To the Shareholders

Dear Sir or Madam,

MAJOR TRANSACTION
FACTORING AGREEMENT

1. INTRODUCTION

Reference is made to the announcement of the Company dated 20 June 2024 in respect of the major transaction under the Factoring Agreement entered into between South China Leasing and the Financing Bank.

The purpose of this circular is to provide you with, among other things, (i) details in relation to the Factoring Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereunder; and (ii) other information required under the Listing Rules.

* For identification purpose only

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

2. THE FACTORING AGREEMENT

The Board hereby announces that on 20 June 2024 (after trading hours), South China Leasing (an indirect non-wholly owned subsidiary of the Company) entered into the Factoring Agreement with the Financing Bank, pursuant to which South China Leasing may apply to transfer the creditor's rights and benefits of the Accounts Receivables, with book value of no more than RMB200 million (equivalent to approximately HK$215.4 million), to the Financing Bank, and the Financing Bank may receive such creditor's rights and benefits of the Accounts Receivables and provide South China Leasing with non-revolving Factoring Funds of no more than RMB200 million (equivalent to approximately HK$215.4 million).

The salient terms of the Factoring Agreement are set out as follows:

Date

20 June 2024

Parties

- (1) South China International Leasing Co., Ltd.* (南方國際租賃有限公司), an indirect non-wholly owned subsidiary of the Company; and
- (2) Meizhou Hakka Bank Co., Ltd.* (梅州客商銀行股份有限公司)

To the best of the Directors' knowledge, information and belief upon making all reasonable enquiries, the Financing Bank and its ultimate beneficial owners are all independent third parties of the Company and its connected persons (as defined under the Listing Rules).

Financing Term

Financing term under the Factoring Agreement shall be one (1) year from the Effective Date. The Factoring Funds are available from the Effective Date to 7 July 2025, being one (1) year from the Effective Date.

Transfer of the Accounts Receivables and the provision of Factoring Funds

South China Leasing may apply to transfer the creditor's rights and benefits of the Accounts Receivables, with book value of no more than RMB200 million (equivalent to approximately HK$215.4 million), to the Financing Bank, and the Financing Bank may receive such creditor's rights and benefits of the Accounts Receivables and provide South China Leasing with non-revolving Factoring Funds of no more than RMB200 million (equivalent to approximately HK$215.4 million).

In selection of the Accounts Receivables to be transferred, the Accounts Receivables deriving from old customers of South China Leasing and those having a remaining lease term of around one (1) year will be the choice of priority.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

The Factoring Funds Limit

Pursuant to the Factoring Agreement, the Financing Bank agreed to grant a funding limit of RMB200 million (equivalent to approximately HK$215.4 million) to South China Leasing, and South China Leasing is entitled to apply for the transfer(s) of the Accounts Receivables to the Financing Bank for obtaining the Factoring Funds (via one tranche or various tranches) within the funding limit from the Financing Bank.

The Consideration of Accounts Receivables for the provision of Factoring Funds

The amount of the Accounts Receivables to be transferred by South China Leasing to the Financing Bank and the amount of Factoring Funds to be provided to South China Leasing by the Financing Bank will be on a dollar-for-dollar basis. In other words, the discount rate applying to the book value of the Accounts Receivables for the provision of the Factoring Funds from the Financing Bank is zero.

The consideration of the Accounts Receivables payable under the Factoring Agreement was determined on arm's length negotiations between the Group and the Financing Bank with reference to, among other things, the book value of the Accounts Receivables, the nature of the Accounts Receivables to be provided by the Group and the terms of the Factoring Agreement.

Type of Factoring

No recourse right is attached. If the debtor in respect of the Accounts Receivables fails to fully repay the relevant Accounts Receivables within the agreed time limit due to credit issues, the Financing Bank has no recourse for a claim against South China Leasing in respect of the outstanding payment.

Transfer of the Accounts Receivables

Pursuant to the Factoring Agreement, if South China Leasing decides to obtain Factoring Funds from the Financing Bank, it shall submit an application with relevant information in respect of the relevant Accounts Receivables to the Financing Bank for approval. Subject to the assessment by and the approval of the application at the discretion of the Financing Bank, South China Leasing shall transfer the creditor's rights and benefits of the relevant Accounts Receivables to the Financing Bank, and the Financing Bank shall receive the creditor's rights and benefits of the relevant Accounts Receivables and provide Factoring Funds to South China Leasing within 7 days after receiving the transfer of the relevant Accounts Receivables from South China Leasing.

Nature of the Accounts Receivables to be transferred

The Accounts Receivables consist of the lease payment of RMB200 million (equivalent to approximately HK$215.4 million) with interest rate of approximately 10% per annum to be received by South China Leasing from its customers in relation to its 3C Products finance-leasing services.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

Conditions Precedent

The Factoring Agreement shall be effective upon the following conditions: (i) Shareholders' approval being obtained to approve the Factoring Agreement pursuant to the requirement of the Listing Rules; and (ii) all necessary consents and approvals relating to the Factoring Agreement and its performance having been obtained by South China Leasing.

USE OF THE FACTORING FUNDS

The Group intends to use the Factoring Funds received under the Factoring Agreement for the operation of its finance leasing business in respect of 3C Products.

FINANCIAL EFFECT OF THE FACTORING AGREEMENT

For accounting purposes, immediately after the transfer of the Accounts Receivables from South China Leasing to the Financing Bank pursuant to the Factoring Agreement, the relevant Accounts Receivables will cease to be recognised as accounts receivables of South China Leasing.

Given the amount of the Accounts Receivables to be transferred by South China Leasing to the Financing Bank and the amount of Factoring Funds to be provided to South China Leasing by the Financing Bank will be on a dollar-for-dollar basis, assuming the Factoring Funds to be fully utilised, the Group will record an increase of cash of RMB200 million (equivalent to approximately HK$215.4 million) and a decrease of accounts receivables of RMB200 million (equivalent to approximately HK$215.4 million) respectively, and hence there will not be any gain or loss recognised in the Group's financial statement as a result of the Factoring Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereunder.

REASONS AND BENEFITS FOR ENTERING INTO THE FACTORING AGREEMENT

The Board believes that the Factoring Agreement and the transaction contemplated thereunder will help (i) revitalise the Group's assets; (ii) control its risk of accounts receivables; (iii) reduce its amount of accounts receivables so as to optimise its asset structure; and (iv) increase the Group's liquidity and improve its asset efficiency and financial condition, thereby optimising its financial statements. Furthermore, it will help further expand financing channels of the Group and increase the Group's funding sources for its future business development.

The terms of the Factoring Agreement were agreed between the Group and the Financing Bank after arm's length negotiation, with reference to the prevailing commercial practice for factoring finance in the PRC. As such, the Directors (including the independent non-executive Directors) are of the view that the terms of the Factoring Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereunder are on normal commercial terms, are fair and reasonable and in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD
