INTERIM REPORT
2023

CHARACTERISTICS OF GEM OF THE STOCK EXCHANGE OF HONG KONG LIMITED (THE “STOCK EXCHANGE”)

GEM has been positioned as a market designed to accommodate small and mid-sized companies to which a higher investment risk may be attached than other companies listed on the Stock Exchange. Prospective investors should be aware of the potential risks of investing in such companies and should make the decision to invest only after due and careful consideration.

Given that the companies listed on GEM are generally small and mid-sized companies, there is a risk that securities traded on GEM may be more susceptible to high market volatility than securities traded on the Main Board of the Stock Exchange and no assurance is given that there will be a liquid market in the securities traded on GEM.

Hong Kong Exchanges and Clearing Limited and the Stock Exchange take no responsibility for the contents of this interim report, make no representation as to its accuracy or completeness and expressly disclaim any liability whatsoever for any loss howsoever arising from or in reliance upon the whole or any part of the contents of this interim report.

The Group's finance costs increased from approximately HK$0.1 million for the six months ended 30 September 2022 to approximately HK$0.5 million for the six months ended 30 September 2023. FUTURE PROSPECTS

Even many countries, in which the Group has major customers, have scrapped anti-pandemic measures, the apparel retail markets have yet to fully recover. These markets are still facing many challenging issues from weak economy, high inflation and high interest rates. More customers demand for longer credit period or declining selling price which led to squeezing gross profit margin.

During this difficult year, the Group has taken a prudent approach on production cost control measures for compensating the squeezed margin. Meanwhile, in order to diversify the income stream, the Group will develop its retail brand and network.

To confront the external uncertainties, the Group will keep monitoring our existing business operations and the possible impacts brought by the economic conditions.
