RESUMPTION OF TRADING

Vobile Group Limited (the “Company”) refers to its announcement dated 28 April 2022 about its trading halt.

The Company wishes to inform its shareholders and the public generally that it has observed what it considers to be unusual and irregular trading in the Company’s shares over a period of time, which the Company believes might be the result of market misconduct designed to lead to a material and sustained fall in the Company’s share price. The Company believes that such activity is not in the Company’s or its shareholders’ best interests, nor is it in the interests of market fairness, integrity, transparency and orderliness.

The Company is in the process of taking various steps, including making appropriate enquiries, assessing available information and taking professional advice (including legal advice) with respect to its options, including its options for identifying and pursuing the perpetrators of any market misconduct. The Company will assist relevant regulators with any enquiries or investigations that they might pursue, and the Company will update the market again when it is able and appropriate to do so.

In the meantime, the Company would like to remind its shareholders to trade cautiously and to treat with caution any information about the Company that has not been published by the Company through an announcement made on its website.

The Company will make further announcement(s) to keep its shareholders and potential investors informed of any progress as and when appropriate.
