Chairman's Statement

TO OUR SHAREHOLDERS,

I would like to present the annual results of YuanShengTai Dairy Farm Limited (“YuanShengTai” or the “Company”) and its subsidiaries (together, the “Group”) for the year ended 31 December 2023 (the “Year”) to our shareholders.

In 2023, the world economy showed signs of resilience as it continued its slow recovery from the impacts of COVID-19, geopolitical conflicts and high inflation. The overall economic growth of the world remained weak and lacked momentum due to high inflation and the implementation of tighter global monetary policies, with the growth rate standing at a low historical average. The dairy industry in China faced challenging circumstances influenced by various complex factors both domestically and internationally. Nevertheless, thanks to favourable national policies and advancement in technology, the dairy industry in China has managed to maintain a stable growth. According to the data released by the National Bureau of Statistics, the total output of raw milk in China in 2023 reached 41.97 million tonnes, representing a year-on-year increase of 6.7%. This growth rate was similar to that of 2022, marking the fourth consecutive year in which China experienced a growth rate of over 6% in milk production.

In 2023, the Group diligently followed the strategic development policy for the dairy industry and dairy farming industry in China, and continued to develop in the industry, expand the herd size, improve the feeding formula, and successfully established a complete and high-quality farm management system. These initiatives were instrumental in ensuring a stable supply of high quality raw milk of the Group. As a result of these efforts, the Group experienced a significant growth in the sales volume. During the Year, the total sales volume of raw cow milk of the Group increased by 12.2% to 459,950 tonnes from 409,975 tonnes in 2022. The total revenue from raw cow milk amounted to RMB2,201.9 million, representing an increase of 5.9% as compared with RMB2,080.1 million in 2022.

The development of the dairy industry is closely related to the national economy and the people’s livelihood. Dairy products have gradually become an indispensable “necessity” for residents. Since the “Opinions of General Office of the State Council on Revitalising the Dairy Industry and Ensuring the Quality Safety of Dairy Products” were launched and implemented in 2018, the consumption of dairy products in China has achieved rapid growth. The average annual growth rate of per capita consumption of dairy products reached 6.6% in the past five years, higher than the average consumption growth rate of 3.6% in the past 15 years. Although the dairy industry was struggling with periodical oversupply of milk sources and drop in raw milk prices in 2023, there remains great potential for growing milk consumption in China in the long run as residents’ attitude towards milk consumption changes. In addition, according to the data released by the China Customs, a total of 3,058,000 tonnes of dairy products of various kinds were imported into China in 2023, representing a year-on-year decrease of 10.0%. This marks the second consecutive year since 2015 that the total import of dairy products into China has decreased, demonstrating rising confidence of residents in domestic dairy products, and the vitality of domestic dairy products consumption has been further released. Furthermore, it is anticipated that the full implementation of the Action Plan for Improving the Competitiveness of Dairy Industry in the 14th Five-Year Plan Period will have a positive impact on the development of the dairy industry in China by providing residents with diversified products of higher-quality at more competitive prices, and improving and upgrading dairy products consumption.

Chairman's Statement

As a leading dairy animal farming company in the People's Republic of China (the "PRC"), YuanShengTai proactively responded to changes in domestic and foreign market environment during the Year. It consistently remained committed to its mission of producing the highest quality raw milk by continuously adjusting its operating costs and taking a leading role in technological innovation. These strategic measures enabled the Group to attain sustainable comprehensive profitability over time.

Looking forward to 2024, the raw milk market is in a periodical oversupply, and the price of milk is expected to remain under pressure for a prolonged period of time. YuanShengTai will actively respond to the policy development, continue to further develop in the industry, and grasp the development opportunities of the dairy industry to seek steady progress. While giving full play to its own advantages in resources, it will continuously improve its production management level, upgrade the quality of China's dairy industry, realize modern farming with the help of digital technology, enhance the Group's core competitiveness, and commit itself to high-quality development of China's dairy industry and accelerating the construction of a modern industrial system.

On behalf of the Board, I would like to thank all our shareholders for their ever-persistent trust in and support of the Group. I also express my heart-felt gratitude to the Board, the management team and our staff for their diligent efforts and valuable contribution in the past year. In 2024, the Group will hold fast to its original purpose, firmly grasp the policy benefits, continue to produce high-quality raw milk for consumers, and reward shareholders and investors with outstanding results for their favor of the Group.

Management Discussion and Analysis

MARKET REVIEW

Looking back to 2023, global inflation remained high due to the complicated and ever-changing political and economic landscape in China and abroad. China's economy was slowly recovering from the impacts of COVID-19, geopolitical conflicts and high inflation. The national economy maintained stability while making progress, as evidenced by a 5.2% increase in gross domestic product (GDP) of 2023 compared to the previous year.

Despite the slow recovery of macro-economy, the dairy industry in China encountered challenges in 2023, such as weak growth of demand and the oversupply of raw milk resulting in downward price fluctuations. According to the Ministry of Agriculture and Rural Affairs, the monthly average price of raw milk in December 2023 was RMB3.67 kilogram, representing a month-to-month decrease of 0.8%, and representing an year-on-year decrease of 11.0%.

Due to extreme weather conditions, the COVID-19 and geopolitical tension, the global commodity market experienced mixed performance in 2023 and the price of feed ingredients continued to fall. In 2023, an initiative for reducing and substituting feed soybean meal was implemented throughout China. Every part of the country aggressively expanded production of high-quality forage, such as silage corn and alfalfa through Grain-to-Feed Program and Plan for Dairy Industry Revitalization and Alfalfa Development, so as to increase the proportion of high-quality forage in the feeds of cows and goats and promote conservation of grains by increasing use of grass. Prices of imported hay feed decreased due to increased supply of quality alfalfa forage produced locally. According to statistics from China Customs, a total of 999,500 tonnes of alfalfa hay were imported into China in 2023, representing a year-on-year decrease of 44.1%, with an import value of US$510,646,000, representing a year-on-year decrease of 44.8%, at an average cost, insurance and freight price of US$510.90 per tonne, representing a year-on-year decrease of 1.3%.

As a leading dairy farming company in the PRC, the Group will continue to achieve better economies of scale by adjusting the size of the herd and improving the breeding and production technology. YuanShengTai is committed to producing high-quality raw milk to fulfill the diverse needs of society for dairy products. In pursuit of this goal, we will focus on standardizing raw milk production and implementing rigorous quality supervision.

BUSINESS REVIEW

In terms of herd size and production volume, YuanShengTai is one of the leading dairy farming companies in the PRC. During the Year, the sales volume of raw cow milk reached 459,950 tonnes for the Year, representing an increase of 12.2% as compared with 409,975 tonnes in 2022. The sales volume of raw goat milk reached 932 tonnes for the Year, representing a decrease of 36.3% as compared with 1,463 tonnes in 2022. The total revenue amounted to RMB2,208.6 million, representing an increase of 5.7% as compared with RMB2,090.3 million in 2022. During the Year, the average selling price of fresh milk decreased slightly due to the weak demand for raw milk, and the Group recorded a net loss of RMB339,699 million.

Since its early business development, the Group has built long-term and stable relationships with China's leading dairy manufacturers. In 2023, the three major customers of the Group were Feihe Dairy Group, Yili Group and Mengniu Group. In 2023, the growth of the liquid milk industry slowed down, and the overall scale maintained a slight increase. The above three customers were leading dairy manufacturers in China, with a dominant market share and complete product lines, which has a positive impact on the sustainable development of the Group's business. In the future, the Group expects to continue to supply high quality raw milk products to these three major customers on a long-term basis, and is committed to providing raw milk with the highest safety and nutritional standards in China. We will further consolidate the Group's customer base in line with the rising demand for high-end raw milk in China.

Management Discussion and Analysis

Construction of Farms

As of 31 December 2023, we had ten dairy cow farms in Heilongjiang Province and one dairy cow farm in Jilin Province, and one dairy goat farm in Shaanxi Province, respectively. Milk Yield

During the Year, the average annual milk yield per cow was 11.6 tonnes, representing an increase of 3.6% as compared with 11.2 tonnes in 2022. As operation of farms becomes more mature and stable, and the age mix of cattle and the cattle mix have been upgraded and optimized, the Group expects that the average milk yield of herds will continue to increase. In the future, the Group will steadily improve its profitability by adjusting and optimizing the cattle mix and improving the feeding formula, and upgrading intelligent high-quality management practices.

Size of Our Herds

Driven by the advanced and modern management model of our farms, the number of cows of the Group's dairy farms increased from 89,437 heads as of 31 December 2022 to 102,497 heads as of 31 December 2023. The total number of inventory cows increased by 14.6% as compared with the same period of last year. Among them, the total number of matured milkable cows decreased from 40,235 heads as of 31 December 2022 to 39,861 heads as of 31 December 2023, representing a decrease of 0.9% as compared with the same period of last year. The number of heifers and calves increased to 62,636 heads, representing an increase of 27.3% as compared with the same period of last year. Although the number of milkable cows decreased due to the adjustment to the herd structure, the overall quality of the herd increased, so the milk yield has been steadily increased, and the supply of high-quality raw milk has been secured. As of 31 December 2023, the number of dairy goats was 4,752 heads, including 3,257 matured milkable goats and 1,495 lambs and young goats.

Number of lambs and young goats	1,495	1,491
Total	4,752	5,973

Price of Raw Milk

In the past two years, growth in demand for dairy products in China softened due to decrease in demand from downstream dairy companies and end-users. Meanwhile, the upstream dairy companies suffered due to oversupply of raw milk. All these lead to continuous decline in the price of raw milk across the market. During the Year, the average selling price of the Group's raw milk was RMB4,787 per tonne, representing a decrease of 5.7% as compared with RMB5,074 per tonne in the same period of last year, at a slower pace compared with the market's decline. During the Year, the average selling price of the Group's raw goat milk was RMB7,149 per tonne, representing an increase of 2.2% as compared with RMB6,993 per tonne in the same period of last year.

Management Discussion and Analysis

OUTLOOK

Spring marks the beginning of a new year, and agricultural production is of paramount importance. On 3 February 2024, “Opinions of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of China (CCCPC) and the State Council on Learning and Applying the Program Experience of “Establishing A Thousand Demonstration Villages and Renovating Ten Thousand Villages” to Effectively Promote the Comprehensive Revitalization of Rural Areas” (《中共中央國務院關於學習運用“千村示範、萬村整治”工程經驗有力有效推進鄉村全面振興的意見》) was released, as scheduled in Spring. The No.1 Document of the CCCPC highlighted the task of “improving the standard of liquid milk, standardizing the identification marks of reconstituted milk and promoting the consumption of fresh milk”. YuanShengTai will implement the important instructions of the No.1 Document of the CCCPC and devote itself to improving the production management standards, so as to provide consumers with raw milk that meets the highest safety and nutrition standards in China. The No.1 Document of the CCCPC stressed strengthening development of technology and reform. Recognizing the potential for industrial advancement presented by the growth of digital economy, YuanShengTai will seize the new opportunities to promote the digital integration across the industrial chain, pursue sustainable and environmentally-friendly development practice, serve as a model in the industry and push the Chinese dairy industry towards a development path of innovation, efficiency and long-term sustainability.

Chinese residents’ perception of milk consumption has gradually shifted from “nutritional supplements” to “daily necessities”. As such, it is believed that residents’ milk consumption will continue to grow in the future. We believe that the dairy market in China still has great development potential. The growing interest in nutrition and healthy eating has led to an increased focus on high-quality dairy products that offer more nutritional value. This trend is beneficial for the development of the dairy industry as it encourages enhancement of industrial structure and offering a wider range of products.

Taking advantage of the favourable policies and incentives, the Group will strategically align with the industry trends to capitalize on the market opportunities by continuous strengthening technological innovation, research and development, leveraging on its strengths and resources to enhance operational performance and optimize its industrial structure. While actively seeking out high-quality farms and expanding the herd size, the Group plans to continuously improve the production management practices, utilize modern technology to enhance the price competitiveness of its products, explore the possibility of developing new businesses, promote the diversified development of dairy products, and inject new impetus into the vigorous development of dairy farming in China.

Dairy industry is an important industry in China. YuanShengTai will hold fast to the mission of producing high-quality raw milk, standardize production of raw milk, rigorous quality supervision, strive to provide the best quality nutrition sources for all walks of life, continue to maintain the leading position in dairy farming industry in China, and contribute to the high-quality development of the dairy industry in China and accelerating construction of a modern industrial system.

Our Revenue

During the Year, our total sales of milk produced increased by 5.7% from RMB2,090.3 million for the year ended 31 December 2022 to RMB2,208.6 million. The sales volume of raw cow milk reached 459,950 tonnes for the Year, representing an increase of 12.2% as compared with 409,975 tonnes in 2022. The sales volume of raw goat milk reached 932 tonnes for the Year, representing a decrease of 36.3% as compared with 1,463 tonnes in 2022. The growth in sales volume of raw cow milk was primarily attributable to the increases in (i) the average daily number of matured milkable cows; and (ii) average annual milk yield per cow. Our average selling price of raw cow milk was RMB4,787 per tonne for the Year, representing a decrease of 5.7% as compared with RMB5,074 per tonne in 2022 and our average selling price of raw goat milk was RMB7,149 per tonne for the Year, representing an increase of 2.2% as compared with RMB6,993 per tonne in 2022.

Cost of Sales

Our cost of sales for the Year was RMB1,617.8 million. The table below summarizes the components of our cost of sales by nature:

	2023 RMB'000	2022 RMB'000
Cost of sales
Feed	1,195,214	1,148,864
Salary, welfare and social insurance	120,177	113,689
Depreciation	95,168	95,016
Veterinary cost	59,669	55,889
Utility	97,146	87,409
Transportation expenses	5,351	23,530
Other costs	45,117	44,231
Cost of sales, total	1,617,842	1,568,628

Feed costs represent the cost of feed consumed by our milkable cows and goats. The feed costs for milkable cows and milkable goats were RMB1,195.2 million and RMB1,148.9 million for the years ended 31 December 2023 and 2022, respectively, representing 73.9% and 73.2% of the cost of sales for the respective financial years. The increase in our feed costs was primarily attributable to the increase in the average daily number of milkable cows.

Gross Profit

Given the above factors, the gross profit increased to RMB590.7 million for the Year (2022: RMB521.7 million), representing an increase of 13.2% as compared with that for 2022. Our gross profit margin increased from 25.0% in 2022 to 26.7% in 2023.

Other Income and Gains

Other income and gains for the Year amounted to RMB144.0 million (2022: RMB91.0 million), representing an increase of 58.2%. The increase in other income and gains was attributable to the increases in (i) interest income; (ii) exchange gain; and (iii) income from land subleases generated by Yi'an Farm. In order to ensure the stable supply of feeds, Yi'an Farm leased several parcels of land which were sublet afterwards for growing feeds. This business is a sub-lease business under the operating lease model and sub-lease income was recognized.

Administrative Expenses

We incurred administrative expenses of RMB139.3 million for the Year (2022: RMB135.1 million), representing an increase of approximately 3.1% as compared with 2022. The increase was primarily attributable to the increase in employee benefit expenses related to certain employees of the Group for their services rendered to the Group pursuant to the share award plan adopted by China Feihe Limited on 25 May 2023.

Other Expenses

Other expenses for the Year amounted to RMB57.1 million (2022: RMB55.0 million), representing an increase of approximately 3.8%. The increase in other expenses was attributable to the increase in expenses on land sub-lease incurred by Yi'an Farm.

Management Discussion and Analysis

Changes in Fair Value Less Costs to Sell of Biological Assets

Changes in fair value less costs to sell of biological assets was a loss of RMB750.3 million for the Year as compared with a loss of RMB389.6 million for 2022. The increase in loss was attributable to the decrease in the price of raw milk.

Impairment Losses on Property, Plant and Equipment and Right-of-Use Assets

During the Year, an impairment loss of RMB89.8 million (2022: Nil) was recognized for property, plant and equipment and right-of-use assets which was attributable to the impairment loss on goat CGU. Set out below are (i) the event and circumstances leading to recognition of impairment on goat CGU; and (ii) the inputs and assumptions used in the valuation.

Event and circumstances leading to recognition of impairment losses on goat CGU

In the first half of 2023, the animal husbandry remained sluggish and the development of raw goat milk industry fell short of the management's expectation. During the six months ended 30 June 2023, the domestic price of raw goat milk was under pressure as the weak consumption of domestic dairy products led to oversupply of raw goat milk, and price of Shaanxi Ruixiang Chengda Dairy Farming Co., Ltd.* (陝西瑞祥誠達牧業有限公司) ("Ruixiang Chengda")'s raw goat milk dropped accordingly. The average selling price of Ruixiang Chengda's raw goat milk was RMB7,031 per tonne during the first half of 2023, representing a decrease of 4.0% compared to the same period in 2022. At the same time, natural population growth rate of Ruixiang Chengda's milkable goat fell short of the management's expectation, which also limited Ruixiang Chengda's goat milk business development. Due to the factors mentioned above, the Board was not optimistic about the future development of the goat milk industry.

In August 2023, our Company engaged Jones Lang LaSalle Corporate Appraisal and Advisory Limited (the "Valuer"), registered firm regulated by the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors, to appraise the recoverable amount of the goat CGU and fair value of dairy goats as at 30 June 2023. On 25 August 2023, the Valuer issued a report in relation to the valuation of goat CGU (the "2023 CGU Valuation Report") and a report in relation to the valuation of dairy goats (the "2023 Biological Assets Valuation Report"), as at 30 June 2023. According to the 2023 CGU Valuation Report, the recoverable amount of the goat CGU was RMB22,992,000. As such, the management decided to recognize an impairment loss for the goat CGU of RMB85.9 million for the six months ended 30 June 2023 which is equal to the carrying value of the long-lived assets of the goat CGU of RMB108.9 million minus the recoverable amount of RMB23.0 million.

In late 2023, the PRC economy was still recovering from the COVID-19 pandemic and consumers remained cautious when making purchasing decisions. The raw goat milk market is in a periodical oversupply, and the price of raw goat milk is expected to remain under pressure for a prolonged period of time. Recognizing the challenges faced and having considered the significant loss incurred for the year ended 31 December 2023, the management decided to reassess the impairment loss for property, plant and equipment and right-of-use assets of the goat CGU.

In March 2024, the Valuer issued the independent valuation report (the "2024 Biological Assets Valuation Report", together with the 2023 CGU Valuation Report and 2023 Biological Assets Valuation Report, the "Valuation Reports") in relation to the valuation of the fair value of dairy goats as at 31 December 2023. Based on the 2024 Biological Assets Valuation Report, the recoverable amount of the goat CGU as at 31 December 2023 was RMB17.5 million. As a result, an impairment loss of RMB3.9 million was recognized in the second half of 2023 related to the addition of property, plant and equipment and right-of-use assets of the goat CGU in the second half of 2023, resulting in a total impairment loss of RMB89.8 million for the Year.

Inputs and assumptions used in the Valuation Reports

The same valuation methods and assumptions were adopted in the Valuation Reports. According to the Valuation Reports, the recoverable amount of the goat CGU is the higher of (i) the value in use⁽¹⁾; and (ii) the fair value⁽²⁾ less cost of disposal.

The Valuer adopted income approach, which is known as the discounted cash flow method, in the valuation of the value in use of the goat CGU and the key assumptions for cash flow projections to undertake impairment testing are as follows:

- (i) the growth rate of expected average prices of goat milk: the expected average prices of goat milk are estimated after taking into account a growth rate of 3% for each projected year after considering future demand and inflation in the PRC;
- (ii) the growth rate of the expected feeding costs of goats: the expected feeding costs of goats are estimated after taking into account a growth rate of 3% for each projected year based on past feeding cost and expectations for the population of goats;
- (iii) the average milk yield of each goat per day: the average milk yield of each goat per day is estimated after taking into account a growth rate of 3% for each projected year based on historical milk producible data by a goat;
- (iv) the death rate: the death rate is based on the historical data of the goat CGU and future operating plans; and
- (v) the discount rate: the discount rate is 14% and reflects specific risks relating to the relevant unit.

The Valuer adopted market approach in the valuation of the fair value less costs of disposal of the goat CGU and the key assumptions are as follows:

- (i) the adjusted market price of the goats is adjusted based on a purchase-based market price for goats by mainly adding the incremental increases in costs required to raise; and
- (ii) there will be no material change in the existing conditions which may adversely affect the goat milk business.

The Board had reviewed the assumptions adopted in the Valuation Reports and was advised by the Valuer that the assumptions adopted in the Valuation Reports are commonly used in the valuation of biological assets. In view of the aforesaid, our Board is of the view that the assumptions adopted are fair, objective and reasonable.

Notes:

1. "Value in use" is defined as the present value of future cash flows expected to be derived from an asset or cash generating unit.
2. "Fair value" is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset, or paid to transfer a liability, in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

Management Discussion and Analysis

Loss for the Year of the Group

Taking into account all of the above factors, the Group's net loss was RMB339.7 million for the Year, as compared with a net profit of RMB22.8 million for the year ended 31 December 2022. Basic loss per share was approximately RMB7.24 cents for the Year, as compared with basic earnings per share of RMB0.49 cent for the year 2022.

FINAL DIVIDEND

The Board has resolved not to recommend the payment of a final dividend for the Year (2022: Nil).

LIQUIDITY AND FINANCIAL RESOURCES

The Group anticipates that its capital expenditures will be financed by cash generated from its operations, debt financing or bank loans, the net proceeds from the placing of new Shares under the general mandate from shareholders of the Company (the "Shareholders") and the unutilised net proceeds from the issue of new Shares under the global offering as set out in the prospectus of the Company dated 14 November 2013 (the "Prospectus").

1.5 Sustainability

The sustainable growth of the business of the Group is dependent on two critical aspects, which are, environmental protection and natural resources' exploitation. The need for achieving the harmonious development of society while catering to the increasing demands of resources has been recognized by the Group. Considering the importance of environment and natural resources, the Group has developed and implemented several management policies and conservation strategies in its business operations. To protect the environment and condense the exploitation of natural resources, the Group conforms to the requisite environmental regulations and international general practices, and undertakes measures accordingly. One of the prominent goals of the Group is to improve the efficiency in terms of using natural resources such as energy, water and other non-renewable resources. The actions taken by the Group constitute regular assessments of greenhouse gas ("GHG") emissions, classification and recycling of wastes, and deliberations on conservation strategies with those farms who consume higher levels of energy. Maintaining a balance between the business needs and sustainability of the natural environment has been regarded as eminently essential, for which, the Group emphasizes on offering quality services and products.

1.6 Stakeholders Engagement and Materiality Assessment

The Group endeavours to create sustainable growth and long-term value for its stakeholders, including the Group's employees, investors, customers and the wider community. We continue to interact with our stakeholders on an ongoing basis in order to identify and collect their expectations and concerns regarding significant ESG related matters of the Group's businesses, which are evaluated, prioritized and incorporated into our ESG strategy, including the setting of practicable ESG targets. Our communication channels with our stakeholders include company website, annual general meeting, staff meetings and business meetings with customers and suppliers.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Based on the stakeholders' feedback, the material environmental and social issues were identified as follows:

- Employee welfare;
- Environmental compliance;
- Greenhouse gas emissions;
- Supply chain management;
- Product quality;
- Occupational health and safety; and
- Labour standard.

2 ENVIRONMENTAL

2.1 Emissions

The laws and regulations adopted by local authorities, including Environmental Protection Law of the People's Republic of China (中華人民共和國環境保護法) and Regulation on the Prevention and Control of Pollution from Large-scale Breeding of Livestock and Poultry (畜禽規模養殖污染防治條例) to curtail the high emissions of greenhouse gas are considered and followed by the Group. No non-compliance with the laws and regulations relating to gas emissions, water discharges and generation of waste that have or may result in significant impact on the Company was identified during the Year. Apart from such conformity, the Group focuses on formulating and implementing needful measures to further the cause of preserving natural environment.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

2.1.1 GHG Emissions from Energy Consumed

The majority of the Group's operational greenhouse are a result of its energy use. Most of this is from combustion of coal, consumption of liquid fossil fuels and use of electricity for the heating system, vehicles and on-farm equipment, respectively.

- The number of cows for 2023 and 2022 is approximately 102,497 and 89,437 respectively.
- The total cow milk produced for 2023 and 2022 is approximately 476,284 tonnes and 425,167 tonnes respectively.
- The number of goats for 2023 and 2022 is approximately 4,752 and 5,973 respectively.
- The total goat milk produced for 2023 and 2022 is approximately 957 and 1,471 tonnes respectively.

Notes:

GHG emissions intensity is calculated by dividing the total GHG emissions by (1) the number of cows or goats; and (2) total milk produced.

Total energy consumed by the Group decreased from 116,755 MWh in 2022 to 111,529 MWh in 2023 and the corresponding GHG emission decreased from 33,953 tCO₂ in 2022 to 31,823 tCO₂ in 2023, such decrease was mainly due to less coal energy was used.

Considering the usage of resources, the Group is eminently devoted towards efficient use of natural resources and conservation. The majority of the Group's energy consumption was contributed by the combustion of coal, in view of this, the Group has already started the transition towards other greener alternatives, where possible and economically viable. For instance, solar panels are gradually placed on the farms to provide heating for the facility, as they are considered a sustainable option when comparing with generators. In this manner, carbon dioxide production is reduced while decreasing the power consumption.

The Group strives for continuous energy reduction, for which, implementation plans pertaining to energy consumption and conservation are developed through the assistance of autonomous consultants. One such plan or project is currently implemented, where methane is converted into energy. Doing so decreases energy consumption rate.

As a result of the various efforts on environmental conservation, the Group's GHG emission from energy consumed per cow milk produced slightly decreased from 0.08 tCO₂ per tonne in 2022 to 0.07 tCO₂ per tonne in 2023 and from energy consumed per goat milk produced slightly increased from 0.12 tCO₂ per tonne in 2022 to 0.18 tCO₂ per tonne in 2023.

2.1.2 On-farm GHG Emissions

Methane (CH₄), nitrous oxide (N₂O) and carbon dioxide (CO₂) are the leading greenhouse gases emitted by the dairy farming. Methane is generated from plant diet of cows or goats and other ruminants, where the animals are unable to digest the intake due to the high content of cellulose. Nonetheless, the methanogens, having interdependent association with ruminants, are the microorganisms residing within their guts. These are responsible for disintegrating the cellulose into carbohydrates, which further instigates a surge of energy within both the ruminant and microbial community. This process generates a by-product, methane. When utilizing fertilizers and manures in crop production, nitrous oxide is emanated. Moreover, it can be directly generated from the storage systems and land applications of manures. Lastly, carbon dioxide emissions are generated due to the animal respiration and decomposition of soil organic matter in the dairy farms. There is no identifiable hazardous waste generated from the dairy operation.

Notes:

- The above calculation is based on the reference from Greenhouse Gas Emissions from the Dairy Sector – A Life Cycle Assessment issued by Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations – Animal Production and Health Division.
- GHG emissions intensity per cow and per tonne of milk produced are calculated by dividing the total GHG emissions by (1) the number of cows or goats; and (2) total milk produced, respectively.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

The Group's total GHG emissions increased from 385,449 tCO_{2e} in 2022 to 425,399 tCO_{2e} in 2023 as a result of the significant increase in the total amount of cow milk produced from 425,167 tonnes in 2022 to 476,284 tonnes in 2023 and the slightly decreased in the total amount of goat milk produced from 1,471 tonnes in 2022 to 957 tonnes in 2023.

On-farm GHG emissions accounted for approximately 93% and 91% of total GHG emissions in 2023 and 2022 respectively. To reduce CH₄, N₂O and CO₂ emissions arising from dairy farming, the Group has instigated certain initiatives concerned with cow maintenance such as the continuous monitoring of milk yield, review of feeding formula to enhance productivity of cows, thereby reduce GHG emissions intensity, where possible.

2.2 Use of Resources

Per goat milk produced (tonne) ⁴	N/A	14.88	N/A	N/A	1.75	N/A

Notes:

Water consumption intensity per cow and per tonne of milk produced are calculated by dividing the total water consumption by (1) the number of cows or goats; and (2) total milk produced, respectively.

The Group recognizes that water management is one of the material aspects of preserving the natural environment. Water management is promoted by recycling the waste water obtained from the farms by executing the operations of filtering, sedimentation and oxygen treatment. The recycled water is then used for farm and cow cleaning and irrigation. Hence, the Group does not have any concern in sourcing water that is fit for such purpose. The Group's water consumption for cow increased from 1,638,889 tonnes in 2022 to 2,074,986 tonnes in 2023, the water consumption for goat increased from 2,581 tonnes in 2022 to 14,238 tonnes in 2023, this also led to the Group's water consumption intensity per cow and per goat to increase.

The Group currently does not report on the volume of non-hazardous waste generated from dairy farms, however, consistent reduction of potential impacts of its activities on the environment are encouraged. For instance, the Group promotes green information and electronic communication by the use of e-mail and electronic statements, where possible, with an aim to minimize wastes produced from its activities. Non-hazardous wastes produced by the Group mainly represent general industrial waste and domestic garbage. The Group has engaged third-party waste management companies to collect and dispose of its non-hazardous wastes in an appropriate manner.

Except for the Withdrawal Decision received by Baiquan Ruixincheng Farm in 2019, which was subsequently revoked in 2020, the Group is not aware of any incidents of non-compliance with laws and regulations that have a significant impact on the Group relating to air and GHG emission, discharges into water and land and generation of hazardous and non-hazardous wastes.

We confirmed that the total packing material used for finished products was minimal.

2.3 The Environment and Natural Resources

The Group has placed great importance on environmental protection, and has taken proactive strategies that attenuates the impact of technology on the environment. Deploying energy efficient equipment for carrying out various stages of production has been a mean to minimize the consumption of fuel, electricity and water. This has also contributed to streamlining the processes for improving the utilization of resources and discovering new domains for conserving the environment.

To ensure compliance with the local laws and regulations including Environmental Protection Law of the People's Republic of China (中華人民共和國環境保護法) and Regulation on the Prevention and Control of Pollution from Large-scale Breeding of Livestock and Poultry (畜禽規模養殖污染防治條例), the Group has formulated and implemented environmental and waste management plans.

For example, before approving any production activities, we assessed the impact of operations of the three Kedong dairy farms, the two Longjiang dairy farms, Baiquan, Gannan, Keshan and Zhenlai dairy farms, on the environment.

Cow or goat manure is the major waste product that is obtained from the dairy farms. This manure is treated via the deployment of waste treatment facilities such as biogas recycling. Such facilities are established in the farms, which collect and process the cow or goat manure for fuel. Biogas produced through fermentation is used directly for heating. If no waste treatment facilities are in place, the manure is recycled and converted into fertilizers, which are distributed to attain soil nutrition.

Apart from the aforementioned actions, the Group aligns its business activities with the local requirements related to natural environment. Moreover, the Group aims at reducing the repercussions of dairy farming on the environment while preserving and minimizing the usage of natural resources. The protection and conservation of natural resources and ecosystems, reduction of negative impacts across the global value chain and incessant improvement of overall business operations are highly encouraged by the Group.

2.4 Climate Change

It is an indisputable fact that global warming is becoming more and more serious. The Group has been focused on climate change issues. In this regard, the Group seeks to take the optimal measures to reduce air emission and greenhouse gas emissions from business operations and combat climate change. The Group will keep monitoring and addressing the issues and challenges posed by climate change.

3.1 Employment and Labour Practices

3.1.1 Employment

Employees are an integral part of any organization and the corresponding labour management practices play a requisite role in shaping a company's culture, success and reputation. In order to achieve a higher position in the competitive business market, it is eminently essential to acquire a positive work culture by ensuring the sustainability and safety of the employees. Attracting and retaining the employees are equally important in the quest of promoting an optimal work culture. Considering the work culture of the Group, the local residents residing closer to the farms are provided with enticing employment opportunities. In case the local people are unable to fulfill the demands of a particular job, only then the search of workforce is extended outside the local boundaries. The Group does not differentiate the workforce on the basis of gender, as long as the candidates are equipped with the qualifying experience or skills.

The Group offers salaries above the local minimum wage regulation. No non-compliance with the laws and regulations relating to labour and employment that have resulted or may result in significant impact on the Company was identified during the Year.

During screening and recruitment, the candidates are required to acquire a physical examination certificate, provided by health and epidemic prevention departments. Apart from the recruitment and selection of employees, the skills of the workforce are developed through adequate trainings. Moreover, the employees are subject to regular medical examinations, which are carried out on the basis of job type and the employee position.

As of 31 December 2023, the Group had 2,389 (2022: 2,241) full-time employees in total and the overall employee turnover rate was about 34% (2022: 34%) in 2023. The breakdown of the number of employees and the employee turnover rate are shown below.

3.1.2 Health and Safety

The foremost objective of the Group is to ensure a robust system pertaining to policies while emphasizing on continuous improvements in all the business operations. Health and safety is one such aspect that underlies the success of an organization as it promotes an effective workforce. Therefore, the Group offers hazard identification training to all the employees, in which the individuals are trained to determine the potential health risks and apply preventive measures to resolve such issues. For promoting this cause, all the farms are requested to prepare a safety assessment report and occupational disease hazard assessment report. In addition, in response to the novel coronavirus epidemic (COVID-19), the Group has strengthened daily prevention and control and strengthened emergency response capabilities.

The health and safety measures undertaken by the Group include the following:

- An animal health and epidemic prevention system is put in place to ensure the well-being of the farm herd. The farm's veterinarian is responsible for supervising, implementing and enhancing the epidemic reporting system.
- The farms are regularly patrolled by the security guards, and all the activities in the farms are monitored. This include the registration of personnel and delivery vehicle disinfection prior to entry. Other vehicles are prohibited from entering the facility.
- The production area is well guarded where the non-production workers are not allowed to enter the restricted zone. As a precaution, the staff members and keepers are not allowed in the production area before the sterilization of uniform, which must be disinfected into the locker room. Their uniforms are replaced and are only permitted inside the area after the sterilization.
- Visits to the farm by the general public are declined.
- Regular cleaning and disinfecting of the farm is carried out.
- Any ill cow/goat or dead cow/goat is isolated immediately and transported to either a diagnosis room or isolation zone.
- Feed quality is checked regularly to ensure freshness.

The workforce is retained by the Group by providing promotion opportunities and salary adjustments as per the performance given by the individual employees. The additional benefits given to the employees range from free meal and accommodation, annual leave and medical coverage in accordance with local regulations. With this robust system of motivating the employees with enticing rewards and support, the Group strives to retain talent and envision the development of all the staff members.

In addition, an ethical code is followed within the organization, wherein the employees are not differentiated on the basis of gender and racism. All are offered with equal opportunities and any act of misconduct, such as sexual harassment, is seriously prohibited. Grievance mechanisms and disciplinary procedures are also set in place that assist the transparent and adequate governance of the business. The Group abides by all the regulations and laws on terms of employment, and strictly prohibits the use of forced labour or child labour in all the business activities. Prior to any confirmation of employment of the Group, our human resources department will require job applicants to provide valid identity documents to verify that the applicants are lawfully employable and ensure full compliance with relevant laws and regulations that prohibit child and forced labour. If any violations were to be detected, the Group would immediately cease any labour activities. Any false documents would be considered fraudulent and the Group would have the right to terminate the labour contract immediately. The Group will regularly review the employees' information to ensure there is no violation of any regulations and policies.

During the Year, no violation of related laws, rules and regulations on child labour and forced labour was identified.

3.2 Operating Practices

3.2.1 Supply Chain Management

As the quality of feed has a substantial effect on the quality and yield of raw milk, the Group follows a strict review mechanism for choosing the feed suppliers. Only suppliers which are legally approved and has a proper means of importing the feed are selected. Qualified suppliers will be registered under the "Approved List of Suppliers" of the Group. For this purpose, the Group conducts surprise inspection tours to the supplier workshops and reviews the needful aspects of production. While the feed being delivered to the dairy farms are quarantined, the in-house laboratory performs the requisite sampling inspections. The feeds are checked for quality and only after they pass the inspection, they are allowed to be stored in the warehouse. As of 31 December 2023, we had 2,076 (2022: 2,018) suppliers located in the PRC.

Region	Number of Suppliers in 2023	Number of Suppliers in 2022
The PRC	2,076	2,018
Hong Kong	–	–

The Group expects the suppliers to implement good employment measures by dealing with their employees fairly and reasonably, respecting employees' rights and providing employees with an environment free from discrimination, child labour and forced labour. The suppliers also need to adhere to transparent business processes and high standards of conduct which they have to avoid conflicts of interest and prohibit corruption and bribery. Before making any procurement decisions, the Group will conduct due diligence and assessments on suppliers to ensure that environmental and social risks along the supply chain are identified and avoided. Our supply chain management policies and procedures include assessment, selection, approval, procurement and performance evaluation. We regularly evaluate our key suppliers' performance to determine whether to extend our partnership with them. Performance evaluation is based on capacity, delivery accuracy and punctuality, service, environmental protection and social responsibilities.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

3.2.2 Product Responsibility

The Group adheres strictly to the local laws and regulations on product safety, including the Regulation on the Supervision and Administration of the Quality Safety of Dairy Products (乳品質量安全監督管理條例) and Regulations on the Administration of Livestock and Poultry (種畜禽管理條例). To ensure that our products complies with laws and regulations, such as the national Administrative Measures for Food Recall, we have developed internal control measures, including but not limited to Management Procedure for Product Withdrawal (Recall). Our document details each department's product withdrawal (recall) process and responsibilities. Departments dealing with such issues should investigate deviations and assess risks before a qualified person makes decisions on disposal.

Recognizing the importance of protecting our own and customers' intellectual property rights we have adopted the 'Intellectual Property Management Policy' to regulate the procedures and standards in intellectual property rights protection. The Group follows the legitimate intellectual property application procedures for its new trademark, labels and product designs. All of the software and information used in our daily business operations are with legal licenses and we only procure genuine products.

During the Year, the Group experienced no incidents of recalling products sold or sent due to safety and health reasons, and did not violate laws and regulations on the health and safety of products and services, or those pertaining to advertising, labelling and privacy. The Group did not involve in any disputes on inventions, utility model patents, software copyrights and other intellectual property content.

3.2.2.1 Control Over the Quality of Dairy Cows and Goats

The safety and quality of the raw milk is highly influenced by the quality of the dairy cows. At present, the Group breeds the high-quality Holstein dairy cows. To achieve high quality of breed, the dairy cows are inseminated with the semen from selected Holstein bulls sourced from the United States. The frozen semen of selected Holstein bulls is purchased from international suppliers either directly or through third-party domestic trading companies. Before purchasing the semen, the quarantine report of the respective bull is assessed. The semen is assessed on the basis of several factors, including the nutritional content of raw milk produced by the bull's offspring, and the milk yield and health condition of the bull's offspring. This ensures the appropriate mix and quality of the cows.

To ensure quality of our goat milk, the Group adopts similar control processes for dairy goats, and the source of insemination for dairy goats is from New Zealand and Australia.

3.2.2.2 Quality Control During the Milking Process

In all the dairy farms, a standard milking procedure is followed. To ensure the milk quality and safety of the cows or goats, the milk is produced and extracted in an automated and sanitary environment. The sterilizing fluids are sprayed across the teats of the dairy cows or goats, and are rigorously cleaned with dry towels before attaching the milking cups. The milking cups are also sterilized and only then the milking process is commenced. The first three squeezes of raw milk from the dairy cows or goats are discarded. Moreover, consistent inspection of the complete process is carried out with caution, for which the set milk safety standards are followed. After the milking process is complete, the teats of dairy cows or goats are sanitized again so as to avoid any infection. Therefore, following this rigorous process of milking ensures the optimal quality of the raw milk with low microbe count and low somatic cell count ("SCC").

3.2.2.3 Quality Control During Storage and Transportation

After the milking process is completed, the raw milk is further tested and inspected before supplying it to the end user. The milk is tested against veterinary drug residues, SCC, microbe count, protein content and fat content. During this inspection, if any amount of veterinary drug residue that exceeds the safety standards are found, then all the stored raw milk is discarded. However, there has been no such incident during the Year. A quality report is then generated to be stored as an internal record.

3.2.2.4 Anti-epidemic Measures

It is essential to note that the Group has a prominent focus on reducing or avoiding the occurrence of diseases within the farm premises. For this purpose, several general management practices are adopted and implemented for controlling and preventing different types of diseases.

To ensure good health of animals in the farm, they are subject to regular vaccinations, monitoring and controlling of parasites infestation, and promoting cleanliness for avoiding diseases. The workers are trained on how to care for the herd and protect them from unwanted harm through basic biosecurity measures. Such measure are implemented in farm management to minimize the disease transmission. For example, it involves the management of motor vehicle parking. All new bovines are individually quarantined before coming onto farm for at least two weeks. Cows or goats with any illness is immediately isolated from the quarantine zone for veterinary diagnosis.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

3.2.2.5 Protecting Consumer Rights

The Group protects consumers' legitimate rights and strictly abides by the Law of the People's Republic of China on the Protection of Consumer Rights and Interests (《中華人民共和國消費者權益保護法》), treats consumer complaints fairly and effectively protects consumers' privacy and information.

An independent department deals with complaints, and consumers can lodge complaints via channels, such as telephone and email. The department receives, classifies, responds to, disseminates and tracks information. The officer responsible for handling complaints, contacts the consumer within the time limits after receiving the information and complete the process in time. During the Year, the Group has not received any products and service related complaints.

In terms of consumer privacy protection, the Group handles the personal data of our customers carefully by collecting only necessary personal data and ensures that the information obtained is protected from unauthorized or accidental access. Our employees are constantly reminded the importance of respecting the privacy of personal and business data.

3.2.3 Anti-Corruption

Anti-corruption measures and laws are enforced within the business arena of the Group. The Group endeavor to maintain high moral standard and integrity, and forbid any forms of corruptions by setting out guidance in the Group's Code of Conducts. Whistleblowing policy is a good example of an anti-corruption, anti-fraud, and anti-malpractice policy followed by the Group to encourage reporting of any inappropriate behavior.

The Group established anti-corruption policies to prohibit employees from receiving any advantages offered by customers, suppliers, colleagues, or other parties, while they are performing employee duties, and prohibit any activities involving conflicts of interest, bribery, extortion, fraud, and money laundering. In addition, we provide publications on anti-corruption practices to our directors and senior management personnel regularly.

The Group is not aware of any complaints about corrupt practices brought against the Group or its employees during the Year.

3.3 Community

3.3.1 Community Investment

The Group has portrayed immense dedication in furthering the environmental cause by collaborating with the local communities in the project area and offering them the required support. The communities are assisted in determining the development plans, however, the support is only useful if the communities are prepared to help themselves. When considering the complementary support offered by the Group, the Group follows its policy on corporate citizenship, pursuant to which communities are informed and updated about the several developments carried out in the farms.

The communities are also aware of the manner which the Group operates, thus, allowing them to contribute in decision-making pertaining to essential developments. Such a process, recognized during environmental impact assessment preparation, is followed all the way through the project implementation phase. In addition, the public shows an intrinsic involvement with the complete project and partakes in decision-making for the betterment of the local and wider environment.

Sponsored community activities are arranged and established on the basis of community needs, which demonstrates the commitment of the Group in fulfilling its corporate social responsibility. These activities demonstrate acute care to the elderly, patients, disabled people and local students. Apart from such programs, the Group has been inclusive to the community by contributing through generous donations and formulating plans for environment conservation.

Due to the outbreak of COVID-19 and various government measures on social distancing, the Group did not take part in community activities during the Year (2022: Nil).

Independent auditor's report

To the shareholders of YuanShengTai Dairy Farm Limited

(Incorporated in Bermuda with limited liability)

OPINION

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of YuanShengTai Dairy Farm Limited (the “Company”) and its subsidiaries (the “Group”) set out on pages 84 to 159, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 December 2023, and the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, the consolidated statement of changes in equity and the consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including material accounting policy information.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 31 December 2023, and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRSs”) issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (“IASB”) and have been properly prepared in compliance with the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing (“HKSAs”) issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (“HKICPA”). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the HKICPA's Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the “Code”), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. For each matter below, our description of how our audit addressed the matter is provided in that context.

Independent Auditor's Report

We have fulfilled the responsibilities described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements section of our report, including in relation to these matters. Accordingly, our audit included the performance of procedures designed to respond to our assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements. The results of our audit procedures, including the procedures performed to address the matters below, provide the basis for our audit opinion on the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

Key audit matter	How our audit addressed the key audit matter
Fair value of biological assets
As at 31 December 2023, the carrying value of the Group's biological assets, mainly including dairy cows and dairy goats, amounted to RMB2,252,706,000, representing 27% of the Group's total assets. During the year ended 31 December 2023, the Group recorded a loss of RMB750,262,000 arising from the changes in fair value less costs to sell of biological assets. The Group's biological assets are measured at fair value less costs to sell. The determination of the fair value requires significant management's judgements regarding inter alia, species, age, culling rates and growing condition of the biological assets, cost incurred and the average milk yield of each cow, the market price of dairy goats, the estimated milk price and the discount rate. Management engaged an external valuer to facilitate its determination of the fair value of the biological assets. Relevant disclosures are included in notes 3 and 17 to the consolidated financial statements.	Our audit procedures included conducting a stocktaking of biological assets and obtaining an understanding of management's judgements and key assumptions adopted to determine the fair value of the biological assets. In particular, we performed stocktakes of all dairy cows and dairy goats at the year end, and we compared the valuation inputs to available market data. We considered the objectivity, independence and expertise of the independent valuer. We also involved our internal valuation specialists to assist us in evaluating the valuation models and the judgements and key assumptions adopted, including discount rate and contributory asset charges. In addition, we evaluated the adequacy of the related disclosures of the fair value of biological assets in the consolidated financial statements.

Key audit matter	How our audit addressed the key audit matter
Impairment assessment on long-lived assets As at 31 December 2023, the Group's long-lived assets, mainly comprising of property, plant and equipment and biological assets of two cash-generating units of raw cow and goat milk production and sale, amounted to RMB5,865,584,000. After assessing the external and internal sources of information, management considered that impairment indicators existed. Management performed an impairment assessment on the long-lived assets in accordance with IAS 36 Impairment of Assets and concluded that no impairment should be provided for the long-lived assets of the raw cow milk production and sale cash-generating unit and impairment amounting to RMB89,812,000 was provided to the long-lived assets of the raw goat milk production and sale cash-generating unit (the "goat CGU"). This matter was significant to our audit because the amount of long-lived assets was material to the consolidated financial statements and the impairment assessment involved the determination of the recoverable amounts of the assets which was complex and involved significant judgements and estimates. Relevant disclosures are included in notes 3 and 13 to the consolidated financial statements.	We checked management's procedures in identifying the existence of any impairment indicators and evaluated the significant assumptions and tested the completeness and accuracy of the underlying data used. In addition, we involved our internal valuation specialists to assist us in assessing management's assumptions in calculating the value in use of long-lived assets focusing on the growth rate and discount rate. We also assessed the adequacy of the Group's disclosures to the consolidated financial statements regarding the impairment assessment.

OTHER INFORMATION INCLUDED IN THE ANNUAL REPORT

The directors of the Company are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Annual Report, other than the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Independent Auditor's Report

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE DIRECTORS FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with IFRSs issued by the IASB and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors of the Company are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors of the Company either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The directors of the Company are assisted by the Audit Committee in discharging their responsibilities for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Our report is made solely to you, as a body, in accordance with section 90 of the Bermuda Companies Act 1981, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSAAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSAAs, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (Continued)

- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Audit Committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the Audit Committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with the Audit Committee, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Yee Chung Man.

2. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

2.1 BASIS OF PREPARATION

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRSs”) (which include all International Financial Reporting Standards, International Accounting Standards (“IASs”), and Interpretations) issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (the “IASB”) and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance. They have been prepared under the historical cost convention, except for biological assets and agricultural produce which have been measured at fair value less costs to sell, and structured deposits which have been measured at fair value. These financial statements are presented in Renminbi (“RMB”) and all values are rounded to the nearest thousand except when otherwise indicated.

Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as the “Group”) for the year ended 31 December 2023. A subsidiary is an entity (including a structured entity), directly or indirectly, controlled by the Company. Control is achieved when the Group is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the investee (i.e., existing rights that give the Group the current ability to direct the relevant activities of the investee).

Generally, there is a presumption that a majority of voting rights results in control. When the Company has less than a majority of the voting or similar rights of an investee, the Group considers all relevant facts and circumstances in assessing whether it has power over an investee, including:

- (a) the contractual arrangement with the other vote holders of the investee;
- (b) rights arising from other contractual arrangements; and
- (c) the Group’s voting rights and potential voting rights.

The financial statements of the subsidiaries are prepared for the same reporting period as the Company, using consistent accounting policies. The results of subsidiaries are consolidated from the date on which the Group obtains control, and continue to be consolidated until the date that such control ceases.

Profit or loss and each component of other comprehensive income are attributed to the owners of the parent of the Group and to the non-controlling interests, even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance. All intra-group assets and liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows relating to transactions between members of the Group are eliminated in full on consolidation.

The Group reassesses whether or not it controls an investee if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more of the three elements of control described above. A change in the ownership interest of a subsidiary, without a loss of control, is accounted for as an equity transaction.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

31 December 2023

If the Group loses control over a subsidiary, it derecognises the related assets (including goodwill), liabilities, any non-controlling interest and the exchange fluctuation reserve; and recognises the fair value of any investment retained and any resulting surplus or deficit in profit or loss. The Group's share of components previously recognised in other comprehensive income is reclassified to profit or loss or retained profits, as appropriate, on the same basis as would be required if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities.

Going concern

In preparation of the consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2023, the directors have given careful consideration to the future liquidity of the Group in light of the fact that the Group's total current liabilities exceeded its total current assets by RMB212,504,000 (2022: RMB32,642,000). Taking into account, (i) the available credit facilities of approximately RMB321,814,000, which remain unutilised as at 31 December 2023, obtained from licensed banks; and (ii) the expected net cash inflows generated from the Group's operations for the next twelve months, the directors are satisfied that the Group will be able to meet in full its financial obligations as and when they fall due in the foreseeable future. Accordingly, the consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis.

2.2 CHANGES IN ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND DISCLOSURES

The Group has adopted the following new and revised IFRSs for the first time for the current year's financial statements.

IFRS 17	Insurance Contracts
Amendments to IAS 1 and IFRS Practice Statement 2	Disclosure of Accounting Policies
Amendments to IAS 8	Definition of Accounting Estimates
Amendments to IAS 12	Deferred Tax related to Assets and Liabilities arising from a Single Transaction
Amendments to IAS 12	International Tax Reform – Pillar Two Model Rules

2.2 CHANGES IN ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND DISCLOSURES (Continued)

The nature and the impact of the new and revised IFRSs that are applicable to the Group are described below:

- (a) Amendments to IAS 1 require entities to disclose their material accounting policy information rather than their significant accounting policies. Accounting policy information is material if, when considered together with other information included in an entity's financial statements, it can reasonably be expected to influence decisions that the primary users of general purpose financial statements make on the basis of those financial statements. Amendments to IFRS Practice Statement 2 Making Materiality Judgements provide non-mandatory guidance on how to apply the concept of materiality to accounting policy disclosures. The Group has disclosed the material accounting policy information in note 2 to the financial statements. The amendments did not have any impact on the measurement, recognition or presentation of any items in the Group's financial statements.
- (b) Amendments to IAS 8 clarify the distinction between changes in accounting estimates and changes in accounting policies. Accounting estimates are defined as monetary amounts in financial statements that are subject to measurement uncertainty. The amendments also clarify how entities use measurement techniques and inputs to develop accounting estimates. Since the Group's approach and policy align with the amendments, the amendments had no impact on the Group's financial statements.
- (c) Amendments to IAS 12 Deferred Tax related to Assets and Liabilities arising from a Single Transaction narrow the scope of the initial recognition exception in IAS 12 so that it no longer applies to transactions that give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences, such as leases and decommissioning obligations. Therefore, entities are required to recognise a deferred tax asset (provided that sufficient taxable profit is available) and a deferred tax liability for temporary differences arising from these transactions.

Prior to the initial application of these amendments, the Group applied the initial recognition exception and did not recognise a deferred tax asset and a deferred tax liability for temporary differences for transactions related to leases. The Group has applied the amendments on temporary differences related to leases as at 1 January 2022.

Upon the application of the amendments, the Group has determined the temporary differences arising from right-of-use assets, investment properties and lease liabilities separately, which have been reflected in the reconciliation as disclosed in note 24 to the financial statements. However, they did not have any material impact on the overall deferred tax balances presented in the consolidated statement of financial position as the related deferred tax balances qualified for offsetting under IAS 12.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

2.2 CHANGES IN ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND DISCLOSURES (Continued)

- (d) Amendments to IAS 12 International Tax Reform – Pillar Two Model Rules introduce a mandatory temporary exception from the recognition and disclosure of deferred taxes arising from the implementation of the Pillar Two model rules published by the Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development. The amendments also introduce disclosure requirements for the affected entities to help users of the financial statements better understand the entities' exposure to Pillar Two income taxes, including the disclosure of current tax related to Pillar Two income taxes separately in the periods when Pillar Two legislation is effective and the disclosure of known or reasonably estimable information of their exposure to Pillar Two income taxes in periods in which the legislation is enacted or substantively enacted but not yet in effect. The Group has applied the amendments retrospectively. Since the Pillar Two model rules did not apply to the Group but have applied to the ultimate parent entity of the Group, the Group falls within the scope of the Pillar Two model rules. Pillar Two income taxes recognised by the ultimate parent entity of the Group were nil for the years ended 31 December 2023 and 2022. The amendments did not have any impact on the Group's financial statements.

2.3 ISSUED BUT NOT YET EFFECTIVE INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL REPORTING STANDARDS

The Group has not applied the following revised IFRSs, that have been issued but are not yet effective, in these financial statements. The Group intends to apply these revised IFRSs, if applicable, when they become effective.

Amendments to IFRS 10 and IAS 28	Sale or Contribution of Assets between an Investor and its Associate or Joint Venture ³
Amendments to IFRS 16	Lease Liability in a Sale and Leaseback ¹
Amendments to IAS 1	Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-current (the “ 2020 Amendments ”) ¹
Amendments to IAS 1	Non-current Liabilities with Covenants (the “ 2022 Amendments ”) ¹
Amendments to IAS 7 and IFRS 7	Supplier Finance Arrangements ¹
Amendments to IAS 21	Lack of Exchangeability ²

¹ Effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2024

² Effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2025

³ No mandatory effective date yet determined but available for adoption

2.3 ISSUED BUT NOT YET EFFECTIVE INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL REPORTING STANDARDS (Continued)

Further information about those IFRSs that are expected to be applicable to the Group is described below.

The 2020 Amendments clarify the requirements for classifying liabilities as current or non-current, including what is meant by a right to defer settlement and that a right to defer must exist at the end of the reporting period. Classification of a liability is unaffected by the likelihood that the entity will exercise its right to defer settlement. The amendments also clarify that a liability can be settled in its own equity instruments, and that only if a conversion option in a convertible liability is itself accounted for as an equity instrument would the terms of a liability not impact its classification. The 2022 Amendments further clarify that, among covenants of a liability arising from a loan arrangement, only those with which an entity must comply on or before the reporting date affect the classification of that liability as current or non-current. Additional disclosures are required for non-current liabilities that are subject to the entity complying with future covenants within 12 months after the reporting period. The amendments shall be applied retrospectively with early application permitted. An entity that applies the 2020 Amendments early is required to apply simultaneously the 2022 Amendments, and vice versa. The Group is currently assessing the impact of the amendments and whether existing loan agreements may require revision. Based on a preliminary assessment, the amendments are not expected to have any significant impact on the Group's financial statements.

2.4 MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Fair value measurement

The Group measures its biological assets and agricultural produce and structured deposits at fair value at the end of each reporting period. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value measurement is based on the presumption that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability takes place either in the principal market for the asset or liability, or in the absence of a principal market, in the most advantageous market for the asset or liability. The principal or the most advantageous market must be accessible by the Group. The fair value of an asset or a liability is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, assuming that market participants act in their economic best interest.

A fair value measurement of a non-financial asset takes into account a market participant's ability to generate economic benefits by using the asset in its highest and best use or by selling it to another market participant that would use the asset in its highest and best use.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

The Group uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximising the use of relevant observable inputs and minimising the use of unobservable inputs.

All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the financial statements are categorised within the fair value hierarchy, described as follows, based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole:

- | | | |
|---------|---|---|
| Level 1 | – | based on quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities |
| Level 2 | – | based on valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is observable, either directly or indirectly |
| Level 3 | – | based on valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable |

For assets and liabilities that are recognised in the financial statements on a recurring basis, the Group determines whether transfers have occurred between levels in the hierarchy by reassessing categorisation (based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole) at the end of each reporting period.

Impairment of non-financial assets

Where an indication of impairment exists, or when annual impairment testing for a non-financial asset is required (other than inventories and biological assets), the asset's recoverable amount is estimated. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of the asset's or cash-generating unit's value in use and its fair value less costs of disposal, and is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets, in which case the recoverable amount is determined for the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs.

In testing a cash-generating unit for impairment, a portion of the carrying amount of a corporate asset (e.g., a headquarters building) is allocated to an individual cash-generating unit if it can be allocated on a reasonable and consistent basis or, otherwise, to the smallest group of cash-generating units.

An impairment loss is recognised only if the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. An impairment loss is charged to profit or loss in the period in which it arises in those expense categories consistent with the function of the impaired asset.

An assessment is made at the end of each reporting period as to whether there is an indication that previously recognised impairment losses may no longer exist or may have decreased. If such an indication exists, the recoverable amount is estimated. A previously recognised impairment loss of an asset other than goodwill is reversed only if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount of that asset, but not to an amount higher than the carrying amount that would have been determined (net of any depreciation/amortisation) had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset in prior years. A reversal of such an impairment loss is credited to profit or loss in the period in which it arises.

Related parties

A party is considered to be related to the Group if:

- (a) the party is a person or a close member of that person's family and that person

- (vii) a person identified in (a) (i) has significant influence over the entity or is a member of the key management personnel of the entity (or of a parent of the entity); and

Property, plant and equipment and depreciation

Property, plant and equipment, other than construction in progress, are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and any impairment losses. The cost of an item of property, plant and equipment comprises its purchase price and any directly attributable costs of bringing the asset to its working condition and location for its intended use.

Expenditure incurred after items of property, plant and equipment have been put into operation, such as repairs and maintenance, is normally charged to profit or loss in the period in which it is incurred. In situations where the recognition criteria are satisfied, the expenditure for a major inspection is capitalised in the carrying amount of the asset as a replacement. Where significant parts of property, plant and equipment are required to be replaced at intervals, the Group recognises such parts as individual assets with specific useful lives and depreciates them accordingly.

Depreciation is calculated on the straight-line basis to write off the cost of each item of property, plant and equipment to its residual value over its estimated useful life. The principal annual rates used for this purpose are as follows:

Buildings	3%-4%
Plant and machinery	6%-10%
Furniture and fixtures	18%-20%
Motor vehicles	11%-12%
Other equipment	18%-20%

Where parts of an item of property, plant and equipment have different useful lives, the cost of that item is allocated on a reasonable basis among the parts and each part is depreciated separately. Residual values, useful lives and the depreciation method are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at least at each financial year end.

An item of property, plant and equipment including any significant part initially recognised is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss on disposal or retirement recognised in profit or loss in the year the asset is derecognised is the difference between the net sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the relevant asset.

Construction in progress is stated at cost less any impairment losses, and is not depreciated. It is reclassified to the appropriate category of property, plant and equipment when completed and ready for use.

Investment properties

Investment properties are interests in land and buildings (including right-of-use assets) held to earn rental income and/or for capital appreciation. Such properties are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and any impairment losses. Any gains or losses on the retirement or disposal of an investment property are recognised in profit or loss in the year of the retirement or disposal.

Biological assets

Biological assets comprise dairy cows and dairy goats. Dairy cows include milkable cows, heifers and calves. Dairy goats include milkable goats, young goats and lambs. Biological assets are measured on initial recognition and at the end of each reporting period at their fair value less costs to sell, with any resultant gain or loss recognised in profit or loss for the period in which it arises. Costs to sell are the incremental costs directly attributable to the disposal of an asset, mainly transportation costs, excluding finance costs and income taxes. The fair value of dairy cows is determined based on their present location and condition and the fair value of dairy goats is determined based on market prices of dairy goats with similar age, breed and genetic merit. The fair value of biological assets is determined independently by professional valuers.

The feeding costs and other related costs including the depreciation charge, utility costs and consumables incurred for raising of heifers, calves, young goats and lambs are capitalised until such time as the heifers, calves, young goats and lambs begin to produce milk.

Agricultural produce

Agricultural produce represents raw milk harvested from the Group's biological assets. Milk is recognised at the point of harvest at its fair value less costs to sell. The fair value of milk is determined based on market prices quoted in the local area. The costs to sell are the incremental costs directly attributable to the sales of milk, mainly transportation costs, excluding finance costs and income tax. A gain or loss arising from agricultural produce at the point of harvest measuring at fair value less costs to sell is credited to cost of sales and as initial cost of inventories for the period in which it arises. All raw milk is sold in the period it is produced, and the value resulting from initial measurement is immediately charged to cost of sales.

Leases

The Group assesses at contract inception whether a contract is, or contains, a lease. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration.

Leases (Continued)

Group as a lessee

The Group applies a single recognition and measurement approach for all leases, except for short-term leases and leases of low-value assets. The Group recognises lease liabilities to make lease payments and right-of-use assets representing the right to use the underlying assets.

(a) Right-of-use assets

Right-of-use assets are recognised at the commencement date of the lease (that is the date the underlying asset is available for use). Right-of-use assets are measured at cost, less accumulated depreciation and any impairment losses, and adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities. The cost of right-of-use assets includes the amount of lease liabilities recognised, initial direct costs incurred, and lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received. Right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the lease terms and the estimated useful lives of the assets as follows:

Leasehold land	3 to 50 years

If ownership of the leased asset transfers to the Group by the end of the lease term or the cost reflects the exercise of a purchase option, depreciation is calculated using the estimated useful life of the asset.

When a right-of-use asset meets the definition of investment property, it is included in investment properties. The corresponding right-of-use asset is initially measured at cost, and subsequently measured at fair value, in accordance with the Group's policy for "investment properties".

(b) Lease liabilities

Lease liabilities are recognised at the commencement date of the lease at the present value of lease payments to be made over the lease term. The lease payments include fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments) less any lease incentives receivable, variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, and amounts expected to be paid under residual value guarantees. The lease payments also include the exercise price of a purchase option reasonably certain to be exercised by the Group and payments of penalties for termination of a lease, if the lease term reflects the Group exercising the option to terminate the lease. The variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or a rate are recognised as an expense in the period in which the event or condition that triggers the payment occurs.

In calculating the present value of lease payments, the Group uses its incremental borrowing rate at the lease commencement date because the interest rate implicit in the lease is not readily determinable. After the commencement date, the amount of lease liabilities is increased to reflect the accretion of interest and reduced for the lease payments made. In addition, the carrying amount of lease liabilities is remeasured if there is a modification, a change in the lease term, a change in lease payments (e.g., a change to future lease payments resulting from a change in an index or rate) or a change in assessment of an option to purchase the underlying asset.

(c) Short-term leases and leases of low-value assets

The Group applies the short-term lease recognition exemption to its short-term leases of machinery and equipment (that is those leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less from the commencement date and do not contain a purchase option). It also applies the recognition exemption for leases of low-value assets to leases of office equipment and laptop computers that are considered to be of low value.

Lease payments on short-term leases and leases of low-value assets are recognised as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Group as a lessor

When the Group acts as a lessor, it classifies at lease inception (or when there is a lease modification) each of its leases as either an operating lease or a finance lease.

Leases in which the Group does not transfer substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an asset are classified as operating leases. When a contract contains lease and non-lease components, the Group allocates the consideration in the contract to each component on a relative stand-alone selling price basis. Rental income is accounted for on a straight-line basis over the lease terms and is included in revenue in the statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income due to its operating nature. Initial direct costs incurred in negotiating and arranging an operating lease are added to the carrying amount of the leased asset and recognised over the lease term on the same basis as rental income. Contingent rents are recognised as revenue in the period in which they are earned.

Leases that transfer substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an underlying asset to the lessee are accounted for as finance leases.

When the Group is an intermediate lessor, a sublease is classified as a finance lease or operating lease with reference to the right-of-use asset arising from the head lease. If the head lease is a short-term lease to which the Group applies the on-balance sheet recognition exemption, the Group classifies the sublease as an operating lease.

Investments and other financial assets

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial assets are classified, at initial recognition, as subsequently measured at amortised cost, fair value through other comprehensive income, and fair value through profit or loss.

The classification of financial assets at initial recognition depends on the financial asset's contractual cash flow characteristics and the Group's business model for managing them. With the exception of trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component or for which the Group has applied the practical expedient of not adjusting the effect of a significant financing component, the Group initially measures a financial asset at its fair value, plus in the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs. Trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component or for which the Group has applied the practical expedient are measured at the transaction price determined under IFRS 15 in accordance with the policies set out for "Revenue recognition" below.

In order for a financial asset to be classified and measured at amortised cost or fair value through other comprehensive income, it needs to give rise to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest ("SPPI") on the principal amount outstanding. Financial assets with cash flows that are not SPPI are classified and measured at fair value through profit or loss, irrespective of the business model.

The Group's business model for managing financial assets refers to how it manages its financial assets in order to generate cash flows. The business model determines whether cash flows will result from collecting contractual cash flows, selling the financial assets, or both. Financial assets classified and measured at amortised cost are held within a business model with the objective to hold financial assets in order to collect contractual cash flows, while financial assets classified and measured at fair value through other comprehensive income are held within a business model with the objective of both holding to collect contractual cash flows and selling. Financial assets which are not held within the aforementioned business models are classified and measured at fair value through profit or loss.

Purchases or sales of financial assets that require delivery of assets within the period generally established by regulation or convention in the marketplace are recognised on the trade date, that is, the date that the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset.

Subsequent measurement

The subsequent measurement of financial assets depends on their classification as follows:

Financial assets at amortised cost (debt instruments)

Financial assets at amortised cost are subsequently measured using the effective interest method and are subject to impairment. Gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss when the asset is derecognised, modified or impaired.

Investments and other financial assets (Continued)

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss (structured deposits)

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are carried in the statement of financial position at fair value with net changes in fair value recognised in profit or loss.

Derecognition of financial assets

A financial asset (or, where applicable, a part of a financial asset or part of a group of similar financial assets) is primarily derecognised (i.e., removed from the Group's consolidated statement of financial position) when:

- the rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired; or
- the Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset or has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a "pass-through" arrangement; and either (a) the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, or (b) the Group has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset.

When the Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from an asset or has entered into a pass-through arrangement, it evaluates if, and to what extent, it has retained the risk and rewards of ownership of the asset. When it has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset nor transferred control of the asset, the Group continues to recognise the transferred asset to the extent of the Group's continuing involvement. In that case, the Group also recognises an associated liability. The transferred asset and the associated liability are measured on a basis that reflects the rights and obligations that the Group has retained.

Continuing involvement that takes the form of a guarantee over the transferred asset is measured at the lower of the original carrying amount of the asset and the maximum amount of consideration that the Group could be required to repay.

Impairment of financial assets

The Group recognises an allowance for expected credit losses ("ECLs") for all debt instruments not held at fair value through profit or loss. ECLs are based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the Group expects to receive, discounted at an approximation of the original effective interest rate. The expected cash flows will include cash flows from the sale of collateral held or other credit enhancements that are integral to the contractual terms.

General approach

ECLs are recognised in two stages. For credit exposures for which there has not been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, ECLs are provided for credit losses that result from default events that are possible within the next 12-months (a 12-month ECL). For those credit exposures for which there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, a loss allowance is required for credit losses expected over the remaining life of the exposure, irrespective of the timing of the default (a lifetime ECL).

At each reporting date, the Group assesses whether the credit risk on a financial instrument has increased significantly since initial recognition. When making the assessment, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the reporting date with the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the date of initial recognition and considers reasonable and supportable information that is available without undue cost or effort, including historical and forward-looking information. The Group considers that there has been a significant increase in credit risk when contractual payments are more than 30 days past due.

The Group considers a financial asset in default when contractual payments are 30 days past due. However, in certain cases, the Group may also consider a financial asset to be in default when internal or external information indicates that the Group is unlikely to receive the outstanding contractual amounts in full before taking into account any credit enhancements held by the Group.

A financial asset is written off when there is no reasonable expectation of recovering the contractual cash flows.

Financial assets at amortised cost are subject to impairment under the general approach and they are classified within the following stages for measurement of ECLs except for trade receivables which apply the simplified approach as detailed below.

- Stage 1 – Financial instruments for which credit risk has not increased significantly since initial recognition and for which the loss allowance is measured at an amount equal to 12-month ECLs
- Stage 2 – Financial instruments for which credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition but that are not credit-impaired financial assets and for which the loss allowance is measured at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs
- Stage 3 – Financial assets that are credit-impaired at the reporting date (but that are not purchased or originated credit-impaired) and for which the loss allowance is measured at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs

Simplified approach

For trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component or when the Group applies the practical expedient of not adjusting the effect of a significant financing component, the Group applies the simplified approach in calculating ECLs. Under the simplified approach, the Group does not track changes in credit risk, but instead recognises a loss allowance based on lifetime ECLs at each reporting date. The Group has established a provision matrix that is based on its historical credit loss experience, adjusted for forward-looking factors specific to the debtors and the economic environment.

Financial liabilities

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial liabilities are classified, at initial recognition, as loans and borrowings, or payables, as appropriate.

All financial liabilities are recognised initially at fair value and, in the case of loans and borrowings and payables, net of directly attributable transaction costs.

The Group's financial liabilities include trade and bills payables, other payables and accruals and interest-bearing bank and other borrowings.

Subsequent measurement

The subsequent measurement of financial liabilities depends on their classification as follows:

Financial liabilities at amortised cost (trade and other payables, and borrowings)

After initial recognition, trade and other payables, and interest-bearing borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost, using the effective interest rate method unless the effect of discounting would be immaterial, in which case they are stated at cost. Gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss when the liabilities are derecognised as well as through the effective interest rate amortisation process.

Amortised cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the effective interest rate. The effective interest rate amortisation is included in finance costs in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income.

2.4 MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Derecognition of financial liabilities

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled, or expires.

When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as a derecognition of the original liability and a recognition of a new liability, and the difference between the respective carrying amounts is recognised in profit or loss.

Offsetting of financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the statement of financial position if there is a currently enforceable legal right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis, or to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost is determined on the weighted average basis and, in the case of finished goods, comprises direct materials, direct labour and an appropriate proportion of overheads. Net realisable value is based on estimated selling prices less any estimated costs to be incurred to completion and disposal.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents in the statement of financial position comprise cash on hand and at banks, and short-term highly liquid deposits with a maturity of generally within three months that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash, subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value and held for the purpose of meeting short-term cash commitments.

For the purpose of the consolidated statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand and at banks, and short-term deposits as defined above, less bank overdrafts which are repayable on demand and form an integral part of the Group's cash management.

Provisions

A provision is recognised when a present obligation (legal or constructive) has arisen as a result of a past event and it is probable that a future outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, provided that a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

When the Group expects some or all of a provision to be reimbursed, the reimbursement is recognised as a separate asset, but only when the reimbursement is virtually certain. The expense relating to a provision is presented in the statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income net of any reimbursement.

Provisions (Continued)

When the effect of discounting is material, the amount recognised for a provision is the present value at the end of the reporting period of the future expenditures expected to be required to settle the obligation. The increase in the discounted present value amount arising from the passage of time is included in finance costs in the statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income.

Income tax

Income tax comprises current and deferred tax. Income tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss, either in other comprehensive income or directly in equity.

Current tax assets and liabilities are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period, taking into consideration interpretations and practices prevailing in the countries in which the Group operates.

Deferred tax is provided, using the liability method, on all temporary differences at the end of the reporting period between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes, except that deferred tax is not recognised for the Pillar Two income taxes.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences, except:

- when the deferred tax liability arises from the initial recognition of goodwill or an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss and does not give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences; and
- in respect of taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, when the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences can be controlled and it is probable that the temporary differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences, and the carryforward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses. Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, and the carryforward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilised, except:

- when the deferred tax asset relating to the deductible temporary differences arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss and does not give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences; and
- in respect of deductible temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, deferred tax assets are only recognised to the extent that it is probable that the temporary differences will reverse in the foreseeable future and taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

2. ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilised. Unrecognised deferred tax assets are reassessed at the end of each reporting period and are recognised to the extent that it has become probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the period when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset if and only if the Group has a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets and current tax liabilities and the deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority on either the same taxable entity or different taxable entities which intend either to settle current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis, or to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously, in each future period in which significant amounts of deferred tax liabilities or assets are expected to be settled or recovered.

Government grants

Government grants are recognised at their fair value where there is reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and all attaching conditions will be complied with. When the grant relates to an expense item, it is recognised as income on a systematic basis over the periods that the costs, for which it is intended to compensate, are expensed.

Where the grant relates to an asset, the fair value is credited to a deferred income account and is released to profit or loss over the expected useful life of the relevant asset by equal annual instalments or deducted from the carrying amount of the asset and released to profit or loss by way of a reduced depreciation charge.

Where the Group receives grants of non-monetary assets, the grants are recorded at the fair value of the non-monetary assets and released to profit or loss over the expected useful lives of the relevant assets by equal annual instalments.

Revenue recognition

Revenue from contracts with customers

Revenue from contracts with customers is recognised when control of goods or services is transferred to the customers at an amount that reflects the consideration to which the Group expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services.

When the consideration in a contract includes a variable amount, the amount of consideration is estimated to which the Group will be entitled in exchange for transferring the goods or services to the customer. The variable consideration is estimated at contract inception and constrained until it is highly probable that a significant revenue reversal in the amount of cumulative revenue recognised will not occur when the associated uncertainty with the variable consideration is subsequently resolved.

(a) Sale of raw milk

Revenue from the sale of raw milk is recognised at the point in time when control of the asset is transferred to the customer, generally on delivery of the raw milk.

Other income

Interest income is recognised on an accrual basis using the effective interest method by applying the rate that exactly discounts the estimated future cash receipts over the expected life of the financial instrument or a shorter period, when appropriate, to the net carrying amount of the financial asset.

Rental income is recognised on a time proportion basis over the lease terms. Variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or a rate are recognised as income in the accounting period in which they are incurred.

Contract liabilities

A contract liability is recognised when a payment is received or a payment is due (whichever is earlier) from a customer before the Group transfers the related goods or services. Contract liabilities are recognised as revenue when the Group performs under the contract (i.e., transfers control of the related goods or services to the customer).

Share-based payments

China Feihe Limited, the Company's holding company, operates a share option scheme. Employees (including directors) of the Group receive remuneration in the form of share-based payments, whereby employees render services in exchange for equity instruments ("equity-settled transactions"). The cost of equity-settled transactions with employees is measured by reference to the fair value at the date at which they are granted. The fair value is determined by an external valuer using a binomial model, further details of which are given in note 26 to the financial statements.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

The cost of equity-settled transactions is recognised in employee benefit expense, together with a corresponding increase in equity, over the period in which the performance and/or service conditions are fulfilled. The cumulative expense recognised for equity-settled transactions at the end of each reporting period until the vesting date reflects the extent to which the vesting period has expired and the Group's best estimate of the number of equity instruments that will ultimately vest. The charge or credit to profit or loss for a period represents the movement in the cumulative expense recognised as at the beginning and end of that period.

Service and non-market performance conditions are not taken into account when determining the grant date fair value of awards, but the likelihood of the conditions being met is assessed as part of the Group's best estimate of the number of equity instruments that will ultimately vest. Market performance conditions are reflected within the grant date fair value. Any other conditions attached to an award, but without an associated service requirement, are considered to be non-vesting conditions. Non-vesting conditions are reflected in the fair value of an award and lead to an immediate expensing of an award unless there are also service and/or performance conditions.

For awards that do not ultimately vest because non-market performance and/or service conditions have not been met, no expense is recognised. Where awards include a market or non-vesting condition, the transactions are treated as vesting irrespective of whether the market or non-vesting condition is satisfied, provided that all other performance and/or service conditions are satisfied.

Where the terms of an equity-settled award are modified, as a minimum an expense is recognised as if the terms had not been modified, if the original terms of the award are met. In addition, an expense is recognised for any modification that increases the total fair value of the share-based payments, or is otherwise beneficial to the employee as measured at the date of modification. Where an equity-settled award is cancelled, it is treated as if it had vested on the date of cancellation, and any expense not yet recognised for the award is recognised immediately. This includes any award where non-vesting conditions within the control of either the Group or the employee are not met. However, if a new award is substituted for the cancelled award, and is designated as a replacement award on the date that it is granted, the cancelled and new awards are treated as if they were a modification of the original award, as described in the previous paragraph.

Other employee benefits

Pension scheme

The employees of the Group's subsidiaries which operate in Chinese Mainland are required to participate in a central pension scheme operated by the local municipal government. These subsidiaries are required to contribute 16% of their payroll costs to the central pension scheme during the year ended 31 December 2023. The contributions are charged to profit or loss as they become payable in accordance with the rules of the central pension scheme.

2.4 MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets, i.e., assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are capitalised as part of the cost of those assets. The capitalisation of such borrowing costs ceases when the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale. All other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they are incurred. Borrowing costs consist of interest and other costs that an entity incurs in connection with the borrowing of funds.

Foreign currencies

These financial statements are presented in Renminbi (“RMB”). The Company’s functional currency is Hong Kong dollars (“HKD”). Each entity in the Group determines its own functional currency and items included in the financial statements of each entity are measured using that functional currency. Foreign currency transactions recorded by the entities in the Group are initially recorded using their respective functional currency rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the functional currency rates of exchange ruling at the end of the reporting period. Differences arising on settlement or translation of monetary items are recognised in profit or loss.

Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the dates of the initial transactions. Non-monetary items measured at fair value in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value was measured. The gain or loss arising on translation of a non-monetary item measured at fair value is treated in line with the recognition of the gain or loss on change in fair value of the item (i.e., translation difference on the item whose fair value gain or loss is recognised in other comprehensive income or profit or loss is also recognised in other comprehensive income or profit or loss, respectively).

In determining the exchange rate on initial recognition of the related asset, expense or income on the derecognition of a non-monetary asset or non-monetary liability relating to an advance consideration, the date of initial transaction is the date on which the Group initially recognises the non-monetary asset or non-monetary liability arising from the advance consideration. If there are multiple payments or receipts in advance, the Group determines the transaction date for each payment or receipt of the advance consideration.

The functional currencies of certain overseas subsidiaries are currencies other than RMB. As at the end of the reporting period, the assets and liabilities of these entities are translated into RMB at the exchange rates prevailing at the end of the reporting period and their statements of profit or loss are translated into RMB at the exchange rates that approximate to those prevailing at the dates of the transactions.

The resulting exchange differences are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in the exchange fluctuation reserve, except to the extent that the differences are attributable to non-controlling interests. On disposal of a foreign operation, the cumulative amount in the reserve relating to that particular foreign operation is recognised in profit or loss.

For the purpose of the consolidated statement of cash flows, the cash flows of overseas subsidiaries are translated into RMB at the exchange rates ruling at the dates of the cash flows. Frequently recurring cash flows of overseas subsidiaries which arise throughout the year are translated into RMB at the weighted average exchange rates for the year.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND ESTIMATES

The preparation of the Group's financial statements requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities, and their accompanying disclosures, and the disclosure of contingent liabilities. Uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in outcomes that could require a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of the assets or liabilities affected in the future.

Judgements

In the process of applying the Group's accounting policies, management has made the following judgements, apart from those involving estimations, which have the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the financial statements:

Property lease classification – Group as lessor

The Group has entered into commercial property leases on its investment property portfolio. The Group has determined, based on an evaluation of the terms and conditions of the arrangements, such as the lease term not constituting a major part of the economic life of the commercial property and the present value of the minimum lease payments not amounting to substantially all the fair value of the commercial property, that it retains substantially all the significant risks and rewards incidental to ownership of these properties which are leased out and accounts for the contracts as operating leases.

Estimation uncertainty

The key assumptions concerning the future and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of the reporting period, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year, are described below.

Provision for expected credit losses on trade receivables

The Group uses a provision matrix to calculate ECLs for trade receivables. The provision rates are based on days past due for groupings of various customer segments that have similar loss patterns (i.e., by geography, product type, customer type and rating, and coverage by letters of credit and other forms of credit insurance).

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND ESTIMATES (Continued)

Provision for expected credit losses on trade receivables (Continued)

The provision matrix is initially based on the Group's historical observed default rates. The Group will calibrate the matrix to adjust the historical credit loss experience with forward-looking information. For instance, if forecast economic conditions (i.e., gross domestic products) are expected to deteriorate over the next year which can lead to an increased number of defaults in the dairy product sector, the historical default rates are adjusted. At each reporting date, the historical observed default rates are updated and changes in the forward-looking estimates are analysed.

The assessment of the correlation among historical observed default rates, forecast economic conditions and ECLs is a significant estimate. The amount of ECLs is sensitive to changes in circumstances and forecast economic conditions. The Group's historical credit loss experience and forecast of economic conditions may also not be representative of a customer's actual default in the future. The information about the ECLs on the Group's trade receivables is disclosed in note 19 to the financial statements.

Leases – Estimating the incremental borrowing rate

The Group cannot readily determine the interest rate implicit in a lease, and therefore, it uses an incremental borrowing rate ("IBR") to measure lease liabilities. The IBR is the rate of interest that the Group would have to pay to borrow over a similar term, and with a similar security, the funds necessary to obtain an asset of a similar value to the right-of-use asset in a similar economic environment. The IBR therefore reflects what the Group "would have to pay", which requires estimation when no observable rates are available (such as for subsidiaries that do not enter into financing transactions) or when it needs to be adjusted to reflect the terms and conditions of the lease (for example, when leases are not in the subsidiary's functional currency). The Group estimates the IBR using observable inputs (such as market interest rates) when available and is required to make certain entity-specific estimates (such as the subsidiary's stand-alone credit rating).

Fair values of dairy cows and dairy goats

The Group's dairy cows and dairy goats are valued at fair value less costs to sell. The fair values of dairy cows and dairy goats are determined based on either the market-determined prices as at the end of each reporting period adjusted with reference to species, age, growing condition, cost incurred and expected yield of the milk to reflect differences in characteristics and/or stages of growth of dairy cows and dairy goats; or the present value of expected net cash flows from dairy cows discounted at a current market-determined rate, when market-determined prices are unavailable. Any changes in the estimates may affect the fair values of dairy cows and dairy goats significantly. The independent qualified professional valuer and management review the assumptions and estimates periodically to identify any significant change in fair values of dairy cows and dairy goats. Further details are given in note 17 to the financial statements.

Impairment of non-financial assets (other than goodwill)

The Group assesses whether there are any indicators of impairment for all non-financial assets (including the right-of-use assets) at the end of each reporting period. Non-financial assets are tested for impairment when there are indicators that the carrying amounts may not be recoverable. An impairment exists when the carrying value of an asset or a cash-generating unit exceeds its recoverable amount, which is the higher of its fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use. The calculation of the fair value less costs of disposal is based on available data from binding sales transactions in an arm's length transaction of similar assets or observable market prices less incremental costs for disposing of the asset. When value in use calculations are undertaken, management must estimate the expected future cash flows from the asset or cash-generating unit and choose a suitable discount rate in order to calculate the present value of those cash flows.

4. OPERATING SEGMENT INFORMATION

The Group is principally engaged in the production and sale of raw cow milk and goat milk. The two businesses are regarded as separate operating segments by the chief operating decision maker. As the operating segments have similar economic characteristics and both operating segments are similar in respect of the nature of products and service, the nature of production processes, the type or class of customers, the methods used to distribute the products or provide the service, and the nature of the regulatory environment, both operating segments are aggregated for financial reporting purposes. Accordingly, no operating segment information is presented.

The Group's revenue from external customers is derived solely from its operations in Chinese Mainland.

All external sales of milk produced by the Group during the year are attributable to customers located in Chinese Mainland.

All non-current assets were located in Chinese Mainland.

During the year, the Group made sales to major customers, the revenue from which individually contributed to more than 10% of the Group's total revenue for that year. The analysis for 2023 and 2022 is as follows:

At 31 December 2023, certain of the Group's buildings with a net carrying amount of approximately RMB27,626,000 (2022: Nil) were pledged to secure general banking facilities granted to the Group (note 23).

Impairment testing for long-lived assets

As at 31 December 2023, the carrying value of the long-lived assets of the goat CGU amounted to RMB107,298,000 (2022: RMB117,522,000). The goat CGU's long-lived assets consisted of property, plant and equipment, biological assets and right-of-use assets of RMB89,497,000, RMB17,486,000 and RMB315,000, respectively.

The recoverable amount was RMB17,486,000 which has been determined based on the higher of fair value less costs of disposal and value-in-use using cash flow projections based on financial budgets approved by management covering a five-year period. The recoverable amount was based on valuation performed by Jones Lang LaSalle Corporate Appraisal and Advisory Limited, an independent professional qualified valuer. The discount rate applied to the cash flow projections is 14% and cash flows beyond the five-year period were extrapolated using a growth rate of 3%.

The key assumptions on which management has based its cash flow projections to undertake impairment testing are as follows: (i) the expected average prices of goat milk are estimated after taking into account a growth rate of 3% for each projected year after considering future demand and inflation in Chinese Mainland; (ii) the expected feeding costs of goats are estimated based on past feeding cost and expectations for the population of goats; (iii) the average milk yield of each goat per day is estimated after taking into account a growth rate of 3% for each projected year based on historical milk producible data by a goat; (iv) the death rate; and (v) the discount rate is before tax and reflects specific risks relating to the relevant unit.

During the reporting period, by comparing the carrying value of the long-lived assets of the goat CGU with the recoverable amount, the Group provided impairment amounting to RMB89,497,000 (2022: Nil) and RMB315,000 (2022: Nil) related to property, plant and equipment and right-of-use assets of the goat CGU, respectively.

14. INVESTMENT PROPERTIES (Continued)

The Group's investment properties consist of several pieces of leased land in Jilin and Heilongjiang Province.

The Group's investment properties consist of revalued on 31 December 2023 based on valuations performed by Jones Lang LaSalle Corporate Appraisal and Advisory Limited ("JLL"), independent professionally qualified valuers, at RMB220,900,000. The investment properties are leased to third parties under operating leases, further summary details of which are included in note 15 to the financial statements.

Fair value hierarchy

The fair value measurement hierarchy of the Group's investment properties is as follows:

	2023 RMB'000	2022 RMB'000
Significant unobservable inputs:
Leased land (Level 3)	220,900	113,000

During the year, there were no transfers into or out of Level 3 (2022: Nil).

The investment properties are measured initially at cost less accumulated depreciation and provision for any impairment in value.

Below is a summary of the valuation techniques used and the key inputs to the valuation of investment properties:

	Valuation techniques	Significant unobservable inputs
Leased land	Discounted cash flow method	Discount rate

Under the discounted cash flow method, fair value is estimated using assumptions regarding the benefits and liabilities of ownership over the asset's life including an exit or terminal value. This method involves the projection of a series of cash flows on a property interest. A market-derived discount rate is applied to the projected cash flow in order to establish the present value of the income stream associated with the asset. The exit yield is normally separately determined and differs from the discount rate.

The duration of the cash flows and the specific timing of inflows and outflows are determined by events such as rent reviews, lease renewal and related reletting, redevelopment or refurbishment. The appropriate duration is driven by market behaviour that is a characteristic of the class of property. The periodic cash flow is estimated as gross income less vacancy, non-recoverable expenses, collection losses, lease incentives, maintenance costs, agent and commission costs and other operating and management expenses. The series of periodic net operating income, along with an estimate of the terminal value anticipated at the end of the projection period, is then discounted.

(d) The total cash outflow for leases is disclosed in notes 28(c) to the financial statements.

The Group as a lessor

The Group leases its investment properties (note 14) consisting of several leased land in Jilin and Heilongjiang Province under operating lease arrangements. The terms of the leases generally require the tenants to make lump sum upfront rental payments. Rental income recognised by the Group during the year was RMB52,196,000 (2022: RMB21,026,000), details of which are included in note 5 to the consolidated financial statements.

16. PREPAYMENTS, OTHER RECEIVABLES AND OTHER ASSETS

	2023 RMB'000	2022 RMB'000
Prepayments	74,997	274,042
Other receivables	7,258	4,107
Total	82,255	278,149
Non-current portion	(73,083)	(271,571)
Current portion	9,172	6,578

Other receivables mainly represent receivables from purchasers of dairy cows and interest receivables. Where applicable, an impairment analysis is performed at each reporting date by considering the probability of default of comparable companies with published credit ratings. In the situation where no comparable companies with credit ratings can be identified, expected credit losses are estimated by applying a loss rate approach with reference to the historical loss record of the Group. The loss rate is adjusted to reflect the current conditions and forecasts of future economic conditions, as appropriate.

None of above assets is either past due or impaired.

The financial assets included in the above balances relate to receivables for which there was no recent history of default and past due amounts. As at 31 December 2023 and 2022, the loss allowance was assessed to be minimal.

17. BIOLOGICAL ASSETSA – Nature of activities

Dairy cows and dairy goats owned by the Group are primarily held to produce milk.

The quantity of dairy cows owned by the Group at 31 December 2023 and 2022 is shown below. The Group's dairy cows contain heifers and calves and milkable cows. Heifers and calves held at 31 December 2023 and 2022 are dairy cows that have not had their first calves.

	2023	2022
	Heads	Heads
Dairy cows
Heifers and calves	62,636	49,202
Milkable cows	39,861	40,235
Total dairy cows	102,497	89,437

The Group is exposed to fair value risks arising from changes in price of the dairy products. The Group does not anticipate that the price of the dairy products will decline significantly in the foreseeable future and the directors of the Company are of the view that there are no available derivative or other contracts which the Group can enter into to manage the risk of a decline in the price of the dairy products.

In general, the heifers are inseminated with semen when they reach approximately 16 months old. After approximately nine months following a successful insemination, a calf is born and the dairy cow begins to produce raw milk and the lactation period begins. A milkable cow is typically milked for approximately 305 days before an approximately 60 days' dry period.

When a heifer begins to produce milk, it would be transferred to the category of milkable cows based on the estimated fair value on the date of transfer. The sale of dairy cows is not one of the Group's principal activities and the proceeds are not included as revenue.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

17. BIOLOGICAL ASSETS (Continued)

The quantity of dairy goats owned by the Group as at 31 December 2023 is shown below. The Group's dairy goats contain lambs, young goats and milkable goats. Lambs and young goats held at 31 December 2023 are dairy goats that have not had their first lambs.

	2023 Heads	2022 Heads
Dairy goats
Lambs and young goats	1,495	1,491
Milkable goats	3,257	4,482
Total dairy goats	4,752	5,973

The Group is exposed to fair value risks arising from changes in the prices of the dairy goats. The fair value of the dairy goats is determined with reference to the market prices of items with similar age, breed and genetic merit. There is an active market for dairy goats in the Chinese Mainland.

The Group is exposed to a number of risks related to its biological assets as follows:

(i) Regulatory and environment risks

The Group is subject to laws and regulations in the location in which it operates breeding. The Group has established environmental policies and procedures aimed at compliance with local environmental and other laws. Management performs regular reviews to identify environmental risks and to ensure that the systems in place are adequate to manage these risks.

(ii) Climate, disease and other natural risks

The Group's biological assets are exposed to the risk of damage from climatic changes, diseases and other natural forces. The Group has extensive processes in place aimed at monitoring and mitigating those risks, including regular inspections and disease controls and surveys and insurance.

Balance as at 31 December 2023	5,389	12,097	17,486

At 31 December 2023, certain of the Group's dairy cows with a carrying amount of approximately RMB391,283,000 (2022: Nil) were pledged to secure general banking facilities granted to the Group (note 23).

The Group's dairy cows and dairy goats in Chinese Mainland were independently valued by Jones Lang LaSalle Corporate Appraisal and Advisory Limited ("JLL"), a firm of independent qualified professional valuers not connected with the Group, who has appropriate qualifications and recent experiences in the valuation of biological assets. The fair value less costs to sell of the heifers and calves and dairy goats are determined with reference to the market prices of items with similar age, breed and genetic merit, if the market prices are available. There is no active market for milkable cows in the Chinese Mainland market. An arm's length negotiation price in Chinese Mainland might deviate from an overseas market price because of transportation costs, administrative costs and other factors. Due to the fact that the market prices of milkable cows are not available, JLL has applied the net present value approach to calculate the fair value less costs to sell of these items.

The principal valuation assumptions adopted in applying the net present value approach are as follows:

- The quantities of the existing dairy cows at the end of the year will reduce at a certain culling rate due to natural or unnatural factors.
- The culling rates adopted are 10%, 13%, 15%, 23%, 35% and 100% for milkable cows in the first to sixth lactation cycles. These rates are based on the historical breeding data of the Group and future operating plans.
- The average milk yield of each cow per day ranges from 26.25 to 28.21 kg during the projected period of six lactation cycles, which is the estimated amount of milk producible by a cow.
- The expected average prices of milk during the projected period of six lactation cycles, which is the estimated production period of a dairy cow, are estimated after taking into account 3% of growth for each projected year after considering future demand and inflation in Chinese Mainland.
- The cash flows for financing the assets and taxation are not included in accordance with IAS 41 Agriculture.
- Costs are average costs based on historical cost information and taking into account a 3% growth for each projected year after considering future supply and inflation in Chinese Mainland.
- The discount rate used was 13.0% (2022: 14.0%) for the year ended 31 December 2023.
- Contributory assets include working capital, plant, property and equipment, and assembled workforce. The rates of return on the respective contributory assets were 3.45% (2022: 3.65%), 4.20% (2022: 4.30%), and 13.0% (2022: 14.0%), respectively, for the year ended 31 December 2023.

The principal valuation assumption adopted in measuring the fair value of heifers and calves and dairy goats are as follows:

- The average market price of a heifer of 14 months old was RMB19,800 (2022: RMB20,400) for the year ended 31 December 2023 and the average feeding cost per day of each calf and heifer was RMB40.07.
- The average market price of a milkable goat and imported young goat was RMB3,067 (2022: RMB2,750) and RMB12,082 (2022: RMB12,067), respectively, for the year ended 31 December 2023.

19. TRADE RECEIVABLES

	2023 RMB'000	2022 RMB'000
Trade receivables	82,593	26,017

The Group's trading terms with its customers are mainly on credit. The credit period is generally one month. The Group seeks to maintain strict control over its outstanding receivables and has a credit control department to minimise credit risk. Overdue balances are reviewed regularly by senior management. In view of the aforementioned and the fact that the Group's trade receivables relate to a few numbers of customers, there is a concentration of credit risk as disclosed in note 34 to the financial statements. The Group does not hold any collateral or other credit enhancements over its trade receivable balances. Trade receivables are non-interest-bearing.

An ageing analysis of the trade receivables as at the end of each reporting period, based on the invoice date, is as follows:

	2023 RMB'000	2022 RMB'000
Within 1 month	82,563	25,828

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

19. TRADE RECEIVABLES (Continued)

No loss allowance for impairment of trade receivables for each of the reporting periods was made.

An impairment analysis is performed at each reporting date using a provision matrix to measure expected credit losses. The provision rates are based on days past due for groupings of various customer segments with similar loss patterns (i.e. by geographical region, product type, customer type and rating, and coverage by letters of credit or other forms of credit insurance). The calculation reflects the probability-weighted outcome, the time value of money and reasonable and supportable information that is available at the reporting date about past events, current conditions and forecasts of future economic conditions. Generally, trade receivables are written off if past due for more than one year and are not subject to enforcement activity.

20. CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS, TIME DEPOSITS AND RESTRICTED CASH

Restricted cash	(37,547)	–
Cash and cash equivalents	959,068	576,309

At the end of the reporting period, the cash and bank balances of the Group denominated in RMB amounted to RMB501,460,000 (2022: RMB258,696,000). The RMB is not freely convertible into other currencies, however, under Chinese Mainland's Foreign Exchange Control Regulations and Administration of Settlement, and Sale and Payment of Foreign Exchange Regulations, the Group is permitted to exchange RMB for other currencies through banks authorised to conduct foreign exchange business.

Cash at banks earns interest at floating rates based on daily bank deposit rates. Short term time deposits are made for varying periods between one month and three months depending on the immediate cash requirements of the Group, and earn interest at the respective time deposit rates. The bank balances are deposited with creditworthy banks with no recent history of default.

Restricted cash represents guaranteed deposits pledged to the banks for issuance of trade facilities, such as guaranteed deposits for bank acceptance bills. Such restricted cash will be released when the Group repays the related trade facilities.

21. TRADE AND BILLS PAYABLES

An ageing analysis of the Trade and bills payables as at the end of the reporting period, based on the invoice date, is as follows:

	2023 RMB'000	2022 RMB'000

Government grants are recognised as income over the period necessary to match the grant on a systematic basis to the costs and expenses that they are intended to compensate on over the weighted average of the expected useful life of the relevant property, plant and equipment.

For presentation purposes, certain deferred tax assets and liabilities have been offset in the statement of financial position. The following is an analysis of the deferred tax balances of the Group for financial reporting purposes:

	2023 RMB'000	2022 RMB'000
Net deferred tax liabilities recognised in the consolidated statement of financial position	1,820	–

The Group has tax losses arising in Chinese Mainland of RMB3,695,000 (2022: RMB11,543,000) that will expire in one to five years for offsetting against future taxable profits.

24. DEFERRED TAX (Continued)Deferred tax assets (Continued)

Deferred tax assets have not been recognised in respect of these losses as they have arisen in subsidiaries that have been loss-making for some time and it is not considered probable that taxable profits will be available against which the tax losses can be utilised.

The Group is liable for withholding taxes on dividends distributed by those subsidiaries established in Chinese Mainland in respect of earnings generated from 1 January 2008. The applicable rate is 5% or 10% for the Group.

As at 31 December 2023, no deferred tax has been recognised for withholding taxes that would be payable on the unremitted earnings that are subject to withholding taxes of the Group's subsidiaries established in Chinese Mainland. In the opinion of the directors, it is not probable that these subsidiaries will distribute such earnings in the foreseeable future. The aggregate amount of temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries in Chinese Mainland for which deferred tax liabilities have not been recognised totalled approximately RMB160,712,000 at 31 December 2023 (2022: RMB158,338,000).

There are no income tax consequences attaching to the payment of dividends by the Company to its shareholders.

The fair value of the share options granted during the year ended 31 December 2022 as estimated as at the date of grant using a binomial model, taking into account the terms and conditions upon which the options were granted. The following table lists the inputs to the model used:

Dividend yield (%)	6.50
Expected volatility (%)	42.17
Risk-free interest rate (%)	1.57

The expected volatility reflects the assumption that the historical volatility of comparable companies in the same industry is indicative of future trends, which may also not necessarily be the actual outcome. No other feature of the options granted was incorporated into the measurement of fair value.

33. FAIR VALUE AND FAIR VALUE HIERARCHY OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The carrying amounts and fair values of the Group's financial instruments, other than those with carrying amounts that reasonably approximate to fair values, are as follows:

	Carrying amounts		Fair values
	2023 RMB'000	2022 RMB'000	2023 RMB'000	2022 RMB'000
Financial liabilities
Interest-bearing bank and other borrowings	1,347,676	836,534	1,346,980	836,177

Management has assessed that the fair values of cash and cash equivalents, time deposits, restricted cash, trade receivables, financial assets included in prepayments, other receivables and other assets, trade and bills payables and financial liabilities included in other payables and accruals approximate to their carrying amounts largely due to the short term maturities of these instruments.

33. FAIR VALUE AND FAIR VALUE HIERARCHY OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS(Continued)

The fair values of the non-current portion of interest-bearing bank and other borrowings have been calculated by discounting the expected future cash flows using rates currently available for instruments with similar terms, credit risk and remaining maturities. The changes in fair value as a result of the Group's own non-performance risk for interest-bearing bank and other borrowings as at 31 December 2023 and 2022 were assessed to be insignificant.

Fair value hierarchy

The following tables illustrate the fair value measurement hierarchy of the Group's financial instruments:

Liabilities for which fair values are disclosed:

	Fair value measurement using			Total RMB'000
	Quoted prices in active markets (Level 1) RMB'000	Significant observable inputs (Level 2) RMB'000	Significant unobservable inputs (Level 3) RMB'000

At 31 December 2022

The Group did not have any financial assets or financial liabilities measured at fair value as at 31 December 2023 (2022: Nil).

During the year, there were no transfers of fair value measurements between Level 1 and Level 2 and no transfers into or out of Level 3 for financial assets and financial liabilities (2022: Nil).

34. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES

The Group's principal financial instruments comprise bank loans, cash and cash equivalents, time deposits and restricted cash. The main purpose of these financial instruments is to raise finance for the Group's operations. The Group has various other financial assets and liabilities such as trade receivables and Trade and bills payables, which arise directly from its operations.

The main risks arising from the Group's financial instruments are interest rate risk, foreign currency risk, credit risk and liquidity risk. The board of directors reviews and agrees policies for managing each of these risks and they are summarised below.

Interest rate risk

The Group's exposure to the risk of changes in market interest rates relates primarily to the Group's cash and bank balances and interest-bearing bank borrowings with floating interest rates. The Group has not used any interest rate swaps to hedge its interest rate risk, and will consider hedging significant interest rate risk should the need arise.

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity to a reasonably possible change in interest rates, with all other variables held constant, of the Group's profit before tax.

	Increase/ (decrease) in basis points	2023 Increase/ (decrease) in profit before tax RMB'000	Increase/ (decrease) in basis points	2022 Increase/ (decrease) in profit before tax RMB'000
RMB	100	(2,514)	100	(4,959)
HKD	100	23	100	176
USD	100	78	100	39
RMB	(100)	2,514	(100)	4,959
HKD	(100)	(23)	(100)	(176)
USD	(100)	(78)	(100)	(39)

Foreign currency risk

The Group has transactional currency exposures. Such exposures arise from cash and cash equivalents and time deposits held by operating units in currencies other than the units' functional currencies. Approximately 49% (2022: 66%) of the Group's cash and cash equivalents and time deposits were denominated in currencies other than the functional currency of the operating units.

34. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES (Continued)Foreign currency risk (Continued)

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity at the end of the reporting period to a reasonably possible change in the HKD and the United States dollars (“USD”) exchange rates, with all other variables held constant, of the Group’s profit before tax (arising from HKD and USD denominated financial instruments).

	2023		2022
	Increase/ (decrease) in foreign currency rate	Increase/ (decrease) in profit before tax RMB'000	Increase/ (decrease) in foreign currency rate	Increase/ (decrease) in profit before tax RMB'000

If RMB weakens against USD	3%	14,559	3%	15,911
If RMB strengthens against USD	(3%)	(14,559)	(3%)	(15,911)

Credit risk

The Group trades only with recognised and creditworthy third parties. It is the Group’s policy that all customers who wish to trade on credit terms are subject to credit verification procedures. In addition, receivable balances are monitored on an ongoing basis and the Group’s exposure to bad debts is not significant.

Maximum exposure and year-end staging

The table below shows the credit quality and the maximum exposure to credit risk based on the Group’s credit policy, which is mainly based on past due information unless other information is available without undue cost or effort, and year-end staging classification as at 31 December.

- * For trade receivables to which the Group applies the simplified approach for impairment, information based on the provision matrix is disclosed in note 19 to the financial statements.
-  The credit quality of the financial assets included in prepayments, other receivables and other assets is considered to be “normal” when they are not past due and there is no information indicating that the financial assets had a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition. Otherwise, the credit quality of the financial assets is considered to be “doubtful”.

Further quantitative data in respect of the Group’s exposure to credit risk arising from trade receivables are disclosed in note 19 to the financial statements.

Since the Group trades only with recognised and creditworthy third parties, there is no requirement for collateral.

At the end of the reporting period, the Group had certain concentrations of credit risk as 99.8% (2022: 66.0%) of the Group’s trade receivables were due from the Group’s two largest customers. Concentrations of credit risk are managed by establishing credit verification procedures. Management determines that there are minimal concentrations of credit risk within the Group as the customers of the Group’s trade receivables are recognised and creditworthy.
