“the Group”). Inter-company transactions and balances between group companies together with unrealised profits are eliminated in full in preparing the consolidated financial statements. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of impairment on the asset transferred, in which case the loss is recognised in profit or loss.

4.2 Subsidiaries

A subsidiary is an investee over which the Company is able to exercise control. The Company controls an investee if all three of the following elements are present: power over the investee, exposure, or rights, to variable returns from the investee, and the ability to use its power to affect those variable returns. Control is reassessed whenever facts and circumstances indicate that there may be a change in any of these elements of control.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

4. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

4.3 Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment including buildings held for use in the production or supply of goods, or for administrative purposes as described below, other than construction in progress, are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any.

The cost of property, plant and equipment includes its purchase price and the costs directly attributable to the acquisition of the items.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of the replaced part is derecognised. All other repairs and maintenance are recognised as an expense in profit or loss during the financial period in which they are incurred.

Property, plant and equipment are depreciated so as to write off their costs net of estimated residual values over their estimated useful lives on straight-line method. The useful lives, residual value and depreciation method are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at the end of each reporting period. The useful lives are as follows:

Buildings and structures	5 - 20 years
Machinery	5 - 10 years
Motor vehicles	5 years
Furniture, fixtures and office equipment	3 - 5 years

An asset is written down immediately to its recoverable amount if its carrying amount is higher than the asset's estimated recoverable amount.

The gain or loss on disposal of an item of property, plant and equipment is the difference between the net sale proceeds and its carrying amount, and is recognised in profit or loss on disposal.

Construction in progress is stated at cost less impairment losses. Cost comprises direct costs of construction as well as borrowing costs capitalised during the periods of construction and installation. Capitalisation of these costs ceases and the construction in progress is transferred to the appropriate class of property, plant and equipment when substantially all the activities necessary to prepare the assets for their intended use are completed. No depreciation is provided for in respect of construction in progress until it is completed and ready for its intended use.

4.4 Leasing

The Group as a lessee

All leases are required to be capitalised in the statement of financial position as right-of-use assets and lease liabilities, but accounting policy choices exist for an entity to choose not to capitalise (i) leases which are short-term leases and/or (ii) leases for which the underlying asset is of low-value. The Group has elected not to recognise right-of-use assets and lease liabilities for low-value assets and leases for which at the commencement date have a lease term less than 12 months. The lease payments associated with those leases have been expensed on straight-line basis over the lease term.

(i) Right-of-use asset

The right-of-use asset should be recognised at cost and would comprise: (i) the amount of the initial measurement of the lease liability (see below for the accounting policy to account for lease liability); (ii) any lease payments made at or before the commencement date, less any lease incentives received; (iii) any initial direct costs incurred by the lessee and (iv) an estimate of costs to be incurred by the lessee in dismantling and removing the underlying asset to the condition required by the terms and conditions of the lease, unless those costs are incurred to produce inventories. Except for right-of-use asset that meets the definition of an investment property or a class of property, plant and equipment to which the Group applies the revaluation model, the Group measures the right-of-use assets applying a cost model. Under the cost model, the Group measures the right-to-use at cost, less any accumulated depreciation and any impairment losses, and adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liability.

The Group also has leased a number of properties under tenancy agreements which the Group exercises its judgement and determines that it is a separate class of asset apart from the leasehold land and buildings which is held for own use. As a result, the right-of-use asset arising from the properties under tenancy agreements are carried at depreciated cost.

(ii) Lease liability

The lease liability is recognised at the present value of the lease payments that are not paid at the date of commencement of the lease. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease, if that rate can be readily determined. If that rate cannot be readily determined, the Group uses the Group's incremental borrowing rate.

The following payments for the right-to-use the underlying asset during the lease term that are not paid at the commencement date of the lease are considered to be lease payments: (i) fixed payments less any lease incentives receivable; (ii) variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, initially measured using the index or rate as at commencement date; (iii) amounts expected to be payable by the lessee under residual value guarantees; (iv) the exercise price of a purchase option if the lessee is reasonably certain to exercise that option and (v) payments of penalties for terminating the lease, if the lease term reflects the lessee exercising an option to terminate the lease.

Subsequent to the commencement date, the Group measures the lease liability by: (i) increasing the carrying amount to reflect interest on the lease liability; (ii) reducing the carrying amount to reflect the lease payments made; and (iii) remeasuring the carrying amount to reflect any reassessment or lease modifications, e.g., a change in future lease payments arising from change in an index or rate, a change in the lease term, a change in the in-substance fixed lease payments or a change in assessment to purchase the underlying asset.

4.5 Financial Instruments

(i) Financial assets

A financial asset (unless it is a trade receivable without a significant financing component) is initially measured at fair value plus, for an item not at fair value through profit or loss (“FVTPL”), transaction costs that are directly attributable to its acquisition or issue. A trade receivable without a significant financing component is initially measured at the transaction price.

All regular way purchases and sales of financial assets are recognised on the trade date, that is, the date that the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset. Regular way purchases or sales are purchases or sales of financial assets that require delivery of assets within the period generally established by regulation or convention in the market place.

Financial assets with embedded derivatives are considered in their entirety when determining whether their cash flows are solely payment of principal and interest.

Debt instruments

Subsequent measurement of debt instruments depends on the Group’s business model for managing the asset and the cash flow characteristics of the asset. There are three measurement categories into which the Group classifies its debt instruments:

Amortised cost: Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows where those cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest are measured at amortised cost. Financial assets at amortised cost are subsequently measured using the effective interest rate method. Interest income, foreign exchange gains and losses and impairment are recognised in profit or loss. Any gain or loss on derecognition is recognised in profit or loss.

Fair value through other comprehensive income (“FVOCI”): Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows and for selling the financial assets, where the assets’ cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest, are measured at fair value through other comprehensive income. Debt investments at fair value through other comprehensive income are subsequently measured at fair value. Interest income calculated using the effective interest rate method, foreign exchange gains and losses and impairment are recognised in profit or loss. Other net gains and losses are recognised in other comprehensive income. On derecognition, gains and losses accumulated in other comprehensive income are reclassified to profit or loss.

Fair value through profit or loss (“FVTPL”): Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss include financial assets held for trading, financial assets designated upon initial recognition at fair value through profit or loss, or financial assets mandatorily required to be measured at fair value. Financial assets are classified as held for trading if they are acquired for the purpose of selling or repurchasing in the near term. Derivatives, including separated embedded derivatives, are also classified as held for trading unless they are designated as effective hedging instruments. Financial assets with cash flows that are not solely payments of principal and interest are classified and measured at fair value through profit or loss, irrespective of the business model. Notwithstanding the criteria for debt instruments to be classified at amortised cost or at fair value through other comprehensive income, as described above, debt instruments may be designated at fair value through profit or loss on initial recognition if doing so eliminates, or significantly reduces, an accounting mismatch.

Equity instruments

On initial recognition of an equity investment that is not held for trading, the Group could irrevocably elect to present subsequent changes in the investment’s fair value in other comprehensive income. This election is made on an investment-by-investment basis. Equity investments at fair value through other comprehensive income are measured at fair value. Dividend income are recognised in profit or loss unless the dividend income clearly represents a recovery of part of the cost of the investments. Other net gains and losses are recognised in other comprehensive income and are not reclassified to profit or loss. All other equity instruments are classified as FVTPL, whereby changes in fair value, dividends and interest income are recognised in profit or loss.

(ii) Impairment loss on financial assets

The Group recognises loss allowances for expected credit loss (“ECL”) on trade and bills receivables, contract assets, financial assets measured at amortised cost and debt investments measured at FVOCI. The ECLs are measured on either of the following bases: (1) 12-months ECLs: these are the ECLs that result from possible default events within the 12 months after the reporting date: and (2) lifetime ECLs: these are ECLs that result from all possible default events over the expected life of a financial instrument. The maximum period considered when estimating ECLs is the maximum contractual period over which the Group is exposed to credit risk.

ECLs are a probability-weighted estimate of credit losses. Credit losses are measured as the difference between all contractual cash flows that are due to the Group in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the Group expects to receive. The shortfall is then discounted at an approximation to the assets' original effective interest rate.

The Group measure loss allowances for trade and bills receivables and contract assets using HKFRS 9 simplified approach and has calculated ECLs based on lifetime ECLs. The Group has established a provision matrix that is based on the Group's historical credit loss experience, adjusted for forward-looking factors specific to the debtors and the economic environment.

For other debt financial assets, the ECLs are based on the 12-months ECLs. However, when there has been a significant increase in credit risk since origination, the allowance will be based on the lifetime ECLs.

When determining whether the credit risk of a financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition and when estimating ECL, the Group considers reasonable and supportable information that is relevant and available without undue cost or effort. This includes both quantitative and qualitative information analysis, based on the Group's historical experience and informed credit assessment and including forward-looking information.

The Group assumes that the credit risk on a financial asset has increased significantly if it is more than 30 days past due.

The Group considers a financial asset to be credit-impaired when: (1) the borrower is unlikely to pay its credit obligations to the Group in full, without recourse by the Group to actions such as realising security (if any is held); or (2) the financial asset is more than 90 days past due.

(iii) Financial liabilities

The Group classifies its financial liabilities, depending on the purpose for which the liabilities were incurred. Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are initially measured at fair value and financial liabilities at amortised costs are initially measured at fair value, net of directly attributable costs incurred.

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss include financial liabilities held for trading and financial liabilities designated upon initial recognition as at fair value through profit or loss.

Financial liabilities are classified as held for trading if they are acquired for the purpose of sale in the near term. Derivatives, including separated embedded derivatives, are also classified as held for trading unless they are designated as effective hedging instruments. Gains or losses on liabilities held for trading are recognised in profit or loss.

Where a contract contains one or more embedded derivatives, the entire hybrid contract may be designated as a financial liability at fair value through profit or loss, except where the embedded derivative does not significantly modify the cash flows or it is clear that separation of the embedded derivative is prohibited.

Financial liabilities may be designated upon initial recognition as at fair value through profit or loss if the following criteria are met: (i) the designation eliminates or significantly reduces the inconsistent treatment that would otherwise arise from measuring the liabilities or recognising gains or losses on them on a different basis; (ii) the liabilities are part of a group of financial liabilities which are managed and their performance evaluated on a fair value basis, in accordance with a documented risk management strategy; or (iii) the financial liability contains an embedded derivative that would need to be separately recorded.

Subsequent to initial recognition, financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are measured at fair value, with changes in fair value recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they arise, except for the gains and losses arising from the Group's own credit risk which are presented in other comprehensive income with no subsequent reclassification to the statement of profit or loss. The net fair value gain or loss recognised in the statement of profit or loss does not include any interest charged on these financial liabilities.

Financial liabilities at amortised cost

Financial liabilities at amortised cost including trade and other payables as well as borrowings, are subsequently measured at amortised cost, using the effective interest method. The related interest expense is recognised in profit or loss.

Gains or losses are recognised in profit or loss when the liabilities are derecognised as well as through the amortisation process.

(iv) Effective interest method

The effective interest method is a method of calculating the amortised cost of a financial asset or financial liability and of allocating interest income or interest expense over the relevant period. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts or payments through the expected life of the financial asset or liability, or where appropriate, a shorter period.

(v) Equity instruments

Equity instruments issued by the Company are recorded at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

(vi) Financial guarantee contracts

A financial guarantee contract is a contract that requires the issuer to make specified payments to reimburse the holder for a loss it incurs because a specified debtor fails to make payment when due in accordance with the original or modified terms of a debt instrument. A financial guarantee contract issued by the Group and not designated as at fair value through profit or loss is recognised initially at its fair value less transaction costs that are directly attributable to the issue of the financial guarantee contract. Subsequent to initial recognition, the Group measures the financial guarantee contract at the higher of: (i) the amount of the loss allowance, being the ECL provision measured in accordance with principles of the accounting policy set out in 4.5(ii); and (ii) the amount initially recognised less, when appropriate, cumulative amortisation recognised in accordance with the principles of HKFRS 15.

(vii) Derecognition

The Group derecognises a financial asset when the contractual rights to the future cash flows in relation to the financial asset expire or when the financial asset has been transferred and the transfer meets the criteria for derecognition in accordance with HKFRS 9.

Financial liabilities are derecognised when the obligation specified in the relevant contract is discharged, cancelled or expires.

Where the Group issues its own equity instruments to a creditor to settle a financial liability in whole or in part as a result of renegotiating the terms of that liability, the equity instruments issued are the consideration paid and are recognised initially and measured at their fair value on the date the financial liability or part thereof is extinguished. If the fair value of the equity instruments issued cannot be reliably measured, the equity instruments are measured to reflect the fair value of the financial liability extinguished. The difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability or part thereof extinguished and the consideration paid is recognised in profit or loss for the year.

4.6 Inventories

Inventories are initially recognised at cost, and subsequently at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost comprises all costs of purchase, costs of conversion and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition. Cost is calculated using the weighted average method. Net realisable value represents the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

4. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

4.7 Revenue recognition

Revenue is measured based on the consideration specified in a contract with a customer, net of expected goods of returns, discounts and sales related taxes. Revenue is recognised when performance obligation is satisfied.

Depending on the terms of the contract and the laws that apply to the contract, control of the goods or service may be transferred over time or at a point in time. Control of the goods or service is transferred over time if the Group's performance:

- provides all of the benefits received and consumed simultaneously by the customer;
- creates or enhances an asset that the customer controls as the Group performs; or
- does not create an asset with an alternative use to the Group and the Group has an enforceable right to payment for performance completed to date.

If control of the goods or services transfers over time, revenue is recognised over the period of the contract by reference to the progress towards complete satisfaction of that performance obligation. Otherwise, revenue is recognised at a point in time when the customer obtains control of the goods or service.

When the contract contains a financing component which provides the customer a significant benefit of financing the transfer of goods or services to the customer for more than one year, revenue is measured at the present value of the amounts receivable, discounted using the discount rate that would be reflected in a separate financing transaction between the Group and the customer at contract inception. Where the contract contains a financing component which provides a significant financing benefit to the Group, revenue recognised under that contract includes the interest expense accreted on the contract liability under the effective interest method. For contracts where the period between the payment and the transfer of the promised goods or services is one year or less, the transaction price is not adjusted for the effects of a significant financing component, using the practical expedient in HKFRS 15.

Optical fiber cables, communication copper cables and structured cabling system products

Customers obtain control of the optical fiber cables, communication copper cables and structured cabling systems products when the goods are delivered to and have been accepted. Revenue is thus recognised upon when the customers accepted the optical fiber cables, communication copper cables and structured cabling systems products. There is generally only one performance obligation. Invoices are usually payable within 180-360 days.

Goods sold by the Group include warranties which require the Group to either replace or mend a defective product during the warranty period if the goods fail to comply with agreed-upon specifications. In accordance with HKFRS 15, such warranties are not accounted for as separate performance obligations and hence no revenue is allocated to them. Instead, a provision is made for the costs of satisfying the warranties in accordance with HKAS 37 Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets. Based on historical data, the Group does not recognise the provision of contract consideration for this warranty.

Contract liabilities

A contract liability represents the Group's obligation to transfer services to a customer for which the Group has received consideration (or an amount of consideration is due) from the customer.

Contract costs

The Group recognises an asset from the costs incurred to fulfil a contract when those costs meet all of the following criteria:

- the costs relate directly to a contract or to an anticipated contract that the entity can specifically identify;
- the costs generate or enhance resources of the entity that will be used in satisfying (or in continuing to satisfy) performance obligations in the future; and
- the costs are expected to be recovered.

The asset recognised is subsequently amortised to profit or loss on a systematic basis that is consistent with the transfer to the customer of the goods or services to which the cost relate. The asset is subject to impairment review.

4.8 Income taxes

Income taxes for the year comprise current tax and deferred tax.

Current tax is based on the profit or loss from ordinary activities adjusted for items that are non-assessable or disallowable for income tax purposes and is calculated using tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the end of reporting period.

Deferred tax is recognised in respect of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the corresponding amounts used for tax purposes. Except for goodwill and recognised assets and liabilities that affect neither accounting nor taxable profits, deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which deductible temporary differences can be utilised. Deferred tax is measured at the tax rates appropriate to the expected manner in which the carrying amount of the asset or liability is realised or settled and that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the end of reporting period.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for taxable temporary differences arising on investments in subsidiaries, branches and associates and interests in joint arrangements except where the Group is able to control the reversal of the temporary difference and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Income taxes are recognised in profit or loss except when they relate to items recognised in other comprehensive income in which case the taxes are also recognised in other comprehensive income or when they relate to items recognised directly in equity in which case the taxes are also recognised directly in equity.

4.9 Foreign currency

Transactions entered into by group entities in currencies other than the currency of the primary economic environment in which it/they operate(s) (the “functional currency”) are recorded at the rates ruling when the transactions occur. Foreign currency monetary assets and liabilities are translated at the rates ruling at the end of reporting period. Non-monetary items carried at fair value that are denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing on the date when the fair value was determined. Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are not retranslated.

Exchange differences arising on the settlement of monetary items, and on the translation of monetary items, are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they arise. Exchange differences arising on the retranslation of non-monetary items carried at fair value are included in profit or loss for the period except for differences arising on the retranslation of non-monetary items in respect of which gains and losses are recognised in other comprehensive income, in which case, the exchange differences are also recognised in other comprehensive income.

The functional currencies of the Company and certain subsidiaries are currencies other than the RMB. The assets and liabilities of these entities are translated into the presentation currency of the Group at the exchange rates ruling at the end of each reporting period, and their income and expense items are translated into RMB at the weighted average exchange rates for the period. The resulting exchange differences are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in the exchange reserve. On disposal of an operation with functional currency other than RMB, the component of other comprehensive income relating to that particular operation is recognised in the statement of profit or loss.

For the purpose of the consolidated statements of cash flows, the cash flows of non-PRC entities are translated into RMB at the exchange rates ruling at the dates of the cash flows. Frequently recurring cash flows of non-PRC entities which arise throughout the year are translated into RMB at the weighted average exchange rates for the year.

4. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

4.10 Employee benefits

Pursuant to the relevant regulations of the PRC government, the Group participates in a central pension scheme operated by the local municipal government (the “Scheme”), whereby the subsidiary of the Company in the PRC is required to contribute a certain percentage of the basic salaries of its employees to the Scheme to fund their retirement benefits. The local municipal government undertakes to assume the retirement benefits obligations of all existing and future retired employees of the subsidiary of the Company. The only obligation of the Group with respect to the Scheme is to pay the ongoing required contributions under the Scheme. Contributions under the Scheme are charged to profit or loss as incurred. There are no provisions under the Scheme whereby forfeited contributions may be used to reduce future contributions.

The Group also operates a Mandatory Provident Fund Scheme (“the MPF scheme”) under the Hong Kong Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Ordinance for employees employed under the jurisdiction of the Hong Kong Employment Ordinance and not previously covered by the defined benefit retirement plan. The MPF scheme is a defined contribution retirement plan administered by independent trustees.

4.11 Impairment of assets (other than financial assets)

At the end of each reporting period, the Group reviews the carrying amounts of the following assets to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered an impairment loss or an impairment loss previously recognised no longer exists or may have decreased:

- property, plant and equipment under cost model;
- prepayment on property, plant and equipment and intangible assets; and
- investments in subsidiaries

If the recoverable amount (i.e. the greater of the fair value less costs of disposal and value in use) of an asset is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset is reduced to its recoverable amount. An impairment loss is recognised as an expense immediately, unless the relevant asset is carried at revalued amount under another HKFRS, in which case the impairment loss is treated as a revaluation decrease under that HKFRS.

Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, to the extent that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognised as income immediately, unless the relevant asset is carried at a revalued amount under another HKFRS, in which case the reversal of the impairment loss is treated as a revaluation increase under that HKFRS.

Value in use is based on the estimated future cash flows expected to be derived from the asset, discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset or cash generating unit.

4.12 Capitalisation of borrowing costs

Borrowing costs attributable directly to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets which require a substantial period of time to be ready for their intended use or sale, are capitalised as part of the cost of those assets. Income earned on temporary investments of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on those assets is deducted from borrowing costs capitalised. All other borrowing costs are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they are incurred

4.13 Provisions and contingent liabilities

Provisions are recognised for liabilities of uncertain timing or amount when the Group has a legal or constructive obligation arising as a result of a past event, which it is probable will result in an outflow of economic benefits that can be reliably estimated.

Where it is not probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required, or the amount cannot be estimated reliably, the obligation is disclosed as a contingent liability, unless the probability of outflow of economic benefits is remote. Possible obligations, the existence of which will only be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more future events, are also disclosed as contingent liabilities unless the probability of outflow of economic benefits is remote.

4.14 Research and developments costs

All research costs are charged to profit or loss as incurred.

Expenditure incurred on projects to develop new products is capitalised and deferred only when the Group can demonstrate the technical feasibility of completing the intangible asset so that it will be available for use or sale, its intention to complete and its ability to use or sell the asset, how the asset will generate future economic benefits, the availability of resources to complete the project and the ability to measure reliably the expenditure during the development. Product development expenditure which does not meet these criteria is expensed when incurred.

4.15 Related parties

For the purposes of these financial statements, a party is considered to be related to the Group if:

- (a) A person or a close member of that person's family is related to the Group if that person:
 - (i) has control or joint control over the Group;
 - (ii) has significant influence over the Group; or
 - (iii) is a member of key management personnel of the Group or the Company's parent.
- (b) An entity is related to the Group if any of the following conditions apply:
 - (i) The entity and the Group are members of the same group (which means that each parent, subsidiary and fellow subsidiary is related to the others).
 - (ii) One entity is an associate or joint venture of the other entity (or an associate or joint venture of a member of a group of which the other entity is a member).
 - (iii) Both entities are joint ventures of the same third party.
 - (iv) One entity is a joint venture of a third entity and the other entity is an associate of the third entity.
 - (v) The entity is a post-employment benefit plan for the benefit of the employees of the Group or an entity related to the Group.
 - (vi) The entity is controlled or jointly controlled by a person identified in (a).
 - (vii) A person identified in (a)(i) has significant influence over the entity or is a member of key management personnel of the entity (or of a parent of the entity).
 - (viii) The entity, or any member of a group of which it is a part, provides key management personnel services to the Group or to the Company's parent.

Close members of the family of a person are those family members who may be expected to influence, or be influenced by, that person in their dealings with the entity and include (i) that person's children and spouse or domestic partner; (ii) children of that person's spouse or domestic partner; and (iii) dependents of that person or that person's spouse or domestic partner.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

5. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES AND JUDGEMENTS

In the application of the Group's accounting policies, the directors are required to make judgements, estimates and assumptions about the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods. Our key sources of estimation uncertainty are as follows:

(i) Depreciation

The Group depreciates the property, plant and equipment in accordance with the accounting policies stated in note 4.3. The estimated useful lives reflect the directors' estimates of the periods that the Group intends to derive future economic benefits from the use of these assets. The management reassesses the estimated useful lives at the end of each reporting period.

(ii) Impairment of trade, bills and other receivables

The impairment of trade, bills and other receivables are based on assumptions about risk of default and expected credit loss rates. The Group adopts judgement in making these assumption and selecting inputs for computing such impairment loss, broadly based on the available customers' historical data, existing market conditions including forward looking estimates at end of reporting period.

Where the expectation is different from the original estimate, such difference will impact the carrying amount of trade and other receivables and impairment losses in the periods in which such estimate has been changed.

(iii) Impairment of non-financial assets

The Group assesses whether there are any indicators of impairment for all non-financial assets at the end of each reporting period. Non-financial assets are tested for impairment when there are indicators that the carrying amounts may not be recoverable. An impairment exists when the carrying value of an asset or a cash generating unit exceeds its recoverable amount, which is the higher of its fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use. The calculation of the fair value less costs of disposal is based on such available data as binding sales transactions in an arm's length transaction of similar assets or observable market prices less incremental costs for disposing of the asset. When value in use calculations are undertaken, management must estimate the expected future cash flows from the asset of cash generating unit and choose a suitable discount rate in order to calculate the present value of those cash flows.

6. SEGMENT REPORTING

The Group determines its operating segments based on the reports reviewed by the chief operating decision-maker that are used to make strategic decisions.

The Group operating segments are managed separately as each business offers different and requires different business strategies.

The Group divided the cable products into three main categories: a) Communication copper cables; b) Optical fiber cables; c) Structured cabling system products:

(a) Communication copper cables

Communication copper cable is a general term which those electric cables which are mainly made by copper as the main conductive body of the cables. These cables are used widely; it can be used in transmission and distribution of electric energy, which normally used in the city's underground electric network, power station as an extraction line, also can be found in the industrial and mining enterprises for the internal power supply and over the river or sea of underwater transmission lines; or it can also be used as the network cabling for residential and commercial buildings.

(b) Optical fiber cables

Optical fiber cable is a similar product with copper cable, but it is an enhanced version. The optical fiber cables are also used in telecommunications, network operators, radio network and etc, but the useful life, safety conditions, speed and stability of transmission of optical fiber cables are much better than copper cables. Also the weight and size are much smaller than copper cables too, hence optical fiber cable is the new trend as a replacement of copper cable. However, copper cables is still widely use in connecting the personal computer and other electronic devices, hence copper cables although is been replaced by optical fiber cables, but in fact it can't be 100% replaced and will continuously attribute in the cable markets in the future.

(c) Structured cabling system products

Since the Group operated in the electric cable wires business, and they found the demand of structured cabling system products is increasing in each year in the PRC market. Nowadays, more commercial buildings and residential units are built in modern style, hence the requirement of interior electronic applicable products is also boost up and towards a more 'intelligent' way. As a result, the structured cabling system products sales increased significantly, especially in those better developed cities, such as Beijing, Shanghai and etc.

35. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

Details of these financial instruments are disclosed in respective notes. The risks associated with these financial instruments include market risk (interest rate risk and other price risk), credit risk and liquidity risk. The policies on how to mitigate these risks are set out below. The directors of the Company manage and monitor these exposures to ensure appropriate measures are implemented on a timely and effective manner.

(a) Interest rate risk

The Group is exposed to cash flow interest rate risk due to the fluctuation of the prevailing market interest rate on bank and other borrowings. The Group does not have an interest rate hedging policy. However, the directors of the Group monitors interest rate exposure from time to time and will consider hedging significant interest rate exposure should the need arise.

The Group's exposures to interest rates on financial assets and financial liabilities are detailed in the liquidity risk management section of this note. The Group's cash flow interest rate risk is mainly concentrated on the fluctuation of the interest rates quoted by the People's Bank of China arising from the Group's bank borrowings.

The Group's interest rate risk mainly arises from bank and other borrowings. Bank and other borrowings arranged at variable expose the Group to cash flow interest rate risk and fair value interest rate risk. Certain of the bank and other borrowings of the Group as at 31 December 2021 and 2020 bore interest at floating rates. The interest rate and repayment terms of bank and other borrowings at the end of each reporting period are disclosed in note 23.

The following sensitivity demonstrates the Group's exposure to a reasonably possible change in interest rates on it floating rate bank borrowings with all other variables held constant at the end of the reporting period (in practice, the actual trading results may differ from the sensitivity analysis below and the difference could be material):

	2021 RMB'000	2020 RMB'000
Change in profit after tax and retained profits:
+/-100 basis points	-/+142	-/+97

The changes in interest rates do not affect the Group's other components of equity. The above sensitivity analysis is prepared based on the assumption that the bank borrowing period of the loans outstanding at the end of the reporting period resembles that of the corresponding financial year.

35. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT (CONTINUED)

(b) Credit risk

At the end of the reporting period, the Group's maximum exposure to credit risk which will cause a financial loss to the Group due to failure to discharge an obligation by the counterparties arising from the carrying amount of the respective recognised financial assets as stated in the consolidated statement of financial position.

In order to minimise the credit risk, the directors of the Company have delegated a team responsible for determination of credit limits, credit approvals and other monitoring procedures to ensure that follow-up action are taken to recover overdue debts. In addition, the directors of the Company review the recoverable amount of each individual receivable at the end of the reporting period to ensure that adequate impairment losses are made for irrecoverable amounts. In this regard, the directors of the Company consider that the credit risk of the Group is significantly reduced.

The directors of the Company consider that the credit risk on liquid funds is low as counterparties are banks with good reputation.

The credit risk of the Group is concentrated on trade and bills receivables from the Group's two largest customers at 31 December 2021 and 2020 amounted to RMB112,712,000 and RMB130,424,000 respectively, and accounted for 40.1% and 50.5% of the Group's gross trade and bills receivables. In order to minimise the credit risk, the directors of the Company continuously monitor the level of exposure by frequent review of the financial condition and credit quality of its customers to ensure that prompt actions will be taken to lower exposure.

The Group considers the probability of default upon initial recognition of asset and whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk on an ongoing basis throughout each reporting period. To assess whether there is a significant increase in credit risk the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the asset as at the reporting date with the risk of default as at the date of initial recognition. It considers available reasonable and supportive forwarding-looking information. Especially the following indicators are incorporated:

- Internal credit rating
- External credit rating
- Actual or expected significant adverse changes in business, financial or economic conditions that are expected to cause a significant change to the borrower's ability to meet its obligations
- Actual or expected significant changes in the operating results of the borrower
- Significant increases in credit risk on the other financial instruments of the same borrower
- Significant changes in the expected performance and behaviour of the borrower, including changes in the payment status of borrowers in the Group and changes in the operating results of the borrower

(b) Credit risk (Continued)

The Group applies the simplified and general approach to provide for expected credit losses prescribed by HKFRS 9, which permits the use of the lifetime expected loss provision for trade and bills receivables and 12-month expected credit losses for other receivables, unless there is significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition.

In measuring the expected credit losses, the trade and bills receivables have been assessed on a collective basis as they possess shared credit risk characteristics. They have been grouped based on the days past due.

The Group considers a financial asset in default when contractual payments are 90 days past due. However, in certain cases, the Group may also consider a financial asset to be in default when internal or external information indicates that the Group is unlikely to receive the outstanding contractual amounts in full before taking into account any credit enhancements held by the Group. A financial asset is written off when there is no reasonable expectation of recovering the contractual cash flows.

As at 31 December 2021 and 2020, the loss allowance provision for trade and bills receivables was determined as follows. The expected credit losses below also incorporated forward looking information.

Trade and bills receivables	Current (not past due)	1-30 days past due	31-60 days past due	61-90 days past due	91-365 days past due	More than one year past due	Total

As at 31 December 2021 and 2020, the gross carrying amount of trade and bills receivables was RMB281,204,000 and RMB258,398,000 respectively and thus the maximum exposure to loss was RMB274,392,000 and RMB250,430,000 respectively.

The following changes in the gross carrying amounts of trade receivables and bills receivables contributed to the decrease in the loss allowance during the year:

- Decrease in days past due over 60 days resulted in an decrease in loss allowance of RMB2,376,000 (2020: Increase of RMB4,193,000)

(c) Liquidity risk

Ultimate responsibility for liquidity risk management rests with the directors of the Company, which has built an appropriate liquidity risk management framework for the management of the Group's short, medium and long-term funding and liquidity management requirements. The Group manages liquidity risk by maintaining adequate reserves and banking facilities.

The following table details the Group's remaining contractual maturity for its non-derivative financial liabilities. The table has been drawn up based on the undiscounted cash flows of financial liabilities based on the earliest date on which the Group can be required to pay. The table includes both interest and principal cash flows. To the extent that interest flows are floating rate, the undiscounted amount is derived from current interest rate at the end of each reporting period.

(d) Currency risk

(i) Exposure to currency risk

The Group is only exposed to currency risk through cash and cash equivalent balances that are denominated in HKD and USD, the currencies other than the functional currency of the entity to which they relate.

The following table details the Group's exposure as at 31 December 2021 to currency risk arising from recognised assets denominated in a currency other than the functional currency of the entity to which they relate. For presentation purposes, the amounts of the exposure are shown in RMB, translated using the spot rate at the end of reporting period. Differences resulting from the translation of the financial statements of the entities with functional currency other than RMB into the Group's presentation currency are excluded.

The Company has significant financial assets and financial liabilities denominated in currencies other than its functional currency and it is exposed to currency risk.

(ii) Sensitivity analysis (Continued)

Results of the analysis as presented above represent an aggregation of the instantaneous effects on each of the Group entities' profit after tax and equity measured in the respective functional currencies, translated into RMB at the exchange rate ruling at the end of reporting period for presentation purposes.

The sensitivity analysis assumes that the change in foreign exchange rates had been applied to remeasure those financial instruments held by the Group which expose the Group to foreign currency risk at the end of reporting period. The analysis excludes differences that would result from the translation of the financial statements of foreign operations into the Group's presentation currency. The analysis at 31 December 2020 has been performed on the same basis.

36. APPROVAL OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The financial statements were approved and authorised for issue by the directors on 31 March 2022.
