The Company shall cause any copy so required by any person to be sent to that person within a period of ten (10) days commencing on the date next after the day on which the request is received by the Company.

Share certificates 13. Every person whose name is entered as a member in the Register shall be entitled without payment to receive one share certificate for all its shares so allotted or transferred.

(a) For shares which are listed on the Stock Exchange

If such person shall so request, in a case where the allotment or transfer is of a number of shares in excess of the number from the time being forming a Stock Exchange board lot, upon payment of such sum as the Board may from time to time determine (but not exceeding the maximum amount prescribed by the rules of the Stock Exchange from time to time) for every certificate after the first, he shall be entitled to receive such numbers of certificates for shares in such Stock Exchange board lots or multiples thereof as he shall request and one for the balance (if any) of the shares in question.

(b) For shares which are not listed on the Stock Exchange

If such person shall so request, upon payment of such sum as in such currency as the Board may from time to time determine to be reasonable in the territory in which the relevant register is situated, or otherwise in each case such other sum as the Board may from time to time determine for every certificate after the first, he shall be entitled to receive such numbers of certificates for shares as he shall request.

Share certificates shall be issued within the relevant time limit as prescribed in the Companies Act or as the Stock Exchange may from time to time determine, whichever is the shorter, after allotment or, except in the case of a transfer which the Company is for the time being entitled to refuse to register and does not register, after lodgment of a transfer with the Company.

In respect of a share or shares held jointly by several persons, the Company shall not be bound to issue a certificate or certificates to each such persons, and the delivery of a certificate or certificates to one of the several joint holders shall be sufficient delivery to all such holders.

15. Every share certificate hereafter issued shall be sealed and shall specify the number and class of the shares in respect of which it is issued and the amount paid up, as the case may be, and where the share capital of the Company is divided into different classes of shares, shall contain such words and/or statements as are required by the Companies Act and may otherwise be in such form as the Board may from time to time prescribe. A share certificate shall relate to only one class of shares. The Board may by resolution determine, either generally or in any particular case or cases, that any signatures on any such certificates (or certificates in respect of other securities) need not be autographic but may be affixed to any such certificate (or certificates in respect of other securities) by some mechanical means or may be printed thereon or that such certificates need not be signed by any person.

Joint holders

16. Where two (2) or more persons are registered as the holders of any shares they shall be deemed to hold the same as joint tenants with benefits of survivorship, subject to the following provisions:

(4) only the person whose name stands first in the Register as one of the joint holders of any share shall be entitled to delivery of the certificate relating to such shares, or to receive notices from the Company, or to attend or vote at general meetings of the Company, and any notice given to such person shall be deemed notice to all the joint holders; but any one of such joint holders may be appointed the proxy of the person entitled to vote on behalf of such joint holders and as such proxy to attend and vote at general meetings of the Company.

Replacement of
share certificates

17. For the shares which are listed on the Stock Exchange, if a share certificate representing such shares is defaced, lost or destroyed, it may be replaced on payment of such sum as the Board may from time to time determine but not exceeding the maximum amount prescribed by the rules of the Stock Exchange from time to time and on such terms and conditions, if any, as to publication of notices, evidence and indemnity, as the Board thinks fit and in the case of wearing out or defacement, after delivery up of the old certificate.

For shares which are not listed on the Stock Exchange, if a share certificate representing such shares is defaced, lost or destroyed, it may be replaced on payment of such sum in such currency as the Board may from time to time determine to be reasonable in the territory in which the relevant register is situated, or otherwise in each case such other sum as the Board may from time to time determine, and on such terms (if any) as the Board may think fit and, in case of defacement, on delivery of the old certificate to the Company.

In the case of destruction or loss, the person to whom such replacement certificate is given shall also bear and pay to the Company any exceptional costs and the reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incidental to the investigation by the Company of the evidence of such destruction or loss and of such indemnity.

LIEN

- Company's lien 18. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share (not being a fully paid up share) for all moneys, whether presently payable or not, called or payable at a fixed time in respect of such share; and the Company shall also have a first and paramount lien and charge on all shares (other than fully paid up shares) standing registered in the name of a single member for all the debts and liabilities of such member or his estate to the Company and whether the same shall have been incurred before or after notice to the Company of any equitable or other interest of any person other than such member, and whether the period for the payment or discharge of the same shall have actually arrived or not, and notwithstanding that the same are joint debts or liabilities of such member or his estate or any other person, whether a member of the Company or not. The Company's lien (if any) on a share shall extend to all dividends and bonuses declared in respect thereof. The Board may at any time either generally or in any particularly case waive any lien that has arisen, or resolve that any share shall for some specified period be exempt wholly or partially from the provisions of this By-law.
- Sale of shares subject to lien 19. The Company may sell in such manner as the Board thinks fit any shares on which the Company has a lien, but no sale shall be made unless some sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable or the liability or engagement in respect of which such lien exists is liable to be presently fulfilled or discharged, nor until the expiration of fourteen (14) days after a notice in writing, stating and demanding payment of the sum presently payable or specifying the liability or engagement and demanding fulfillment or discharge thereof and giving notice of intention to sell in default, shall have been given to the registered holder for the time being of the shares or the person entitled thereto by reason of such holder's death or bankruptcy, winding-up or otherwise by operation of law or court order.

Application of proceeds such sale 20. The net proceeds of such sale, after the payment of the costs of such sale, shall be applied in or towards payment or satisfaction of the debt or liability or engagement in respect whereof the lien exists, so far as the same is presently payable, and any residue shall (subject to a like lien for debts or liabilities not presently payable as existed upon the shares prior to the sale) be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the time of the sale or where two (2) or more persons are registered as the holders of the shares, the person whose name stands first in the Register. For giving effect to any such sale, the Board may authorise some person to transfer the shares sold to the purchaser thereof and may enter the purchaser's name in the Register as holder of the shares, and the purchaser shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings of the sale.

CALLS ON SHARES

Calls Instalments 21. Subject to the terms of allotment, the Board may from time to time make such calls as it may think fit upon any member in respect of any monies unpaid on his shares (whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium) and not by the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed times. A call may be made payable either in one sum or by instalments.

Notice of call 22. At least fourteen (14) days' notice of any call shall be given specifying the time and place of payment and to whom such call shall be paid.

Copy of the notice to be sent to members 23. A copy of the notice referred to in Bye-law 22 shall be sent to the members in the manner in which notices may be sent to members by the Company as herein provided. The non-receipt of a notice of any call by, or the accidental omission to give notice of a call to, any of the members shall not invalidate the call.

Notice of call may be advertised 24. Notice of the person appointed to receive payment of every call and of the times and places appointed for payment may be given to the members by notice published in the Newspapers.

- Member liable to pay call at appointed time and place 25. Every member upon whom a call is made shall pay the amount of every call so made on him to the person and at the time or times and place or places as the Board shall appoint.
- When call deemed to have been made 26. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Board authorising such call was passed. A call may be revoked, varied or postponed as the Board may determine.
- Liability to pay call 27. A person upon whom a call is made shall remain liable for calls made upon him notwithstanding the subsequent transfer of the shares in respect of which the call was made. Joint holders of a share shall be severally as well as jointly liable for the payment of all calls and instalments due in respect of such shares or other moneys due in respect thereof.
- Board may extend time fixed for call 28. The Board may from time to time at his discretion extend the time fixed for any call, and may extend such time as regards all or any of the members, whom due to residence outside the Relevant Territory or other cause the Board may deem entitled to any such extension but no member shall be entitled to any such extension except as a matter of grace and favour.
- Interest on unpaid calls 29. If any part of a sum payable in respect of any call or any instalment of a call is not paid on or before the day appointed for payment thereof, the person or persons from whom the sum is due shall be liable to pay interest on the same at such rate not exceeding twenty (20) per cent. per annum as the Board shall determine, or failing such determination, then at the rate of 20 per cent. per annum from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of the actual payment; but the Board may waive payment of such interest wholly or in part.
- Suspension of privileges while call unpaid 30. No member shall, unless the Board otherwise determines, be entitled to receive any dividend or bonus, or to receive notice of or to be present or vote (save as proxy for another member) at any general meeting, either personally or by proxy, or be reckoned in a quorum, or to exercise any other privilege as a member, until all calls or instalments due and payable on every share held by him, whether alone or jointly with any other person, together with interest and expenses (if any) shall have been paid.

- Evidence in action for call 31. On the trial or hearing of any action or other proceedings for the recovery of any money due in respect of any call, it shall be sufficient to prove that the name of the member sued is entered in the Register as the holder, or one of the holders, of the shares in respect of which such debt accrued; that the resolution making the call is duly recorded in the minute book; and that notice of such call was duly given to the member sued in pursuance of these Bye-laws; and it shall not be necessary to prove the appointment of the Directors who made such call, nor any other matters whatsoever, but the proof of the matters aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence of the debt.
- Sums payable on allotment deemed a call 32. Any sum which by the terms of allotment of a share or otherwise is made payable upon allotment or at any fixed time, whether on account of the nominal value of the share and/or by way of premium, shall be payable as if it were a call duly made and payable on the date on which by the terms of issue or otherwise is payable, and in case of non-payment all the relevant provisions of these Bye-laws as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture and the like, shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified. The Board may on the issue of shares differentiate between the allottees or holders as to the amount of calls to be paid and the time of payment.
- Payment of calls in advance 33. The Board may, if it thinks fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same, and either in money or money's worth, all or any part of the money uncalled and unpaid or instalments payable upon any shares held by him beyond the amount of the calls actually made thereon, and upon all or any of the moneys being so advanced the Company may pay interest at such rate (if any) not exceeding twenty (20) per cent. per annum as the Board may decide but a payment in advance of a call shall not entitle the member to receive a dividend or to exercise any other rights or privileges as a member in respect of the share or the due portion of the shares upon which payment has been advanced by such member before it is called up. The Board may at any time repay the amount so advanced upon giving to such member not less than one (1) month's notice in writing of its intention in that behalf, unless before the expiration of such notice the amount so advanced shall have been called up on the shares in respect of which it was advanced.

TRANSFER OF SHARES

- Form of transfers 34. Subject to the Companies Act, all transfers of shares may be effected by transfer in writing in the usual or common form or in such other form as the Board may accept and may be under hand only.
- Execution of transfers 35. The instrument of transfer of any share shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and transferee (provided that the Board may dispense with the execution of the instrument of transfer by the transferee in any case in which it thinks fit, in its absolute discretion, to do so), and the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register in respect thereof. The Board may also resolve, either generally or in any particular case, upon request by either the transferor or transferee, to accept mechanically executed transfers. Nothing in these Bye-laws shall preclude the Board from recognising a renunciation of allotment or provisional allotment of any share by the allottee in favour of some other person.
- Shares registered on Register, branch register 36.(A) Unless the Board determines (subject to such conditions as the Board in its absolute discretion may from time to time stipulate) no shares on the Register shall be transferred to any branch register nor shall shares on any branch register be transferred to the Register or any other branch register. In the event of any such transfer, the shareholder requesting such transfer shall bear the cost of effecting the transfer unless the Board otherwise determines. Unless the Board otherwise determines, all transfers and other documents of title shall be lodged for registration, and registered, in the case of any shares on a branch register, at the relevant Registration Office, and, in the case of any shares on the Register, at the Transfer Office.
- (B) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Bye-law, the Company shall as soon as practicable and on a regular basis record in the Register all transfers of shares effected on any branch register and shall at all times maintain the Register in all respects in accordance with the Companies Act.

- Directors may refuse to register a transfer
37. The Board may, in its absolute discretion, and without assigning any reason therefor, refuse to register a transfer of any share (not being a fully paid up share) to a person of whom it does not approve, or any share issued under any share option scheme for employees upon which a restriction on transfer imposed thereby still subsists, and it may also refuse to register any transfer of any share (whether fully paid or not) to more than four (4) joint holders or any transfer of any share (not being a fully paid up share) on which the Company has a lien.
- Notice of refusal
38. If the Board shall refuse to register a transfer of any share, it shall, within two (2) months after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the Company, send to each of the transferor and the transferee notice of such refusal.
- Requirements as to transfer
39. The Board may also decline to recognise any instrument of transfer unless:
- (1) a fee of such maximum sum as the Stock Exchange may determine to be payable or such lesser sum as the Board may from time to time require is paid to the Company;
 - (2) the instrument of transfer is deposited, in the case of shares on a branch register, at the relevant Registration Office and, in the case of shares on the Register, at the Transfer Office or at such other place as the Board may appoint, accompanied by the certificate(s) of the shares to which it relates, and such other evidence as the Board may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer (and if the instrument of transfer is executed by some other person on his behalf, the authority of that person so to do);
 - (3) the instrument of transfer is in respect of only one class of share;

- (4) the instrument of transfer is properly stamped (if necessary);
- (5) the shares concerned are free of any lien in favour of the Company; and
- (6) where applicable, the permission of the Bermuda Monetary Authority with respect thereto has been obtained.

A new certificate shall be issued without charge to the transferee in respect of the shares transferred to him and if any of the shares included in the certificate so given up shall be retained by the transferor a new certificate in respect thereof shall be issued to him without charge. All instruments of transfer which are registered may be retained by the Company. |
| When transfer books and register may be closed | 42. | The registration of transfers of shares or of any class of shares may be suspended and the Register closed, on giving notice by announcement or by electronic communication or by advertisement in an appointed newspaper and, if applicable, in the Newspapers, at such times and for such periods as the Board may from time to time determine. The Register shall not be closed for periods exceeding in the whole thirty (30) days in any year. Any transfer of shares made while the Register is closed shall, as between the Company and the person claiming under the relevant transfer, be considered as made immediately after the re-opening of the Register. |

|---|-----|--|
| Death of registered holder or of joint holder of shares | 43. | In the case of the death of a member, the survivor or survivors (where the deceased was a joint holder) and the legal personal representatives of the deceased (where he was a sole holder or only surviving holder) shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to his interest in the shares; but nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a deceased holder (whether sole or joint) from any liability in respect of any share solely or jointly held by him. |
|---|-----|--|

Registration of personal representatives and trustees in bankruptcy 44. Subject to the Companies Act, any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death, bankruptcy or winding-up of a member or otherwise by operation of law or by court order shall, upon such evidence as to his title being produced as may from time to time be required by the Board, and subject as hereinafter provided, have the right either to be registered himself as holder of the share or to elect to have some person nominated by him registered as the transferee thereof.

If the person so becoming entitled shall elect to be registered himself, he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects. If he shall elect to have another person registered he shall testify his election by executing a transfer of such share to that person. All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of these Bye-laws relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfers of shares shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death or bankruptcy of the member had not occurred and the notice or transfer were a transfer executed by such member.

Registration of nominee

Retention of dividends, etc. until transfer or transmission of shares of a deceased or bankrupt member 46. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death, bankruptcy or winding-up of a member or otherwise by operation of law or by court order shall be entitled to receive and give a discharge for any dividends and other moneys payable in respect of the shares, but he shall have no right to receive notices of or to attend or vote at meetings of the Company or to any of the rights or privileges of a member in respect of the shares unless and until he shall be registered as the holder thereof, provided always that the Board may, if it thinks fit, withhold the payment of any dividend payable or other advantages in respect of such share until such person shall become the registered holder of the share or shall have effectually transferred such share.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

If call or instalment not paid notice may be given 47. If a member fails to pay in full any call or instalment of a call on the day appointed for payment thereof, the Board may, at any time during such time as the call or any part thereof remains unpaid, without prejudice to the provisions of Bye-law 30, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid, together with any interest which may have accrued and which may still accrue up to the date of actual payment and any expenses incurred by reason of such non-payment.

| Form of notice | 48. | The notice referred to in Bye-law 47 shall name a further day (not earlier than the expiration of fourteen (14) days from the date of service of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made, and it shall also name the place where payment is to be made, such place being either the Registration Office or such other place at which calls of the Company are usually payable. The notice shall also state that, in the event of non-payment at or before the time and at the place appointed, the shares in respect of which such call or instalment is payable will be liable to be forfeited. |
| If notice not complied with shares may be forfeited | 49. | If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which the notice has been given may, at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect. Such forfeiture shall extend to all dividends and bonuses which shall have been declared in respect of the forfeited share, and not actually paid before the forfeiture. |
| Surrender of shares liable to be forfeited | 50. | The Board may accept the surrender of any share liable to be forfeited hereunder and in such case, references in these Bye-laws to forfeiture will include surrender. |
| Forfeited shares to be deemed property of the Company | 51. | Any share so forfeited shall be deemed to be the property of the Company, and may be sold, reallocated or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the Board thinks fit, and at any time before a sale or disposition the forfeiture may be cancelled or annulled on such terms as the Board thinks fit. |
| Arrears to be paid notwithstanding forfeiture | 52. | A person whose shares have been forfeited shall thereupon cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall, notwithstanding, remain liable to pay to the Company all monies which, at the date of forfeiture, were payable by | him to the Company in respect of the shares, together with (if the Board shall in its discretion so require) interest thereon from the date of forfeiture until the day of actual payment at such rate not exceeding twenty (20) per cent. per annum as the Board may prescribe or, failing such determination, at the rate of twenty (20) per cent. per annum, and the Board may enforce the payment thereof if it thinks fit, and without any deduction or allowance for the value of the shares, at the date of forfeiture, but his liability shall cease if and when the Company shall have received payment in full of all such moneys in respect of the shares. For the purpose of this By-law any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, is payable thereon at a fixed time which is subsequent to the date of forfeiture, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, shall notwithstanding that time has not yet arrived be deemed to be payable at the date of forfeiture, and the same shall become due and payable immediately upon the forfeiture, but interest thereon shall only be payable in respect of any period between the said fixed time and the date of actual payment.

Evidence of forfeiture

53. A statutory declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director or Secretary, and that a share in the Company has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share. The Company may receive the consideration, if any, given for the share on any sale or disposition thereof and the Board may authorise some person to execute a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of and the latter person shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share, and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share.

Notice after forfeiture

54. When any share shall have been forfeited, notice of the resolution shall be given to the member whose name it stood immediately prior to the forfeiture but no forfeiture shall be invalidated by any omission or neglect to give such notice. An entry of the forfeiture, with the date thereof, shall forthwith be made in the Register.

|--|-----|--|
| Power to redeem forfeited shares | 55. | Notwithstanding any such forfeiture as aforesaid the Board may at any time, before any shares so forfeited shall have been sold, re-allotted, or otherwise disposed of, permit the share aforesaid to be redeemed upon the terms of payment of all calls or instalments of a call, interest due upon and expenses incurred in respect of the share, and upon such further terms (if any) as it thinks fit. |
| Forfeiture not to prejudice call made | 56. | The forfeiture of a share shall not prejudice the right of the Company to any call already made or instalment payable thereon. |
| Forfeiture for non-payment of any sum due on shares | 57. | The provisions of these Bye-laws as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified. |
| Delivery of certificate in relation to forfeited share | 58. | In the event of a forfeiture of shares the member shall be bound to deliver and shall deliver to the Company the certificate or certificates held by him for the shares so forfeited and in any event the certificates representing shares so forfeited shall be void and of no further effect. |

|-----------------------------|-----|--|
| Power to convert into stock | 59. | The following provisions shall have effect at any time and from time to time in so far if they are not prohibited or inconsistent with the Companies Act: (1) The Company may from time to time by Ordinary Resolution convert any fully paid up shares into stock, and may from time to time by like resolution reconvert any stock into fully paid-up shares of any denomination. After the passing of any resolution converting all the fully paid up shares of any class in the capital of the Company into stock, any shares of that class which subsequently become fully paid up and rank pari passu in all other respects with such shares shall, by virtue of this Bye-law and such a resolution, be converted into stock transferable in the same units as the shares already converted; |

Transfer of stock

(2) The holders of stock may transfer the same or any part thereof in the same manner, and subject to the same regulations as and subject to which the shares from which the stock arose might prior to conversion have been transferred or as near thereto as the circumstances may admit. The Board may from time to time, if it thinks fit, fix the minimum amount of stock transferable and restrict or forbid the transfer of fractions of that minimum, but so that such minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose. No warrants to bearer shall be issued in respect of any stock;

Rights of stockholders

(3) The holders of stock shall, according to the amount of the stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, participation in assets on a winding-up, voting at general meetings of the Company and other matters, as if they held the shares from which the stock arose, but no such privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the Company) shall be conferred by an amount of stock which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred such privilege or advantage;

Interpretation

(4) Such of the provisions of these presents as are applicable to paid up shares shall apply to stock, and the words "share" and "shareholder" therein shall include "stock" and "stockholder".

UNTRACEABLE MEMBERS

Untraceable members

60.(A) The Board may by resolution at any time sell any shares of a member who is untraceable at a price determined as provided in paragraph (B) provided that all the conditions specified in paragraph (D) are satisfied.

(B) The price at which any shares may be sold pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (A) of this Bye-law shall be the best price reasonably obtainable at the time of the sale.

- (C) To give effect to any such sale, the Board may, notwithstanding other provisions of these Bye-laws, authorise some person to execute on behalf of the untraceable member a transfer in favour of the purchaser and upon receipt by the Company of the purchase money the Company shall cause the name of the purchaser to be entered in the Register as the holder of the shares but so that notwithstanding the provisions of Bye-law 39(2) the Board shall not be bound to require the production or deposit of any share certificate. After the purchaser's name has been entered in the Register in the purported exercise of the power conferred by this Bye-law, the validity of the proceedings shall not be questioned by any person. The purchase money shall constitute a debt of the Company but no trust shall be created in respect of such debt. change or postpone the meeting to another date, time and/or place and/or change the electronic facilities and/or change the form of the meeting (a physical meeting, an electronic meeting or a hybrid meeting) without approval from the members. This Bye-law shall be subject to the following:

- (b) when only the form of the meeting or electronic facilities specified in the notice are changed, the Board shall notify the members of details of such change in such manner as the Board may determine;
- (c) when a meeting is postponed or changed in accordance with this Bye-law, subject to and without prejudice to Bye-law 78, unless already specified in the original notice of the meeting, the Board shall fix the date, time, place (if applicable) and electronic facilities (if applicable) for the postponed or changed meeting and shall notify the members of such details in such manner as the Board may determine; further all proxy forms shall be valid (unless revoked or replaced by a new proxy) if they are received as required by these Bye-laws not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the time of the postponed or changed meeting; and
- (d) notice of the business to be transacted at the postponed or changed meeting shall not be required, nor shall any accompanying documents be required to be recirculated, provided that the business to be transacted at the postponed or changed meeting is the same as that set out in the original notice of general meeting circulated to the members.

78.(F) All persons seeking to attend and participate in an electronic meeting or a hybrid meeting shall be responsible for maintaining adequate facilities to enable them to do so. Subject to Bye-law 78.(C), any inability of a person or persons to attend or participate in a general meeting by way of electronic facilities shall not invalidate the proceedings of and/or resolutions passed at that meeting.

78.(G) Without prejudice to other provisions in Bye-laws 78.(A) to 78.(F), a physical meeting may also be held by means of such telephone, electronic or other communication facilities as permit all persons participating in the meeting to communicate with each other simultaneously and instantaneously, and participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

78.(H) Without prejudice to Bye-laws 78.(A) to 78.(G) and subject to the Statutes and the rules of the Stock Exchange and any other applicable laws, the Board may resolve to enable persons entitled to attend an electronic meeting to do so by simultaneous attendance by means of electronic facilities with no member necessarily in physical attendance and without any particular Meeting Location being designated, each member or its proxy shall be counted in the quorum for, and entitled to vote at, the electronic meeting in question, and that general meeting shall be duly constituted and its proceedings valid if the Chairman of the electronic meeting is satisfied that adequate facilities are available throughout the electronic meeting to ensure that members attending the electronic meeting who are not present together at the same place may, by means of electronic facilities, attend and speak or communicate and vote at it.

A resolution put to the vote of a meeting shall be decided by way of a poll save that in the case of a physical meeting, the Chairman of the meeting may in good faith, allow a resolution which relates purely to a procedural or administrative matter to be voted on by a show of hands in which case every member present in person or by proxy(ies) shall have one vote provided that where more than one proxy is appointed by a member which is a clearing house (or its nominee(s)), each such proxy shall have one vote on a show of hands. For purposes of this Bye-law, procedural and administrative matters are those that (i) are not on the agenda of the general meeting or in any supplementary circular that may be issued by the Company to its members; and (ii) relate to the Chairman's duties to maintain the orderly conduct of the meeting and/or allow the business of the meeting to be properly and effectively dealt with, whilst allowing all members a reasonable opportunity to express their views. A demand by a person as proxy for a member shall be deemed to be the same as a demand by the member.

- (B) All members (including a shareholder which is a clearing house (or its nominee(s))) shall have the right to (a) speak at a general meeting; and (b) vote at a general meeting except where a member is required, by the rules of the Stock Exchange, to abstain from voting to approve the matter under consideration. Where there are joint registered holders of any share, any one of such persons may vote at any meeting, adjourned meeting or postponed meeting, either personally or by proxy, in respect of such shares as if he were solely entitled thereto; but if more than one of such joint holders be present at any meeting personally or by proxy, that one of the said persons so present whose name stands first on the register in respect of such share shall alone be entitled to vote in respect thereof. Several executors or administrators of a deceased member in whose name any share stands shall for the purposes of this Bye-law be deemed joint holders thereof.

Votes of member of unsound mind 87. A member of unsound mind or in respect of whom an order has been made by any court (whether in the Relevant Territory or elsewhere) having jurisdiction in mental health, may vote, by his committee, receiver, curator bonis or other person in the nature of a committee, receiver or curator bonis appointed by that court, and any such committee, receiver or curator bonis or other person may cast his vote personally or by proxy provided that such evidence as the Board may require of the authority of the person claiming to vote shall have been deposited at the Head Office not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the time for holding the meeting, adjourned meeting or postponed meeting at which such person claims to vote.

Qualification for voting

- 88.(A) Save as expressly provided in these Bye-laws, no person other than a member duly registered and who shall have paid in full for the time being any sum due from him to the Company in respect of his shares shall be entitled to be present or to vote (save as proxy for another member) either personally or by proxy, or to be reckoned in a quorum, at any general meeting.
- (B) No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting, adjourned meeting, or postponed meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered, and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purposes. Any such objection made in due time shall be referred to the Chairman, whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

Proxies

89. Any member (including a clearing house), whether an individual or a corporation, entitled to attend and vote at a meeting of the Company or a meeting of the holders of any class of shares in the Company shall be entitled to appoint another person (being a natural person) as his proxy or representative (if such member is a corporation) to attend and vote in place of such member. Votes may be given either personally or by proxy. A member which is a corporation may execute a form of proxy under the hand of a duly authorised officer. A member who is the holder of two or more shares may appoint more than one proxy or representative to attend and vote on the same occasion provided that, if more than one proxy or representative is so appointed, the appointment shall specify the number and class of shares in respect of which each such proxy is so appointed. A proxy or representative need not be a member. In addition, a proxy/proxies or a representative/representatives representing either an individual member or a member which is a corporation, shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the member which he or they represent as such member could exercise, including the right to vote individually on a show of hands, as if it were a natural person member present in person at any general meeting.

Instrument appointing proxy to be in writing

90. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing and if the Board in its absolute discretion determines, may be contained in an electronic communication, and (i) if in writing but not contained in an electronic communication, under the hand of the appointor or of his attorney duly authorised in writing, or if the appointor is a corporation, either under its common seal or under the hand of an officer or attorney duly authorised; or (ii) in the case of an appointment contained in an electronic communication, submitted by or on behalf of the appointer, subject to such terms and conditions and authenticated in such manner as the Board may in its absolute discretion determine. In the case of an instrument of proxy purporting to be signed on behalf of a corporation by an officer thereof it shall be assumed, unless the contrary is proved, that such officer was duly authorised to sign such instrument of proxy on behalf of the corporation without further evidence of the fact. The Board may, nevertheless, require such evidence as it shall deem necessary as to the due execution of the instrument of proxy and the due authorisation of the same.

Appointment of proxy must be deposited

91. (1) The Company may, at its absolute discretion, provide an electronic address for the receipt of any document or information relating to proxies for a general meeting (including any instrument of proxy or invitation to appoint a proxy, any document necessary to show the validity of, or otherwise relating to, an appointment of proxy (whether or not required under these Bye-laws) and notice of termination of the authority of a proxy). If such an electronic address or electronic means of submission is provided, the Company shall be deemed to have agreed that any such document or information (relating to proxies as aforesaid) may be sent by electronic means to that address, subject as hereafter provided and subject to any other limitations or conditions specified by the Company when providing the address or electronic means of submission. Without limitation, the Company may from time to time determine that any such electronic address or electronic means of submission may be used generally for such matters or specifically for particular meetings or purposes and, if so, the Company may provide different electronic addresses or electronic means of submission for different purposes. The Company may also impose any conditions on the transmission of and its receipt of such electronic communications including, for the avoidance of doubt, imposing any security or encryption arrangements as may be specified by the Company. If any document or information required to be sent to the Company under this

Bye-law is sent to the Company by electronic means, such document or information is not treated as validly delivered to or deposited with the Company if the same is not received by the Company at its designated electronic address provided in accordance with this Bye-law or if no electronic address or electronic means of submission is so designated by the Company for the receipt of such document or information.

(2) The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority, if any, under which it is signed or a notarially certified copy of that power or authority together with such evidence as the Board may require under Bye-law 90 shall be deposited at the Head Office or at such other place as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting or in the instrument of proxy issued by the Company in relation to the meeting, or if the Company has provided an electronic address or electronic means of submission in accordance with the preceding paragraph, shall be received at the electronic address or electronic means of submission specified, not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting, adjourned meeting or postponed meeting (as the case may be) at which the person named in such instrument proposes to vote; and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid except with the consent of the Chairman. No instrument appointing a proxy shall be valid after the expiration of twelve (12) months from the date of its execution, except at an adjourned meeting or postponed meeting in a case where the meeting was originally held within twelve (12) months from such date. Delivery of an instrument appointing a proxy shall not preclude a member from attending and voting in person at the meeting concerned and, in such event, the instrument appointing a proxy shall deemed to be revoked.

Form of proxy 92. Every instrument of proxy, whether for a specified meeting or otherwise, shall be in such form as the Board may from time to time approve (provided that this shall not preclude the use of a two-way form).

Authority under instrument appointing proxy 93. The instrument of proxy, which need not be witnessed, appointing a proxy to vote at a general meeting shall:

(1) be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll and to vote on any resolution (or amendment thereto) put to the meeting for which it is given as the proxy thinks fit provided that any form issued to a member for use by him for appointing a proxy to attend and vote at a special general meeting or at an annual general meeting at which any business is to be transacted shall be such as to enable the member, all resolutions put to the members at electronic meetings shall be voted on by a poll, according to his intention, to instruct the proxy to vote in favour of or against (or, in default of instructions, to exercise his discretion in respect of) each resolution dealing with any such business; and

(2) unless the contrary is stated herein, be valid as well for any adjournment of the meeting as for the meeting to which it relates.

When vote by proxy valid though authority revoked

94. A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy or power of attorney shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal or revocation of the proxy or power of attorney or other authority under which the proxy was executed or the transfer of the share in respect of which the proxy is given, provided that no intimation in writing of such death, insanity, revocation or transfer as aforesaid shall have been received by the Company at its Head Office (or at such other place in the Relevant Territory specified for the deposit of instrument or proxies hereunder) at least twenty-four (24) hours before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting or meetings at which the proxy or power of attorney is used.

Corporation acting by representatives at meetings

95.(A) Any corporation which is a member of the Company may, by resolution of its directors or other governing body or by power of attorney, authorise such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative to attend and vote at any general meeting of the Company or of any class of members of the Company, and the person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation which he represents as that corporation could exercise as if it were an individual member of the Company and such corporation shall for the purposes of these Bye-laws be deemed to be present at any such meeting if a person so authorised is present thereat. References in these Bye-laws to a member present in person at a meeting shall, unless the context otherwise requires, include a corporation which is a member represented at the meeting by such duly authorised representative.

(B) Subject to the Companies Act, where a member is the clearing house (or its nominee), it may appoint or authorise such person or persons as it thinks fit to act as its proxy/proxies or corporate representative/representatives, who enjoy rights equivalent to the rights of other members, to attend any meeting of the Company (including but not limited to general meetings and creditors meetings) or at any meeting of any class of members provided that, if more than one person is so authorised, the authorisation shall specify the number and class of shares in respect of which each such person is so authorised. A person so authorised under the provisions of this Bye-law shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the clearing house (or its nominee) which he represents as the clearing house (or its nominee) could exercise as if it were an individual member, including the right to speak and to vote individually on a show of hands or on a poll.

REGISTERED OFFICE

- Registered Office 96. The Registered Office of the Company shall be at such place in Bermuda as the Board shall from time to time appoint.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

- Constitution of Board 97. Unless and until otherwise determined by the Company by Ordinary Resolution the number of Directors shall not be less than 2 and there shall be no maximum number of Directors. The Directors shall be elected or appointed in the first place at the statutory meeting of members and thereafter in accordance with the next following Bye-law. The Board shall cause to be kept a register of the Directors and officers at its Registered Office and Head Office in accordance with the Companies Act.

- Retirement of Directors 98. Notwithstanding any other provisions in the Bye-laws, at each annual general meeting, one-third of the Directors for the time being, or, if their number is not three (3) or a multiple of three (3), then the number nearest to but not less than one-third, shall retire from office by rotation but shall be eligible for re-election, provided that every Director shall be subject to retirement at least once every three years. The Directors to retire in every year shall be those who have been longest in office since their last election but as between persons who became Directors on the same day those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree between themselves) be determined by lots.

- Retiring Directors to remain in office till successors appointed 99. If at any general meeting at which an election of Directors ought to take place, the places of the retiring Directors are not filled, the retiring Directors or such of them as have not had their places filled shall be deemed to have been re-elected and shall, if willing, continue in office until the next annual general meeting and so on from year to year until their places are filled, unless:

- (1) it shall be determined at such meeting to reduce the number of Directors; or
- (2) it is expressly resolved at such meeting not to fill up such vacated offices; or
- (3) in any such case the resolution for re-election of a Director is put to the meeting and lost; or
- (4) such Director has given notice in writing to the Company that he is not willing to be re-elected.

Power of general meeting to increase or reduce number of directors

100. The Company in general meeting may from time to time fix and may by Ordinary Resolution increase or reduce the maximum and minimum number of Directors but so that the number of Directors shall not be less than two (2) at all times.

Notice to be given of person proposed for election

101. No person, other than a retiring Director, shall, unless recommended by the Directors for election, be eligible for election to the office of director at any general meeting, unless notice in writing signed by a member (not being the person to be proposed) duly qualified to be present and vote at the meeting for which such notice is given of his intention to propose at the meeting that person for election as a Director and notice in writing signed by that person to be proposed of his willingness to be elected shall have been lodged at the Head Office provided that the minimum length of the period, during which such notice(s) are given, shall be at least seven (7) days and that the period for lodgment of such notice(s) shall commence no earlier than the day after the despatch of the notice of the general meeting appointed for such election and end no later than seven (7) days prior to the date of such general meeting.

Power to remove Director by Ordinary Resolution

102. The members may by Ordinary Resolution at any general meeting convened and held in accordance with these Bye-laws remove any Director (including a managing or other executive director) before the expiration of his term of office notwithstanding anything in these Bye-laws or in any agreement between the Company and such Director (but without prejudice to any claim which such Director may have for damages for any breach of any contract of service between him and the Company), provided that notice of any such meeting shall be served on the Director concerned not less than fourteen (14) days before the meeting and such Director shall be entitled to be heard at such meeting on the motion of his removal. The Company may by Ordinary Resolution elect another person in his stead. Any person so elected shall hold office for such time only as the Director in whose place he is elected would have held the same if he had not been removed.

General meeting to elect Directors 103.(A) The Company may from time to time in general meeting by Ordinary Resolution elect any person to be a Director either to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the Board.

Board may fill vacancy (B) The Board shall have power from time to time and at any time to appoint any person as a Director to fill a casual vacancy on the Board and, subject to the authorization by the members in general meeting, the Board shall until and unless such authorisation is revoked have power from time to time and at any time to appoint any person as an addition to the Board but so that the number of Directors so appointed shall not exceed the maximum number determined from time to time by members in general meeting. Any Director so appointed shall hold office only until the first annual general meeting of the Company after his appointment, and shall then be eligible for re-election at that meeting.

Alternate Director 104.(A) A Director may at any time, by notice in writing signed by him delivered to the Registered Office or at the Head Office or at a meeting of the Board, appoint any person (including another Director) to act as an alternate Director in his place and may in like manner at any time determine such appointment.

(B) The appointment of an alternate Director shall determine on the happening of any event which, were he a Director, would cause him to vacate such office or if his appointor ceases to be a Director provided that if any Director retires at a general meeting but is re-elected by the meeting or is, pursuant to the provisions of these Bye-laws, deemed to be re-elected at the meeting at which such retirement took place, any appointment made by him pursuant to this Bye-law which was in force immediately prior to his retirement shall continue to operate after such re-election as if he had not so retired.

- (C) An alternate Director, except when absent from the Relevant Territory shall be entitled (subject to his giving the Company an address within the Relevant Territory at which notices may be served on him) to receive and waive notices of meetings of the Directors and shall be entitled to attend and vote and be counted in the quorum of such meeting as a Director at any such meeting at which the Director appointing him is not personally present, and generally at such meeting to exercise all the powers, rights, duties and authorities and to perform all functions of the Director appointing him. For the purpose of the proceedings at such meeting if an alternate Director acts as alternate for more than one Director, he shall be counted in the quorum separately in respect of himself (if a Director) and in respect of each Director for whom he is an alternate and his voting rights shall be cumulative and he need not use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way. A Director who is also an alternate Director shall be entitled in addition to his own vote to a separate vote on behalf of the Director appointing him.
- (D) The signature of an alternate Director to any resolution in writing of the Board shall, unless the notice of his appointment provides to the contrary, be effective as the signature of his appointor. To such extent as the Board may from time to time determine in relation to any committee of the Directors, the foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall also apply mutatis mutandis to any meeting of any such committee of which his appointor is a member. An alternate Director shall not, save as aforesaid, have power to act as a Director nor shall he be deemed to be a Director for the purposes of these Bye-laws. Every person acting as an alternate Director shall be an officer of the Company, and shall alone be responsible to the Company for his own acts and defaults, and he shall not be deemed to be the agent of or for the Director appointing him. A Director shall not be liable for the acts or defaults of any alternate Director appointed by him.
- (E) A Director may appoint two or more persons in the alternative to act as alternate Director and in the event of any dispute as to who is to represent the Director as his alternate the first named of such alternative persons shall be the only person recognised as the alternate Director and shall in any case, if in the Relevant Territory, be the only person entitled to receive notice of Directors' meetings in the absence of his appointor from the Relevant Territory.

Appointment of two or more alternates

- (F) An alternate Director shall be entitled to contract and be interested in and benefit from contracts or arrangements or transactions and to be repaid expenses and to be indemnified to the same extent mutatis mutandis as if he were a Director, but he shall not be entitled to receive from the Company in respect of his appointment as an alternate Director any remuneration except only such part (if any) of the remuneration otherwise payable to his appointor as such appointor may by notice in writing to the Company from time to time direct.
- (G) No alternate Director shall by virtue of that position be a director for the purposes of the Companies Act, but shall nevertheless be subject to the provisions of the Companies Act in so far as they relate to the duties and obligations of directors (other than the obligations to hold any qualifying share in the Company) when performing the functions of a Director.

Qualification of Directors

105. A Director or an alternate Director shall not be required to hold any qualification shares but shall nevertheless be entitled to attend and speak at all general meetings of the Company and of any class of members of the Company. No Director shall be required to vacate office or be ineligible for re-election or re-appointment as a Director and no person shall be ineligible for appointment as a Director by reason only of his having attained any particular age.

Directors' remuneration

- 106.(A) The Directors shall be entitled to receive by way of remuneration for their services as Directors such sum as shall from time to time be determined by the Company in general meeting, such sum (unless otherwise directed by the resolutions by which it is voted) to be divided amongst the Directors in such proportions and in such manner as the Board may agree, or failing agreement, equally, except that in such event any Director holding office for less than the whole of the relevant period in respect of which the remuneration is paid shall only rank in such division in proportion to the time during such period for which he has held office. The foregoing provisions shall not apply to a Director who holds any salaried employment or office in the Company except in the case of sums paid in respect of Director's fees.
- (B) Payment to any Director or past Director of any sum by way of compensation for loss of office or as consideration for or in connection with his retirement from office (not being a payment to which the Director is contractually entitled) must be approved by the Company in general meeting.

- Directors' expenses 107. The Directors shall also be entitled to repaid or prepaid all travelling, hotel and other expenses reasonably incurred or expected to be incurred by them respectively in or about the performance of their duties as Directors, including their expenses of travelling to and from board meetings, committee meetings or general meetings or separate meetings of any class of shares or of debenture of the Company or otherwise incurred whilst engaged on the business of the Company or in the discharge of their duties as Directors.
- Special remuneration 108. The Board may grant special remuneration if any Director who having been called upon and being willing to do so, shall render or perform any special or extra services to or at the request of the Company including travelling or residing abroad for any business of the Company. Such special remuneration may, as the Board shall determine, be made payable to such Director either in addition to or in substitution for his ordinary remuneration as a Director, and may be made payable by way of salary, commission or participation in profits or otherwise as may be arranged and the same shall be charged as part of the ordinary working expenses of the Company.
- Remuneration of Managing Directors, etc 109. Notwithstanding Bye-law 106, 107 and 108, the remuneration of a Managing Director, Joint Managing Director, Deputy Managing Director or other Executive Director or a Director appointed to any other office in the management of the Company shall from time to time be fixed by the Board and may be by way of salary, commission, or participation in profit or otherwise or by all or any of those modes and with such other benefits (including pension and/or gratuity and/or other benefits on retirement) and allowances as the Board may from time to time decide. Such remuneration shall be either in addition to or in lieu of his remuneration as a Director.

110. A Director shall vacate his office:
- (1) if he becomes bankrupt or has a receiving order made against him or suspends payment or makes any arrangement or composition with his creditors generally;
 - (2) if he becomes a lunatic or of unsound mind;
 - (3) if he absents himself from meetings of the Board or his office as a Director during a continuous period of six (6) months, without special leave of absence from the Board, whether or not any alternate Director appointed by him attends such meeting of the Board and the Board resolves that he has by reason of such absence vacated his office;
 - (4) if he becomes prohibited from acting as a Director by law or by reason of any order made by any court of competent jurisdiction;
 - (5) if he resigns his office by notice in writing delivered to the Company at its Head Office or submitted to a meeting of the Board;
 - (6) if, having been appointed to an office under Bye-law 112, he is dismissed or removed therefrom by the Board under Bye-law 113; or
 - (7) if he shall be removed from office by an Ordinary resolution of the Company under Bye-law 102.

Directors may contract with the Company

- 111.(A) Subject to the Companies Act and to these Bye-laws, no Director or proposed or intended Director shall be disqualified by his office from contracting with the Company, either with regard to his tenure of any office or place of profit or as vendor, purchaser or in any manner whatever, nor shall any such contract or any other contract or arrangement entered into by or on behalf of the Company with any person, company or partnership of or in which any Director shall be a member or otherwise interested in any way be liable on that account to being avoided, nor shall any Director so contracting or being any member or so interested be liable to account to the Company or the members for any remuneration, profit or other benefits realised by any such contract or arrangement by reason only of such Director holding that office or the fiduciary relationship thereby established.

- (B) A Director who to his knowledge is in any way, whether directly or indirectly, interested in any contract or arrangement with the Company shall declare the nature of his interest at the meeting of the Board at which the question of entering into the contract or arrangement is first taken into consideration, if he knows his interest then exists, or in any other case at the first meeting of the Board after he knows that he is or has become so interested. - (C) A Director shall not vote (nor be counted in the quorum) on any resolution of the Board approving any contract or arrangement or any other proposal in which he or any of his associate(s) is/are to his/their knowledge materially interested, but this prohibition shall not apply to any of the following matters:
- (1) the giving of any security or indemnity either:

(D) INTENTIONALLY DELETED

(E) INTENTIONALLY DELETED

If any question as aforesaid shall arise in respect of the Chairman of the meeting, such question shall be decided by a resolution of the Board (for which purpose such Chairman shall not be counted in the quorum and shall not vote thereon) and such resolution shall be final and conclusive except in a case where the nature or extent of the interest of such Chairman and/or his close associate(s) as known to such Chairman has not been fairly disclosed to the Board.

- (G) A Director may hold any other office or place of profit with the Company (except that of Auditor) in conjunction with his office of Director for such period and upon such terms as the Board may determine, and may be paid such extra remuneration therefor (whether by way of salary, commission, participation in profits or otherwise) as the Board may determine. The Board may exercise the voting powers conferred by the shares in any other company held or owned by the Company, or exercisable by members of the Board as directors of such other company in such manner in all respects as it thinks fits including the exercise thereof in favour of any resolution appointing the Directors or any of them to be directors or officers of such other company, or voting or providing for the payment of remuneration to the directors or other officers of such other company.

- (J) A Director shall not vote or be counted in the quorum on any resolution of the Board concerning his own appointment as the holder of any office or place of profit with the Company or any other company in which the Company is interested (including the adoption of the arrangement or variations of the terms thereof, or the termination thereof).
- (K) Where arrangements are under consideration concerning the appointment (including the adoption of the arrangement or variation of the terms thereof, or the termination thereof) of two or more Directors to offices or places of profit with the Company or any other company in which the Company is interested, separate resolution may be put in relation to each Director and in such case each of the Directors concerned shall be entitled to vote (and be counted in the quorum) in respect of each resolution except that concerning his own appointment (or the arrangement or variation of the terms thereof, or the termination thereof).

(other than shares of the Company) as the Board may from time to time think fit, and so that it shall not be necessary to keep any reserve separate or distinct from any other investments of the Company. The Board may also without placing the same to reserve carry forward any profits which it may think prudent not to distribute by way of dividend.

CAPITALISATION OF RESERVES

- Power to capitalise 145. The Company in general meeting may by Ordinary Resolution upon the recommendation of the Board resolve that it is desirable to capitalise any part of the amounts for the time being standing to the credit of any of the Company's reserve accounts (including any contributed surplus account and also including any share premium account or other undistributable reserve, but subject to the provisions of the Companies Act with regard to unrealised profits) or to the credit of the profit and loss account or otherwise available for distribution and not required for the payment or provision of fixed dividend on any shares entitled to fixed preferential dividends with or without further participation in profits and that the Board be accordingly authorised and directed to appropriate the profits or sum so reserved to be capitalised and be sub-divided to the members in the proportion in which such profits or sum would have been divisible amongst them had the same been applied or been applicable in paying dividends on the shares held by them on such date as shall be fixed by or in accordance with such resolutions, and to apply such profits or sum on their behalf either in or towards paying up any amounts, if any, for the time being unpaid on any shares held by such members respectively, or in the paying up in full of unissued shares or debentures of the Company of a nominal amount equal to such profits or sum, such shares or debentures to be allotted and distributed, credited as fully paid up, to and amongst such members in proportion aforesaid, or partly in one way and partly in the other, provided that for the purpose of this Bye-law, and subject to Section 40(2A) of the Companies Act, any amount standing to the credit of share premium account and any reserve or fund representing unrealised or other undistributable profits may only be applied in paying up of unissued shares to be issued to members of the Company as fully paid up shares. In carrying sums to reserve and in applying the same, the Board shall comply with the provisions of the Companies Act.
- Effect of resolution to capitalise 146.(A) Whenever such a resolution as referred to in Bye-law 145 shall have been passed the Board shall make all appropriations and applications of the reserves and undivided profits resolved to be capitalised thereby, and all allotments and issues of fully paid shares, debentures or other securities, if any, and generally shall do all acts and things required to give effect thereto, with full power to settle any difficulty which may arise with regard to a capitalisation issue as the Board may think fit, and in particular may disregard fractional entitlements to shares or debentures or round the same up or down, and with full power to make such provision by the issue of fractional certificates and the Board may determine that cash payments shall be made to any members in lieu of fractional entitlements or that fractions of such value as the Board may determine may be disregarded in order to adjust the rights of all parties or that fractional entitlements shall be aggregated and sold and the benefit shall accrue to the Company rather than to members concerned. The Board may also authorise any person to enter on behalf of all members entitled thereto into an agreement with the Company providing allotment to them respectively, credited as fully paid up, of any further shares, debentures or other securities to which they may be entitled upon such capitalisation or, as the case may require, for the payment up by the Company on their behalf, by the application thereto of their respective proportions of the profits resolved to be capitalised, of the amounts or any part of the amounts remaining unpaid on their existing shares, and any agreement made under such authority shall be effective and binding on all such members. The Board may resolve that no such allotments and issues of fully paid-up shares or debentures or securities shall be made available or made to shareholders with registered addresses in any particular territory or territories being a territory or territories where, in the absence of a registration statement or other special formalities, this would or might, in the opinion of the Board, be unlawful or impracticable and in such event the Board may make such alternative arrangements for the shareholders aforesaid as it thinks expedient including authorising any person to sell the shares or debentures to which the aforesaid shareholders are otherwise entitled and the only entitlement of such shareholders in the event shall be to receive the proceeds realised from such sale.

- (B) The Board may, in relation to any capitalisation sanctioned under this Bye-law, in its absolute discretion specify that, and in such circumstances and if directed so to do by a member or members entitled to an allotment and distribution credited as fully paid up of unissued shares or debentures in the Company pursuant to such capitalisation, allot and distribute credited as fully paid the issued shares, debentures or other securities to which that member is entitled to such person or persons as that member may nominate by notice in writing to the Company, such notice to be received by the Company at its Head Office not later than the day for which the general meeting of the Company to sanction the capitalisation is convened.

| Power to declare dividends and to make distribution | 147. | Subject to the Companies Act, the Company in general meeting may by Ordinary Resolution declare dividends in any currency but no dividends shall exceed the amount recommended by the Board. The Company may also by Ordinary Resolution make a distribution to the members out of any contributed surplus (as ascertained in accordance with the Companies Act). |
| Board's power to pay interim dividends | 148.(A) | The Board may, if it thinks fit, from time to time pay to the members such interim dividends as appear to the Board to be justified by the profits of the Company and, in particular (but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing), if at any time the share capital of the Company is divided into different classes, the Board may pay such interim dividends in respect of those shares in the capital of the Company which confer on the holders thereof deferred or non-preferential rights as well as in respect of those shares which confer on the holders thereof preferential rights with regard to dividend, and, provided that if the Board acts bona fide it shall not incur any responsibility to the holders of shares conferring any preference for any loss that they may suffer by reason of the payment of an interim dividend on any shares having deferred or non-preferential rights. |
| | (B) | The Board may also pay half-yearly or at other suitable intervals to be settled by it any dividend which may be payable at a fixed rate if the Board is of the opinion that the profits justify the payment. |
| Payment of dividend and distribution out of contributed surplus | 149. | No dividend shall be declared or paid and no distribution of contributed surplus be made otherwise than in accordance with the Companies Act, in particular, no dividend shall be paid or distribution made out of contributed surplus if to do so | would render the Company unable to pay its liabilities as they become due or the realisable value of its assets would thereby become less than the aggregate of its liabilities and its issued share capital and share premium accounts. No dividend, unless the same is not paid by the Company when due and payable shall carry interest.

Scrip dividend 150.(A) Whenever the Board or the Company in general meeting has resolved that a dividend be paid or declared on the shares of the Company, the Board may further resolve:

(1) that such dividend be satisfied wholly or in part in the form of an allotment of shares credited as fully paid-up on the basis that the shares so allotted shall be of the same class or classes as the class or classes already held by the allottee, provided that the members entitled thereto will be entitled to elect to receive such dividend (or part thereof) in cash in lieu of such allotment. In such case, the following provisions shall apply:

(a) the basis of any such allotment shall be determined by the Board;

(b) the Board, after determining the basis of allotment, shall give not less than two (2) weeks' notice in writing to the members of the right of election accorded to them and of the record date related thereto and shall send with or following such notice forms of election and specify the procedure to be followed and the place at which the latest date and time by which duly completed forms of election must be lodged in order to be effective;

(c) the right of election may be exercised in respect of the whole or part of that portion of the dividend in respect of which the right of election has been accorded; and

(d) the dividend (or that part of the dividend to be satisfied by the allotment of shares as aforesaid) shall not be payable in cash on shares in respect whereof the cash election has not been duly exercised (the "non-elected shares") and in satisfaction thereof shares shall be allotted credited as fully paid-up to the holders of the non-elected shares on the basis of allotment determined as aforesaid and for such purpose the Board shall capitalise and apply out of any part of the undivided profits of the Company or any part of any sum standing to the credit of the Company's reserve accounts (including, subject to Bye-law 145, sums standing to the credit of any special account, contributed surplus account and share premium account) or to the credit of the profit and loss account or any sum otherwise available for distribution as the Board may determine, a sum equal to the aggregate nominal amount of the shares to be allotted on such basis and apply the same in paying up in full the appropriate number of shares for allotment and distribution to and amongst the holders of the non-elected shares on such basis.

- (2) that the members entitled to such dividend will be entitled to elect to receive an allotment of shares credited as fully paid-up in lieu of the whole or such part of the dividend as the Board may think fit on the basis that the shares so allotted shall be of the same class or classes as the class or classes of shares already held by the allottee. In such cases, the following provisions shall apply:
 - (a) the basis of any such allotment shall be determined by the Board;
 - (b) the Board, after determining the basis of allotment, shall give not less than two (2) weeks' notice in writing to the members of the right of election accorded to them and shall send with or following such notice forms of election and specify the procedure to be followed and the place at which and the latest date and time by which duly completed forms of election must be lodged in order to be effective;
 - (c) the right of election may be exercised in respect of the whole or part of that portion of the dividend in respect of which the right of election has been accorded; and
 - (d) the dividend (or that part of the dividend in respect of which a right of election has been accorded) shall not be payable on shares in respect whereof the share election has been duly exercised (the "elected shares") and in lieu thereof shares shall be allotted credited as fully paid to the holders of the elected shares on the basis of allotment determined as aforesaid and for such purpose the Board shall capitalise and apply out of any part of the undivided profits of the Company or any part of any sums standing to the credit of any special account, the contributed surplus account, the Company's reserve accounts (including, subject to Bye-law 147, any sums standing to the credit of the share premium account) or to the credit of the profit and loss account or any sum otherwise available for distribution as the Board may determine, a sum equal to the aggregate nominal amount of the shares to be allotted on such basis and apply the same in paying up in full the appropriate number of shares for allotment and distribution to and amongst the holders of the elected shares on such basis.

- (B) The shares allotted pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (A) of this Bye-law shall rank pari passu in all respects with the shares then in issue save only as regards participation:
- (1) in the relevant dividend (or the right to receive or to elect to receive an allotment of shares in lien thereof as aforesaid); and
 - (2) in any other distributions, bonuses or rights paid, made, declared or announced prior to or contemporaneously of the relevant dividend unless contemporaneously with the announcement by the Board of their proposal to apply the provisions of sub-paragraph (1) or (2) of paragraph (A) of this Bye-law in relation to the relevant dividend or contemporaneously with their announcement of the distribution, bonus or rights in questions, the Board shall specify that the shares to be allotted pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (A) of this Bye-law shall rank for participation in such distribution, bonus or rights.
- (C) The Board may do all acts and things considered necessary or expedient to give effect to any capitalisation pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (A) of this Bye-law with full power to the Board to make such provisions as it thinks fit in the case of shares becoming distributable in fractions (including provisions whereby, in whole or in part, fractional entitlements are aggregated and sold and the net proceeds distributed to those entitled, or are disregarded or rounded up or down or whereby the benefit of fractional entitlements accrues to the Company rather than to the members concerned). The Board may authorise any person to enter into on behalf of all members interested, an agreement with the Company providing for such capitalisation and matters incidental thereto and any agreement made pursuant to such authority shall be effective and binding on all concerned).

- (D) The Company may upon the recommendation of the Board by Special Resolution resolve in respect of any one particular dividend of the Company that notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (A) of this Bye-law, a dividend may be satisfied wholly in the form of an allotment of shares credited as fully paid up without offering any right to shareholders to elect to receive such dividend in cash in lieu of such allotment.
- (E) The Board may on any occasion determine that rights of election and the allotment of shares under paragraph (A) of this Bye-law shall not be made available or made to any shareholders with registered addresses in any territory where in the absence of a registration statement or other special formalities the circulation of an offer of such rights of election or the allotment of shares would or might, in the opinion of the Board, be unlawful or impracticable, and in such event the provisions aforesaid shall be read and construed subject to such determination.

Dividends to be paid in proportion to paid up capital

151. Unless and to the extent that the rights attached to any shares or the terms of issue thereof otherwise provide, all dividends shall (as regards any shares not fully paid throughout the period in respect of which the dividend is paid) be apportioned and paid pro rata according to the amounts paid or credited as paid up on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid. No amount paid on a share in advance of calls shall for this purpose be treated as paid on the share.

Retention of dividends, etc

- 152.(A) The Board may retain any dividends or other moneys payable on or in respect of a share upon which the Company has a lien, and may apply the same in or towards satisfaction of the debts, liabilities or engagements in respect of which the lien exists.

Deduction of debts

- (3) upon the exercise of all or any of the subscription rights represented by any warrant, the relevant subscription right shall be exercisable in respect of a nominal amount of shares equal to the amount in cash which the holder of such warrant is required to pay on exercise of the subscription rights represented thereby or (as the case may be the relevant proportion thereof which is the same as the proportion of the subscription rights then being exercised) (with any fractional entitlement being dealt with in accordance with paragraph (C) below) and, in addition, there shall be allotted in respect of the exercise of such subscription rights, to the holder of the warrant exceeding such subscription rights, credited as fully paid, additional shares of a nominal amount which is equal to the difference between:
 - (a) the said amount in cash which the holder of such warrant is required to pay on exercise of the subscription rights represented thereby or, as the case may be, the proportion thereof which is the same as the proportion of the subscription rights then being exercised; and
 - (b) the nominal amount of shares in respect of which such subscription rights would have been exercisable, having regard to the provisions applicable under the terms and conditions of the warrants, had it been possible for such subscription rights to represent the right to subscribe for shares at less than their nominal value; and immediately upon such exercise so much of the sum standing to the credit of the Subscription Right Reserve as is required to pay up in full the nominal amount of such additional shares and the relevant number of shares shall forthwith be allotted, credited as fully paid up, to the holder of the warrant exercising such subscription rights; and

- (c) if upon the exercise of the subscription rights represented by any warrant the amount standing to the credit of the Subscription Right Reserve is not sufficient to pay in full the nominal amount of such additional shares equal to such difference as aforesaid to which the holder of the warrant exercising such subscription rights is entitled, the Board shall apply any profits or reserve then or thereafter becoming available (including, to the extent permitted by the Companies Act, the share premium account) for such purpose until the nominal amount of such additional shares is paid up in full and the relevant number of shares are allotted as aforesaid and until such time no dividend or other distributions shall be paid or made on the shares. Pending such payment and allotment, the holder of the warrant exercising such subscription rights shall be issued by the Company with a certificate evidencing his right to the allotment of the additional shares which have not been allotted to him. The rights represented by any such certificate shall be in registered form and shall be transferable in whole or in part in units of one share in the like manner as the shares for the time being are transferable, and the Company shall make such arrangements in relation to the maintenance of a register therefor and other matters in relation thereto as the Board may determine as appropriate, and adequate particulars thereof shall be made known to each relevant holder of the warrant exercising such subscription rights upon the issue of such certificate.
- (B) Shares allotted pursuant to the provisions of this Bye-law shall rank pari passu in all respects with the other shares allotted on the relevant exercise of the subscription rights represented by the warrant concerned.
- (C) Notwithstanding anything contained in paragraph (A) of this Bye-law, no fraction of any share shall be allotted on the exercise of the subscription rights and so that whether any (and, if so, what) fraction of a share arises shall be determined according to the provisions applicable under the terms and conditions of the warrants or, in the absence of any such provisions, pursuant to paragraph (D) of this Bye-law.

- (D) A certificate or report by the Auditors as to whether or not at any time the Subscription Rights Reserve is required to be established and maintained and if so the amount thereof which is so required to be established and maintained, as to the purposes for which the Subscription Right Reserve has been used, as to the extent to which it has been used to make good losses of the Company, as to the additional nominal amount of shares required to be allotted to holders of warrants exercising any subscription rights credited as fully paid up and as to any other matter concerning the Subscription Right Reserve shall (in the absence of manifest error) be conclusive and binding upon the Company and all warrant holders and shareholders and all persons claiming through or under them respectively.
