Once the announcement is made, all holders of the overseas listed shares shall be deemed to have received the notice of the relevant shareholder's meeting.

Article 79 An accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the failure to receive the notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive such notice shall not invalidate the meeting and the resolutions adopted thereat.

Article 80 Any shareholder entitled to attend and vote at a meeting of the Company shall be entitled to attend the meeting in person or appoint one or more persons (whether a shareholder or not) as his/her/its proxy to attend and vote on his/her/its behalf. Article 103 A special resolution of a shareholders' general meeting shall be passed by an affirmative vote of more than two-thirds (2/3) of the Company's total voting shares being held by the shareholders who are present at the meeting (including proxies).

Article 104 A shareholder (including proxy), when voting at a shareholders' general meeting, may exercise voting rights in accordance with the number of shares carrying the right to vote. Each share shall have one vote.

Article 105 Any vote of shareholders at a shareholders' general meeting must be taken by poll except where the chairman of the meeting, in good faith, decides to allow a resolution which relates purely to a procedural or administrative matter to be voted on by a show of hands.

Article 106 A poll demanded on such matters as the election of chairman or the adjournment of the meeting shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other matters shall be taken at such time as the chairman of the meeting may decide, and the meeting may proceed to discuss other matters, while the results of the poll shall still be deemed to be a resolution of that meeting.

Article 111 Accumulative voting system must be adopted for the election of directors and supervisors. Article 114 Any voting of any resolution shall be counted by at least two representatives of shareholders and one supervisor. The results of voting shall be announced by the vote counters. Any shareholder with interests in the matter under consideration and proxies of such shareholder shall not participate in the vote counting.

Meanwhile, before the voting on a resolution is made at the shareholders' general meeting, the auditor of the Company, the share registrar of overseas listed shares listed in Hong Kong or the external auditor who is qualified as an auditor of the Company shall be elected to participate in the vote counting and scrutinizing and announce the results of voting. Article 115 The chairman of the meeting shall determine, based on the results of voting, whether the resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting are approved. Article 116 In the event that the chairman of the meeting has any doubt as to the results of voting on the resolutions put forward to be voted, he/she may have the votes counted. Article 118 When considering a proposed resolution at a shareholders' general meeting, no amendments shall be made thereto. Otherwise, any change made thereto shall be considered as a new proposed resolution, of which the voting shall not proceed in that meeting.

Article 119 At any shareholders' general meeting, voting shall be with registered voter.

Article 120 Resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting shall be announced as soon as possible after the meeting is concluded. Should there be different resolution on the same matter, voting should be made in the order of the resolutions proposed. Except for special reasons such as force majeure causing the shareholders' general meeting to be suspended or unable to reach a resolution, the shareholders' general meeting shall not set aside any resolution or have any resolution not voted.

Article 122 Shareholders attending the shareholders' general meeting shall vote for, vote against or abstain from voting on the resolutions proposed.

Article 123 Blank, wrong, illegible or uncast votes shall be deemed as the voters' waiver of their voting rights, and the voting results representing the shares held by such voters shall be counted as "abstentions".

Chapter 6 Special Procedures for Voting by Class Shareholders

Article 124 Shareholders holding different classes of shares shall be class shareholders.

Class shareholders shall enjoy rights and assume obligations pursuant to the provisions of laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Save for holders of shares of other classes, the holders of domestic shares and holders of overseas-listed foreign shares are deemed to be different classes of shareholders. The holders of non-listed foreign shares and holders of domestic shares are of same class of shareholders.

Class shareholders of the Company shall enjoy equal rights in any dividends or other forms of distribution. A shareholder of Company who is a legal person shall appoint its legal representative or a proxy authorized by the legal representative to exercise its rights on its behalf.

Where the share capital includes shares with different voting rights, the designation of each class of shares, other than those with the most favorable voting rights, must include the words “restricted voting right” or “limited voting right.”

Article 125 Any variation or abrogation of the rights of any class of shareholders proposed by the Company shall be approved by a special resolution of a shareholders’ general meeting and by the shareholders of the affected class at a separate class meeting convened in accordance with Article 127 to 131.

Article 126 The following circumstances shall be deemed to be circumstances where the variation or abrogation of the rights of shareholders of a certain class is involved:

(III) in the case of a proposed restructuring of the Company, “interested shareholder” shall mean a shareholder of a class assuming a smaller proportion of liabilities than the other shareholders of that class or who has interests different from those of the other shareholders of the same class.

The quorum for a separate class meeting to consider a variation of the rights of that class of shares shall be the holders of at least one-third (1/3) of the issued shares of that class.

Article 128 A resolution of a class meeting shall be passed in accordance with the preceding paragraph by at least a two-thirds (2/3) majority calculated on the basis of the voting rights held by the shareholders who are present and entitled to vote at the class meeting.

Article 129 For the convening of a class meeting of shareholders, the period for issuing a written notice shall be the same as that for issuing a written notice of the non-class meeting of shareholders to be convened together with such class meeting of shareholders. Such written notice shall be given to the shareholders whose names appear on the share register of the relevant class shareholder of the matters to be considered at, and the date and place of, the meeting.

Article 130 Notice of a class meeting only needs to be given to shareholders entitled to vote thereat.

Unless otherwise provided for in the Articles of Association, the procedures for holding the class meeting shall be similar to those for holding the shareholders’ general meeting as far as possible, and the provisions in the Articles of Association relating to the procedures for a shareholders’ general meeting shall apply to the class meeting.

Article 131 Save for holders of shares of other classes, the holders of domestic shares and holders of non-listed foreign shares are of same class of shareholders, being the holders of non-listed shares, who are of different classes of shareholders with the holders of overseas-listed shares.

The special procedures for voting by class shareholders shall not apply in the following circumstances:

- (I) where the Company issues, upon approval by a special resolution at a shareholders' general meeting, domestic shares and overseas-listed shares once every twelve (12) months, either separately or concurrently, and the respective numbers of domestic shares and overseas-listed shares proposed to be issued do not exceed 20% of the respective numbers of the issued domestic shares and overseas-listed shares;
