CORPORATE PROFILE

COMPANY OVERVIEW

Established in Singapore in 1988, we are a major contract manufacturer specialising in the manufacture of equipment, machines, sub-systems, precision tools, spare parts and components in the semiconductor processing equipment (“SPE”) industry, with in-house production facilities located in Singapore, the People’s Republic of China (the “PRC”) and the Philippines.

We will extend our in-house production facility to Malaysia which will be put in operation by the second half of 2023.

We provide Electronics Manufacturing Services (“EMS”) for high-mix/low volume sub-systems and equipment, and also provide Original Design Manufacturing (“ODM”) of our proprietary “Kinergy” brand of equipment.

We serve customers from various electronic industry sectors like surface mount equipment, semiconductor assembly equipment, medical analytical and other industrial equipment.

Our unique blend of multi-disciplinary engineering capabilities and manufacturing services, flexibility and responsiveness positions us as the partner of choice to our customers.

At Kinergy, we pride ourselves on our ability to provide quality, timely and cost-effective manufacturing services and engineering solutions, tailored to support our customers’ needs.

We also provide fund management and investment services.

Our business activities can be divided into the following three divisions:

1. Electronics Manufacturing Services Division (“EMS division”)

Our EMS division manufactures EMS products, comprising (i) sub-systems, (ii) complete machines and (iii) components, on the “high mix, low volume” basis mainly for use in the semiconductor processing equipment industry. “High mix, low volume” means the orders we receive from the products we assembled have high variations in applications, lot sizes and processes but low production volume. Our EMS manufacturing process mainly involves the manual assembly of parts and the manufacturing process is labour intensive. We also provide maintenance and commissioning services for our customers at our customers’ facilities.

Our customers which are primarily SPE manufacturers, generally purchase our EMS products to be used in the manufacturing of equipment and the production of semiconductors.

Our Products and Services:

Our EMS products manufactured by our EMS division are classified into three types as follows:

Sub-systems

We assemble components and parts manufactured or procured by us into sub-systems, which form critical modules to equipment and machines which would be used by our customers to produce semiconductor processing equipment. Our major sub-systems products include magazine handlers, work-holders and sliders.

Complete Machines

We manufacture complete machines according to our customers’ specifications by integrating parts and components. As part of the process, we provide value-added engineering services to improve our customers’ existing designs and enhance their existing products.

We also collaborate with our customers to conceptualise, design and manufacture their new products. We produce complete machines such as dicing machines, lapping machines, lifters and polishing machines which mainly cater for customers in the data storage and electronics industry.

Components

We manufacture mechanical components which are used by our customers in the manufacturing of equipment and machines, such as dry pumps and housings, for customers in the SPE industry.

Our customers are internationally “Best of Class” players in their respective fields.

2. Original Design Manufacturing Division (“ODM division”)

Our ODM division designs and manufactures ODM products, comprising (i) automated equipment, (ii) precision tooling components such as trim and form dieset; and (iii) spare parts, for use mainly in the semiconductor industry.

Our Products and Services:

Our ODM products are classified into three types as follows:

Automated Equipment

We design, develop and manufacture automated equipment according to our customers' needs and requirements. The automated equipment manufactured by us is generally used in semiconductor processing. Our Automated Equipment Department is responsible in design and manufacturing. Some of the machines designed and manufactured by us include the following:

Auto Frame Loader — equipment that automatically takes the fragile wire bonded lead-frames from magazines and places them onto a loading frame using robotic arm. The loading frame is then manually placed into the mold for encapsulation. We make both Cartesian and scara robot models of AFL.

Auto-buffing equipment — equipment that removes excess mold resin bleed and tape residue from the sensitive surface of QFN package lead frames using a nylon wheel mounted on a rotating spindle head assembly precisely positioned over the work area.

Detape Equipment — equipment that removes the adhesive backing tape from QFN Leadframes after encapsulation molding. Some tapes are polyimide based tapes and these require the frame to be at even temperature of $>180^{\circ}\text{C}$.

Media Deflash Equipment — equipment that removes mold flash from the leads of leadframes after encapsulation molding. This is done with high pressure media blasting of the frames.

Strip laser markers — equipment that automates the process of engraving identification marks, which are usually characters, logos or 2D code by a laser beam on the plastic or ceramic surfaces of the IC packages as well as side rails of leadframes.

Precision Tooling

We design, develop and manufacture precision tools including dies for trimming and forming of encapsulated IC chips by cutting and bending the terminals of the lead frame to different shapes. The precision tools we manufacture are prone to wear and tear as they are subject to continuous production runs.

3. Investment Division

Our investment division principally engages in providing fund management services and conducting investment activities in equity securities and funds which include equity fund raising activities for non-listed corporations and related consultation services.

Due to Covid-19 lock down in China, the operation for this division was much restrained. The planned establishment of new fund in 2022 did not materialize. The division managed to complete four investments for the funds under management during the year ended 31 December 2022. Total assets under management ("AUM") at end of 2022 was approximately S$244 million.

COMMITMENT TO QUALITY

We are committed to providing our customers with high-quality and cost-efficient products with timely delivery. This is achieved through the process of continual improvement and commitment of resources to meet and maintain the effectiveness of the quality management system and compliance to applicable product performance safety, statutory and customers' requirements. We obtained ISO 9001:2015 certification for quality management system. Our plant in Nantong is also certified for both ISO 9001:2015 and ISO 14001:2015 for environment management systems.

Our core competencies in a wide range of engineering disciplines, in particular, precision kinetics, electronic control, material technology and precision tooling, coupled with our ability to leverage on the combined knowledge and skill sets from both our EMS and ODM divisions, is a key differentiating competitive factor for us.

We achieved a three-time Enterprise 50-award winner (in 1999, 2000 and 2001).

Our headquarters is located in Singapore. Kinergy currently has manufacturing and service facilities in Singapore, Nantong (the PRC), the Philippines and Malaysia as well as marketing presence in Japan and Malaysia. Our investment division is located in Shanghai (the PRC).

CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

Dear Shareholders,

On behalf of the board (the "Board") of directors (the "Directors") of Kinergy Corporation Ltd. ("Kinergy" or the "Company") (together with its subsidiaries, the "Group"), I am pleased to present the annual report of the Group for the year ended 31 December 2022.

BUSINESS OVERVIEW AND STRATEGY

The global economy has been experiencing a gradual recovery in 2021. However, the momentum for growth, especially in most of the major economies has slowed considerably since early 2022. Semi-conductor industry, in particular, has experienced global decline in demand. The outlook remains uncertain in the midst of, among other factors, new waves of the Covid-19 variants, ongoing geopolitical conflicts, especially between USA and China, prolonged supply-chain disruptions, rising global inflation and tight labour market constraints, accentuating these adverse conditions.

The revamp strategy of the Group has begun to bear fruit.

1. Electronic Manufacturing Services ("EMS") division:

Our active pursuit into manufacturing front end equipment has yielded several orders for first articles. We expect to receive production orders in the second half of 2023 with potential increase in revenue in the following years. We are still seeking opportunities to acquire capability in precision metal cutting surface treatment.

Under the geopolitical environment, we have to seek alternate manufacturing sites outside China to cater for the demand of products destined for delivery outside China. Consequently, we have acquired a factory in Melaka, Malaysia, for EMS operation and a precision tool company to support the need for EMS materials.

2. Original Design Manufacturing ("ODM") division:

Demand for Semiconductor Process Equipment (SPE) has been strong since early 2022; and is expected to continue for a while. We continue to enhance the Design team to build "Kinergy" brand of equipment. During the year ended 31 December 2022, ODM embarked on developing a new deflashing machine for China market and targeted to launch in 2023. Several new design developments are in progress. This will provide us with enhanced capability to penetrate the SPE market. The division has also secured a new customer for supply of test socket parts. We have expanded more than two-fold in our Precision Tools operations in the Philippines.

3. Investment Division:

Due to Covid-19 lockdown in China, our fund management company's operation in Shanghai has been curtailed. Planned increase in fund formation and target investments of managed funds were interrupted. The existing four funds under management performed reasonably well in 2022. Our investments therein have also been yielding good results.

Furthermore, the Group has also expanded the investment into Vision System by acquiring a 49% interest in a group that provides precision agricultural farm equipment. The current concentration is to engage roof top farming in Singapore with potential expansion to other cities.

The Group will continue to focus on (i) the manufacturing competence acquisition; (ii) the penetration to the semiconductor front-end business; (iii) further development of the ODM business; and (iv) the improvement of our operational efficiencies.

PERFORMANCE REVIEW

The Group recorded a revenue of $124.2 million for the year ended 31 December 2022. This is a decline of 26.2% when compared with $168.3 million for the year ended 31 December 2021.

Net profit after tax for the year ended 31 December 2022 amounted to $7.3 million as compared to $12.6 million for the year ended 31 December 2021. Earnings per share was 0.50 Singapore cents for the year ended 31 December 2022 and 1.32 Singapore cents per share for year ended 31 December 2021.

FINAL DIVIDEND

The Board will be recommending a final dividend of 0.15 Singapore cents per share for shareholders' approval at the forthcoming annual general meeting of the Company.

LOOKING AHEAD

The Directors face perplexing economic uncertainties in the coming years. These uncertainties that affect the Company's operation locations, supply chain database sourcing and inflations variability makes it very difficult for the Directors to adjust the Company's strategic direction of our business to the fluid business conditions that are also constantly changing, driven by:-

1. geopolitical frictions among mainly China, Russia, USA, Europe and Western allies;
2. the redundancy of economic output in later years caused by geopolitical manufacturing and services will create excess supplies and possible recession; and
3. severe global inflations caused by the Ukraine War and the relentless expansion of monetary supplies and rise in interest rates in USA. Covid-19 pandemic also contributed to shortages in supplies and thus inflations.

Under such circumstances, the Company stands to gain from the strategic shift to focus on the system integration of higher value/higher skills wafer fabrication equipment. The Chips Act of USA, Europe (pending), Japan (pending) and S. Korea (pending) have created strong demands for wafer fabrication (WF) Semiconductor Process Equipment (SPE). The Company has received healthy orders from WF SPE companies. These strong demands for WF SPE are expected to grow in the next few years.

The Company will continue to rapidly enhance our total competence in the system integration of WF SPE and other high-tech equipment such as medical, test and analysis equipment. We will be also watching closely the impending over-supply of SPE in 5-7 years from now.

The Company will continue to develop the investment fund management company, Shanghai CEL Puyan Equity Investment Management Ltd. The challenge of the moment is the securing of more funds to manage. However, with municipal governments all over China undergoing financial shortages due to their inability to sell land for various investment purposes and the serious depletion of their coffers to counter the economic woes caused by Covid-19 pandemic, the important source of investment funds for management is vastly reduced.

The Directors are keeping their eyes peeled for changes in business conditions so that the Company will push back adverse business factors and seize opportunities thrown up by new changes in the business environment.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

As we look forward to another year of growth and developments, on behalf of the Board, I would like to thank our stakeholders, customers and partners, for their trust and confidence in the Group. I would also like to thank our management and staff for their hard work, dedication and proactive response to the rapid changes around us.

We remain committed to delivering sustainable returns and look forward to all our stakeholders' continuous support as we forge ahead in managing future challenges.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

OVERVIEW

Established in Singapore in 1988, we are a major contract manufacturer specialising in the manufacture of equipment, machines, sub-systems, precision tools, spare parts and components mainly in the SPE industry, with in-house production facilities located in Singapore, the PRC and the Philippines. We have three divisions, namely EMS, ODM and investment divisions. Our EMS division focuses primarily on manufacturing of sub-system, complete machines and components, for original design manufacturers and the provision of post-warranty period maintenance and commissioning services to our customers. Our ODM division focuses primarily on designs and manufacturing automated equipment, precision tools and spare parts under our own “Kinergy” brand for use in the semiconductor back-end equipment industry. Our investment division focuses primarily on provision of fund management services and investment activities in equity securities and funds.

During the year ended 31 December 2022, the Group’s revenue mainly derived from our EMS division, which accounted for approximately 87.9% of total revenue of the Group whereas our ODM and investment divisions accounted for approximately 9.6% and 2.5% of total revenue of the Group, respectively.

BUSINESS REVIEW AND PROSPECT

The global economy has been experiencing a gradual recovery. However, the momentum for growth, especially in most of the major economies has slowed considerably since early 2022 and the outlook remains uncertain in midst of, among other factors, new waves of the Covid-19 variants, ongoing geopolitical conflicts especially between Russia and Ukraine, prolonged supply-chain disruptions, rising global inflation and labour market challenges, while industry competition remains intense.

— EMS Division

Our EMS division was negatively affected by the global decline in demand for semiconductor chips in the industry due to:

1. the severe drop in the global consumer purchasing power index brought about by the worldwide steep inflation and impending recession;
2. the ongoing trade and technology wars between the United States and China, as well as the Ukraine war, that stunt the normal operations of production of goods and services as the worldwide supply chain is adversely affected; and
3. the mutation persistence of the Covid-19 pandemic that brings drastic drop in efficiency and productivity across all spectrum of social, economic and bureaucratic activities.

Total revenue generated from our EMS Division for the year ended 31 December 2022 decreased by approximately 31.0% year-on-year (“YOY”). Extending the Group’s strategy to acquire manufacturing competence, an investment of 49% equity interest in Continuum Technologies, a wire harness and cable assembly manufacturer, was made during the reporting period. This will enhance our Group’s capability and competitiveness.

Our active pursuit into semiconductor front-end business has been encouraging. Several engagements with potential customers have yielded positive responses with a number of successful request for quotation and deliveries during the reporting period. Our management is encouraged that new orders have been received from customers with potential sizeable orders.

— ODM Division

Our ODM division revenue has shown exceptional growth for the year ended 31 December 2022 by approximately 67.9% YOY. Demand for SPE has been strong since early 2022 and is expected to continue for a while. During the reporting period, ODM embarked on developing a new deflashing machine for China market and targeted to launch by the end of 2022. This will increase supply of our own Kinergy brand SPE products. The division also secured a new customer for supply of test socket parts and has invested approximately S$3.9 million in production equipment to increase our Group’s capacity.

— Investment Division

Revenue from the fund management fee for the year showed an increase of 1.8% YOY and net profit increased by 104.9% YOY mainly arising from increase fair value of investment securities.

Looking forward to year 2023, the Group will continue to focus on the manufacturing competence acquisition; penetrate semiconductor front-end business; develop further the ODM business; and improve our operational efficiencies. The Group will also endeavor to complete the establishment of Malaysia facility by second half of the year.

FINANCIAL REVIEWRevenue

The following table sets forth the components of our revenue by operating segments for the years indicated:

	For the year ended 31 December		Percentage change
	2022 S$'000	2021 S$'000
EMS	109,176	158,177	(31.0%)
ODM	11,921	7,098	67.9%
Investment	3,105	3,050	1.8%
	124,202	168,325	(26.2%)

The Group's revenue decreased by approximately S$44.1 million or 26.2% from approximately S$168.3 million for the year ended 31 December 2021 to approximately S$124.2 million for the year ended 31 December 2022.

The decrease was primarily attributable to the decrease in sales volume from EMS division, which was partially offset by the increase in sales from ODM division and slightly higher management fee from investment division.

Cost of sales

Cost of sales primarily consists of material costs, labour costs and overhead expenses. The following table sets forth a breakdown of our cost of sales by operating segments for the years indicated:

	For the year ended 31 December		Percentage change
	2022 S$'000	2021 S$'000
EMS	94,439	134,785	(29.9%)
ODM	10,762	5,320	102.3%
Investment	—	—	N/A
	105,201	140,105	(24.9%)

The Group's cost of sales decreased by approximately S$34.9 million or 24.9% from approximately S$140.1 million for the year ended 31 December 2021 to approximately S$105.2 million for the year ended 31 December 2022. The decrease was mainly attributable to the decrease in revenue from EMS division off set by the increase in revenue from ODM division.

Gross profit and gross profit margin

As a result of the changes in the revenue and cost of sales above, the gross profit decreased by approximately S$9.2 million or 32.7% from approximately S$28.2 million for the year ended 31 December 2021 to approximately S$19.0 million for the year ended 31 December 2022.

Gross profit margin decreased by approximately 1.5% from approximately 16.8% for the year ended 31 December 2021 to approximately 15.3% for the year ended 31 December 2022. The decrease was primarily attributable to the lower revenue for the year ended 31 December 2022.

Other income and gains

Other income and gains increased by approximately S$2.3 million or 49.5% from approximately S$4.6 million for year ended 31 December 2021 to approximately S$6.9 million for the year ended 31 December 2022. The increase was primarily attributable to the increase of net fair value gains on investment securities and other incomes of approximately S$4.6 million. The increase was partially offset by (i) the absence of gain on disposal of investment securities of approximately S$1.2 million; (ii) decrease in government grants of approximately S$0.6 million; (iii) the absence of gain on bargain purchase of a business of approximately S$0.3 million for the year ended 31 December 2022 and (iv) the absence of net foreign exchange differences of S$0.4 million.

Sales and marketing expenses

Sales and marketing expenses decreased by approximately S$0.2 million or 4.8% from approximately S$3.4 million for the year ended 31 December 2021 to approximately S$3.2 million for the year ended 31 December 2022, which was in line with the decrease in revenue of the year ended 31 December 2022.

General and administration expenses

General and administration expenses decreased by approximately S$2.1 million or 14.2% from approximately S$15.2 million for the year ended 31 December 2021 to approximately S$13.1 million for the year ended 31 December 2022. The decrease was mainly due to the lower indirect staff costs in the form of lower incentive pay out.

Other expenses

Other expenses increased by approximately S$0.8 million, which was mainly due to a loss in foreign exchange recorded during the year ended 31 December 2022.

Finance costs

Comparing to the year ended 31 December 2021, finance costs incurred during the year ended 31 December 2022 increased by approximately S$0.3 million primarily due to the higher bank loan utilised during the year ended 31 December 2022 coupled with higher interest rate.

Profit before tax

Profit before tax for the year ended 31 December 2022 decreased by approximately S$4.3 million or 31.7% to approximately S$9.4 million as compared to profit before tax of approximately S$13.7 million for the year ended 31 December 2021. The main cause is due to substantial decline in revenue from semi-conductor industry. A higher net fair value gains on investment securities and lower human resource expense help to lessen the negative impact.

Income tax expense

The Group's income tax expense increased by approximately S$1.0 million from approximately S$1.1 million for the year ended 31 December 2021 to approximately S$2.1 million for the year ended 31 December 2022. This is mainly due to higher net profit on Investment division which has a tax rate of 25%.

Profit for the year

As a result of the above, the Group recorded a net profit after tax of approximately S$7.3 million for the year ended 31 December 2022 as compared to net profit after tax of approximately S$12.6 million for the corresponding period in 2021, indicating a decrease of approximately S$5.3 million or 42.0%.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

As at 31 December 2022, the Group had cash and cash equivalents of approximately S$20.1 million. The Board is of the opinion that the financial position of the Group is healthy, and the Group has sufficient resources to support its operations and meet its foreseeable capital expenditures.

Net cash flow (used in)/generated from operating activities

The Group generates cash from operating activities primarily from sales of goods. Cash flows from operating activities reflects profit/(loss) before taxation for the year adjusted for (i) non-cash items such as depreciation of property, plant and equipment, depreciation of prepaid land lease payments, amortisation of intangible assets and other items, which lead to the operating cash generated before changes in working capital; (ii) effects of cash flows arising from changes in working capital, including changes in inventories, trade and other receivables and trade and other payables which lead to cash flow generated from operations; and (iii) interest income received, interest expense paid and income tax paid, which result in net cash generated from operating activities.

For the year ended 31 December 2022, the Group's net cash generated from operating activities was approximately S$2.9 million, primarily reflected: (i) increase in inventories of approximately S$1.4 million; (ii) decrease in trade and other payables and accruals of approximately S$21.3 million; and (iii) tax paid of approximately S$1.3 million, which were partially offset by: (i) cash generated before changes in working capital of approximately S$6.2 million; (ii) decrease in trade and other receivables of approximately S$20.4 million; and (iii) interest income received of approximately S$0.4 million.

Net cash flow used in investing activities

Cash flow used in investing activities mainly relates to purchase and disposal of property, plant and equipment and purchase of investment securities.

For the year ended 31 December 2022, the Group's net cash flow used in investing activities was approximately S$12.3 million, which was primarily used for: (i) purchase of property, plant and equipment of approximately S$5.4 million; (ii) increase in advance payment for property, plant and equipment of approximately S$0.8 million, (iii) purchase of investment securities of approximately S$3.9 million; and (iv) purchase of a shareholding in associates of approximately S$2.6 million; which were partially set off by the proceeds from disposal of assets of approximately S$0.3 million.

Net cash flow (used in)/generated from financing activities

Cash flows from financing activities includes net proceeds from bank loans, proceeds from ordinary shares issued, payment of principal portion of lease liabilities and dividend paid on ordinary shares.

For the year ended 31 December 2022, the Group's net cash flow used in financing activities was approximately S$9.5 million, mainly used in (i) the repayment of bank loan of approximately S$9.5 million; (ii) the dividend paid on ordinary shares of approximately S$4.8 million; and (iii) the payment of lease liabilities of approximately S$1.2 million, which were partially set off by the proceeds from bank loan of approximately S$6.0 million.

NET CURRENT ASSETS

The Group's net current asset decreased by approximately S$17.5 million from approximately S$72.4 million as at 31 December 2021 to approximately S$54.9 million as at 31 December 2022. The decrease was primarily due to: (i) decrease in cash and cash equivalents of approximately S$21.6 million and (ii) decrease in trade receivables and prepayments, deposits and other receivables of approximately S$20.4 million. This was partially offset by (i) decrease in current portion of interest-bearing loans and borrowings of approximately S$1.0 million; (ii) decrease in trade and other payables and accruals of approximately S$21.3million; (iii) increase in inventories of approximately S$1.4 million and (iv) decrease in income tax payable of approximately S$0.8 million.

Air Emissions

Due to the Group's business nature, the Group does not generate a material amount of exhaust gas emissions during the operations.

GHG Emissions

The Group's GHG emissions primarily came from the direct GHG emissions resulting from the consumption of petrol and diesel by company vehicles (Scope 1), the energy indirect GHG emissions from purchased electricity (Scope 2), as well as other indirect emissions from paper waste disposal, water consumption and air travel (Scope 3). During 2021, the Group has set a target of maintaining its total GHG emissions intensity (tCO₂e/employee) to be not more than the baseline year 2021. To attain this target, the Group established relevant guidelines and actively adopts various measures to reduce GHG emissions, including:

- encourage employees to take public transport during the business trip;
- encourage employees to reduce unnecessary overseas business trip, thus reducing indirect carbon emissions
- purchase regular petrol for vehicles, and conduct annual inspections to ensure vehicles are meeting relevant emission standards;
- actively adopt measures for energy conservation which are described in the section headed "Energy Management"; and
- actively adopt measures for waste reduction which are described in the section headed "Waste Management".

Due to the effective implementation of the above measures, the total GHG emission intensity (tCO₂e/employee) has decreased by approximately 13.93% from 4.38 in 2021 to 3.77 in 2022.

The following is the summary of GHG emissions performance:

Waste Management

In order to reduce the waste and maximise the recovery of valuable materials from the industrial waste generated, the Group has adopted the Environmental Management System to ensure the proper handling procedures of hazardous and non-hazardous are implemented in accordance with relevant laws and regulations as identified in the Environmental Management System.

The Group's main hazardous waste generated from the metalwork processes in factories is spent lubricating coolant. The Group ensures that all hazardous wastes are handled and collected properly by licensed contractors.

The major non-hazardous wastes generated during the Group's operation is paper and metal. For recyclable materials, education and promotion measures are taken to encourage reduction in material and resource consumption and waste, and any recyclables generated are handled by respective waste management companies. In addition to requiring the Group's employees to properly dispose of such wastes and encouraging them to sort wastes before disposal.

During 2021, the Group has set a target of maintaining its total waste disposal intensity (tonnes/million revenue) to be not more than the baseline year 2021. To achieve this target, the Group continues to place great effort in educating its employees on the importance of reducing waste production and has adopted the following waste reduction measures:

- use duplex printing, recycle papers and use electronic means to reduce paper usage;
- print or photocopy only the pages needed;
- reuse office stationeries, such as envelopes and folders;
- encourage employees to recycle equipment such as computers and communication devices; and
- utilise electronic means for office daily communication;

Due to the increase in hygienic measures and disposal of protective equipment during the COVID-19 pandemic, the total wastes intensity (tonnes/million revenue¹²) has increased by approximately 38.46% from 0.52 in 2021 to 0.72 in 2022.

13. Approximately 100% of the used paper cartons generated in Singapore are sold to recycling company for recycling.
14. Due to the enhancement of waste collection method, the amount of mix waste is included in the scope of disclosure since 2022.

Discharges into Water and Land

Due to the Group's business nature, discharges into water and land are insignificant. Since the sewage discharged by the Group will be disposed through the municipal sewage pipe network to the regional water purification plant, its water consumption amount is considered as the amount of sewage discharged.

Energy Management

The energy consumed by the Group is mainly electricity consumption for daily operations, as well as diesel and petrol consumption for company vehicles. The Group has established relevant policies and procedures to manage the effective use of resources, with reference to achieving higher energy efficiency and reducing the unnecessary materials use. During 2021, the Group has set a target of maintaining its total energy consumption intensity (MWh/employee) to be not more than the baseline year 2021. To enhance energy efficiency, the Group has installed energy-efficient lightings. Besides, in order to avoid unnecessary energy consumption, air conditioners and lights are switched off when the area is not in use.

Due to effective implementation of energy-saving measures, the total energy consumption intensity (MWh/employee) has decreased by approximately 15.82% from 11.25 in 2021 to 9.47 in 2022.

The following is the summary of energy consumption performance:

Note(s):

15. The unit conversion method of energy consumption data is formulated based on the Energy Statistics Handbook issued by the International Energy Agency.

Water Management

Water for the Group's office and manufacturing use is obtained from municipal water supplies. To enhance water conservation, during 2021, the Group has set a target of maintaining its total water consumption intensity (m³/employee) to be not more than the baseline year 2021. To ensure the efficient use of water and achieve the relevant target, the Group has reduced unnecessary water consumption in toilets and pantries, while also posting water-saving reminders in the office area to raise employees' awareness.

Due to the Group's business nature, the Group has not identified any issues in sourcing water that is fit for purpose.

Due to the increase in sanitary measures during the COVID-19 pandemic, the total water consumption intensity (m³/employee) has increased by approximately 18.52% from 22.68 in 2021 to 26.88 in 2022.

The following is the summary of water consumption performance:

	Unit	Singapore		China
		2022	2021	2022	2021

Water Consumption Intensity¹¹	m ³ /employee	5.86	4.85	37.96	30.61

Packaging Materials

Packaging materials used by the Group were mainly paper boxes, which is used for shipment in Singapore. The Group conducts annual review based on the packaging material consumption rate in order to maximise the usage of packaging material.

During the Reporting Period, the Group consumed approximately 2,995.18 kg (2021: approximately 3,466.75 kg) of paper boxes. The packaging materials consumption intensity¹² was approximately 58.81 kg (2021: approximately 21.91 kg) per million revenues.

Environment and Natural Resources

Due to the core business of the Group has limited impact on the environment and natural resources, yet the Group endeavours to minimise the negative environmental impacts of the Group's business operations as an ongoing commitment to corporate sustainability. The Group has contributed in mitigating the potential environmental impacts through adopting industrial best practices targeted at reducing natural resource consumption and developing effective environmental management. The Group regularly assesses the environmental risks of the Group's businesses, adopts preventive measures to reduce potential risks, and ensures the Group's compliance with relevant laws and regulations. The Group is also devoted to achieving sustainable development for generating long-term values for the community and stakeholders.

Climate Change

The Group recognises climate change as one of the greatest issues confronting humanity today. It is vital for the Group to understand its corporate role in addressing climate change threats, which could impact the Group both in terms of the business profitability and long-term resilience. As such, the Group has implemented relevant management approach on climate-related issues, climate mitigation, adaptation and resilience across its operations and along the value chain.

To cope with the intensified threat of climate change, the Group has assessed the potential risks that may arise from the Group's business operations through a climate change assessment. With reference to the risk categorisation by Task Force on Climate-Related Financial Disclosures ("TCFD"), the identified climate-related risks of the Group and corresponding actions taken to manage them are as follows:

Transition Risks

For transition risks, the Group expects policies and regulations related to climate change are becoming stricter. If the Group's existing compliance procedures and business operations would not fully comply with the new legal and regulatory requirements, it might incur additional compliance costs and adverse impact on the reputation of the Group. In addition, the high-carbon emitting industry will suffer from higher cost, lower returns or asset devaluation. Related climate change risks might also impose an impact to the Group's investment and financing activities regarding related industries.

In response to the policy and legal risks as well as the reputation risks, the Group constantly monitors any changes in laws or regulations and global trends on climate change to avoid cost increments, non-compliance fines or reputational risks due to delayed response. In addition, the Group has been taking initiatives to reduce the Group's energy consumption and GHG emissions from time to time.

Physical Risks

For physical risks, extreme weather, such as hail and thunderstorm, may cause interruptions in water and electricity supplies as well as extensive damage to properties, especially in Nantong where the Group operates. This may cause interruption to the normal business operations and thus have an adverse effect on the Group's financial performance.

The Group has taken different actions to manage the abovementioned acute physical risks. For example, the Group maintains comprehensive insurance coverage on assets that are prone to damage by extreme weather conditions. In addition, the Group has developed the practice of communicating the arrangements under bad weather conditions to employees in advance. The potential financial impacts can be minimised with adequate preparations for extreme weather events.

COMMUNITY INVESTMENT

The Group is committed to emboldening and supporting the public by means of social participation and contribution as part of its strategic development, and to nurture the corporate culture and practices of corporate citizens in the daily work life throughout the Group. The Group aims to promote the stability of the society and support the underprivileged in rehabilitation to improve the quality of life. To cater the specific needs of the local community, the Group has formulated relevant guidelines to understand the needs of the community, identify the focus areas and allocate appropriate resources to empower the community.

The Group's Singapore office continued to focus on youth development and participated in Student Internship Programme organised by Polytechnic, Institute of Technical Education and Singapore Institute of Technology in 2022. The programme aims to provide industrial attachment to various companies as part of their diploma course requirements with a duration of 10 to 12 weeks. The students are provided with the opportunity to apply the concepts learnt into practicals under the guidance of the Group's employees. During the Reporting Period, 35 students participated in the programme. The Group will continue to look into engaging in more community events with donations and volunteer activities in the coming years.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Independent auditor's report to the members of Kinergy Corporation Ltd.

Report on the audit of the financial statements

OPINION

We have audited the financial statements of Kinergy Corporation Ltd. (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Group"), which comprise the statements of financial position of the Group and the Company as at 31 December 2022, the statements of changes in equity of the Group and the Company and the consolidated statement of comprehensive income and consolidated statement of cash flow of the Group for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements of the Group, the statement of financial position and the statement of changes in equity of the Company are properly drawn up in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act 1967 (the "Act"), International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") and Singapore Financial Reporting Standards (International) ("SFRS(I)") so as to give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group and the financial position of the Company as at 31 December 2022 and of the consolidated financial performance, consolidated changes in equity and consolidated cash flows of the Group and changes in equity of the Company for the year ended on that date.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing ("ISAs") and Singapore Standards on Auditing (SSAs). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the Accounting and Corporate Regulatory Authority ("ACRA") Code of Professional Conduct and Ethics for Public Accountants and Accounting Entities ("ACRA Code") together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in Singapore, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the ACRA Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. For each matter below, our description of how our audit addressed the matter is provided in that context.

We have fulfilled our responsibilities described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report, including in relation to these matters. Accordingly, our audit included the performance of procedures designed to respond to our assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements. The results of our audit procedures, including the procedures performed to address the matters below, provide the basis for our audit opinion on the accompanying financial statements.

Allowance for expected credit losses of trade receivables

The Group's trade receivable balances amounted to S$15,151,000 (2021: S$32,252,000) as at 31 December 2022 and they represented about 17% (2021: 24%) of the Group's total current assets.

The recoverability of trade receivables is a key element of the Group's working capital management, which is being monitored on an ongoing basis by the respective local management. The determination as to whether trade receivable is recoverable involves management's judgments and estimates on the trade debtors' ability to pay. As such, we determined that this is a key audit matter.

Management considered the age of the outstanding balances, location of customers, existence of disputes, recent historical payment patterns and any other available information concerning the creditworthiness of customers. In addition, management has also considered forward-looking adjustments to the historical default rate. Management incorporated this information together with the current and information specific to customers and economic environment to determine the provision of expected credit losses on trade receivables.

Our audit procedures included, but not limited to the following procedures. We understand the Group's processes and controls relating to the monitoring of trade receivables and review collection risks of trade debtors. On a sample basis, we requested trade receivable confirmations, reviewed management's reconciliation of confirmation replies, where applicable, and obtained evidence of receipts from selected customers subsequent to financial year end. We evaluated management's assumptions used in assessing adequacy of allowance for expected credit losses amount through review of specific debtors' payment history and management's assessment of credit risk of these debtors. We also reviewed management's computation of expected credit losses, the allowance recognised and assessed the adequacy of the Group's disclosures of trade receivables and the related risks such as credit risk and liquidity risk in Notes 36 (a) and 36 (b) respectively to the financial statements.

Allowance for obsolete and slow moving inventories

The Group is in the business of contract manufacturing, design, engineering and assembly for the electronics industry, and the design, manufacture and sale of automated machines, apparatus, systems, equipment. As at 31 December 2022, the Group's total inventories amounted to S$53,699,000 (2021: S$52,266,000), representing 59% (2021: 40%) of the total current assets of the Group. As at 31 December 2022, the Group has recorded allowance for obsolete inventories of S$395,000 (2021: S$791,000). The allowance for obsolete inventories relates mainly to raw materials.

We focused on this area because the gross inventory and allowance for obsolete inventories are material to the financial statements and the determination of the allowance for obsolete and slow moving inventories involves a high level of management judgement. As such, we determined this to be a key audit matter because of the magnitude of the inventories and significant management estimation required.

Our audit procedures included, but not limited to the following procedures. We evaluated the reasonableness of the allowance by understanding how management assess to determine the allowance for those items that were deemed to be obsolete and had no future usage. We have checked, on a sampling basis, that the inventories are not obsolete and were either used in production or supported by committed/forecasted customer order. In addition, for raw material, we compared the raw materials on hand against the forecasted raw material usage and assessed the amount of raw materials that may require write-down. We evaluated management's analyses and assessments on the net realisable value of related inventories. This includes comparing the cost of these inventories against the selling price of the inventories in the recent sales transaction or upcoming customer order. We also assessed the adequacy of the disclosures related to inventories in Note 18 to the financial statements.

Valuation of investment securities

The aggregate carrying value of the Group's investment portfolio was S$30,957,000 (2021: S$24,063,000), which represented 18% (2021: 12%) of the Group's total assets as at 31 December 2022.

The investment portfolio comprise (i) equity interests of unlisted companies and funds with a total value of S$17,366,000 which is carried at fair value through profit or loss, (ii) equity interests of listed company with a total value of S$4,041,000 which is carried at fair value through profit or loss, and (iii) equity interest of an unlisted company with a total value of S$9,550,000 which is carried at fair value through other comprehensive income. These investments are categorised under Level 3 in the fair value hierarchy and valued based on valuation models using significant unobservable inputs.

We identified valuation of investment securities as a key audit matter because of the magnitude of these items to the financial statements, the impact of changes in valuation on the profit and loss and other comprehensive income and the management judgments and assumptions used in assessing fair value of the financial instruments. In addition, there was an increase in the level of estimation uncertainty in determining the fair value of the unquoted investments as at 31 December 2022 arising from the changes in market and economic conditions.

Our audit procedures included, but not limited to the following procedures. We evaluated the independent professional valuer's and management's competence and objectivity. We engaged internal valuation specialist to assist the review of management's assumptions, and valuation methodology used by the independent professional valuer and management to estimate the fair value of the investments. We assessed the reasonableness of management's assumptions used in the valuation, such as comparable companies, valuation multiple and discount for lack of marketability. We tested the mathematical accuracy of the fair value computation and reviewed the adequacy of the Group's disclosures in Note 35 to the financial statements relating to investment securities, fair value of assets, level 3 fair value measurements and key sources of estimation uncertainty, respectively, which are fundamental to users' understanding of this matter. They comprise key assumptions, estimation uncertainty and sensitivity of the fair values, including information that the fair values of the unquoted equity investments recorded in the Group's balance sheet as at 31 December 2022 was estimated based on conditions prevailing on that date.

OTHER INFORMATION

Management is responsible for other information. The other information comprises the information included in the annual report, but does not include the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF MANAGEMENT AND DIRECTORS FOR THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Management is responsible for the preparation of financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with the provisions of the Act, IFRSs and SFRS(I)s, and for devising and maintaining a system of internal accounting controls sufficient to provide a reasonable assurance that assets are safeguarded against loss from unauthorised use or disposition; and transactions are properly authorised and that they are recorded as necessary to permit the preparation of true and fair financial statements and to maintain accountability of assets.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The directors' responsibilities include overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs and SSAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs and SSAs, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the directors regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the directors with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with the directors, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

REPORT ON OTHER LEGAL AND REGULATORY REQUIREMENTS

In our opinion, the accounting and other records required by the Act to be kept by the Company have been properly kept in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Ang Chuen Beng.

- In accordance with the Foreign Enterprise Law applicable to the subsidiary in the People's Republic of China ("PRC"), the subsidiary is required to make appropriation to a Statutory Reserve Fund ("SRF"). At least 10% of the statutory after tax profits as determined in accordance with the applicable PRC accounting standards and regulations that is approved for dividend payment must be allocated to the SRF until the cumulative total of the SRF reaches 50% of the subsidiary's registered capital. Subject to approval from the relevant PRC authorities, the SRF may be used to offset any accumulated losses or increase the registered capital of the subsidiary. The SRF is not available for dividend distribution to shareholders.
- The translation reserve is used to record exchange differences arising from the translation of the financial statements of foreign operations whose functional currencies are different from that of the Group's presentation currency.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

2.1 Basis of preparation

The consolidated financial statements of the Group and the statement of financial position and statement of changes in equity of the Company have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”) and Singapore Financial Reporting Standards (International) (“SFRS(I”).

The financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis except as disclosed in the accounting policies below.

The financial statements are presented in Singapore Dollars (SGD or S$) and all values in the tables are rounded to the nearest thousand (S$’000), except when otherwise indicated.

2.2 Changes in accounting policies and disclosures

New and amended standards and interpretations

The Group applied for the first-time certain standards and amendments, which are effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2022. The Group has not early adopted any other standard, interpretation or amendment that has been issued but is not yet effective. The adoption of these standards did not have any material effect on the financial statements of the Group.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

2.3 Issued but not yet effective International Financial Reporting Standards

The Group has not applied the following new and revised IFRSs, that have been issued but are not yet effective, in these financial statements.

Description	Effective for annual periods beginning on or after
Amendments to SFRS(I) 1-1: Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-current	1 January 2024
Amendments to SFRS(I) 1 and SFRS(I) Practice statement 2: Disclosure of Accounting Policies	1 January 2023
Amendments to SFRS(I) 8: Definition of Accounting Estimates	1 January 2023
Amendments to SFRS(I) 12: Deferred tax related to Assets and Liabilities arising from a single transaction	1 January 2023
Amendments to SFRS(I) 17: Insurance contracts	1 January 2023
Amendments to SFRS(I) 16: Lease Liability in a Sale and Leaseback	1 January 2024
Amendments to SFRS(I) 1-1: Non-current Liabilities with Covenants	1 January 2024
Amendments to SFRS(I) 10 and SFRS(I) 1-28: Sale or Contribution of Assets between an Investor and its Associate or Joint Venture	To be determined

The directors expect that the adoption of the standards above will have no material impact on the financial statements in the year of initial application.

Further information about those IFRSs/SFRS(I)s that are expected to be applicable to the Group is described below.

Amendments to IAS 1/SFRS(I) 1-1: Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-current

In January 2020, the IASB/SFRS issued amendments to paragraphs 69 to 76 of IAS 1/SFRS(I) 1-1 to specify the requirements for classifying liabilities as current or non-current. The amendments clarify:

- What is meant by a right to defer settlement
- That a right to defer must exist at the end of the reporting period
- That classification is unaffected by the likelihood that an entity will exercise its deferral right
- That only if an embedded derivative in a convertible liability is itself an equity instrument would the terms of a liability not impact its classification

The amendments are effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2023 and must be applied retrospectively. Subsequently, the Board noted that the COVID-19 pandemic has created pressures that could make it more challenging to implement any changes in classification of liabilities as current or non-current resulting from the application of these amendments. The pressures caused by the COVID-19 pandemic could also delay the start and extend the duration of any renegotiation of loan covenants resulting from those changes. Consequently, the Board decided to provide entities with operational relief by deferring the effective date of the amendments by one year to annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2023. Earlier application of the amendments continues to be permitted. The Group is currently assessing the impact the amendments will have on current practice and whether existing loan agreements may require renegotiation.

Amendments to SFRS(I) 16: Lease Liability in a Sale and Leaseback

In September 2022 the IASB amended IFRS 16 to add subsequent measurement requirements for sale and leaseback transactions that satisfy the requirements in IFRS 15 to be accounted for as a sale. The amendments require a seller-lessee to subsequently measure lease liabilities arising from a leaseback in a way that it does not recognise any amount of the gain or loss that relates to the right of use it retains.

The Board decided to require a seller-lessee to apply the amendments retrospectively in accordance with IAS 8. The IASB expects the benefits of retrospective application to outweigh the expected costs because:

- (a) sale and leaseback transactions often involve the sale of high-value items of property, plant and equipment with long economic lives. The accounting for such transactions could have a long-term material effect on the financial position of a seller-lessee. It is therefore important for users of financial statements that seller-lessees apply IFRS 16 consistently to those transactions.
- (b) the amendments are expected to affect only the subsequent measurement of lease liabilities arising from a sale and leaseback transaction:
 - with variable lease payments;
 - occurring from the date of initial application of IFRS 16 (1 January 2019 for most seller lessees); and
 - for which the seller-lessee's accounting policy differs from the requirements specified in these amendments.
- (c) the amendments do not require the seller-lessee to estimate expected lease payments. The seller lessee could use the carrying amount of the lease liability at the commencement date — determined applying paragraph 100(a) — to develop its accounting policy for determining 'lease payments' as required by paragraph 102A.

The amendments are effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2024 and apply prospectively.

The Group is currently assessing the impact of the amendments to determine the impact they will have on the Group's accounting policy disclosures.

Amendments to SFRS(I) 1-1: Non-current Liabilities with Covenants

In October 2022, the IASB issued Non-current Liabilities with Covenants. The Board decided to require entities to apply Non-current Liabilities with Covenants (2022 amendments) retrospectively in accordance with IAS 8 because:

- (a) classifying a liability as current or non-current on the same basis in current and prior periods would result in more comparable, and thus more useful, information than the information that would result from not reclassifying comparative amounts; and
- (b) applying the amendments retrospectively is not expected to be onerous for entities.

The amendments are effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2024 and the IASB allows an entity to apply the 2022 amendments early, but only if the entity also applies the 2020 amendments from the same date. The Group is currently assessing the impact of the amendments to determine the impact they will have on the Group's accounting policy disclosures.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

2.4 Basis of consolidation and business combinations

(a) Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements comprise the financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries as at 31 December 2022. Control is achieved when the Group is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the investee. Specifically, the Group controls an investee if, and only if, the Group has:

- Power over the investee (i.e., existing rights that give it the current ability to direct the relevant activities of the investee)
- Exposure, or rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee
- The ability to use its power over the investee to affect its returns

Generally, there is a presumption that a majority of voting rights results in control. To support this presumption and when the Group has less than a majority of the voting or similar rights of an investee, the Group considers all relevant facts and circumstances in assessing whether it has power over an investee, including:

- The contractual arrangement(s) with the other vote holders of the investee
- Rights arising from other contractual arrangements
- The Group's voting rights and potential voting rights

The Group re-assesses whether or not it controls an investee if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more of the three elements of control. Consolidation of a subsidiary begins when the Group obtains control over the subsidiary and ceases when the Group loses control of the subsidiary. Assets, liabilities, income and expenses of a subsidiary acquired or disposed of during the year are included in the consolidated financial statements from the date the Group gains control until the date the Group ceases to control the subsidiary.

Profit or loss and each component of OCI are attributed to the equity holders of the parent of the Group and to the non-controlling interests, even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance. When necessary, adjustments are made to the financial statements of subsidiaries to bring their accounting policies in line with the Group's accounting policies. All intra-group assets and liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows relating to transactions between members of the Group are eliminated in full on consolidation.

A change in the ownership interest of a subsidiary, without a loss of control, is accounted for as an equity transaction.

If the Group loses control over a subsidiary, it derecognises the related assets (including goodwill), liabilities, non-controlling interest and other components of equity, while any resultant gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss. Any investment retained is recognised at fair value.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

2.4 Basis of consolidation and business combinations (continued)

(b) Business combinations and goodwill

Business combinations are accounted for using the acquisition method. The cost of an acquisition is measured as the aggregate of the consideration transferred, which is measured at acquisition date fair value, and the amount of any non-controlling interests in the acquiree. For each business combination, the Group elects whether to measure the non-controlling interests in the acquiree at fair value or at the proportionate share of the acquiree's identifiable net assets. Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred and included in administrative expenses.

When the Group acquires a business, it assesses the financial assets and liabilities assumed for appropriate classification and designation in accordance with the contractual terms, economic circumstances and pertinent conditions as at the acquisition date. This includes the separation of embedded derivatives in host contracts by the acquiree.

Any contingent consideration to be transferred by the acquirer will be recognised at fair value at the acquisition date. Contingent consideration classified as equity is not remeasured and its subsequent settlement is accounted for within equity. Contingent consideration classified as an asset or liability that is a financial instrument and within the scope of IFRS 9/SFRS(I) 9 Financial Instruments, is measured at fair value with the changes in fair value recognised in the statement of profit or loss in accordance with IFRS 9/SFRS(I) 9.

Goodwill is initially measured at cost (being the excess of the aggregate of the consideration transferred and the amount recognised for non-controlling interests and any previous interest held over the net identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed). If the fair value of the net assets acquired is in excess of the aggregate consideration transferred, the Group re-assesses whether it has correctly identified all of the assets acquired and all of the liabilities assumed and reviews the procedures used to measure the amounts to be recognised at the acquisition date. If the reassessment still results in an excess of the fair value of net assets acquired over the aggregate consideration transferred, then the gain is recognised in profit or loss.

After initial recognition, goodwill is measured at cost less any accumulated impairment losses. For the purpose of impairment testing, goodwill acquired in a business combination is, from the acquisition date, allocated to each of the Group's cash-generating units that are expected to benefit from the combination, irrespective of whether other assets or liabilities of the acquiree are assigned to those units.

Where goodwill has been allocated to a cash-generating unit (CGU) and part of the operation within that unit is disposed of, the goodwill associated with the disposed operation is included in the carrying amount of the operation when determining the gain or loss on disposal. Goodwill disposed in these circumstances is measured based on the relative values of the disposed operation and the portion of the cash-generating unit retained.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

2.4 Basis of consolidation and business combinations (continued)

(c) Investment in associates

An associate is an entity over which the Group has significant influence. Significant influence is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the investee, but is not control or joint control over those policies.

The considerations made in determining significant influence is similar to those necessary to determine control over subsidiaries. The Group's investment in its associate is accounted for using the equity method.

Under the equity method, the investment in an associate is initially recognised at cost. The carrying amount of the investment is adjusted to recognise changes in the Group's share of net assets of the associate since the acquisition date. Goodwill relating to the associate is included in the carrying amount of the investment and is not tested for impairment separately.

The statement of profit or loss reflects the Group's share of the results of operations of the associate. Any change in OCI of those investees is presented as part of the Group's OCI. In addition, when there has been a change recognised directly in the equity of the associate, the Group recognises its share of any changes, when applicable, in the statement of changes in equity. Unrealised gains and losses resulting from transactions between the Group and the associate are eliminated to the extent of the interest in the associate or joint venture.

The aggregate of the Group's share of profit or loss of an associate is shown on the face of the statement of profit or loss outside operating profit and represents profit or loss after tax and non-controlling interests in the subsidiaries of the associate.

The financial statements of the associate or joint venture are prepared for the same reporting period as the Group. When necessary, adjustments are made to bring the accounting policies in line with those of the Group.

When an investment in an associate is held by, or is held indirectly through, an entity that is a venture capital organisation, or a mutual fund and similar entities, such investment is measured at fair value through profit or loss in the Group's consolidated statement of financial position.

2.5 Subsidiaries

A subsidiary is an entity, including a structured entity, directly or indirectly, controlled by the Company and/or its other subsidiaries. Control is achieved when the Group is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the investee i.e., existing rights that give the Group the current ability to direct the relevant activities of the investee.

When the Company has, directly or indirectly, less than a majority of the voting or similar rights of an investee, the Group considers all relevant facts and circumstances in assessing whether it has power over an investee, including:

- (a) the contractual arrangement with the other vote holders of the investee;
- (b) rights arising from other contractual arrangements; and
- (c) the Group's voting rights and potential voting rights.

The results of subsidiaries are included in the Company's statement of profit or loss to the extent of dividends received and receivable. The Company's investments in subsidiaries that are not classified as held for sale in accordance with IFRS 5/SFRS(I) 5 are stated at cost less any impairment losses.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

2.6 Property, plant and equipment and depreciation

Property, plant and equipment, other than construction in progress, are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and any impairment losses. The cost of an item of property, plant and equipment comprises its purchase price and any directly attributable costs of bringing the asset to its working condition and location for its intended use.

Expenditure incurred after items of property, plant and equipment have been put into operation, such as repairs and maintenance, is normally charged to the statement of profit or loss in the period in which it is incurred. In situations where the recognition criteria are satisfied, the expenditure for a major inspection is capitalised in the carrying amount of the asset as a replacement. Where significant parts of property, plant and equipment are required to be replaced at intervals, the Group recognises such parts as individual assets with specific useful lives and depreciates them accordingly.

Depreciation is calculated on the straight-line basis to write off the cost of each item of property, plant and equipment to its residual value over its estimated useful life. The estimated useful lives of property, plant and equipment are as follows:

Leasehold building	— 10 to 40 years
Plant and machinery	— 8 to 10 years
Computers and software	— 3 to 5 years
Furniture, fittings, air-conditioners and electrical installation	— 5 to 8 years
Motor vehicles	— 5 years
Workshop tools	— 3 to 7 years
Renovations	— 5 to 10 years
Office equipment	— 3 to 5 years

Where parts of an item of property, plant and equipment have different useful lives, the cost of that item is allocated on a reasonable basis among the parts and each part is depreciated separately. Residual values, useful lives and the depreciation method are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at least at each financial year end.

An item of property, plant and equipment including any significant part initially recognised is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss on disposal or retirement recognised in the statement of profit or loss in the year the asset is derecognised is the difference between the net sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the relevant asset.

Construction in progress represents buildings and plant and machinery under construction, which are stated at cost less any impairment losses, and are not depreciated. Cost comprises the direct costs of construction and capitalised borrowing costs on related borrowed funds during the period of construction. Construction in progress is reclassified to the appropriate category of property, plant and equipment when completed and ready for use.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

2.7 Leases

The Group assesses at contract inception whether a contract is, or contains, a lease. That is, if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration.

Group as a lessee

The Group applies a single recognition and measurement approach for all leases, except for short-term leases and leases of low-value assets. The Group recognises lease liabilities to make lease payments and right-of-use assets representing the right to use the underlying assets.

(a) Right-of-use assets

The Group recognises right-of-use assets upon the adoption of IFRS 16/SFRS(I) 16 using the modified retrospective method of adoption with the date of initial application of 1 January 2019. Right-of-use assets are measured at cost less any accumulated impairment losses, and adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities. The cost of right-of-use assets includes the amount of lease liabilities recognised, initial direct costs incurred, and lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received. Right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the lease term and the estimated useful lives of the assets, as follows:

Leasehold building	— 3–5 years
Prepaid land lease payments	— 50 years

The right-of-use assets are also subject to impairment. Refer to accounting policies in section 2.9 Impairment of non-financial assets.

(b) Lease liabilities

At the commencement date of the lease, the Group recognises lease liabilities measured at the present value of lease payments to be made over the lease term. The lease payments include fixed payments (including in substance fixed payments) less any lease incentives receivable, variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, and amounts expected to be paid under residual value guarantees. The lease payments also include the exercise price of a purchase option reasonably certain to be exercised by the Group and payments of penalties for terminating the lease, if the lease term reflects the Group exercising the option to terminate. Variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or a rate are recognised as expenses (unless they are incurred to produce inventories) in the period in which the event or condition that triggers the payment occurs.

In calculating the present value of lease payments, the Group uses its incremental borrowing rate at the lease commencement date because the interest rate implicit in the lease is not readily determinable. After the commencement date, the amount of lease liabilities is increased to reflect the accretion of interest and reduced for the lease payments made. In addition, the carrying amount of lease liabilities is remeasured if there is a modification, a change in the lease term, a change in the lease payments (e.g., changes to future payments resulting from a change in an index or rate used to determine such lease payments) or a change in the assessment of an option to purchase the underlying asset.

(c) Short-term leases and leases of low-value assets

The Group applies the short-term lease recognition exemption to its short-term leases of those leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less from the commencement date and do not contain a purchase option). It also applies the lease of low-value assets recognition exemption that are considered to be low value. Lease payments on short-term leases and leases of low value assets are recognised as expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

2.8 Intangible assets (other than goodwill)

Research and development costs

All research costs are charged to the statement of profit or loss as incurred.

Expenditure incurred on projects to develop new products is capitalised and deferred only when the Group can demonstrate the technical feasibility of completing the intangible asset so that it will be available for use or sale, its intention to complete and its ability to use or sell the asset, how the asset will generate future economic benefits, the availability of resources to complete the project and the ability to measure reliably the expenditure during the development. Product development expenditure which does not meet these criteria is expensed when incurred.

Deferred development costs are stated at cost less any impairment losses and are amortised using the straight-line basis over the commercial lives of the underlying products not exceeding three years, commencing from the date when the products are put into commercial production.

2.9 Impairment of non-financial assets

The Group assesses, at each reporting date, whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any indication exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the Group estimates the asset's recoverable amount. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's or CGU's fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use. The recoverable amount is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets. When the carrying amount of an asset or CGU exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount.

In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. In determining fair value less costs of disposal, recent market transactions are taken into account. If no such transactions can be identified, an appropriate valuation model is used. These calculations are corroborated by valuation multiples, quoted share prices for publicly traded companies or other available fair value indicators.

The Group bases its impairment calculation on most recent budgets and forecast calculations, which are prepared separately for each of the Group's CGUs to which the individual assets are allocated. These budgets and forecast calculations generally cover a period of five years. A long-term growth rate is calculated and applied to project future cash flows after the fifth year.

Impairment losses of continuing operations are recognised in the statement of profit or loss in expense categories consistent with the function of the impaired asset, except for properties previously revalued with the revaluation taken to OCI. For such properties, the impairment is recognised in OCI up to the amount of any previous revaluation.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

2.10 Financial Instruments

(a) Financial assets

Initial recognition and measurement

For assets excluding goodwill, an assessment is made at each reporting date to determine whether there is an indication that previously recognised impairment losses no longer exist or have decreased. If such indication exists, the Group estimates the asset's or CGU's recoverable amount. A previously recognised impairment loss is reversed only if there has been a change in the assumptions used to determine the asset's recoverable amount since the last impairment loss was recognised. The reversal is limited so that the carrying amount of the asset does not exceed its recoverable amount, nor exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation, had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset in prior years. Such reversal is recognised in the statement of profit or loss unless the asset is carried at a revalued amount, in which case, the reversal is treated as a revaluation increase.

Financial assets are classified, at initial recognition, as subsequently measured at amortised cost, fair value through other comprehensive income, and fair value through profit or loss.

The classification of financial assets at initial recognition depends on the financial asset's contractual cash flow characteristics and the Group's business model for managing them. With the exception of trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component or for which the Group has applied the practical expedient of not adjusting the effect of a significant financing component, the Group initially measures a financial asset at its fair value, plus in the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs.

In order for a financial asset to be classified and measured at amortised cost or fair value through OCI, it needs to give rise to cash flows that are 'solely payments of principal and interest (SPPI)' on the principal amount outstanding. This assessment is referred to as the SPPI test and is performed at an instrument level. Financial assets with cash flows that are not SPPI are classified and measured at fair value through profit or loss, irrespective of the business model.

The Group's business model for managing financial assets refers to how it manages its financial assets in order to generate cash flows. The business model determines whether cash flows will result from collecting contractual cash flows, selling the financial assets, or both. Financial assets classified and measured at amortised cost are held within a business model with the objective to hold financial assets in order to collect contractual cash flows while financial assets classified and measured at fair value through OCI are held within a business model with the objective of both holding to collect contractual cash flows and selling.

Purchases or sales of financial assets that require delivery of assets within a time frame established by regulation or convention in the market place (regular way trades) are recognised on the trade date, i.e., the date that the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset.

(a) Financial assets (continued)

Subsequent measurement

The subsequent measurement of financial assets depends on their classification as follows:

Financial assets at amortised cost (debt instruments)

The Group measures financial assets at amortised cost if both of the following conditions are met:

- The financial asset is held within a business model with the objective to hold financial assets in order to collect contractual cash flows.
- The contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

Financial assets at amortised cost are subsequently measured using the effective interest method and are subject to impairment. Gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss when the asset is derecognised, modified or impaired.

Financial assets designated at fair value through OCI (equity instruments)

Upon initial recognition, the Group can elect to classify irrevocably its equity investments as equity instruments designated at fair value through OCI when they meet the definition of equity under IAS 32/SFRS(I) 1-32 Financial Instruments: Presentation and are not held for trading. The classification is determined on an instrument-by-instrument basis.

Gains and losses on these financial assets are never recycled to profit or loss. Dividends are recognised as other income in the statement of profit or loss when the right of payment has been established, except when the Group benefits from such proceeds as a recovery of part of the cost of the financial asset, in which case, such gains are recorded in OCI. Equity instruments designated at fair value through OCI are not subject to impairment assessment.

The Group elected to classify irrevocably its non-listed equity investments under this category.

Financial assets designated at fair value through profit or loss (equity instruments)

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are carried in the statement of financial position at fair value with net changes in fair value recognised in the statement of profit or loss.

Derecognition

A financial asset (or, where applicable, a part of a financial asset or part of a group of similar financial assets) is primarily derecognised (i.e., removed from the Group's consolidated statement of financial position) when:

- the rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired; or
- the Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset or has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a "pass-through" arrangement; and either (a) the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, or (b) the Group has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset.

When the Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from an asset or has entered into a pass-through arrangement, it evaluates if, and to what extent, it has retained the risk and rewards of ownership of the asset. When it has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset nor transferred control of the asset, the Group continues to recognise the transferred asset to the extent of the Group's continuing involvement. In that case, the Group also recognises an associated liability. The transferred asset and the associated liability are measured on a basis that reflects the rights and obligations that the Group has retained.

Continuing involvement that takes the form of a guarantee over the transferred asset is measured at the lower of the original carrying amount of the asset and the maximum amount of consideration that the Group could be required to repay.

(b) Financial liabilities

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial liabilities are classified, at initial recognition, as financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss, loans and borrowings, payables, or as derivatives designated as hedging instruments in an effective hedge, as appropriate.

All financial liabilities are recognised initially at fair value and, in the case of loans and borrowings and payables, net of directly attributable transaction costs.

The Group's financial liabilities include trade and other payables and accruals.

Subsequent measurement

After initial recognition, financial liabilities that are not carried at fair value through profit or loss are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method. Gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss when the liabilities are derecognised, and through the amortisation process.

Derecognition

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled, or expires.

When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as a derecognition of the original liability and a recognition of a new liability, and the difference between the respective carrying amounts is recognised in profit or loss.

Offsetting of financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the statement of financial position if there is a currently enforceable legal right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis, or to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

2.11 Impairment of financial assets

The Group recognises an allowance for expected credit losses (“ECLs”) for all debt instruments not held at fair value through profit or loss and financial guarantee contracts. ECLs are based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the Group expects to receive, discounted at an approximation of the original effective interest rate. The expected cash flows will include cash flows from the sale of collateral held or other credit enhancements that are integral to the contractual terms.

ECLs are recognised in two stages. For credit exposures for which there has not been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, ECLs are provided for credit losses that result from default events that are possible within the next 12-months (a 12-month ECL). For those credit exposures for which there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, a loss allowance is recognised for credit losses expected over the remaining life of the exposure, irrespective of timing of the default (a lifetime ECL).

For trade receivables, the Group applies a simplified approach in calculation ECLs. Therefore, the Group does not track changes in credit risk, but instead recognises a loss allowance based on lifetime ECLs at each reporting date. The Group has established a provision matrix that is based on its historical credit loss experience, adjusted for forward-looking factors specific to the debtors and the economic environment.

The Group considers a financial asset in default when contractual payments are 90 days past due. However, in certain cases, the Group may also consider a financial asset to be in default when internal or external information indicates that the Group is unlikely to receive the outstanding contractual amounts in full before taking into account any credit enhancements held by the Group. A financial asset is written off when there is no reasonable expectation of recovering the contractual cash flows.

2.12 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand and at banks and short-term deposits that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash, are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value, and have a short maturity of generally within three months when acquired, and form an integral part of the Group’s cash management.

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand and at banks, including short-term deposits, which are not restricted as to use.

2.13 Government grants

Government grants are recognised at their fair value where there is reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and all attaching conditions will be complied with. When the grant relates to an expense item, it is recognised as income on a systematic basis over the periods that the costs, which it is intended to compensate, are expensed.

2.14 Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost is determined on the weighted average basis and, in the case of work in progress and finished goods, comprises direct materials, direct labour and an appropriate proportion of overheads. Net realisable value is based on estimated selling prices less any estimated costs to be incurred to completion and disposal.

2.15 Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets, i.e., assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are capitalised as part of the cost of those assets. The capitalisation of such borrowing costs ceases when the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale. Investment income earned on the temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs capitalised. All other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they are incurred. Borrowing costs consist of interest and other costs that an entity incurs in connection with the borrowing of funds

2.16 Provisions

A provision is recognised when a present obligation (legal or constructive) has arisen as a result of a past event and it is probable that a future outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, provided that a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

When the effect of discounting is material, the amount recognised for a provision is the present value at the end of the Relevant Periods of the future expenditures expected to be required to settle the obligation. The increase in the discounted present value amount arising from the passage of time is included in finance costs in the statement of profit or loss.

Provision for warranty

Provisions for warranty-related costs are recognised when the product is sold or service provided. Initial recognition is based on historical experience. The initial estimate of warranty-related costs is reviewed and adjusted if appropriate at least annually.

2.17 Employee benefits

(a) Pension scheme (defined contribution plans)

The Group participates in the national pension schemes as defined by the laws of the countries in which it has operations.

Contributions made to the government retirement benefit fund under defined contribution retirement plans are charged to the statement of profit or loss as incurred.

The Company makes contributions to the Central Provident Fund (the “CPF”) scheme in Singapore, a defined contribution pension scheme for its employees in Singapore.

The employees of the Group’s subsidiaries which operate in Mainland China are required to participate in a central pension scheme operated by the local municipal government. The subsidiary operating in Mainland China is required to contribute a certain percentage of its payroll costs to the central pension scheme. The contributions are charged to profit or loss as they become payable in accordance with the rules of the central pension scheme.

(b) Employee leave entitlement

Employee entitlements to annual leave are recognised as a liability when they accrue to the employees. The estimated liability for leave is recognised for services rendered by employees up to the end of the reporting period.

(c) Share-based payments

The Company operates a share option scheme for the purpose of providing incentives and rewards to eligible participants who contribute to the success of the Group’s operations. Certain employees (including directors) of the Group is granted share options to buy the Company’s share at determined price if and when certain performance targets relating to the Group’s financial are met (“equity-settled transactions”).

The cost of equity-settled transactions with employees is measured by reference to the fair value at the date at which they are granted. The fair value is determined by using a binomial model, further details of which are given in Note 30 to the financial statements. This cost is recognised in profit or loss, with a corresponding increase in the employee share option reserve, over the vesting period. The cumulative expense recognised at each reporting date until the vesting date reflects the extent to which the vesting period has expired and the Group’s best estimate of the number of options that will ultimately vest. The charge or credit to profit or loss for a period represents the movement in cumulative expense recognised as at the beginning and end of that period and is recognised in employee benefit expense.

The employee share option reserve is transferred to retained earnings upon expiry of the share option.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

2.18 Revenue

Revenue is measure based on the consideration to which the Group expects to be entitled in exchange for transferring promised goods or services to a customer, excluding amounts collected on behalf of third parties.

Revenue is recognised when the Group satisfies a performance obligation by transferring a promised good or service to the customer, which is when the customer obtains control of the good or service. A performance obligation may be satisfied at a point in time or over time. The amount of revenue recognised is the amount allocated to the satisfied performance obligation.

(a) Sale of goods

The Group provides contract manufacturing, design, engineering and assembly for the electronics industry, and the design, manufacture and sale of automated machines, apparatus, systems, equipment and precision moulds and dies.

Revenue is recognised when the goods are delivered to the customer and all criteria for acceptance have been satisfied. The goods are sold to certain customers with retrospective rebates for early settlement of trade receivables.

The amount of revenue recognised is based on the estimated transaction price, which comprises the contractual price. Based on the Group's experience with similar types of contracts, variable consideration is typically constrained and is included in the transaction only to the extent that it is highly probable that a significant reversal in the amount of cumulative revenue recognised will not occur when the uncertainty associated with the variable consideration is subsequently resolved.

The Group recognises the expected early settlement rebates payable to customer where consideration have been received from customers within the stipulated settlement period.

At the end of each reporting date, the Group updates its assessment of the estimated transaction price, including its assessment of whether an estimate of variable consideration is constrained. The corresponding amounts are adjusted against revenue in the period in which the transaction price changes.

(b) Rendering of services

The Group provides maintenance services for circumstances which not covered by product warranty (e.g. malfunctions due to misuse or improper maintenance by customers, request for stationing of engineers for maintenance).

The amount of revenue is recognised based on the contractual price and on a time proportion basis over the contract terms.

(c) Fund management services

Revenue from fund management services is recognised over the scheduled period on a straight-line basis because the customer simultaneously receives and consumes the benefits provided by the Group.

(d) Interest income

Interest income is recognised on an accrual basis using the effective interest method by applying the rate that exactly discounts the estimated future cash receipts over the expected life of the financial instrument or a shorter period, when appropriate, to the net carrying amount of the financial asset.

(e) Rental income

Rental income is accounted for on a straight-line basis over the lease terms.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

2.19 Foreign currencies

The financial statements are presented in Singapore dollars, which is the Company's functional currency. Each entity in the Group determines its own functional currency and items included in the financial statements of each entity are measured using that functional currency. Foreign currency transactions recorded by the entities in the Group are initially recorded using their respective functional currency rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the functional currency rates of exchange ruling at the end of the reporting period. Differences arising on settlement or translation of monetary items are recognised in the statement of profit or loss.

Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the dates of the initial transactions. Non-monetary items measured at fair value in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value was determined. The gain or loss arising on translation of a non-monetary item measured at fair value is treated in line with the recognition of the gain or loss on change in fair value of the item i.e., translation difference on the item whose fair value gain or loss is recognised in other comprehensive income or profit or loss is also recognised in other comprehensive income or profit or loss, respectively.

The functional currencies of the certain overseas subsidiaries are currencies other than the Singapore dollar. As at the end of the reporting period, the assets and liabilities of these entities are translated into the presentation currency of the Group at the exchange rates ruling at the end of the reporting period and their statement of profit or loss are translated into Singapore dollars at the weighted average exchange rates for the year.

The resulting exchange differences are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated as a separate component of equity until the disposal of the respective foreign operation entity. On disposal of a foreign operation, the component of other comprehensive income relating to that particular foreign operation is recognised in the statement of profit or loss.

For the purpose of the consolidated statement of cash flow, the cash flows of overseas subsidiaries are translated into Singapore dollars at the exchange rates ruling at the dates of the cash flows. Frequently recurring cash flows of overseas subsidiaries which arise throughout the year are translated into Singapore dollars at the weighted average exchange rates for the year.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

2.20 Taxes

(a) Current income tax

Current tax assets and liabilities are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities, based on tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period, taking into consideration interpretations and practices prevailing in the countries in which the Group operates and generates taxable income.

(b) Deferred tax

Deferred tax is provided, using the liability method, on all temporary differences at the end of the reporting period between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences, except:

- when the deferred tax liability arises from the initial recognition of goodwill or an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss; and
- in respect of taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures, when the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences can be controlled and it is probable that the temporary differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences, the carry forward of unused tax credits and any unused tax losses. Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilised, except:

- when the deferred tax asset relating to the deductible temporary differences arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss; and
- in respect of deductible temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures, deferred tax assets are only recognised to the extent that it is probable that the temporary differences will reverse in the foreseeable future and taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilised. Unrecognised deferred tax assets are reassessed at the end of each reporting period and are recognised to the extent that it has become probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the period when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting date.

Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset if and only if the Group has a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets and current tax liabilities and the deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority on either the same taxable entity or different taxable entities which intend either to settle current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis, or to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously, in each future period in which significant amounts of deferred tax liabilities or assets are expected to be settled or recovered.

(c) Sales tax

Expenses and assets are recognised net of the amount of sales tax, except:

- When the sales tax incurred on a purchase of assets or services is not recoverable from the taxation authority, in which case the sales tax is recognised as part of the cost of acquisition of the asset or as part of the expense item as applicable;
- When receivables and payables that are stated with the amount of sales tax included.

The net amount of sales tax recoverable from, or payable to, the taxation authority is included as part of receivables or payables in the statement of financial position.

2.21 Current versus non-current classification

The Group presents assets and liabilities in the statement of financial position based on current/non-current classification. An asset is current when it is:

- Expected to be realised or intended to be sold or consumed in the normal operating cycle
- Held primarily for the purpose of trading
- Expected to be realised within twelve months after the reporting period

Or

- Cash or cash equivalent unless restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period

All other assets are classified as non-current.

A liability is current when:

- It is expected to be settled in the normal operating cycle
- It is held primarily for the purpose of trading
- It is due to be settled within twelve months after the reporting period

Or

- There is no unconditional right to defer the settlement of the liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period

The terms of the liability that could, at the option of the counterparty, result in its settlement by the issue of equity instruments do not affect its classification.

The Group classifies all other liabilities as non-current.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are classified as non-current assets and liabilities.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

2.22 Fair value measurement

The Group measures financial instruments such as derivatives, and non-financial assets such as investment properties, at fair value at each balance sheet date.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value measurement is based on the presumption that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability takes place either:

- In the principal market for the asset or liability

Or

- In the absence of a principal market, in the most advantageous market for the asset or liability

The principal or the most advantageous market must be accessible by the Group.

The fair value of an asset or a liability is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, assuming that market participants act in their economic best interest.

A fair value measurement of a non-financial asset takes into account a market participant's ability to generate economic benefits by using the asset in its highest and best use or by selling it to another market participant that would use the asset in its highest and best use. The Group uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximising the use of relevant observable inputs and minimising the use of unobservable inputs.

All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the financial statements are categorized within the fair value hierarchy, described as follows, based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole:

- Level 1 — Quoted (unadjusted) market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities
- Level 2 — Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is directly or indirectly observable
- Level 3 — Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable

2.23 Share capital and share issuance expenses

Proceeds from issuance of ordinary shares are recognised as share capital in equity. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issuance of ordinary shares are deducted against share capital.

2.24 Dividends

Final dividends are recognised as a liability when they are approved by the shareholders in a general meeting.

Interim dividends are simultaneously proposed and declared, because the Company's memorandum and articles of association grant the directors the authority to declare interim dividends. Consequently, interim dividends are recognised immediately as a liability when they are proposed and declared.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

2.25 Segment reporting

Operating segments, and the amounts of each segment item reported in the financial statements, are identified from the financial information provided regularly to the Group's most senior executive management for the purposes of allocating resources to, and assessing the performance of, the Group's various lines of business and geographical locations.

Individually material operating segments are not aggregated for financial reporting purposes unless the segments have similar economic characteristics and are similar in respect of the nature of products and services, the nature of production processes, the type or class of customers, the methods used to distribute the products or provide the services, and the nature of the regulatory environment. Operating segments which are not individually material may be aggregated if they share a majority of these criteria.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND ESTIMATES

The preparation of the Group's consolidated financial statements requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenue, expenses, assets and liabilities, and the disclosure of contingent liabilities at the end of each reporting period. Uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in outcomes that require a material adjustment to the carrying amount of the asset or liability affected in the future periods.

3.1 Judgements made in applying accounting policies

In the process of applying the Group's accounting policies, management has made the following judgements, apart from those involving estimations, which have significant effect on the amounts recognised in the consolidated financial statements:

Income taxes

The Group has exposure to income taxes in several jurisdictions. Significant judgement is involved in determining the Group-wide provision for income taxes. There are certain transactions and computations for which the ultimate tax determination is uncertain during the ordinary course of business. The Group recognises liabilities for expected tax issues based on estimates of whether additional taxes will be due. Where the final tax outcome of these matters is different from the amounts that were initially recognised, such differences will impact the income tax and deferred tax provisions in the year in which such determination is made. The carrying amounts of the Group and the Company's income tax payables, deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities as at 31 December 2022 are S$617,000, S$664,000 and S$1,536,000 (2021: S$1,436,000, S$907,000 and S$160,000) and nil, nil and S$7,000 (2021: S$1,019,000, nil and S$26,000), respectively.

3.2 Key sources of estimation uncertainty

The key assumptions concerning the future and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the reporting date, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year, are described below. The Group based its assumptions and estimates on parameters available when the financial statement was prepared. Existing circumstances and assumptions about future developments, however, may change due to market changes or circumstances arising beyond the control of the Group. Such changes are reflected in the assumptions when they occur.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND ESTIMATES (continued)

3.2 Key sources of estimation uncertainty (continued)

(a) Provision for expected credit losses of trade receivables

The Group uses a provision matrix to calculate ECLs for trade receivables. The provision rates are based on days past due for grouping of various customer segments that have similar loss patterns.

The provision matrix is initially based on the Group's historical observed default rates. The Group will calibrate the matrix to adjust historical credit loss experience with forward-looking information. At every reporting date, the historical observed default rates are updated and changes in the forward-looking estimates are analysed.

The assessment of the correlation between historical observed default rates, forecast economic conditions and ECLs is a significant estimate. The Group's historical credit loss experience and forecast of economic conditions may also not be representative of customer's actual default in the future. The information about the ECLs on the Group's trade receivables is disclosed in Note 36(a).

The carrying amount of trade receivables at the end of the reporting period is disclosed in Note 19.

(b) Allowance for obsolete and slow-moving inventories

When necessary, allowance is provided for obsolete and slow-moving inventories to adjust the carrying value of inventories to the lower of cost and net realisable value. Management has estimated the allowance for obsolete and slow-moving inventories based on review of an aging analysis of inventories at the end of the reporting period. The carrying amount of the Group's inventories at the end of the reporting period is disclosed in Note 18.

(c) Fair value measurement of investment securities

The fair values of financial assets at fair value through profit or loss and other comprehensive income are significantly affected by the combination of valuation methodologies employed, the parameters used and, if required, the related comparable companies chosen. The valuation methodologies and the source of parameters adopted by the Group are discussed in Note 35.

(b) Judgement and methods used in estimating revenueEstimating variable consideration for sale of goods

Management has exercised judgement in applying the constraint on the estimated variable consideration that can be included in the transaction price. For early settlement rebates, management has determined that a portion of the estimated variable consideration is subject to the constraint as, based on past experience with the customers, it is highly probable that a reversal in the cumulative amount of revenue recognised will occur, and therefore will be recognised as a deduction to revenue.

30. SHARE OPTION SCHEME

The Company operates a share option scheme (the "Scheme") for the purpose of providing incentives and rewards to eligible participants who contribute to the success of the Group's operations. Eligible participants of the Scheme include (1) any full-time or part-time employees, executives or officers of our Company or any of its subsidiaries (2) any directors (including executive, non-executive and independent non-executive directors) of our Company or any of its subsidiaries; and (3) any advisers (professional or otherwise), consultants, suppliers, customers, agents and such other persons who in the sole opinion of the Board will contribute or have contributed to the Group. The Scheme became effective on 27 June 2018 and, unless otherwise cancelled or amended, will remain in force for 10 years from that date.

The maximum number of unexercised share options currently permitted to be granted under the Scheme is an amount equivalent, upon their exercise, to 10% of the shares of the Company in issue immediately following completion of the listing of the global offering of the Company dated 18 July 2018, being 83,935,132 shares, excluding for this purpose shares which would have been issuable pursuant to options which have lapsed in accordance with the terms of the Scheme (or any other share option schemes of the Company). The maximum number of shares issuable under share options to each eligible participant in the Scheme within any 12-month period is limited to 1% of the shares of the Company in issue at any time. Any further grant of share options in excess of this limit is subject to shareholders' approval in a general meeting.

In addition, any share options granted to a substantial shareholder or an independent non-executive director of the Company, or to any of their associates, in excess of 0.1% of the shares of the Company in issue at any time or with an aggregate value (based on the price of the Company's shares at the date of grant) in excess of HK$5 million, within any 12-month period, are subject to shareholders' approval in advance in a general meeting.

The offer of a grant of share options may be accepted within 30 days from the date of offer, upon payment of a nominal consideration of HK$1 in total by the grantee. The exercise period of the share options granted is determinable by the directors, and commences after a vesting period and ends on a date which is not later than five years from the date of offer of the share options or the expiry date of the Scheme, if earlier.

The exercise price of share options is determinable by the directors, but may not be less than the higher of (i) the Hong Kong Stock Exchange closing price of the Company's shares on the date of offer of the share options; and (ii) the average Hong Kong Stock Exchange closing price of the Company's shares for the five trading days immediately preceding the date of offer. Total				—	18,500,000	—	18,500,000

* no share options were granted during the year ended 31 December 2022.

The vesting schedule of the share options shall vest in two tranches in accordance with the following dates:

- Tranche 1: shall be vested on the date which the Board announces the Group's consolidated audited financial results of FY2022.
- Tranche 2: shall be vested on the date which the Board announces the Group's consolidated audited financial results of FY2023.

The exercise of the share options shall commence from the vesting schedule up to 31 May 2026 conditional upon the fulfilment of certain performance targets relating to the Group. The performance targets have been determined by the Board and specified in the respective grant letters of each Grantee. If the performance targets are not met, the share options granted will lapse.

The fair value of the share options granted during the year was S$226,000 of which the Group recognised a share option expense of S$55,000 during the year ended 31 December 2021.

The weighted average remaining contractual life for the share options outstanding as at 31 December 2021 was 4.42 years.

The weighted average fair value of options granted in 2021 was 1.22 Singapore cents.

30. SHARE OPTION SCHEME (continued)

The fair value of equity-settled share options granted during the year was estimated as at the date of grant using a binomial model, taking into account the terms and conditions upon which the options were granted. The following table lists the inputs to the model used:

	Group and Company 2021
Dividend yield (%)	6%
Expected volatility (%)	44%
Risk-free interest rate (%)	0.4%
Expected life of options (years)	4

The expected life of the share options is based current expectations and is not necessarily indicative of exercise patterns that may occur. The expected volatility reflects the assumption that the historical volatility over a period similar to the life of the options is indicative of future trends, which may not necessarily be the actual outcome.

No other feature of the options granted was incorporated into the measurement of fair value.

The exercise of the share options by the Grantees is conditional upon the fulfilment of certain performance targets set for both year 2021 and year 2022. The performance target for 2021 was achieved but not for 2022. As such, according to the vesting conditions of the share options, the share options not yet vested became not exercisable and was therefore lapsed on the date when the Board announced the Group's consolidated audited financial results for the year ended 31 December 2022, resulting in a writeback of the share option expense.

The Group categorises fair value measurements using a fair value hierarchy that is dependent on the valuation inputs used as follows:

- Level 1 — Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active market for identical assets or liabilities that the Group can access at the measurement date,
- Level 2 — Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly, and
- Level 3 — Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

Fair value measurements that use inputs of different hierarchy levels are categorised in its entirety in the same level of the fair value hierarchy as the lowest level input that is significant to the entire measurement.

35. FAIR VALUE OF ASSETS AND LIABILITIES (continued)(b) Assets and liabilities measured at fair value (continued)

The movements in fair value measurements within Level 3 during the year are as follows:

	Group

(i) Financial instruments whose carrying amounts approximate to their fair values

Management has determined that the carrying amounts of cash and cash equivalents, trade receivables, financial assets included in prepayments, deposits and other receivables, amounts due from/to subsidiaries, trade payables, financial liabilities included in other payables and accruals, based on their notional amounts, reasonably approximate to their fair values because these financial instruments are mostly short-term in nature.

(ii) Level 3 fair value measurements

The fair values of the unquoted equity investments have been estimated using market approach based on market multiples derived from a set of comparable companies. The valuation requires management to make certain assumptions about the model inputs, including listed comparable companies, volatility in the share price and discount for lack of marketability ("DLOM"). The probabilities of the various estimates within the range can be reasonably assessed and are used in management's estimate of fair value for these unquoted equity investments.

The significant unobservable inputs used in the fair value measurements categorised within Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy, together with a quantitative sensitivity analysis as at 31 December 2022 are shown below:

36. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES

The Group's principal financial instruments comprise cash and cash equivalents. The main purpose of these financial instruments is to raise finance for the Group's operations. The Group has various other financial assets and liabilities such as trade receivables and trade payables, which arise directly from its operations.

The main risks arising from the Group's financial instruments are credit risk, liquidity risk and foreign currency risk. The board of directors reviews and agrees policies for managing each of these risks and they are summarised below. It is, and has been throughout the current and previous financial year, the Group's policy that no trading in derivatives for speculative purposes shall be undertaken.

The following sections provide details regarding the Group and the Company's exposure to the abovementioned financial risks and the objectives, policies and processes for the management of these risks.

(a) Credit risk

The Group and Company trades only with recognised and creditworthy third parties. It is the Group and the Company's policy that all customers who wish to trade on credit terms are subject to credit verification procedures. In addition, receivable balances are monitored on an ongoing basis and the Group and the Company's exposure to bad debts is not significant. For transactions that are not denominated in the functional currency of the relevant operating unit, the Group and the Company does not offer credit terms without the specific approval of the chief financial officer.

The credit risk of the Group and the Company's other financial assets, which comprise cash and cash equivalents, investment securities and other financial assets include in Note 20, arises from default of the counterparty, with a maximum exposure equal to the carrying amounts of these instruments.

Since the Group and the Company trades only with recognised and creditworthy third parties, there is no requirement for collateral. Concentrations of credit risk are managed by customer/counterparty and by geographical region. There are no significant concentrations of credit risk within the Group and the Company as the customer bases of the Group and the Company's trade receivables are widely dispersed in different sectors and industries.

The Group and the Company considers the probability of default upon initial recognition of asset and whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk on an ongoing basis throughout each reporting period.

The Group and the Company have determined the default event on a financial asset to be when the counterparty fails to make contractual payments, which are derived based on the Group and the Company's historical information.

The Group and the Company consider available reasonable and supportive forwarding-looking information which includes the following indicators:

- Credit rating
- Actual or expected significant adverse changes in business, financial or economic conditions that are expected to cause a significant change to the debtor's ability to meet its obligations.
- Significant increases in credit risk on other financial instruments of the same debtor.
- Significant changes in the expected performance and behaviour of the debtor, including changes in the payment status of debtors in the group and changes in the operating results of the debtor.

Regardless of the analysis above, a significant increase in credit risk is presumed if a debtor is more than 90 days past due in making contractual payment.

36. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES (continued)

(a) Credit risk (continued)

The Group determined that its financial assets are credit-impaired when:

- There is significant difficulty of the issuer or the debtor
- A breach of contract, such as a default or past due event
- It is becoming probable that the debtor will enter bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation

The Group categorises a loan or receivable for potential write-off when a debtor fails to make contractual payments more than 90 days past due. Financial assets are written off when there is no reasonable expectation of recovery, such as a debtor failing to engage in a repayment plan with the Group. Where loans and receivables have been written off, the company continues to engage enforcement activity to attempt to recover the receivable due. Where recoveries are made, these are recognised in profit or loss.

The following are credit risk management practices and quantitative and qualitative information about amounts arising from expected credit losses for each class of financial assets.

Trade receivables

The Group provides for lifetime expected credit losses for all trade receivables using a provision matrix. The provision rates are determined based on the Group's historical observed default rates analysed in accordance to days past due. The loss allowance provision as at 31 December 2022 is determined as follows, the expected credit losses below also incorporate forward looking information such as forecast of economic conditions where the country and market credit rating will deteriorate over the next year, leading to an increased number of defaults.

Information regarding loss allowance movement of trade receivables are disclosed in Note 19.

Excessive risk concentration

Concentration arise when a number of counterparties are engaged in similar business activities, or activities in the same geographical region, or have economic features that would cause their ability to meet contractual obligations to be similarly affected by changes in economic, political or other countries. Concentrations indicate the relative sensitivity of the Group's performance to developments affecting a particular industry.

In order to avoid excessive concentrations of risk, the group's policies and procedures include specific guidelines to focus on maintaining a diversified portfolio. Identified concentrations of credit risks are controlled and managed accordingly.

Exposure to credit risk

At the end of the reporting period, the Group and the Company's maximum exposure to credit risk is represented by the carrying amount of each class of financial assets recognised in the statement of financial position.

36. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES (continued)(a) Credit risk (continued)Credit risk concentration profile

The Group determines concentrations of credit risk by monitoring the country profile of its trade receivables on an on-going basis. The credit risk concentration profile of the Group's trade receivables at the end of the reporting period is as follows:

	Group
	2022 S$'000	% of total	2021 S$'000	% of total
By country:
Singapore	8,060	53.2	25,127	77.9
The United States	881	5.8	2,232	6.9
Mainland China	4,100	27.1	3,057	9.5
The Philippines	1,048	6.9	488	1.5
Japan	256	1.7	452	1.4
Others	806	5.3	896	2.8
	15,151	100.0	32,252	100.0

For the year ended 31 December 2022, approximately 58.7% (2021: 69.9%) of the Group's total revenue was derived from a major customer. At the end of the reporting period, approximately 38.0% (2021: 70.0%) of the trade receivables balance of the Group is due from a major customer.

Financial assets that are neither past due nor impaired

Trade receivables that are neither past due nor impaired are creditworthy debtors with good payment record with the Group. Cash and cash equivalents are placed with or entered into with reputable financial institutions or companies with high credit ratings and no history of default.

Financial assets that are either past due or impaired

Information regarding financial assets that are either past due or impaired is disclosed in Note 19.

(b) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Group or the Company will encounter difficulty in meeting financial obligations due to shortage of funds. The Group's and the Company's exposure to liquidity risk arises primarily from mismatches of the maturities of financial assets and liabilities. The Group's and the Company's objective is to maintain a balance between continuity of funding and flexibility through the use of stand-by credit facilities.

The Group's financing activities are managed centrally by maintaining an adequate level of cash and cash equivalents to finance the Group's operations. Bank borrowing is a preferred source of financing to ensure continuity of funding. The Group also ensures availability of bank credit facilities to address any short-term funding requirement.

The Group's surplus funds are also managed centrally by placing them with reputable financial institutions on varying maturities.

(c) Foreign currency risk

The Group has transactional currency exposures. Such exposures arise from sales or purchases by operating units in currencies other than the units' functional currencies. Approximately 89.0% (2021: 92.7%) of the Group's sales were denominated in currencies other than the functional currencies of the operating units making the sale, whilst approximately 58.0% (2021: 58.8%) of purchases were denominated in the units' functional currencies. The Group's trade receivables and trade payables balance at the end of the reporting period have similar exposures. As at 31 December 2022, the Group has no outstanding foreign currency forward exchange contract.

At present, the Group does not intend to seek to hedge its exposure to foreign exchange fluctuations. However, management constantly monitors the economic situation and the Group's foreign exchange risk profile and will consider appropriate hedging measures in the future should the need arise.

The Group also hold cash and short-term deposits denominated in foreign currencies for working capital purposes. At the end of the reporting period, such foreign currency balances are mainly in United States Dollar ("USD").

Sensitivity analysis for foreign currency risk

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity of the Group's profit before tax to a reasonably possible change in the USD exchange rates (against SGD), with all other variables held constant.

The primary objective of the Group's capital management is to ensure that it maintains a strong credit rating and healthy capital ratios in order to support its business and maximise shareholder value.

The Group manages its capital structure and makes adjustments to it in light of changes in economic conditions and the risk characteristics of the underlying assets. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group may adjust the dividend payment to shareholders, return capital to shareholders or issue new shares. The Group is not subject to any externally imposed capital requirements. No changes were made in the objectives, policies or processes for managing capital during the years ended 31 December 2022 and 2021.
