While the Group has continued to expand the local Hong Kong market, it has identified new business opportunities, explored new tracks, developed new forms of business, and actively sought new drivers for profit growth.

Chairman's Statement

Innovating business model, upgrading logistics industry. In 2023, the Group delved into the potential of the Modular Integrated Construction (“MIC”) transportation and construction logistics market, successfully winning bids for a number of construction projects. The start of operations for the land transport of cross-border e-commerce business in February added new impetus for the Group to expand new markets and explore new customers. Moreover, the Group innovatively initiated the same-vessel shipping model for combining domestic and foreign trade container shipments to promote high-quality, integrated development of domestic and foreign trade businesses. During the year, the Group also overcame the adverse impact of weakened overseas demand, smoothly developed the cross-border railway transportation business, successfully undertook the freight cargo businesses of drones from well-known technology companies, and actively prepared for the construction of a logistics network in Vietnam.

The Group's multiple cross-border waterway passenger transportation routes across Guangdong-Hong Kong and Hong Kong-Macao have resumed in an orderly manner following the resumption of normal traveller clearance. Three new routes, including “Shenzhen Airport Ferry Terminal-China Ferry Terminal”, “Guangzhou Pazhou-China Ferry Terminal” and “Guangzhou Pazhou-Hong Kong International Airport” have been launched. SIGNIFICANT RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

The operating results, financial position, business and corporate prospects of the Group may be affected by various risks and uncertainties. The followings are the significant risks and uncertainties identified by the Group. Save as disclosed below, other risks that may become significant in the future but are unknown to the Group or are currently insignificant may exist.

I. Fluctuating Demand and Market Risk

Affected by the downward trend in the global economy, the worldwide navigation market is widely expected to remain subdued. In 2023, the recovery of global economy was impeded by the impacts of geopolitical conflicts and energy crises, leading to a significant decline in the navigation market compared to 2022. Against this backdrop, demand for global navigation in 2024 is anticipated to persist at the subdued levels observed in 2023. Compounded by increasing uncertainty, the negative effects of extreme weather events, escalating geopolitical disputes, and the imposition of carbon taxes by European Union on the navigation sector, the global navigation market is expected to continue experiencing pressure and volatility.

In the cargoes transportation business, as one of the largest river trade cargo terminal operators in the Greater Bay Area, the Group has expected to confront challenges arising from further declines in demand for navigation logistics business, an absence of underlying support for increased freight rate, and intensified competition at river terminals. These factors lead to a situation where the benefits of economies of scale are insignificant, and the core business encounters considerable challenges in its upgrades and transformation.

To cope with the risks, the Group has committed to actively promoting the high-end transformation and upgrading of the businesses, aiming to expand its core scale of the cargo terminals, navigation and storage businesses within the Greater Bay Area. On one hand, the Group has vigorously promoted the development of high-end storage business, focusing on establishing strategic storage logistics hubs centred around Hong Kong and Zhuhai, and deploying a number of comprehensive or specialised logistics parks and logistics centres as carrier platforms. On the other hand, the Group has extended the logistics service supply chain, fostered new core businesses, and robustly promoted modern logistics services, including air freight logistics, supply chain logistics, cold chain distribution, and duty-free product storage, etc., in order to establish a comprehensive supply chain logistics network.

Report of the Directors

In the passenger transportation business, as one of the largest waterway passenger service providers in the Greater Bay Area, the Group anticipated challenges stemming from the ongoing erosion of its core competitive advantage by land and air transportation alternatives, as well as intensified competition within the industry. Among these, the cross-border waterway passenger business was the most affected facing a conundrum of market contraction following the resumption of normal traveller clearance, with an inability to revert to pre-pandemic levels in the short term. Currently, the Group's cross-border waterway passenger business has been actively implementing measures to mitigate losses and still has a significant reliance on government subsidies.

To better address market risks, the Group will continue to fortify its coordination and control capabilities over passenger transportation terminals and the corresponding production factors in order to deepen integrated operation of cross-border passenger transportation. Firstly, this will involve rational coordination and planning of route layouts, the establishment of a new media marketing network, and the provision of one-stop ticket sales services to gradually enhance the comprehensive influence and conversion rate of the "Cross-border+" passenger transport product system. Secondly, the Group will further reduce operating costs and streamline management processes to improve levels of intensive control and operational efficiency. Thirdly, the Group will enhance route evaluations, make effective use of subsidies, and dynamically adjust strategies with flexibility. Additionally, the Group is working through multi-dimensional channels to add entry and exit channels at the SkyPier at Hong Kong International Airport, thereby developing new potential routes for cross-border passenger transportation.

II. Competitive Risk

Competitive risks faced by the Group are mainly reflected in two aspects. The first aspect is the further intensified disorderly competition. There are many cargo terminals in the Greater Bay Area city cluster hosting various kinds of terminal business. Large central enterprises and local enterprises possess stake holdings or controlling stakes in core terminals; under collectivised operation, some companies are willing to boost development in other businesses at the expense of profitability of their terminal business, and thus intensify competition in the industry. The second aspect is fierce competition in extension of terminal business. The efficiency of tractor and barge operations has seriously undermined competitiveness of the terminals, while some ports provide subsidies for cargo tractors and barges, thereby also undermine competitiveness of the Group's terminal business in the region.

To cope with these risks, the Group has primarily adopted the following measures. Firstly, the Group will restructure operations at core terminals by incorporating elements associated with various modes of transportation. This includes providing key freight logistics information and comprehensive logistics solutions, with the aim of extending trade and industry services. This initiative is designed to transform terminals from single logistics points into sophisticated and integrated logistics hubs. Secondly, the Group will optimise the freight and barge route network, with a focus on improving economic efficiency at terminals which are not directly operated by the Group. For those non-Group terminals that have a stable and sufficient flow of goods, along with convenient access to transportation networks, the routes shall be consolidated to amplify their economies of scale. Thirdly, the Group will strategically focus on enhancing the capabilities in modern logistics. By targeting project logistics and the transport of oversized cargo as entry points, the Group aims to improve the comprehensive service abilities across the entire logistics chain with the intention to expand the range of modern logistics services and coverage provided to customers, which in turn broadens business channels, strengthen customer retention, and increase market share of the Group in the logistics market.

III. Investment Risk

The Group's business investment is mainly focused on Guangdong, Hong Kong and Macao. In the future, the investment will gradually radiate to Southeast Asia, the Group has already commenced network business in Singapore, Malaysia and Vietnam. With further implementation and advancement of the Regional Comprehensive Economic Partnership Agreement, the Group will continue to strengthen its investment in the freight transportation businesses in relevant countries, and will strengthen its investment risk assessment in these relevant countries. Investments in projects in the Mainland China and Hong Kong are more influenced by overall economic environment, meanwhile as rules and regulations are continuously improving in the Mainland China, new investment projects will be more influenced by policies and local cooperation units, the Group is committed to conducting a comprehensive assessment of the risks involved.

IV. Human Resources Risk

In recent years, the Group's main business has been seriously affected by the overall economic and market environment, resulting in a contraction of its business. This trend has resulted in a relatively low overall salary level in the industry, which is not conducive to the healthy development of human resources as a whole, especially, there is a significant shortage of ship crews, equipment handlers, and senior management personnel, which has made recruiting new staff difficult and has led to a high turnover rate.

Major preventive measures to be implemented by the Group: Firstly, the Group is committed to enhance the standard of human resources management, which includes strengthening regional human resources management, improving internal work communication between employees, and enhancing job skills. Secondly, the Group will continuously optimise remuneration management system, which includes improving the remuneration system, insisting to conduct performance appraisal management, and continuing to broaden the promotion path for employees in order to stimulate employee motivation. Thirdly, the Group will take steps to strengthen staff training, to pay attention to pre-service training for new employees, and to enhance quality and practical training for skilled personnel; meanwhile the Group will also take steps to pay attention to employees' personal career development, and carry out talent reserve and talent ladder in an orderly manner. Fourthly, the Group is committed to enhancing its brand reputation through vigorous promotion, leveraging a positive corporate image and a broad development platform to increase the Group's attractiveness to key talent.

V. Funding Risk

The day-to-day operations and investment activities of the Group's subsidiaries are currently concentrated in Guangdong Province, Hong Kong, and Macao, with operating revenues and expenses mainly denominated in HKD, as well as in RMB and USD. The RMB revenue received from Mainland China may be used for payment of Group expenses incurred in the Mainland China denominated in RMB, while the HKD and USD revenue received in Mainland China may be remitted to the Group's bank accounts in Hong Kong through proper procedure as planned. In the short term, the Group will not be subject to significant foreign exchange risks as long as the linked exchange rate system in Hong Kong remains unchanged.

As the regulatory authorities in Mainland China continuously tightened the regulation magnitude on the remittance of funds abroad, the remittance of funds abroad is anticipated to be delayed. To mitigate financial risks in a timely manner, the Group will continue to maintain good communication with banks, keep abreast of policy directions and get well prepared in advance. At the same time, under the guidance of the Group, subsidiaries are required to make a sufficient risk assessment on the financing size, method, and channel in the process thereof. The Group will, when appropriate, increase the registered capital to certain companies, considering it in conjunction with strategic investment and development, so as to effectively reduce the financing cost.

CONTINUING CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS (THE "CCT")

1. Master Passenger Transportation Agency Services Agreement

On 30 November 2021, the Company (on behalf of the Group, as a service provider) entered into a master passenger transportation agency services agreement (the "Master Passenger Transportation Agency Services Agreement") with GDPS (the Company's parent company, on behalf of the GDPS Group, as a service recipient), in respect of any member of the Group agree to accept the appointment of any member of the GDPS (as an agent or operator and/or owner of the passenger ferry services) as the exclusive agent/sub-agent of the Group's waterway passenger transportation business in Hong Kong (for routes to and from Hong Kong and Pearl River Delta region). Waterway passenger agency services include (i) ferry operation agency service; (ii) ticketing agency service; (iii) ferry berthing agency service and (iv) ferry technical support agency service.

The term of the Master Passenger Transportation Agency Services Agreement is three years from 1 January 2022 to 31 December 2024. The service fee charged by the Group for the provision of passenger transportation agency services for ferries operated by GDPS is based on a percentage of ticket sales, and taking into account of the cost of providing ticketing services, and the cost of passenger handling services (including passenger arrival and departure services and security checks), the cost of ferry (including the arrangement of regular maintenance and emergency ad hoc repairing services to ferries in Hong Kong), the cost of providing relevant facilities, and the cost of labour incurred by the Group in providing ground services plus a profit margin to be agreed. In order to ensure that the terms and profit margins for the provision of services are in line with the prevailing market rates and market terms, the Group will consider at least two quotations for service charges offered to other ferry operators (who are independent third parties berthing at the same terminal and require similar passenger transportation agency services from the Group) as a reference. The service fees offered by the Group shall be no more favourable than the service fees offered by the Group to other independent third parties for similar services. The annual caps of the Master Passenger Transportation Agency Services Agreement for the years ended 31 December 2022, 2023, and 2024 are HK$9,000,000, HK$12,000,000 and HK$15,000,000 respectively. At the same time, such member of the Group and local ferries would acquire from any member of the GDPS Group the regular maintenance and repairing and emergency ad hoc repairing services under the Master Ferry Technical Support Agency Services Agreement.

The term of the Master Ferry Technical Support Agency Services Agreement is three years from 1 January 2022 to 31 December 2024. In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 31 December 2023 and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards ("HKFRSs") issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("HKICPA") and have been properly prepared in compliance with the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing ("HKSAs") issued by the HKICPA. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the HKICPA's Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants ("the Code") and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Independent Auditor's Report

In addition, goodwill impairment assessment is performed by management annually whether or not there is any indication of impairment. In performing impairment assessments, management compared carrying value of each of the separately identifiable cash-generating units ("CGU") with respective recoverable amount, being the higher of fair value less costs of disposal and value in use, to determine the amount of impairment loss, if any. Fair value less costs of disposal is assessed based on independent valuations prepared by a firm of qualified external valuers and value in use is assessed based on a discounted cash flow forecast prepared by management.	Our audit procedures to assess impairment of PP&E, land use rights, software and goodwill included the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• obtaining and inspecting the valuation reports prepared by the external valuers engaged by management and on which the directors' assessment of the fair values of respective assets was based;• assessing the external valuers' qualifications, experience and expertise in the assets being valued and considering their objectivity;• evaluating the external valuers' valuation methodology and challenging the key estimates and assumptions adopted in the valuations, by comparison with available market data and/or government produced market statistics;• assessing the management's evaluation of indicators of impairment, identification of CGU, the allocation of PP&E, land use rights, software and goodwill to each CGU and the methodology adopted by management in the preparation of the discounted cash flow forecasts with reference to our understanding of the Group's business and the requirements of prevailing accounting standards;

Key Audit Matter	How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter

INFORMATION OTHER THAN THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND AUDITOR'S REPORT THEREON

The directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises all the information included in the annual report, other than the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Independent Auditor's Report

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE DIRECTORS FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The directors are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with HKFRSs issued by the HKICPA and the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The directors are assisted by the Audit Committee in discharging their responsibilities for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. This report is made solely to you, as a body, in accordance with Section 405 of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSAAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSAAs, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.

Independent Auditor's Report

- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Audit Committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the Audit Committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence and communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence and, where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with the Audit Committee, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Pang Chi Wai, Aaron.

2 SUMMARY OF MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

This note provides a list of the material accounting policies adopted in the preparation of these financial statements. These policies have been consistently applied to all years presented, unless otherwise stated. The consolidated financial statements are for the Group consisting of Chu Kong Shipping Enterprises (Group) Company Limited and its subsidiaries.

2.1 Basis of preparation

- (i) The consolidated financial statements of the Group have been prepared in accordance with all applicable Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards (“HKFRSs”), which collective term includes all applicable individual Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards, Hong Kong Accounting Standards (“HKASs”) and Interpretations issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (“HKICPA”) and the requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance (“HKCO”). These financial statements also comply with the applicable disclosure provisions of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited. Material accounting policies adopted by the Group are disclosed below.

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis, except that the following assets is stated at its fair value as explained in the accounting policies set out below:

- financial asset at fair value through other comprehensive income (see note 2.9)

Notes to the Financial Statements

(Expressed in Hong Kong dollars unless otherwise indicated)

2 SUMMARY OF MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with HKFRSs requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of policies and reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis of making the judgements about carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

Judgements made by management in the application of HKFRSs that have significant effect on the financial statements and major sources of estimation uncertainty are discussed in note 4.

(ii) Changes in accounting policies

The HKICPA has issued the following new and amended HKFRSs that are first effective for the current account period of the Group:

- HKFRS 17, Insurance contracts
- Amendments to HKAS 8, Accounting policies, changes in accounting estimates and errors: Definition of accounting estimates
- Amendments to HKAS 1, Presentation of financial statements and HKFRS Practice Statement 2, Making materiality judgements: Disclosure of accounting policies
- Amendments to HKAS 12, Income taxes: Deferred tax related to assets and liabilities arising from a single transaction
- Amendments to HKAS 12, Income taxes: International tax reform – Pillar Two model rules

None of these development have had a material effect on how the Group's result and financial position for the current or prior periods have been prepared or presented. The Group has not applied any new standard or interpretation that is not yet effective for the current accounting period.

(iii) New HKICPA guidance on the accounting implications of the abolition of the MPF-LSP offsetting mechanism

In July 2023, the HKICPA published Accounting implications of the abolition of the mandatory provident fund ("MPF")-long service payment ("LSP") offsetting mechanism in Hong Kong that provides accounting guidance relating to the offsetting mechanism and the abolition of the mechanism.

To better reflect the substance of the abolition of the offsetting mechanism, the Group has changed its accounting policy in connection with its LSP liability and has applied the above HKICPA guidance retrospectively. This change in accounting policy did not have any material impact on the opening balance of equity at 1 January 2022 and 2023, and the cash flows and earnings per share amounts for the years ended 31 December 2022 and 2023. It also did not have a material impact on the company-level statement of financial position as at 31 December 2022 and 2023.

(iv) Possible impact of amendments, new standards and interpretations issued but not yet effective for the year ended 31 December 2023

Up to the date of issue of these financial statements, the HKICPA has issued a number of new and amended standards, which are not yet effective for the year ended 31 December 2023 and which have not been adopted in these financial statements. These developments include the following which may be relevant to the Group.

	Effective for accounting periods beginning on or after
Amendments to HKAS 1, Presentation of financial statements: Classification of liabilities as current or non-current ("2020 amendments")	1 January 2024
Amendments to HKAS 1, Presentation of financial statements: Non-current liabilities with covenants ("2022 amendments")	1 January 2024
Amendments to HKFRS 16, Leases: Lease liability in a sale and leaseback	1 January 2024
Amendments to HKAS 7, Statement of cash flows and HKFRS 7, Financial Instruments: Disclosures: Supplier finance arrangements	1 January 2024
Amendments to HKAS 21, The effects of changes in foreign exchange rates: Lack of exchangeability	1 January 2025

The Group is in the process of making an assessment of what the impact of these developments is expected to be in the period of initial application. So far it has concluded that the adoption of them is unlikely to have a significant impact on the consolidated financial statements.

2 SUMMARY OF MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

2.2 Principles of consolidation and equity accounting

(i) Subsidiaries and non-controlling interests

Subsidiaries are entities (including structured entities) controlled by the Group. The Group controls an entity when it is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity. The financial statements of subsidiaries are included in the consolidated financial statements from the date on which control commences until the date on which control ceases.

Intercompany balances and transactions, and any unrealised income and expenses (except for foreign currency transaction gains or losses) arising from intercompany transactions, are eliminated. Unrealised losses resulting from intercompany transactions are eliminated in the same way as unrealised gains, but only to the extent that there is no evidence of impairment.

For each business combination, the Group can elect to measure any non-controlling interests (“NCI”) either at fair value or at the NCI’s proportionate share of the subsidiary’s net identifiable assets. NCI are presented in the consolidated statement of financial position within equity, separately from equity attributable to the equity shareholders of the company. NCI in the results of the Group are presented on the face of the consolidated statement of profit or loss and the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income as an allocation of the total profit or loss and total comprehensive income for the year between NCI and the equity shareholders of the company. Loans from holders of NCI and other contractual obligations towards these holders are presented as financial liabilities in the consolidated statement of financial position depending on the nature of the liability.

Changes in the Group’s interests in a subsidiary that do not result in a loss of control are accounted for as equity transactions.

(ii) Associates

An associate is an entity in which the Group or the Company has significant influence, but not control or joint control, over the financial and operating policies. Investments in associates are accounted for using the equity method of accounting (see (iv) below), after initially being recognised at cost.

Notes to the Financial Statements

(Expressed in Hong Kong dollars unless otherwise indicated)

2 SUMMARY OF MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

2.2 Principles of consolidation and equity accounting (Continued)

(iii) Joint ventures

A joint venture is an arrangement whereby the Group or Company has joint control, whereby the Group or the Company has the rights to the net assets of the arrangement, rather than rights to its assets and obligation for its liabilities.

Investments in joint ventures are accounted for using the equity method (see (iv) below), after initially being recognised at cost.

(iv) Equity accounting

Under the equity method of accounting, the investments are initially recognised at cost and adjusted thereafter to recognise the Group's share of the post-acquisition profits or losses of the investee in profit or loss, and the Group's share of movements in other comprehensive income of the investee in other comprehensive income. Dividends received or receivable from associates and joint ventures are recognised as a reduction in the carrying amount of the investment.

When the Group's share of losses in an equity-accounted investment equals or exceeds its interest in the entity, including any other unsecured long-term receivables, the Group does not recognise further losses, unless it has incurred obligations or made payments on behalf of the other entity.

Unrealised gains arising from transactions with equity-accounted investees are eliminated against the investment to the extent of the Group's interest in the investee. Unrealised losses are eliminated in the same way as unrealised gains, but only to the extent there is no evidence of impairment. Accounting policies of equity accounted investees have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

The carrying amount of equity-accounted investments is tested for impairment in accordance with the policy described in note 2.10.

2.2 Principles of consolidation and equity accounting (Continued)

(v) Changes in ownership interests

The Group treats transactions with non-controlling interests that do not result in a loss of control as transactions with equity owners of the Group. A change in ownership interest results in an adjustment between the carrying amounts of the controlling and non-controlling interests to reflect their relative interests in the subsidiary. Any difference between the amount of the adjustment to non-controlling interests and any consideration paid or received is recognised in a separate reserve within equity attributable to owners of the Company.

When the Group ceases to consolidate or equity account for an investment because of a loss of control, joint control or significant influence, any retained interest in the entity is remeasured to its fair value with the change in carrying amount recognised in profit or loss. This fair value becomes the initial carrying amount for the purposes of subsequently accounting for the retained interest as an associate, joint venture or financial asset. In addition, any amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in respect of that entity are accounted for as if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities. This may mean that amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income are reclassified to profit or loss or transferred to another category of equity as specified/permitted by applicable HKFRS.

If the ownership interest in a joint venture or an associate is reduced but joint control or significant influence is retained, only a proportionate share of the amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income are reclassified to profit or loss where appropriate.

2.3 Separate financial statements

Investments in subsidiaries are accounted for at cost less impairment (see note 2.10). Cost includes direct attributable costs of investment. The results of subsidiaries are accounted for by the Company on the basis of dividend received and receivable.

2 SUMMARY OF MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

2.4 Foreign currency translation

Items included in the financial statements of each of the Group's entities are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates ("the functional currency"). The consolidated financial statements are presented in Hong Kong dollars (HK$), which is the Company's functional currency and the Group's presentation currency.

Foreign currency transactions during the year are translated at the foreign exchange rates ruling at the transaction dates. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the foreign exchange rates ruling at the end of the reporting period. Exchange gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss.

Non-monetary assets and liabilities that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the foreign exchange rates ruling at the transaction dates. The transaction date is the date on which the Group initially recognises such non-monetary assets or liabilities.

The results of foreign operations are translated into Hong Kong dollars at the exchange rates approximating the foreign exchange rates ruling at the dates of the transactions. Statement of financial position items, including goodwill arising on consolidation of foreign operations are translated into Hong Kong dollars at the closing foreign exchange rates at the end of the reporting period. The resulting exchange differences are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated separately in equity in the exchange reserve.

On disposal of a foreign operation, the cumulative amount of the exchange differences relating to that foreign operation is reclassified from equity to profit or loss when the profit or loss on disposal is recognised.

2.5 Property, Plant and equipment

(i) Construction in progress

Construction in progress represents vessels and barges or other property, plant and equipment under construction which is carried at cost less any accumulated impairment losses.

Construction in progress includes construction expenditure incurred, borrowing costs and other direct costs attributable to the construction. On completion, the construction in progress is transferred to appropriate categories of property, plant and equipment. No depreciation is provided for construction in progress.

2.5 Property, Plant and equipment (Continued)

(ii) Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment, including right-of-use assets arising from leases over leasehold properties where the Group is not the registered owner of the property interest and right-of-use assets arising from leases of underlying plant and equipment (see note 2.21), are stated at historical cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses.

Depreciation is calculated to write off the cost or valuation of items of property, plant and equipment, less their estimated residual value, if any, using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives as follows:

Buildings	20 - 50 years
Leasehold improvements	5 - 8 years
Plant and machinery	4 - 15 years
Furniture, fixtures and equipment	3 - 8 years
Motor vehicles	3 - 8 years
Containers	4 - 8 years
Vessels and barges	3 - 15 years
Other properties leased for own use	Over the lease term
Other right-of-use assets leased for own use	Over the lease term

Major costs incurred in restoring the property, plant and equipment and vessels and barges to their normal working condition are charged to the profit or loss. Improvements are capitalised and depreciated over their expected useful lives.

Vessel repairs and survey costs are charged as operating expenses as they are incurred. Vessel component costs include the cost of major components which are usually replaced or renewed at dry-dockings. Dry-docking costs of vessel and the costs incurred in replacing or renewing the separate assets are capitalised and depreciated over the period to the next estimated dry-dock date.

The assets' residual values and useful lives are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at each balance sheet date. An asset's carrying amount is written down immediately to its recoverable amount if the asset's carrying amount is greater than its estimated recoverable amount.

Items may be produced while bringing an item of property, plant and equipment to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management. The proceeds from selling any such items and the related costs are recognised in profit or loss.

Gains and losses on disposals are determined by comparing proceeds with carrying amounts of the assets and are recognised within 'other gains/(losses) - net', in the profit or loss.

(Expressed in Hong Kong dollars unless otherwise indicated)

2 SUMMARY OF MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

2.6 Investment properties

Investment properties are land and/or buildings which are owned or held under a leasehold interest (see note 2.21) to earn rental income and/or for capital appreciation.

Investment properties are stated at historical cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment. Historical cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the items. Depreciation on investment properties is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate their cost to their residual values over their estimated useful lives of 20 to 50 years. Rental income from investment properties is accounted for as described in note 2.19.

2.7 Land use rights

Land use rights represent lease payments for interest in land and are carried at cost less accumulated amortisation and impairment. Amortisation is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate the lease payments over the remaining lease term.

2.8 Intangible assets

(i) Goodwill

Goodwill arises on the acquisition of subsidiaries represents the excess of the consideration transferred, the amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquiree and the acquisition-date fair value of any previous equity interest in the acquiree over the fair value of the identified net assets acquired.

For the purpose of impairment testing, goodwill acquired in a business combination is allocated to each of the cash-generating units ("CGUs"), or groups of CGUs, that is expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination. Each unit or group of units to which the goodwill is allocated represents the lowest level within the entity at which the goodwill is monitored for internal management purposes.

Goodwill impairment reviews are undertaken annually or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate a potential impairment. The carrying value of goodwill is compared to the recoverable amount, which is the higher of value in use and the fair value less costs of sale. Any impairment is recognised immediately as an expense and is not subsequently reversed.

(ii) Software

Costs associated with maintaining software programmes are recognised as an expense as incurred. Development costs that are directly attributable to the design and testing of identifiable and unique software products controlled by the Group are recognised as intangible assets when the following criteria are met:

- it is technically feasible to complete the software so that it will be available for use;
- management intends to complete the software and use or sell it;
- there is an ability to use or sell the software;
- it can be demonstrated how the software will generate probable future economic benefits;
- adequate technical, financial and other resources to complete the development and to use or sell the software are available; and
- the expenditure attributable to the software during its development can be reliably measured.

Directly attributable costs that are capitalised as part of the software include employee costs and an appropriate portion of relevant overheads.

Capitalised development costs are recorded as intangible assets and amortised from the point at which the asset is ready for use.

The Group amortises software with a limited useful life using the straight-line method over 5 - 10 years. Both the period and method of amortisation are reviewed annually.

Notes to the Financial Statements

(Expressed in Hong Kong dollars unless otherwise indicated)

2 SUMMARY OF MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

2.9 Financial assets

(i) Classification

The Group categories financial assets into three principal classification: measured at amortised cost, at fair value through other comprehensive income ("FVOCI") and at fair value through profit or loss ("FVPL"). The classification of financial assets is based on the business model under which the financial asset is managed and its contractual cash flow characteristics.

The Group's financial assets include trade and other receivables (note 16), bank deposits and cash and cash equivalents (note 17) and other financial asset.

(ii) Recognition and measurement

Regular purchases and sales of financial assets are recognised on the trade-date - the date on which the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset. Financial assets are derecognised when the rights to receive cash flows from the investments have expired or have been transferred and the Group has transferred substantially all risks and rewards of ownership. Loans and receivables are subsequently carried at amortised cost using the effective interest method less allowance for credit losses.

2.10 Impairment of investments in subsidiaries, joint ventures, associates and non-financial assets

Assets that have an indefinite useful life, for example, goodwill, are not subject to depreciation/ amortisation and are tested annually for impairment. Other assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs of sale and value in use. For the purposes of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash flows. Non-financial assets other than goodwill that suffered an impairment are reviewed for possible reversal of the impairment at each reporting date.

Impairment testing of the investments in subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates is required upon receiving dividends from these investments if the dividend exceeds the total comprehensive income of the subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates in the period the dividend is declared or if the carrying amount of the investment exceeds the carrying amount of the investee's net assets.

2.11 Trade and other receivables

Trade receivables are amounts due from customers for merchandise sold or services performed in the ordinary course of business when the Group has an unconditional right to receive consideration. If collection of trade and other receivables is expected in one year or less (or in the normal operating cycle of the business if longer), they are classified as current assets. If not, they are presented as non-current assets.

Trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component are initially measured at their transaction price. Trade receivables that contain a significant financing component and other receivables are initially measured at fair value plus transaction costs. All receivables are subsequently stated at amortised cost using the effective interest method and including allowance for credit losses.

The Group assess on a forward-looking basis the expected credit loss associated. The impairment methodology applied depends on whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk. For trade receivables, the Group applied the simplified approach permitted by HKFRS 9, which requires expected credit losses to be recognised from initial recognition of the receivables. Impairment on other receivables is measured as either 12-month expected credit losses or lifetime expected credit loss, depending on whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition. If a significant increase in credit risk of a receivable has occurred since initial recognition, then impairment is measured as lifetime expected credit losses. The amount of the loss allowance is the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows, discounted at the original effective interest rate. The carrying amount of the assets is reduced through the use of an allowance account, and the amount of the loss is recognised in other operating expenses in the statement of profit or loss. When a trade receivable is uncollectible, it is written off against the allowance account for trade receivables. Subsequent recoveries of amount previously written off are credited against other gains/(losses) – net in the consolidated statement of profit or loss.

2.12 Cash and cash equivalents

For the purpose of presentation in the consolidated statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents includes cash on hand, demand deposits with banks and other short-term, highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value, and bank overdrafts. Cash and cash equivalents are assessed for expected credit losses.

Notes to the Financial Statements

(Expressed in Hong Kong dollars unless otherwise indicated)

2 SUMMARY OF MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

2.13 Share capital

Ordinary shares are classified as equity. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares are shown in equity as a deduction, net of tax, from the proceeds.

2.14 Trade payables, accruals and other payables

Trade payables are obligations to pay for goods or services that have been acquired in the ordinary course of business from suppliers. Trade payables and other are classified as current liabilities if payment is due within one year or less (or in the normal operating cycle of the business if longer). If not, they are presented as non-current liabilities.

They are recognised initially at fair value and subsequently stated at amortised cost unless the effect of discounting would be immaterial, in which case they are stated at invoice amounts.

2.15 Borrowings and borrowing costs

Borrowings are recognised initially at fair value, net of transaction costs incurred. Borrowings are subsequently carried at amortised cost; any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the redemption value is recognised in the profit or loss over the period of the borrowings using the effective interest method.

Fees paid on the establishment of loan facilities are recognised as transaction costs of the loan to the extent that it is probable that some or all of the facility will be drawn down. In this case, the fee is deferred until the draw-down occurs. To the extent there is no evidence that it is probable that some or all of the facility will be drawn down, the fee is capitalised as a pre-payment for liquidity services and amortised over the period of the facility to which it relates.

Borrowings are classified as current liabilities unless the Group has an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least twelve months after the end of the reporting period.

General and specific borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets which necessarily takes a substantial period of time to be ready for their intended use or sale, are capitalised as part of the cost of the assets, until such time as the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale. All other borrowing costs are charged to the profit or loss in the financial period in which they are incurred.

2.16 Current and deferred income tax

The income tax expense or credit for the period is the tax payable on the current period's taxable income based on the applicable income tax rate for each jurisdiction adjusted by changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences and to unused tax losses.

(i) Current income tax

The current income tax charge is calculated on the basis of the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period in the countries where the Group's subsidiaries and associates operate and generate taxable income. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulation is subject to interpretation. It establishes provisions where appropriate on the basis of amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities.

(ii) Deferred income tax

Deferred income tax is provided on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the consolidated financial statements. However, deferred tax liabilities are not recognised if they arise from the initial recognition of goodwill. Deferred income tax is also not accounted for if it arises from initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realised or the deferred income tax liability is settled.

Deferred tax assets are recognised only if it is probable that future taxable amount will be available to utilise those temporary differences and losses.

Deferred tax liabilities and assets are not recognised for temporary differences between the carrying amount and tax bases of investments in foreign operations where the Group is able to control the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences and it is probable that the differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets and liabilities and when the deferred tax balances related to the same taxation authority. Current tax assets and tax liabilities are offset where the entity has a legally enforceable right to offset and intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Current and deferred tax is recognised in profit or loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. In this case, the tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

2 SUMMARY OF MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

2.17 Employee benefits

(i) Employee leave entitlements

Employee entitlements to annual leave is recognised when they accrue to employees. A provision is made for the estimated liability for annual leave as a result of services rendered by employees up to the balance sheet date.

Employee entitlements to sick leave and maternity leave are not recognised until the time of leave.

(ii) Retirement benefit obligations

- LSP under the Hong Kong Employment Ordinance

The Group's net obligation in respect of defined benefit plans is calculated separately for each plan by estimating the amount of future benefit that employees have earned in the current and prior periods and discounting that amount. For LSP obligations, the estimated amount of future benefit is determined after deducting the negative service cost arising from the accrued benefits derived from the Group's MPF contributions that have been vested with employees, which are deemed to be contributions from the relevant employees.

The calculation of defined benefit obligation is performed by a qualified actuary using the projected unit credit method.

(iii) Bonus entitlements

The Group recognises a liability and an expense for bonus when the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of services rendered by employees and a reliable estimate of the obligation can be made.

Liabilities for bonus are expected to be settled within twelve months and are measured at the amounts expected to be paid when they are settled.

(iv) Termination benefits

Termination benefits are payable when employment is terminated by the Group before the normal retirement date, or whenever an employee accepts voluntary redundancy in exchange for these benefits. The Group recognises termination benefits when it is demonstrably committed to a termination when the entity has a detailed formal plan to terminate the employment of current employees without possibility of withdrawal. In the case of an offer made to encourage voluntary redundancy, the termination benefits are measured based on the number of employees expected to accept the offer. Benefits falling due more than twelve months after the end of the reporting period are discounted to their present value.

2 SUMMARY OF MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

2.18 Provisions and contingent liabilities

Provisions are recognised when the Group has a legal or constructive obligation arising as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made. Where the time value of money is material, provisions are stated at the present value of the expenditure expected to settle the obligation.

Where it is not probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required, or the amount cannot be estimated reliably, the obligation is disclosed as a contingent liability, unless the probability of outflow of economic benefits is remote. Possible obligations, whose existence will only be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more future events are also disclosed as contingent liabilities unless the probability of outflow of economic benefits is remote.

Where some or all of the expenditure required to settle a provision is expected to be reimbursed by another party, a separate asset is recognised for any expected reimbursement that would be virtually certain. The amount recognised for the reimbursement is limited to the carrying amount of the provision.

2.19 Revenue and other income

Income is classified by the Group as revenue when it arises from the sale of goods, the provision of services or the use by others of the Group's assets under leases in the ordinary course of the Group's business.

Revenue is recognised when control over a product or service is transferred to the customer, or the lessee has the right to use the asset, at the amount of promised consideration to which the Group is expected to be entitled, excluding those amounts collected on behalf of third parties. Revenue excludes value added tax or other sales taxes and is after deduction of any trade discounts.

Further details of the Group's revenue and other income recognition policies are as follows:

(i) Cargo transportation

Revenues from the rendering of services in river trade cargo direct shipment and transshipment are recognised in the financial period in which the services are rendered.

(ii) Cargo handling and storage

Revenues from the rendering of services in river trade wharf cargo handling, cargo consolidation and godown storage and container hauling and trucking are recognised in the financial period in which the services are rendered.

(iii) Passenger transportation agency service

Revenues from passenger transportation agency services are recognised based on net agency fee upon departure of ferries at terminals.

2.19 Revenue and other income (Continued)

(iv) Ferry terminal operation service

Revenues from ferry terminal operation service are recognised based on net ferry terminal operation service fee upon departure of ferries at terminals.

(v) Fare receipts, freight revenue, hiring income, berthing fee, commission, passenger and maintenance services income

Fare receipts, freight revenue, hiring income, berthing fee, commission, passenger services and ferry terminal maintenance services income are recognised when the services are rendered.

(vi) Management service

Revenues from management service are recognised when the service is rendered.

(vii) Interest income

Interest income is recognised using the effective interest method.

(viii) Dividend income

Dividend income is recognised in profit or loss on the date on which the group's right to receive payment is established.

(ix) Rental income and charter hire income

Rental income and charter hire income are recognised on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease.

(x) Oil trading

Revenue from trading of oil are recognised when the customer takes possession of and accepts the goods.

(xi) Marine bunkering services

Revenue from marine bunkering services is recognised when the services are rendered.

(xii) Advertising income

Advertising income is recognised when the related advertisement or commercial appears before the public.

2 SUMMARY OF MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

2.20 Earning per share

(i) Basic earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing the profit attributable to owners of the Company, excluding any costs of servicing equity other than ordinary shares by the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the financial year, adjusted for bonus elements in ordinary shares issued during the year and excluding treasury shares.

(ii) Diluted earnings per share

Diluted earnings per share adjusts the figures used in the determination of basic earnings per share to take into account:

- the after income tax effect of interest and other financing costs associated with dilutive potential ordinary shares, and
- the weighted average number of additional ordinary shares that would have been outstanding assuming the conversion of all dilutive potential ordinary shares.

2.21 Leased assets

At inception of a contract, the Group assesses whether the contract is, or contains, a lease. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. Control is conveyed where the customer has both the right to direct the use of the identified asset and to obtain substantially all of the economic benefits from that use.

(i) As a lessee

At the lease commencement date, the Group recognises a right-of-use asset and a lease liability, except for short-term leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less and leases of low-value assets which, for the Group are primarily barges and offices. When the Group enters into a lease in respect of a low-value asset, the Group decides whether to capitalise the lease on a lease-by-lease basis. The lease payments associated with those leases which are not capitalised are recognised as an expense on a systematic basis over the lease term.

Where the lease is capitalised, the lease liability is initially recognised at the present value of the lease payments payable over the lease term, discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease or, if that rate cannot be readily determined, using a relevant incremental borrowing rate. After initial recognition, the lease liability is measured at amortised cost and interest expense is calculated using the effective interest method. Variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or rate are not included in the measurement of the lease liability and hence are charged to profit or loss in the accounting period in which they are incurred.

(Expressed in Hong Kong dollars unless otherwise indicated)

The right-of-use asset recognised when a lease is capitalised is initially measured at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability plus any lease payments made at or before the commencement date, and any initial direct costs incurred. Where applicable, the cost of the right-of-use assets also includes an estimate of costs to dismantle and remove the underlying asset or to restore the underlying asset or the site on which it is located, discounted to their present value, less any lease incentives received. The right-of-use asset is subsequently stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses (see notes 2.5 and 2.10).

The initial fair value of refundable rental deposits is accounted for separately from the right-of-use assets and subsequently stated at amortised cost. Any difference between the initial fair value and the nominal value of the deposits is accounted for as additional lease payments made and is included in the cost of right-of-use assets.

The lease liability is remeasured when there is a change in future lease payments arising from a change in an index or rate, or there is a change in the Group's estimate of the amount expected to be payable under a residual value guarantee, or there is a change arising from the reassessment of whether the Group will be reasonably certain to exercise a purchase, extension or termination option. When the lease liability is remeasured in this way, a corresponding adjustment is made to the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset, or is recorded in profit or loss if the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset has been reduced to zero.

The lease liability is also remeasured when there is a change in the scope of a lease or the consideration for a lease that is not originally provided for in the lease contract ("lease modification") that is not accounted for as a separate lease. In this case the lease liability is remeasured based on the revised lease payments and lease term using a revised discount rate at the effective date of the modification.

In the consolidated statement of financial position, the current portion of long-term lease liabilities is determined as the present value of contractual payments that are due to be settled within twelve months after the reporting period.

(ii) As a lessor

When the Group acts as a lessor, it determines at lease inception whether each lease is a finance lease or an operating lease. A lease is classified as a finance lease if it transfers substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to the ownership of an underlying assets to the lessee. If this is not the case, the lease is classified as an operating lease.

The rental income from operating leases is recognised in accordance with note 2.19.

2 SUMMARY OF MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

2.22 Dividend distribution

Provision is made for the amount of any dividend declared, being appropriately authorised and no longer at the discretion of the entity, on or before the end of the reporting period but not distributed at the end of the reporting period.

2.23 Government grants

Grants from the government are recognised at their fair value where there is a reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and the Group will comply with all attached conditions.

Government grants relating to costs are deferred and recognised in the profit or loss over the period necessary to match them with the costs that they are intended to compensate.

Government grants relating to property, plant and equipment are included in non-current liabilities as deferred government grants and are credited to the profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the expected lives of the related assets.

2.24 Inventories and spare parts

Inventories are assets which are held for sale in the ordinary course of business, in the process of production for such sale or in the form of materials or supplies to be consumed in the production process or in the rendering of services.

Inventories and spare parts are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost is determined using the first-in, first-out method. Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less applicable variable selling expenses.

2.25 Segment reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision-maker. The chief operating decision-maker, who is responsible for allocating resources and assessing performance of the operating segments, has been identified as the executive directors of the Company that makes strategic decisions.

3.1 FINANCIAL RISK FACTORS

The Group's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks: market risk (including foreign exchange risk and interest rate risk), credit risk and liquidity risk. The Group's overall risk management program focuses on the unpredictability of financial markets and seeks to minimise potential adverse effects on the Group's financial performance.

(a) Market risk

(i) Foreign exchange risk

The Group mainly operates in Hong Kong and the People's Republic of China ("PRC") and is exposed to foreign exchange risk primarily through sales and purchases which give rise to receivables, payables and cash balances that are denominated in a foreign currency, i.e. a currency other than the functional currency of the operations to which the transactions relate. The currencies giving rise to this risk are Renminbi, Hong Kong dollar and United States dollar. The Group continuously monitors its foreign currency position and will consider hedging significant foreign currency exposure by using foreign exchange forward contracts when the need arises.

The Group has certain investments in foreign operations, whose net assets are exposed to foreign currency translation risk.

At 31 December 2023, if Hong Kong dollar had weakened or strengthened by 5% against the Renminbi with all other variables held constant, profit after income tax for the year of the Group would have been HK$431,000 (2022: HK$4,640,000) higher or lower respectively, mainly as a result of foreign exchange gains on translation of bank balances, receivable and payable balances denominated in a foreign currency.

Under the Linked Exchange Rate System in Hong Kong, Hong Kong dollar is pegged to the United States dollar. Therefore the Group does not expose to significant foreign exchange risk in respect of its assets and liabilities denominated in United State dollar.

(ii) Interest rate risk

The Group's amount due to the non-controlling interest, bank balances and bank borrowings bear interest at floating rates which expose the Group to cash flow interest rate risk. The Group's exposure to these risks and the financial risk management policies and practices used by the Group to manage these risks are described below.

At 31 December 2023, if interest rates on financial assets had been 100 basis points higher or lower with all other variables held constant, profit after income tax and retained profits for the year of the Group would have been HK$8,231,000 (2022: HK$8,620,000) higher or lower respectively, mainly as a result of higher or lower finance income from floating rate loan to a joint venture and bank balances.

At 31 December 2023, if interest rates on financial liabilities had been 100 basis points higher or lower with all other variables held constant, profit after income tax for the year of the Group would have been HK$3,709,000 (2022: HK$2,144,000) lower or higher respectively mainly as a result of higher or lower finance cost from floating rate bank borrowings and amounts due to the non-controlling interests.

The Group currently does not have a hedging policy on interest rate exposure. However, management monitors interest rate exposure and will consider hedging significant interest rate exposure if necessary.

(b) Credit risk

Credit risk refers to the risk that a counterparty will default on its contractual obligations, resulting in a financial loss to the Group. The Group's credit risk is primarily attributable to trade and other receivables, bank deposits, cash and cash equivalents and loan to a joint venture.

The Group does not provide any guarantees which would expose the Group to credit risk.

For bank deposits and cash and cash equivalents, a substantial portion of the Group's bank balances and deposits were placed with PRC state-owned banks which have sound credit ratings. Management considers the credit risk is low.

(i) Trade and other receivables

The Group's exposure to credit risk is influenced mainly by the individual characteristics of each customer rather than the industry or country in which the customers operate and therefore significant concentrations of credit risk primarily arise when the Group has significant exposure to individual customers. There is no concentration of credit risk with respect to trade and other receivables as the Group has a large number of customers which are widely dispersed. No individual third party customers accounted for more than 10% of the Group's revenue.

The Group has established a credit risk management policy under which individual credit evaluations are performed on all customers requiring credit over a certain amount. These evaluations focus on the customer's past history of making payments when due and current ability to pay, and take into account information specific to the customer as well as pertaining to the economic environment in which the customer operates. Trade receivables are due within seven days to three months from the date of billing. Normally, the Group does not obtain collateral from customers.

Notes to the Financial Statements

(Expressed in Hong Kong dollars unless otherwise indicated)

(b) Credit risk (Continued)

The Group measures loss allowances for trade and other receivables at an amount equal to lifetime expected credit losses, which is calculated using a provision matrix. As the Group's historical credit loss experience does not indicate significantly different loss patterns for different customer segments, the loss allowance based on past due status is not further distinguished between the Group's different customer bases. The Group considered that there is no significant loss allowance recognised in accordance with HKFRS 9 as at 31 December 2023 and 31 December 2022, and no expected credit loss rate has therefore been disclosed.

Movement in the loss allowance account in respect of trade receivables during the year is as follows:

	2023 HK$'000	2022 HK$'000
Balance at 1 January	8,081	2,169
Amounts written off during the year	(27)	(550)
Reversal of impairment losses	(1,681)	(1,131)
Impairment losses recognised during the year	2,061	7,593
Balance at 31 December	8,434	8,081

(ii) Credit risk arising from loan to a joint venture

Loan to a joint venture was granted taken into account of their financial position, past experience and other factors. The Group monitored the credibility of the joint venture continuously by monitoring the operation and financial position of the joint venture and considered that the credit risk arising from the loan was insignificant.

Notes to the Financial Statements

(Expressed in Hong Kong dollars unless otherwise indicated)

(c) Liquidity risk

Prudent liquidity risk management implies maintaining sufficient cash, the availability of funding through an adequate amount of committed credit facilities. The Group aims to maintain flexibility in funding by maintaining available committed credit lines.

The table below analyses the Group's financial liabilities which will be settled into relevant maturity groupings based on the remaining period at the balance sheet to the contractual maturity date. The amounts disclosed in the table are the contractual undiscounted cash flows.

3.2 CAPITAL RISK MANAGEMENT

Capital represents the total equity as shown in the consolidated statement of financial position.

The Group's objectives when managing capital are to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern in order to provide returns for shareholders and benefits for other stakeholders and to maintain an optimal capital structure to reduce the cost of capital.

In order to maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group may adjust the amount of dividends paid to shareholders, return capital to shareholders, issue new shares or sell assets to reduce short-term and long-term borrowings.

There were no changes in the management's approach to capital management of the Group during the year. Neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries are subject to externally imposed capital requirements.

3.3 FAIR VALUE ESTIMATION

The carrying values less impairment loss (if applicable) of financial assets (including bank deposit and cash and cash equivalents) and the carrying values of financial liabilities with maturities within twelve months from the end of the reporting period are reasonable approximation of their fair values.

The financial instruments are measured in the statement of financial position at fair values and disclosed under the following fair value measurement hierarchy:

- Level 1: Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active market for identical assets and liabilities;
- Level 2: Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the assets and liability, either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices); and
- Level 3: Inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (i.e. unobservable inputs).

Notes to the Financial Statements

(Expressed in Hong Kong dollars unless otherwise indicated)

3.3 FAIR VALUE ESTIMATION (Continued)

At 31 December 2023 and 31 December 2022, the financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income of the Group were categorised Level 3 and the fair values were summarised as follows:

	2023
	Level 1 HK$'000	Level 2 HK$'000	Level 3 HK$'000	Total HK$'000
Assets
Financial asset at FVOCI	–	–	2,992	2,992

	2022

Assets
Financial asset at FVOCI	–	–	2,992	2,992

During the year ended 31 December 2023 and 2022, there were no transfers between the levels.

4 CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES AND JUDGEMENTS

Estimates and judgements are continually evaluated and are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

The Group makes estimates and assumptions concerning the future. The resulting accounting estimates will, by definition, seldom equal to the related actual results. The estimates and assumptions that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in future financial periods are stated below.

Notes to the Financial Statements

(Expressed in Hong Kong dollars unless otherwise indicated)

4 CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES AND JUDGEMENTS (Continued)

(i) Impairment assessment of property, plant and equipment, land use rights, software and goodwill

The Group's property, plant and equipment, land use rights, software and goodwill which primarily attributable to cargo handling and storage segment, amounted to HK$2,541,561,000 as at 31 December 2023. Management has performed impairment assessment on these assets based on the policies set out below.

The Group tests annually whether goodwill has suffered any impairment, in accordance with the accounting policy stated in note 2.8. Determining whether goodwill is impaired requires an estimation of the recoverable amounts of CGUs to which goodwill has been allocated. The recoverable amounts of CGUs have been determined based on value-in-use calculations.

According to the accounting policies stated in notes 2.10 and note 2.8, property, plant and equipment, land use rights and software are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. Management judgement is required in the area of asset impairment particularly in assessing (i) whether any events including changes in government policies has occurred that may indicate that the related asset value may not be recoverable; (ii) whether the carrying value of an asset can be supported by the recoverable amount, being the higher of fair value less costs of sale or net present value of future cash flows which are estimated based upon the continued use of the asset in the business; and (iii) the appropriate key assumptions to be applied in preparing cash flow projections including revenue growth rates and discount rates.

The key assumptions applied in the cash flow projections of value-in-use calculations are revenue growth rates and discount rates and are set out in note 10.

(ii) Loss allowance for trade and other receivables

Management measures the loss allowance for expected credit losses of trade and other receivables based on the credit history of its customers, the current market situation and forecasts of future economic conditions. Management will reassess the estimations at each the end of each reporting period.

5 REVENUE AND SEGMENT INFORMATION

Revenue consists of revenues from cargo transportation, cargo handling and storage, passenger transportation, fuel supply and corporate and other businesses.

	2023 HK$'000	2022 HK$'000
Revenue from contracts with customers within the scope of HKFRS 15

Fuel supply	351,464	134,306
Corporate and other businesses	24,580	23,792
	2,553,835	2,899,545

The chief operating decision-maker has been identified as the executive directors of the Company, which reviews the Group's internal reporting in order to assess performance and allocate resources. Management has determined the operating segments based on these reports.

The executive directors of the Company consider the business from service perspectives and assess the performance of the Group and its joint ventures and associates which are organised into five main businesses:

- (i) Cargo transportation - Shipping agency, river trade cargo direct shipment and transshipment and container handling and trucking
- (ii) Cargo handling and storage - Wharf cargo and container handling, cargo consolidation and godown storage
- (iii) Passenger transportation - Passenger transportation agency services, travel agency operation and passenger carrier service and provision of ferry services and charter hire of vessels services
- (iv) Fuel supply - Oil trading and marine bunkering service
- (v) Corporate and other businesses - Investment holding and other businesses

The executive directors of the Company assess the performance of the operating segments based on their segment profit before income tax expense, which is measured in a manner consistent with that in the consolidated financial statements.

Sales between segments are carried out on terms equivalent to those that prevail with third parties. The revenue from external parties reported to the executive directors of the Company is measured in a manner consistent with that in the consolidated statement of profit or loss.
